

Bathtub Fantasies

Bedtime Journey's

Introduction

It is in my heart to help you to have a spiritual experience. I will use the tools of old, poetry, parables, art, and symbols. These things talk to our early morning fog, that place where the heart and the mind can travel.

The land of spirit.

In all books that are truly super natural, you will find three levels.

1-That which is up front, the words you read and what they say.

2-Symbology. Take for instance, "The lord is my rock". (2nd Samuel 22:2)

If you replace the word rock with the word truth, it makes more sense, so you must read the book many times to get the second step.

3-The third step is much more difficult. For the third step, you must have a spiritual experience to understand what it's talking about. Again, lets look at an example, Jesus said, "I am the living water". (John 4:14) This is a beautiful experience where you feel electric water that flows through your whole body.

Therefore, we flow through life like a river. A leaf trapped in space and time, falling through the cycles and circles of our great adventures, you, and I. As we fell, you were stuck, and as I passed by, I knocked you loose. Then I was stuck, and you saved my life. What a joy this great love affair, you and I. Could you ask for any more?

*Spiritual truth cannot be written.
But remembering will recreate itself.*

Wish

*Summer
Laying in the grass
Looking up
Blue sky, with fluffy white clouds
Seeing images in the clouds
You make a wish
A wish that you will recognize a lie
Even when you want to believe it
Knowing the truth when you don't want to believe it.*

*By the power invested in me, I pronounce your wish come true.
A special wish, just for you.*

*Dark of winter
Wind
Snow
Lost
Alone*

It will be the light in the window that will guide you home. You'll want to give it to your children. You'll want to give it to your friends. But it cannot be spoken; it must be seen. Lay your hands on your grand children.

Old and gray, you'll leave the wish, and slip away.

The Great Dreamer

The Great Dreamer dreamed and said; "I will create myself and multiply". You and I were made, and the Great Dreamer said, "If you will dream you will be just like me for I am pure love, and in your dream you will have a chance to love and create even as I love and create. You do not have to dream! However, if you do, you'll experience the power of the opposites: Time, Space, Name, and Number. They'll become your teachers and you'll forget the great oneness that you are. For we are one and I cannot leave you. For I cannot leave myself. I will always be with you."

"But I'll be in all the dreamers in your dream. You'll all have nightmares and you must help each other through the darkest night. "

So, we dream! And when we wake up and return, all the evil that we dreamed will fade away, for it did not exist, and all the love that we gave away will become our crown.

So let us try to remember! And love one another. For we are the face of God that we look for in our dream.

Love is all that is real.

God is Love.

James 1:17-18

Fire of the Heart

Once again I struggle to write something hidden behind the lines. I draw to make a picture that touches the hidden man in your heart, to carry you inward, to the mirror of your deeper self.

I get out of the way and let the wind blow through me, to make the shadows real. The voice of mother and Father calling to you.

I am pregnant once again to give life to something that can't be said with words.

To draw pictures of something that can't be seen.

"Music from the Mountaintop". Mountains are lonely places, and all I hear are my own echoes.

I find the remains of a fireplace, and know that I must start the fire once again, "The Fire of the Heart".

Kingdom Attitude

All that is, is thought. It is your thoughts that are eternal. A "Right Heart Attitude" is the living word of God.

It has eternal life in it. "Wrong Heart Attitudes" have no eternal life in them, for they are nothing, if your life is made up of them, you are poor in eternal life. What does it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

It's one thing to know about a "Right Heart Attitude", but the power comes when it is a truth and a part of the heart, learned through pain and suffering.

When the fire of life has burned all the straw, (All of the "Wrong Heart Attitudes") and changed them to gold, (or "Right Heart Attitudes"). That is walking in the Kingdom now.

You must pass between the two masters, Love, and Forgiveness, The Savior Anointed, or The Teacher, and The Disciplinarian.

Praise God, for your life is a story that you are writing. Be sure to give it a happy ending, for heaven and hell are right here and now.

Walking in the Kingdom

Quickly now tell me the secrets of your years of study! For I must be off down the road of life. Very well, which is greater, an artist or a serial killer? One of beauty, one of death, both has passion deep inside their chest. Their desire "Set the House A Fire" and the cold ashes through our fingers say, "I just don't want to pass this way again, pain bring change my friend".

The first-born thought must descend for you to ascend. Does not nature, that goddess of beauty and delight, say? "Kill and eat for something must die to give you life. Sacrifice! Sacrifice"! From mumbled chanting, to bear gods in darken caves, to temples of golden grandeur, nothings changed, same old story different names.

Life is a movie being played, each picture past the here and now like a chain, go to the graveyards read the names. Do what you love and love what you do. Love thy neighbor as thyself, the face of God, and nowhere else. All thoughts are circles, meaning that which goes out will come back again. Pray good for your enemies, make a way for your escape. The one thing we hate the most, to judge no one else, but ourselves. "Truth be a light to me, open up my eyes and let me see". You can only travel deep within, if this torch is in your hand. First you must have the revelation, then the words of the mystics become clear.

If you steal, you are saying there is not enough in the world. If you give, you are saying there is more than enough. For we all create God in our own image. Those who say it's "Us Four and no more" have cut themselves off. God sets down the proud and raises up the humble.

The four worlds of man: (1) The needs of spirit - the beloved beholding the beloved. The outcome, thy Kingdom come. (2) The needs of the emotions - love, security, recognition, and adventure. The outcome, too, stir the will. (3) The needs of the mind - to plan, visualize, and create. The outcome, action. (4) The needs of the body, health, wealth, and offspring. The outcome, manifestation.

The Prince of the Golden Sun beholds the beauty of the Goddess of the Moon and would lay down his life to touch her. The emotions flood the mind like a raging storm to resist the futile. The mind must obey. The body throbs, for these four worlds are a raging storm on the inside and out.

Don't make big promises, for if you do you will be tested, simply say, yes or no.

Never speak your fears or that which you don't want.

Fear is a negative faith.

Self-pity is an "Ugly Club" with which to beat yourself.

Remembering recreates itself.

Separation from The Oneness is an illusion. Overcoming the illusion of separation is the reward of eternal life. The beginning of enlightenment is becoming aware of all the voices within and without. The stars in your head and the stars in the sky. When the face of God and the face of man turn toward each other, and all that is, is filled with the love of reunion.
