INTRODUCTION

Energy Beings from our Home Dimension incarnate into the created lower Physical Dimension known to humans as the Universe. Within this universe (created physical matter) is located the planet Earth, which is just one of many inhabited planets therein.

In order for the majority of Energy Beings to come and experience this created hologram, they must be cloaked in a physical body in order to dwell within the confines of this illusionistic world.

In order for these ‘simulated’ lifetimes to seem real and genuine, the Energy Being’s collective memory is temporarily suspended while they play out their chosen life events in the human form.

These lifetimes help the Energy Being to advance and grow spiritually for its own personal development and that of the Original Source, Intelligent Energyism, that created the Energy Beings.

The following information is derived from higher evolved energy beings and collectives who have provided such information in order to assist those in the human system to move forward on their journey of spiritual progression.

Original Creator

The Original Creator of all things in all forms and in all specific and general definitions is all that is and has been. Growth is achieved when those things created by the original entity achieve growth. The life force from which all that exists flows – that is the Original Creator.

There are many definitions in human religious texts that touch on this information. Many are similar within their religious texts, there are similar definitions across religions that refer to the same person or same type of entity. These definitions often refer to the same supreme high being.

The Original Creator is that which brings into existence all forms of every emotion, each action, and each entity. There are physical and biological processes that take place to sprout new life, but these are also the formation of order as defined by the Original Creator.

As we are all, all living things, we are all made in his image as many religious texts would state, we are also able to create. We often do not create on the grandest of scales on relation to that which has created all that exists, but there is a similarity, and a likeness that allows us to act as a scale version of that which we have come from.

The perfect definition of the Original Creator would be simply, to hold a mirror to one's self. This is the same makings of the creator. There is no physical form but in your true form you are the creator. You manifest and you create, you bring into being, you take action. You radiate all things, and from your perspective, notwithstanding the judgment of others; you create that which you view to be the best possible manifestation for the present situation.

You create and experience all that there is to know and all that will ever be done. You are a peaceful creator, but also exhibit forces that may appear as destructive forces. There is balance; this is the goal, to achieve the balance that the original creator has instilled in all things.

The nature of this planet is balance. Your understanding of energy and how it will not disappear, it only changes forms. This is true; this is true of all things. There are no good or evil, only various forms in which emotion, energy, thought, and actions manifest.

An action or thought on its own is not judged as good or evil, it is only the perception of man when that action is compared to others is there a measuring rod. There is no harsh or cruel being to scold you or punish you, there are energy beings that are higher in development that will help you along your path both in this dimension and once you cross over and return to your true home dimension, there are no beings to deliver punishment or guilt when you are in your true form, that of an Energy Being.

There are others who exist in an alternate form, such as the human body, for purposes of learning, but not all are necessary because of their spiritual evolution or understanding of universal law and all experiences within it.

Patience and understanding are of the original creator, but so are all things that would be seen to the contrary of these things. It is important to see that there is no being that opposes the original creator, there are no groups of beings who are responsible for acts that you, human beings, declare as evil. There are no beings set aside simply for the purpose of creating evil thoughts or acts.

All things, all things, all things are the result of the original creator. All things that you humans create are the result of the original creator or are assembled in such a way that all humans experience and benefit.

You are not alone in your thinking. There are times when a person may find themselves asking the question of who god is, when there is no reality greater than knowing that there is a creator within your physical body.

You may wonder this for the reason of experiencing two lifetimes, as it were, that of the physical human existence over and over again learning lessons through reincarnation, and that of the energy being, that of your true self in your true home world.

It is a matter of learning. There is only energy, that which is universal in the energy dimension, your true home. You will grow beyond this earth realm of your current physical existence and that of your energy home that you will return to upon your death in the physical realm.

All will progress and move beyond the current realm. There is much growth that is achieved by all through the experiences of all. The original creator built this and allows you to grow and create and, in this manner, both creators create and grow and learn from the actions of the other. All things, all ideas and actions, beliefs and thoughts are assimilated. Each will become the knowledge of the other.

It is not for our knowing to understand all things prior to the time of acceptance and readiness but there is a great present just as there is a great past for each individual who has experienced many lifetimes in a physical existence.

Earth is only a training ground. Many interact here. You can exist in it in many life forms. Higher beings or those which are evolutionarily more advanced are not part of your energy chain or grouping but are simply that of another type of evolution.

There were, in the beginning, only one source or type of life, throughout the ages there have been many splits or fracturing of existence and therefore many have evolved in different ways from those who were originally directly part of their life group. This is why there are so many types, this is why there are those who have mastered the path of non-violence, this is why there are those who are able to travel great distances across the heavens.

Do not accept the ideas that you are less evolved in every sense simply because you are on this planet. There are many things that these other energy beings, those you perceive to be higher evolved, there are many things that they wish to understand that you currently have thorough knowledge and understanding of, which they do not.

It is important to know that they too are creators and you will learn in mutually beneficial relationships. They are not different. There is no difference, all are from the same source, the Original Creator, the first cause.

Angels & Archangels

There are many divisions or castes of energy beings though the names simply give recognition to the type of work they do. Some have specific goals and specific areas in which they work.

There are so called Angels and Archangels which are higher beings returned to this human dimension to help, others can travel between spheres and provide service. There are many you can call on though many will not come because of name, simply because of the assistance or guidance needed.

There is a special type of energy being that is called an Angel, Archangel, and this is a specific function for them. They do not guide in the same way as most other energy guides or workers do, they have ascended much higher, they may be compared to the religious view of gods simply because of their ability to intervene and offer assistance and ability to aid many at once.

Visitation by Original Creator

There are many times that the Original Creator, will come to you directly to check on his creations. You are of him, you will be with him. There are many times that it is around you and you can sense it.

We are all connected, and the Original Creator is the common thread. You need to be aware that we are all the same being, from the same source, all striving to get back to where we were created from. When one grows, all grow. There are no limits, only time and trials to raise yourself and return.

There aren't things that can stop you, only things to learn from on your path. No brick walls that can't be surmounted, your view may only be from your perspective and many things can seem mountainous from one person's viewpoint. Be prepared for hard work.

Many Lesser Creators

Each area of planetary living has been located in such an area that each domain is watched over, tended to, and life and energy brought forth into it by a Creator for that specific realm of existence. This is not to say that there cannot be more than one entity infusing power and direction into the life and dimension of existence, but there is only one single being that is responsible for its ultimate direction no matter what other entities or life forms may inhabit it or cross from other dimensions to assist with that dimension's existence.

There is only one Original Creator that observes these lesser creators and can assist them. This is much the same way that many groups of people delegate power to accomplish a common good. No one person on your plane can watch a massive area or oversee the production of a very complex event or complex item, this is the same for existence as you know it.

There are many energy beings assigned to watch over your area, there is only one to direct and become responsible for its driving purpose, its mission, but then there is the Original Creator which is then responsible for all life and all dimensions.

Beings of Pure Energy

Energy Beings are simply energy creations, as the Original Creator is infinite energy. This energy is basically that part of the original source which connects all living things to each other, and therefore connects us all to the Original Creator.

The Original Creator formed Energy Beings in his own image. Creation has no ending, it is infinite, and ever expanding.

As an Energy Being, we have the ability to create which was given to us by the Original Creator, so we grow and experience the knowledge and truth of the Original Creator, and then add to his creations.

Then in turn, the Original Creator experiences through us, the positive and negative aspects of our creations which is a never-ending cycle of life.

As Energy Beings, we are experiencing and gathering information not only for the Original Creator, but for our individual advancement. No matter whether we are in the human form or back in our true home dimension, we are always seeking to grow more like the Original Creator in our own right.
