Introduction

This third volume of Faeries, Angels, Indians and Aliens continues the factual account of encounters with interdimensional beings which my wife Marjorie and I have enjoyed since 1993. Previous volumes have described a variety of benevolent beings who spoke through Marjorie and assisted us in our attempts, using hypnosis, to help her overcome the traumatic effects of a lifetime of human abuses. Numerous paranormal events associated with their presence were also described. The Main Characters list found herein briefly identifies the primary entities who channeled through Marjorie during the time period encompassed by Volume Three.

In this volume, Nucleus 8, Chief of Security for a vast interdimensional alliance, develops major self doubts and emotional distress due to his failure to prevent homicidal attacks on Marjorie and Sarah, a Teglinlin whose conscious mind inhabited her body, and due to emerging memories of torturous conditioning he received as a cadet in training. His distress interferes with his ability to perform his critically important duties, causing him to live with us until his equilibrium is restored, leaving his second in command in charge.

To the consternation of the Board of Twelve, Sarah refuses to join their ranks as expected. Marjorie receives extensive treatments by extraterrestrial physicians for serious illnesses and injuries. Nucleus 8 experiences a highly ambivalent, aborted relationship with a human female. Rapsar's spirit directs us to the location of several of Tanner's stones in Newfoundland which, when interpreted, reveal ancient involvement of extraterrestrials with Native Americans and Vikings and other events. The Creator causes a universal shift felt as a brief physical shudder everywhere on Earth; it will cause positive energies to gradually overwhelm negative energies in all the universes.

Marjorie, Sarah, Nucleus 8 and I are repeatedly protected from efforts of the dark forces, intent on gaining power over the Alliance, to destroy us. One of them encourages a group of humans to use psychic powers to alter Nucleus 8's implant codes, which causes the death of many linked ETs. A subsequent investigation leads to the arrest and punishment of hordes of rebels in key positions within the Alliance. The U.S. military also zeroes in on Nucleus 8's electromagnetic signature and narrowly misses killing him on one of his trips to Earth, greatly frightening him and forcing him to hide out with us until an effective "cloak" can be found.

Nucleus 8 meets our earthly friend Isabel, and helps her to discover that she has an exalted, alternative identity in his dimension. After thousands of years of separation, he joins his human father and meets his brother for the first time on the slowly dying planet where they live. Nucleus 8 supervises its revitalization through Alliance technologies and personnel.

Our interdimensional family is expanded by accepting the spirit of a Native American baby in a cave where Tanner once lived at Tsankawi Ruins, within Bandelier National Monument. Didiwahtay had died, along with his parents and most of his band, of an incurable white man's disease. Like our Teglinlin children, he quickly develops into an independent spirit, and loves to fly within the bodies of various birds.

Marjorie and I continue to enjoy facilitating the growth of all the entities entrusted to our care, finding that we are also growing through our contact with them. We remain very grateful that our Creator has given us the opportunity of knowing, loving, and collaborating with such magnificent and benevolent beings.

Acknowledgements

First, last, and always, I must thank my heavenly Father for guiding me to write these five volumes. It was His work which inspired me and His deeds that I wished to write about. Because of His answer to my prayers, I met and married the extraordinary Marjorie Ann. Through her love of God and all of His creatures, and her willingness to set her consciousness aside so that others might speak through her, she provided the incredible experiences revealed in these volumes. For a period of over fifteen years I was blessed to share in the beautiful Light of this Chosen Vessel of I AM. Her highly developed abilities to channel and to contain and embrace the spirits of the deceased as well as the consciousness of physical beings in other dimensions are matched by only a handful of others on Earth,

The disembodied spirits we encountered through Marjorie's talents are greatly appreciated for sharing their hopes and aspirations with us. Knowing that they exist and care about the fate of endangered humanity makes my life much more hopeful. Their wisdom will be needed as environmental conditions on Mother Earth continue to deteriorate due to human excesses.

I am also very grateful to our extraterrestrial friends and family members who allowed me to write their stories and tell others about their loving natures. Many of them have the same emotional needs we have. There are too many to name here, but all are precious to us.

I thank our angelic friends and guides for their dedication to I AM and for placing the steps the Creator decreed before us. They constantly reminded me to look to I AM for guidance and solutions to my problems and to put my doubts aside and leave them there. Their love is irreplaceable.

I also owe a debt of gratitude to the many humans who helped us along our path, also too numerous to list here. I hope we had the same kind of positive effects on their lives as they had on ours.

Many thanks to my son Chris, the family software expert, who spent patient hours explaining to his computer illiterate father how to use the tool that could spread the word around the world and who spent many hours creating book covers and text formats worthy of publication.

Finally I wish to acknowledge pioneers in the field of spirit-mind-body interactions who inspired me to pursue the use of biofeedback, relaxation training, hypnosis and healing energy in psychotherapy: Drs. Elmer and Alice Green, Dr. Norman Shealy, Dr. Milton Erikson, Dr. Winifred Lucas, Dr. John Mack, and the incomparable Olga Worrall. Their examples encouraged me to use the techniques which ultimately led to the creation of these volumes.

Main Characters

Perithnea: Marjorie's protective faery queen who agreed to be adopted into our family, and provided guidance and protection with a sense of humor.

Alta Sha: Marjorie's guardian angel, messenger of God, advisor and friend, who placed the steps the Creator wanted us to take before us and educated us in spiritual matters.

Metatron (aka Light Mother): An Archangel of unimaginable power who watched over and loved Marjorie from early childhood, Overseer of experimental medical procedures to cure the earthly incurable, beloved companion, and much, much more.

Adam: Another faery child who agreed to be adopted by us and who volunteered to work within the extraterrestrial Alliance, establishing a precedent which led to his high placement within their society and the similar involvement of many other faeries

Nucleus 8: A human/extraterrestrial hybrid born in Egypt in the year 2713 B.C., during the construction of the pyramids at Giza. Supreme Lord of Security for the vast, multidimensional Universal Alliance Federation which includes hundreds of thousands of galaxies and thousands of civilizations. His two brainstems enable him to monitor events in six dimensions simultaneously. He has been dedicated to protecting and mentoring Marjorie from early childhood and became a trusted friend and informal family member.

Marjorie (a.k.a. Star One): Wife of the author and extraordinary channel within whose love interdimensional beings found shelter and a voice that could be heard by humans. A target of dark forces because of her crucial role in assisting the Alliance, she has suffered greatly for the benefit of humanity and our interdimensional friends.

Sarah: An abused but rescued Teglinlin child destined for greatness who was brought to us to overcome her distrust of strangers. She resisted the Alliance's plans to make her a member of the governing Board, choosing instead to become an apprentice angel.

Joshua: Sarah's affectionate older brother and protector who became Adam's friend and quickly assumed the role of horticulturist within the Alliance. He chose us to be his loving surrogate parents.

Joseph: The very sweet and loving infant brother of Sarah and Joshua who was also brought to us for nurturing and protection from his abusive parents.

22: A member of the small gray species and Chief of the Medical Unit at Alliance headquarters, who participated in several medical procedures for treatment of injuries and illnesses of several primary characters.

Regenc 4: A member of the governing Board of Twelve of the Alliance and Nucleus 8's superior at the time we first met.

Mi: A brown wood sprite fond of making noises, moving things around, and tickling people, who became a frequent companion to the author in his work.

Tanner (a.k.a. Asalara, Reaches for Fire in the Sky, Softener of Skins, One Who Sees by the Red Moon at Night, Board Member, Position 9): A pure energy being capable of assuming any physical form who manifested on Earth as an ancient Ute' Indian shaman. He sent us on long journeys in search of his sacred teaching stones. Aided by us, he experienced a dramatic healing during a spiritual journey to the Red Moon.

Rapsar: A friend of Vikings and the deceased pilot of a sabotaged interdimensional craft which crashed hundreds of years ago on the west Spanish Peak in southern Colorado. He helped us find a unique, powerful, recording stone in Newfoundland of extraterrestrial origin.

Donna (a pseudonym): A contactee who remembered the crash of a UFO centuries ago on a sacred peak in Colorado and channeled the spirit of Rapsar, its pilot, enabling him to resume contact with Clairetrinia, his still-living mate, and Nucleus 8.

Ivy: A green faery, Perithnea's friend, who loved Donna's cats and provided physical evidence of her existence.

Candace (a pseudonym): A gifted but very ambivalent psychic who for a time became Nucleus 8's human girlfriend, interpreted Tanner's stones and Anasazi petroglyphs, and foretold the future.

John: Candace's dark spirit guide, who, through guile and flattery, subverted her talents for his own purposes, and diluted her effectiveness.

Victoria: A nine year old child whose beautiful spirit entered Marjorie at Williamsburg, Virginia, where she and her mother were unjustly hanged in colonial times. She quickly evolved to provide loving companionship to Nucleus 8, the author, and all others who encountered her.

Tesar: Member of the Board of Twelve and close friend of Nucleus 8, whose maverick and upsetting behavior often held an initially concealed but important message. Sarah learned valuable lessons in judgment and self determination from his practical jokes.

Didiwahtay: An infant Native American spirit given to us for parenting by Tanner who learned to enjoy flying with crows, hawks, and vultures and to paint beautiful pictures.

Wachitique (a.k.a. Washi): Reptilian hybrid child of Star One and Ragor, the interdimensional counterparts of Marjorie and Rex in Nucleus 8's dimension. He had difficulty speaking through Marjorie due to anatomical differences, but was and is very affectionate.

Isabel (a.k.a. Shadow): Healer, psychic, instructor, Good Samaritan, and friend to Nucleus 8, Rex and Marjorie. Through hypnosis with Nucleus 8's help, she discovered her important identity in his dimension.

Amy (a pseudonym): An angel in disguise with whom Nucleus 8 formed a loving attachment. She demonstrated amazing psychic talents.

Nelda (a pseudonym): A woman with strong psychic abilities who joined Nucleus 8's group of selected humans. Tanner channeled through her, giving instructions to the group, which led to conflict with Nucleus 8.

Guy (a pseudonym): A Member of Nuke's group with whom he had several private sessions.
