DISCLAIMER

As the author of this Christian book, I acknowledge that some words used may sound harsh and unthoughtful; that is not my intention in using them but rather for clarity and expression. My aim is not to offend or shame anyone but to open our eyes to the truth. Should anyone be offended, kindly receive my apologies, and may God open and guide your heart to see the intentions of the book.

Note: all scriptures given are from the King James Version unless stated otherwise.

Thank you.

DEDICATION

I dedicate this book to everyone that is caught up in the schemes of the devil to corrupt their lives by introducing unnatural affections and gender identities. I also dedicate it to every one that knows such a person, and the body of Christ at large.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

When God lays something to do in your heart, it is a show of His trust in you to get the thing done. So, I firstly acknowledge the Lord God Almighty, for committing to my trust the task and labor of writing this book in a bid to express what He laid in my heart concerning the issues I touch on in this book. I acknowledge His good works in and through me. I acknowledge the grace He has given me to write and finish this book. I acknowledge that He has supplied the wisdom needed and the guidance necessary. I AM A GRATEFUL VESSEL.

I also acknowledge my husband and pastor for years and years of sound doctrine and boldness with the word and in God. That boldness and soundness forced me to look ahead and finish this book because I had already put my hand on the plow and whoever does that and looks back is not fit for the kingdom. I am fit.

I also acknowledge my son, Zayne Wonder, as my greatest motivation on earth. I looked at you, very young and awesome, and I was moved to contribute towards a better world for you. I grew up in a sound and sober society. I desire the same for you, my son. There is a moral and spiritual soundness that you must find on this earth. So, I woke up every day wondering how best I can fight for God's will and purpose on earth, then I wrote. Order has to be restored to the glory of God, and this is part of my contribution.

Finally, I acknowledge my mother and sister for always believing in me and for the great support system they have always been and continue to be.

I love you guys.

INTRODUCTION

The book of Genesis tells us a beautiful story of the recreation of the world as we read chapters one and two. I call it a recreation because as you study the bible with keenness and intent, you discover that a lot of things happened between Genesis chapter one verse one, and verse two. There was an initial creation but a lot of things happened to cause the earth to be void and formless and full of darkness. So, God had to recreate the world. In His recreation, the way He made man was so amazing and a pure show of perfect love. He made man in His image and likeness, and out of all He made, the man was the most wonderful and beautiful thing He made. To date, man is still the most beautiful thing that God beholds when He looks at the world.

Now, when God made us, there was a way of life that He had prepared for us to live, and that is why He placed us in the garden of Eden. If not, He would have put man somewhere else and not in His garden. Everything was going on well until the great deception happened and humans fell. In an instant, everything took a negative turn for them, and unknowingly, they introduced a new master over themselves. A master who is wicked, full of deception, full of perversion, disobedient, proud, despicable, and hateful. When Eve was deceived to disobey God and consequently dragged Adam into the act of disobedience, they distorted even the very nature of God in them, and so they became children of disobedience with a sinful nature. This sinful nature has been in man from generation to generation causing spiritual death to every man from generation to generation.

Blessed be God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ for not leaving humanity in that fallen state eternally. He sent His son Jesus Christ to come and die for us as the perfect sacrifice so that He can quicken us unto God. By this, He got rid of that sinful nature in man, provided man accepted His salvation. Even so, as it stands now, not every human being subscribes to the salvation that our Lord and savior brought to the world. There are still those who are under the domain of evil and darkness.

These ones are the ones that are yielded to the evil schemes and desires of the devil, and they are consciously or unconsciously propagating his agenda on earth and over God's creation. This explains the darkness that still tries to rule over the world and the people, yet light has already come. It explains all the evil that is still in the world. As long as there is one person that has not received salvation, there is still room for the devil to maneuver around and cause destruction. As it stands, it is not only one person that is not saved but millions. These millions are under the influence and control of the devil, and that is why you will not find the devil walking around but rather human beings carrying out his plans.

Now, since man is the most prized possession on earth that God has, the devil is always after man. He tries to ensure that there is no room for human beings to see light. Satan and his demons always throw stumbling blocks on the paths of men and seduce them away from salvation and right living. He is continually destroying man in one way or the other and introduces all kinds of perversions across humanity.

In the body of Christ and even for human beings in general, anything that contradicts God is a show of perversion because it goes against the normal way of God's purpose, use, and intent.

The world is full of all kinds of perversions in comparison to the precepts of God, and they deserve our attention in order to rectify. Even so, the one that seems to have a great impact on society and is also slowly and subtly creeping into the church is the perversions associated with sexual orientation and gender identification. We cannot keep quiet and watch as the world slowly rebuild Sodom and Gomorrah in our generation.

In this book, as God would grant me grace and wisdom, I am going to deal with this issue with the aim of expressing the thoughts of God concerning the same, and also bringing the truth of the word of God to us. I trust God to be able to do that with love because love is what has the ability to change a people; not condemnation. It is because of love that He sent His only begotten son to die for us. I cannot embark on this journey with any intent that is short of love; the love of God for all people. I condemn no one, but this wrong must be checked.

CHAPTER ONE

HOW IT ALL STARTED

One day I was praying and asking God for a mountain because of this great desire in me to be relevant to my generation and to serve it. Do you know of the testimony of David, and how he served his generation as we read in Acts 13:36 that says,

For David, after he had served the purpose of God in his own generation, fell asleep and was laid with his fathers and saw corruption

You see, I had seen the kind of exploits that men and women of God were doing, and I know what some did during their times, and I knew from where I stood, I was not notably profitable to my generation. So, there I was, crying to God to use me and to help me accomplish His purposes in my generation. The answer did not come immediately but I kept pressing in prayer and crying out to God in my heart, then boom! The answer came, and this book is the result of the answer I got from God.

You see, the generation that we have is one that is thriving on the broken moral fabrics of society. There is plenty of perversions associated with sexual behaviors, gender identities, and sexual orientation, and this disturbs the heart of God. It disturbs His heart so much because He knows that the devil has managed to hold this generation captive by tying them down with chains of this nature. In this book, I will narrow down my focus on sexual orientation and gender identity perversion.

We all know that the devil is the master of the realm of senses; the five senses. In other words, he thrives in exercising dominion over man by engaging his five senses. He knows that when he successfully seduces the flesh, he will get access to the spirit effortlessly. He knows that when a man is born again, He becomes the temple of the living God because the Holy Spirit will come to dwell in Him. With this knowledge, He moves with speed to ensure that this man becomes a “den of thieves”, and we know who the chief thief is; the devil. He moves man to sin against his body so that he can be unfit to host God, thereby, giving the devil legal grounds to enter it and make it his house. If he does not enter, he keeps you under his influence and dominion, consequently corrupting your spirit and even your body.

Once the spirit is corrupted, he gains easy access to your life and he can use you how he wants. Now, in the place of prayer and meditation concerning this matter, I came to understand that we are not dealing with a group of people who do not want to live and function as God intended by their will, but rather, we are dealing with a group of people that have been successfully seduced out of the will and purpose of God by demons and wicked powers. In the extreme end, some cases are possessions by these evil spirits. The devil manipulates them to think it is by their will, but in truth, they have yielded their will to the devil, and so, he is controlling them, their desires, and their bodies. My people, there is so much more beyond the people and their supposed desire to express or alter themselves how they want, and contrary to who God made them. This mountain that God gave to me is an occupied mountain. The occupants are the cohorts of hell who refuse to let the light of God and His love penetrate the people they hold captive. These spirits are working tirelessly to ensure that the name of Jesus is not lifted up high on top of this mountain, but God is above all powers and spirits.

This is how you know we are dealing with wicked spirits. Typically, God created man in such a way that he is able to turn away from evil and start doing good and living right once correction by the knowledge of the truth comes into the picture. For instance, if you give birth to a child and they create a habit of stealing other people's things, once you correct that behavior and you show them the right way to go, they will stop stealing. That is the normal way to go when dealing with typical behavioral issues and even wrong thought patterns. The moment a person keeps insisting on the wrong and embraces it, and goes as far as boldly identifying themselves with that behavior, forcing the world to equally embrace it, and the world actually does, you know that you are not just dealing with people but spirits and powers. Right now, we are dealing with a generation that will tell you to your face that they do not care about what God says or thinks concerning their contrary lifestyles, unnatural sexual orientation, and gender identities. They are not slightly bothered about the story of Sodom and Gomorrah. The few that acknowledge and appreciate God have found a way to manipulate the scriptures to defend themselves and misrepresent some things about God.

The Lord God is interested in this generation because His love is still as perfect and sure as it has been from generation to generation. He is not willing that any man should perish for whatsoever reason. He loves human beings so much and has the greatest capacity to separate the person from their sinful acts; to love the person and to hate sin. But as long as man continually gives himself over and over again to a sinful life, and proudly associates with it, he cannot be one with God. God will give them up to their lust as He says in Romans 1:24.

Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonor their own bodies between themselves:

And guess what? The devil and his cohorts of hell will not easily give up the men and women they hold captive. You see, the devil has found the easiest way to keep humans in that fallen state; he has introduced things that quicken the flesh in ways that no other sinful acts have ever done. When the flesh is extremely alive and satisfied, it will be so hard to get to the spirit of a person; the very entity that was designed by God to receive Him and His word.

But thanks be unto God Almighty because He is raising a people that will stand effectively in the gap for those caught up in the deceit of the devil concerning their sexual orientation and gender identities. A people that will fight for their souls without condemnation until they give up their desires for God's desires. It does not matter how far one has gone because God has the power to redeem the lives of men from the hold of the devil and make all things new. This is one of the aims of this book; for men and women to arise as watchmen over these souls that the devil is trying so hard to doom. We need to arise with boldness to stand and say that anything outside natural affections and the male and female gender identification at the point of birth is a perversion from God's truth. We need to arise with the courage to keep contending for these souls until truth prevails over them so that they may hear and understand, see and perceive, and be converted. We need to arise with so much love; the love of God that can separate the man from the sinful acts. A love that will shine forth so brightly yet, remain standing without compromising its values.

CHAPTER TWO

STRAIGHT, FEMALE, AND MALE ARE GOD'S WAY, AND THEY ARE BEAUTIFUL FOR ALL

Genesis 1:27

So, God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created He them.

When we study the creation of man in the scripture above, we see the intention of God. Mark you, this was before forming man and handing over the garden to Him. Even so, from the word go, we see that God intended to have an expression of Himself on earth as male and female because He created man in His image and likeness. When we get to chapter two, we see God forming Adam from the dust of the earth, and handing over the garden to him to take care of it. Reading further, we see that God saw that it was not good for Adam to be alone. Therefore, He decided to form the woman from the rib of the man. What a wise and loving God!

Now, from here, we already see that the issue of gender identity was sorted out from the beginning, and this we learn from the creation story. Why would anyone be questioning themselves when their gender is concerned? It is only the devil that makes people question themselves. He plants doubt, and that is what he was trying to do to Jesus when he tempted Him by saying, 'if you are the son of God.....' Satan is the one that tries to plant the seed of confusion and doubt in people, but in God, we have clarity. God only created two genders, and up to date, there are only two genders; He has never added a new gender and we know this because women continue to birth either female or male babies. Even when there happen to be disorders of sex development (DSDs), it is always about male and female aspects. Medical science can explain what happens to lead to DSDs and there are corrective surgeries that can be done to manage the conditions. All in all, it is always about males and females. We only have two ways to identify ourselves as per the word of God. We are either male and living as male or female and living as female.

One day, I was in a particular meeting, and the host spoke about the existence of seventy-two gender identities in the world. You can imagine the shock I felt, and I immediately went to check the internet and found the same information. How does this even happen? I still cannot wrap my head around it because it is a lie from the pits of hell that has found its way to humanity, and people have been seduced by those ideas of gender identities and have embraced them until it has become their reality. You know you can believe something so much until your entire being conforms to that thing. That is the power of the human mind. But looking at the mind of God, there are only two gender identities and we are all supposed to live our lives according to who we are, not according to the kind of ideas we are introduced to by the world or the thoughts introduced to us by the forces of darkness resulting to corrupt identities.

Here is another thing we learn from the creation of human beings; the order of natural romantic relationships by the standard of God. Now, God would have chosen to form the
