

The evolution of MoonManT God Within

To my dear soul who reads these words, the great time is upon us.

This book has been written with the intention to awaken the heart of the one who reads it for indeed they are god.

My personal thank you to My twin brother and great teacher The Lord D.lee , all of my BAL brothers & last but not least the One that is in all & all of the guides and angels that have been sent to help the human souls.

The innocence of you

Gods love for you is beyond any faults that you can think of, in this earth experience we are exposed to so much violence, hatred, anger & acts that are completely Inhumane. To understand why such things occur in life's everyday experiences we must take a look deep into the nature of what it is we are actively participating in. From my perspective we are participating in one of, if not the most difficult experience that a soul can endure I would like to stress the word EXPERIENCE because this is exactly what it is. God is a timeless infinite being that experiences itself in more ways than we can fathom this experience being one such experience.

Infinity is a word we throw around but don't really comprehend what it means, it is exactly how it sounds infinite, forever, all possibilities, all probable outcomes & experiences. This earthly experience is like a test in gods ability to forget itself within itself and then come back to its awareness of all that it truly is. We are inseparable parts of that source & are experiences of it , all that we have seen & done has been for the advancement of gods infinite creation. As souls we travel through creation experiencing a multitude of life, in most parts of creation these life forms are aware of their soul & Their source & live in Harmony with all of creation. We are fast approaching an awakening not only in the human soul group but within the planet, universe & all of creation.

The energy that is coming into the planet is the energy of creation the energy of love. It is time to forgive ourselves & others to begin to view ourselves as the timeless beings we are, it is time for us to become aware of our soul & source from which everything has sprung. This is inevitable has been predicted & prophesied for as long as we can recall. You are loved more than you can imagine and nothing can change this, peace will be your greatest friend in these times for your faith & resolve Will be tested like never before but do not fear you have so much help my loves so much guidance .

This is my mission on the planet earth for I am a being who has come to the awareness of god within & our timeless nature. We are all in truth spirit and know much more than we remember , we have a family that stretches further than our minds will allow us to grasp & they are fully aware of what is taking place on the planet at this time. You will forever be an innocent being let nothing you see hear or think ever change this knowing, I love you God loves you creation loves you

Gratitude

Imagine we appreciated life the way that we appreciate the things within life, our world would instantly change. We would all sit around in awe of life's greatness and the fact that we share this awareness of life. We spend our time trying to find ways to get things out of life so that we may live more comfortable. If only our hearts could see the grandness of just being alive we would feel joy, peace, bliss & happiness in all moments. As We Continue to understand the fact that life is a gift & is far from a random live and die occurrence we would come to understand our place within life. I truly believe the more you value life the more life will mirror that feeling, we would have deep gratitude for the seemingly small things such as sunsets, the Sounds of birds chirping, the beauty of the mountain ranges and so much more.

As we value the small things in life the things that we held strong beliefs about will become secondary to the natural things life offers. Gratitude is like magic, the more you are grateful for the small things the more things magnify. Being grateful for the food you eat and water you drink is huge in knowing others do not have this privilege. The Energy of gratitude is huge in everyday life, when you are grateful people feel that and you become more of a magnetic in your energy field & what you will draw to yourself, Do you see? The More you appreciate life the more life gives you to appreciate. Take time to thank the people around you for their love and support, thank the trees for providing oxygen, thank the sun for the amazing energy it supplies & thank the earth you inhabit everyday. You will begin to see your world change and the people around you will feel your energy & be drawn to you like never before. The More You Appreciate Life the things within life will be automatically drawn to you.

The Ascension Of MMT Behold a new earth

Did you know that the earth loves you with the heart of god, she created the vessel you wear in this lifetime so it's safe to say she knows what we need for healing. Beyond our personal drive for accomplishments we are here to heal ourselves & others so that we are able to embrace the greater community within the Multiverse. You are not alone! Think of the earth like a human being she is ALIVE, aware & EXTREMELY intelligent she wishes to be loved and understood

& when she is not she lashes out ! And what we call natural disastrous occur. She has so much life to her & such a loving spirit. Earth houses countless amounts of life ranging from bacteria life forms to the human intelligent form & all in between.

The human beings have been experiencing themselves as somehow separate from the very entity that created it, how can this be so? The Level of awareness within the collective of the human race has been very "low" for eons of time & we are NOW becoming far more aware of ourselves & our world than ever before. If you wish to strengthen your connection with your home world simply intend on it & the universal mind will create situations where you will be able to do so.

Get out into nature & feel the truth no one can feel it for you I assure you. What you are reading is a channel of the information that I have gathered from countless time in nature. The planet speaks through the medium of thought & when one is clear of mind chatter they can sense & hear the call of the great planet earth. Shhh listen.

Love love life ; 1212

What a gift life is, what an amazing ride full of love, fear, happiness, uncertainty tragedy & triumph. This writing is dedicated to my brother Dub as we call him, he has just be diagnosed with cancer & my words would not be able to describe the feeling this has Given me. I have told my readers many times that life is a gift & we must appreciate & honor every moment of it. Life can take many turns & can leave you with so many mixed feelings but to give yourself to life to dive in fully & appreciate it is the greatest way to honor this amazing gift. Our troubles with life come from the fear of the unknown the fear of what may come next, thought is something that can set us free or it can enslave us. Although life must happen and anything can happen our thoughts about what have and may happen can bring us peace or extreme anxiety. In the moments we are faced with the troubles of life we must question the energy we bring to any given situation, we must keep peace within our minds & hearts this way we do not add to the situation energy that we do not want to manifest. Wow my heart has been through so much during this life & through all of it I have made it , I have been blessed with another day of this mystical & misunderstood existence. I want everyone to commit to loving life to realizing that it is in fact a gift and can be taken anytime. This is not to say that you should fear life exactly the opposite jump in be free & love this life every moment of it. I've written about the infinite nature of our true selves the soul and although this is a temporary experience we must cherish it's divine nature & the fact that we have the ability to love and feel love. I'm blessed to be able to see what potentially may happen & I know this for sure where we are headed is beyond the hardships & fear of what may happen our destiny is assured.

I Love You Dub you are a strong man & will get through this

The presence of god

When we are in each other's presence just know that that very presence we share is god itself. So beloved how could I not love you ? How could I not love the way the sky flies with Grace or how the deer stares with curiosity how you wander through life full of hopes, dreams & fear. What makes us so different from one another? Besides the stories we bring to moment, these stories are but plays in our world they hold only the value we project upon them. We have forgotten our value, the mighty human soul group who has come to remember. Our beautiful planet is rising it's vibration to the level of the spirit realms where we all originate. Be at peace in your world my beautiful souls all is one & all is well.

The return to paradise

It is extremely important to understand the speed in which the golden age has & will continue to return. Since 2012 when the Age of Aquarius began the shift in this earth reality has been swift, Dramatic & planet changing. The awareness of all human beings has raised to such a degree that the very structure of reality has changed. The new age will bring a complete change in what we understand as everyday reality. New governance will be put in place to replace the old fear based systems, The banking systems Federal reserve & all things that have to do with currency will be completely reset. All Debt Will Be Forgiven and a distribution of the planets true wealth will be put into play immediately.

It is time for us as human beings to stand up for our planet & we have the chance right here & right now. The energy that is currently coming into our planet & all it's inhabitants is the energy of the ALL these times will be trying but we are extremely powerful beings nothing will ever be able to change that. Those who read these words are the ones who are here to make a difference on this planet & in all of creation simply by becoming aware of who you are & why you are truly here.

This is all divinely guided by forces that are not yet visible to us in this realm so hold no fear this is occurring regardless of anything that may try to interfere. Nothing can truly stop the divine will of god it's truly just made to look that way. Meditate as often as possible, drink much water, pray & be grateful for your time on the planet earth for in these moments history is being made beyond what we can comprehend. Our freedom is assured in the grand scheme of things so look beyond what you see & hear, know that all is perfect & a divine plan is underway this will keep you centered at peace & filled with joy.

Until we speak again ,

The great travelers Pt. 1

Imagine Going Back in Time and Changing the Course Of history! Imagine going on a magical ride where you could create a new world of your dreams and live as if you are in a fairy tale ! Well you should sit down; you're going to want to hear this. You Reading This Right Now At This Moment Are Doing Every Single Thing I Listed Above. I Believe That We Are Soul Travelers From a Another Realm Where Time Is Not A Factor & Neither Is Space. I Believe That We Have Come Back To These Moments To Remember This Fact & Wake Up To A Magical Journey Where We Become Fully Aware Of Our Spiritual Origins. We Have Been Living In A Very Low Energetic Environment Thus We Have Not Been Exposed To Higher Vibratory Information Or Reality.

These Energetic Realms Are Much Higher In Vibration So As A Being/Planet or Collective Rises In Vibration Reality Becomes More Lucid And & They Rise To The Level Of The Realms That Are Timeless & Space less Where All Exists Already. Since We Are The Being That Is Timeless & Space less (The Soul/Higher Self) And We Are Here Experiencing Time Which Is An Illusion Of The Lower Vibrations Of Gods Infinite Energy Manifested In Seeming Physical Form, We Are Back In "Time"! From Where We Are In This Now We Don't See True Reality Only A Lower Vibratory Interpretation Of The Sources Energy.

In The higher Vibration There Are Beings That We Can't See Other Soul Travelers That Exist Beyond Time & Space! We Are Often Wondering If We Are Alone, We Have Never Been But these Beings Are Able To Show Them Selves At Will. Don't Freak Out On Me, We Are Souls In The Lower Energy Of Physicality Playing As Human Beings. These Other Soul Beings Are Having Other Experiences In Higher Vibrations As Other Types Of Species Some Physical & Some None Physical! These Beings Are Able To Communicate With Us Via Telepathy & Help Shape The Earthly Beings Experience So That All Goes According To The Divine Plan. Welcome Back Great Travelers To Creation Your Creation

The cycle of death (Graduation)

As Human Beings We Often Fear Death, It Is Our Fear Of The Unknown That Troubles Us. There Is No Way Of Telling When Our Time To Pass On Will Be. We Believe We Have No Clue Of What Happens When We Finally Do Go. Death Is The Passage To A New Dimension & The Graduation Of The Soul From Its Earthly Travel. We Believe We Are Our Bodies And Cling To Them We Also Cling To The Illusion That If We Lose Our Bodies We Wont Exist Any Longer. We Are Energy & Energy Never Dies It Transforms It Evolves It Expands. It Is Our Mission On Earth To Make An Impact On All That We Come Into Contact With, I Am not Saying What the Impact Is Positive Or Negative No Labels Exist Within The Divine Plan We Are To Do All That We have Done Up Until This Moment. We Must Appreciate Every Moment Of This Life Every Single Person That We See No Matter What Our Illusionary Differences Are. Life Is Short Compared To Eternity & Eternal Is What We Are. Tell The People In Your life You love & Cherish Them Be The Love In Every Moment. Death Is A Dropping Of The Body & Releasing Of Your Spirit Your True Form The Infinite Being Beyond The Body And Beyond This Reality.

Update in the now Heaven on earth

The Realities & Worlds That I Have Been Able To Visit During Meditation Has Shown Me The Great Disconnect That My Human Family Has Decided To Endure. These Realities Are Filled With Love, Light, Harmony & An Overall Understanding Of Our Oneness. I Sit & Observe The Actions Of My Human Family In Comparison To The Realities I've Visited & See It Is Our Disconnect From Our Home Planet That Has taken Our Minds For A Momentary Spin. These Other Worlds/Realities Are mirrors Of What Our planet can & will become I Am lovingly Shown the Potential of the Human Species & Our Evolution.

Our Origins Are in Spirit Full Potential & Understanding Of Our Mission Upon This Planet & In This Particular Universe. From What I've Personally Experienced All Of Creation Is In Attendance As Not Only The Human Race Awakens But The Whole Entire Planet & Universe. We Are So loved And Guided In Every Moment As We Continue This Divine & Unbelievable Mission Of Ascension. These Beings Are Not In Higher Positions Than We Are For We Are One & Equally Important In This Divine Plan So I Stress Do Not See Any Being As Higher Or lower Than You We Are All The Same Source Equal In loves Name.

As The Information Of Our Evolution Continues To Surface This Reality Will Continue To Shift This Is Inevitable & Can Not Be Stopped, Energy/Information Is Being Channeled Into The Planet By The First Wave Of Ascended Beings & Those That Are Following Suit. As The Energy Or Vibration Of The Planet Increases So Does The Need For Every Inhabitant On The Planet To Do The Same. Everything Is Energy & We Have The Chance To Either Raise Or Lower Our Energy In Every Moment. The Foods We Eat The Thoughts We Think The Actions We Take & Conversations We Engage In ALL Of This Is Energy. The Planet Is Calling for Us To Raise Our Vibration In love Seeing How Love Is The Highest Of All Energy. This Planet Has Not Been Exposed To This Type Of Energy In Eons Which Explains Our Limited Conscious Understanding. As I Said Before If We Aren't Exposed To Higher Energy We Won't Receive

Higher Knowing. Time Is Continuing To Speed Up Seeing how Time How Time Is An Illusion Of The 3rd Dimension, For Those That Work Hard & Are Still Time Oriented These Times May Be Extremely Stressful & Demanding. I Say Be At Peace As Much As You Can Trust Your Intuition For It Is Guidance From You Higher Self. So much Will Transpire In This Moment Of Awakening Lies ,Corruption & So Much More Will Continue To Be Exposed All Of This Is To Occur Now. In All This A Paradise Awaits As We Graduate From Our Earthly Travels As We Know it Create Our Personal Heaven On Earth & Show The Rest Of Creation What It Truly Means To Be A Human Being.

We Are Currently In the Moments Where We Realize That Being A Human Is Not Just A Regular Day To Day Thing. If You View Nature Closely You Will See the Extreme Diversity In Every Place You May Go Looking. The Massive Amount Of Life That Inhabits This Planet Is Living Proof That The Soul Experiences Unimaginable Amount Entities. The Energy That We Have Invested In The Human Story Is Swiftly Changing And Transitioning This Is To Say That We Are Beginning To value Not Only Being Able To Experience Being Human But Also Existing Along Side Some Amazing Creatures. This Realization Is Key To Our Spiritual Growth For It Will Allow Us To View The Story Of Creation From A None Human Perspective.

Reprogramming Pt 1.

Our Minds have been bombarded with Information since the Day We Were Born, For A Growing Human Being It is Extremely Easy To Be Influenced By What You Are Exposed To. I Observe The Children As They Completely Mirror The Influences That Are Around Them. This Observation Has Gotten Me To Question All That I have Been Told In my Life From The Information, The People, Places Things & All That Has Come From These Things. Generation After Generation Ways Of being Are Passed Down With little To No Questioning Of What Is Being Handed To Us.

This is A Literal Programming That Continues to Be Played over & over Again. We Learn About Society, How To Fit in To It The Structures & What Roles They Play As Well As The Role We Supposedly Play. These Are All Illusions A Kind Of Robotic Programming. If One Is Not Aware Of This They Can Easily Fall Into Any Influence That Presents It Self. A Reprograming Is Needed So That We May Think For Ourselves & Use Our Inner World To Take In Or Discard Any Information. We Have To Change Our Ways Of Thinking & Stop Perpetuating The Same Cycles We Were Taught.

We Cannot Continue To Follow These Things So Blindly We Have The Ability To Think For Ourselves, To Experience Life Learn & Grow From Those Very Experiences. It is When We Ignore Our Inner Thoughts & Look for Answers from the outside World That We Feel Lost, Confused & Frustrated. Our Thought Process Is Hardly our Own We Are So Influenced On How To live Life That It Can Feel As If We Have Absolutely No Control & If One Does Not Have Control Of What They Think They Will Not Have Control Of Their Lives. Thoughts That We Continuously Think Replay In our Minds Day In & Day Out Effecting How We Perceive & React To Life's Inevitable Happenings. If Only We Could Change Our Thoughts We Would Change All That We Come Into Contact With How We React & Approach Life. A Reprogramming Is In Order.

I Am. MoonManT

Reprogramming Pt. 2

We Have Been Running A Program That Has Been Passed Down To Us By Generations Before. As Each Generation Goes By The questions Regarding what Is Being Taught Increases In Volume As The Younger Generations Become More Conscious Of The Unconscious That Those Who Came Before Have Been Entrenched In. The Sensitivity Of The New Generation Is So Profound In A World That Is Filled With An Obvious Disconnect From The Feeling Aspects Of Life. The Social Programming Has Become So Dramatic In Its Ways, A Literal Brain Washing Takes Place In Almost Every Area Of Life That One Looks. The Television Displays A Complete Reverse Of What Human Life Should Stand For, Day In & Day Out The Human Beings Are Shown A World Of Destruction, Inhumane Behavior, Separation Of All Kinds From Race, Religion, Sex & So Much More.

It Is Now Time For The Human Race To Take Control Of What Is Being Propelled Towards Them In The Form Of Information. We Must Strengthen Our Connection With Our Species Our Planet & Most Importantly Our Source. We Can Not Continue To Stand For Misinformation & Things That Do Not Feel Right Morally. We Are A Highly Intelligent Species & We Are Capable Of Achieving Anything, Beyond Our Perceived Differences We Share This Planet & The Creation We Find Ourselves Inseparably Apart Of.

Each & Everyone Of Us Must Look Deep Within Break Down The Invisible Walls We Built Between Ourselves As Well As The Planet & All It's Inhabitants. If Those Who Have Been In "Charge" Do not Take In Account Our Home Planet & All Life When Any Decision Is Made It Is Time For Them To Be Replaced Without Hesitation. Revolution Is Occurring As A Result Of The Evolution Of Not Only The Planet But The Universe & Creation As A Whole. The Information Is Public It Is Our Individual Duty To Research What Is Taking Place On The Planet Earth & Prepare Ourselves For This Inevitable Shift Of The Ages. Teach Love & Compassion To Our Children Despite What The Media & Television Displays To Them, In This Lies The Key To Reversing The Programming.

Hero's in the mirror

The Viewer of the Reality rarely equates themselves with Being the Reason There Is Reality. On My Path I Have Come To Understand That Nothing Would Be With Out my awareness Of It. This unbelievable realization Has Come From Countless Hours Of Meditation, Countless Hours With Nature, My Study Of Quantum Physics, Channeling Higher Beings & much much More. For Reality As We Know It To Exist There Must Be A Viewer, You Reading This Are That Very Viewer. Within The Awareness Of This Viewer (You) Is An Endless Sea Of Energy, That Energy Is Being Decoded By Your Body Vehicle Into Seemingly Physical Objects, My Other Writings Will Explain This Well So Ill Keep It Simple. You View The World, You Are The Only One That Does.

You See Other People Viewing The World But YOU The Viewer Validates Their Existence. So Who Views The Viewer?? & Who Is Writing This?? This Is When The Idea Of Oneness Comes Into Play. I Believe We Are All The Same Being Having An Experience Simultaneously, Every "Story" Matches Each Other Because Every Being Is Of The Same Energetic Source. The World You See Is A Reflection Of What You Think & Feel It Is.

If We Begin To Label That Energy As Anything Other Than Energy It Becomes Distorted. We Have Names That Bind Us To Stories & Other Beings Who Know That Story & Continue To Perpetuate It, We Also Perpetuate The Story Believe That It Holds Value & We Play That Role, It Is Just A Role Just A Name. I Believe That The Reader Of This Blog Is The Source Of All Things & Has Sent Another Part Of Itself To Help Remind Them That This Has All Been A Game & At The End Of This Game The Hero Will Be In The Mirror

Soul identification & timelines

The Soul Group That Has Come To The planet Earth Has Come With A Resume So Long That It Would Baffle The Conscious Mind Of That Very Soul In This Moment. The worlds, Realities Dimensions & Timelines That These Souls Have Come From Hold Wisdom & Knowing From The Source Directly. This Moment Of Earth Reality Is But One Reality Out Of The Infinite That These Souls Have Traveled. Since Very Few human Souls Consciously Understand The Nature Of The Soul And The Fact That They Are That Being Most Information Regarding Reality Flies Right Past Them.

Souls That Identify With The Body Vehicle Can't Fathom The Vast Nature Of The Soul; Timeless, Formless , Space less Projectionist That Has Created This Very Experience. The

New Age that We Have Entered Has Ushered In The Return Of Soul Identification; This Has Unimaginable Effects On Reality Seeing How The Soul Again Has Had Countless Experiences. We Are Now In Position To Channel In Timelines From Our Souls Travels. This Energy Or Information Has Not Been Available To The Humans In There Unconscious State Of Being.

Synchronicity's Symbolize The Fact That All Things Happen At Once All Possibilities, Outcomes, Timelines, Dimensions & Universes, All Here & Now Because Again The Soul Is Beyond Time & Projects It's Being Into Any Particular Reality It Chooses . This Reality We Are In Is The Most Difficult In Creation It Is So Dense In Its Nature That As Souls We Often Have An Extremely Hard Time Dealing, None The Less This Is The Hardest Experience In Creation So If You Are Reading This You Are One Of The Strongest Souls That Has Ever Been & Your Destiny Is Beyond Your Current Understanding.

Sleepy head Pt. 1

"You Believe You Are A Human & You Wish To Follow Your Dreams But You Are A Soul & This Is The Dream" - MMT . I Recently Wrote About The Higher Vibratory Realities & The Fact that We Have Been Living in The lower Vibrational energies of Experience. What would These Higher Realities look like ? Well You Already Know you spend most of your human life visiting these higher worlds.

When you sleep your spirit continues to travel & when you "wake up" you have memory of being in very strange places we call it dreams! But what are dreams? Do they have meaning? & Why do they feel so real? I'll Tell You Why. When You "Dream" Your Spirit is traveling through these higher vibrations of Experience. We Are Not Our Bodies we are spirit but since we inhabit bodies and are completely identified with them we misunderstand these beautiful realms of unimaginable power. These Realms Are Of Extremely high vibration which means that the energy is instantly molded into what the source of that energy "dictates"(I Don't Really Like That Word) Either Way This Has Huge Implications! It Means As we sleep we are exploring the Higher realms of love The Spirit Realm, The Astral Realm, 5th Dimension & higher. But What Really Keeps Me Pushing To Understand What We Are Truly Living In is The Fact That We Are Able To Raise Our Personal Vibration As A Physical Being to reach these higher realms Embodied on Earth!

Mastering self with a dash of physics

The mastering of self is just that, the mastery of ones self you have to constantly relate all situations to the divine ONE that is in all. In ones mind & heart in all moments remembering that a divine plan is underway where YOU As the one will awaken to the divine reality that awaits. Physics is another way that the great ONE has created to explain the Illusionary nature of that in which you experience. It deals with the deeper levels of realities functioning, to say the least we haven't yet scratch the surface of its invisible nature but we have made huge strides in what we can perceive within an experience that is an experience of this underlying quantum world.

My dear the point that I'm trying to make is that we live within a holographic reality or spirit if it makes one more comfortable. It is the viewer of reality that turns the infinite energy of the all into seemingly physical reality this energy that I speak of is beyond time and space. Now think about this for a moment....it's beyond what we experience as time.....& space it contains all possibilities outcomes dimensions & universes, you As the ONE that Decodes this energy within your mind & project it "Out There" to perceive as reality, in truth no physical reality exists it is only you & projections of yourself. This is the main reason why we have trouble remembering because we see ourselves as bodies but in truth we are the energy that created the body planet & universe. As you go through your day try to make this the information that grounds you, many thing will occur within spirit or the hologram but remember that god is all & in all !

I Am. MoonManT

Gods dream as a human being

The human being has believed It's self to be separate from nature for long enough. To believe that the story of the human being is separate from the very being that governs all life is but a dream in The Mind of the only species that can articulate what they are experiencing. Our Minds Have Become So Attached To The Story Of Our Seemingly Separate Lives From Nature & Its Cycles That It Seems We Are In A Race To No Where. When I Go Into Nature The Energetic Structures Of Societies Rules And Regulation's Completely Disappear & A Feeling Of Complete Freedom Takes Over, As Soon As I Return I Begin To Feel The Energy From The Separate Story Return Into My Awareness.

Since Everything Is Energy Thoughts, Feelings & Emotions All The Energy That Has Been Projected Onto The Structures, Places, People & Anything Else For That Matter Can Be Felt Within. The Feeling That I Have Gotten From Meditation & Time With Nature Has Become What I Feel Anywhere & In Any Situation, Another Way Of Putting It Is That Nature Has Taken Back It's Story & The Self (God) Has Returned.

I Feel More Connected With All Life & As For The Stories Of The Human Being They Hold Little To No More Energy. We Are All Becoming Aware Of Our Oneness with All Life As Well As One Another. The Universe Has A Flow About It When You Connect To It You See That Everything Is In Sync & Nothing Is Ever Really Out Of Place! So Even The Illusionary Story Of Separation Ends Up Being Perfection!

The magical alchemist

It is pure magic to become an alchemist, to watch & you observe life happen. One who is an alchemist watches as the past comes into their awareness, a new sense in the relationship between the experience & one who experiences helps to change the response of each moment. Souls we are and experience is our expertise, within this realm we human souls have forgotten this amazing truth & have wrapped ourselves in karmic ties. Karma for me is energetic or spirit, as we perceive we project our Energetics on to all that exists within this reality. From the point of perception all that is not of love the highest & ultimate form of energy will create an energetic hold onto the perceiver. This energy is in the form of thoughts, feelings, emotions & beliefs our projections through these mediums create a reality that mirrors the energy that has been projected.

Some may be thinking, well reality is just reality but it isn't, reality is made up entirely of energy. A car is not a car a tree is not a tree, it is but a form of energy we have perceived to be such things. This is huge because by going deep into the nature of creation you can see the misconceptions of the human soul. If you can grasp the concept of Energetics and merge this view with everyday life it would shatter what we know to be ordinary reality. We would see our inseparable connection not only with one another but with all that could possibly exist. This is when the alchemist shines on in its glory for it perceives all as energy & all as coming from the same source whatever one wishes to name it. Nothing exists outside of the alchemist, this being knows that in a flash its sight freezes a moment out of infinity.

All the alchemist sees is love everlasting a beautiful love story that has infinite parts that expands on into eternity. It is true that things continue to occur that May not be in the favor of the alchemist, it bothers it not the alchemist understands old energetics from past perspectives live within its decoding mechanism (The Human Body) that it must release with its brand new perspective. The alchemist stays close to nature a pure source of love energy; nature does not believe in separation, separation only lives as illusion within the minds of one of its species. The experience of Heaven is evident to the alchemist for it is a moment oriented being, living in the knowing that all else is an illusion. Worries are diminished fear is extinguished the solid world has become spirit to the alchemist holographic, Moldable & movable. The knowing of other intelligent life beyond this planet is a regular for the alchemist it has taped into alternate realities that are boundless & infinite.

Emotions & thoughts Pt. 1

The wind blows with great power yet the tree is firmly rooted into the ground, the tree can feel the wind yes, but it is not bothered for it knows no matter the strength of the wind its roots are stronger. As I like to say life must happen! I Think most would agree with me on that but it is how we react to life or the wind that will determine our state of mind health & happiness. I recently wrote a blog that spoke of how our thoughts feelings & emotions effect the physical world , now I will be speaking about emotions & there effect on your life, health, state of mind & the creation of your reality .

For the most part our reactions to life are automatic, things happen we react but do we truly understand our reactions effect on the outcome & future outcomes of things? I believe the emotions that we attach to any given thing will make it grow so to speak. Ok now emotions such as happiness, sadness joy so on & so forth can be felt within the body the can also be felt by the " outside" world so basically we are projecting our feeling out to the world. Emotion are energy as I've said before we can feel the emotions within our body these emotions do not leave our body until we have processed them & let them go.

It is as if we are bio computers, if we hold Old Data (Emotions) that are ties to old programming (Any & Everything Life Has Presented) we will be backed up & will not be able to update our computer (The Human Body & Or Experience) lets run with this bio computer thing for just a moment. I FIRMLY believe disease comes from the source of the experience (The Human Being) & not the experience Itself. If our computers are backed up with all this out dated software & we try to update our software what will begin to happen to that computer?? Ha-ha You Understand Don't You? Ok! Now our bodies NEED emotional release if we do not have this emotional release all that built up energy will manifest in the form of disease. For those who do not release this energy the following may occur sudden outbursts, anxiety, fear, argumentative attitudes & so on. To rid yourself of this old emotional patterns the emotions most be channeled in such a way that you do not perpetuate the cycle, things such as listening to or writing music, playing sports , working out, dancing , Time With Nature & My Personal Favorite Meditation. Meditation Exposes The Illusionary Nature Of The Emotions & Thoughts.

Can we get much higher

Thought has a firm grip on what we believe reality is. The nature of thought Is vibratory & has less to do with "you" & more to do with your state Of being , your Environment & what you interact with. Along with everything that exists thoughts are energy and vibration. To experience higher vibratory thoughts/feelings (Happiness,Joy,Bliss &Excitement). Your source of energy or vibration must mirror these higher levels you wish to experience, for example we eat food for Energy & Energy only the most natural sources of food such as fruits and veggies are of Extremely high vibrations they are natural sources of energy. Now if we eat things that are lets say man made things Like Oreos Or Pizza these "foods" are of very low vibrations and are not a source of higher thought or energy. Our Thoughts are also Influenced by conversations we engage in ,the music we listen to all Of this Is energy and will effect our thoughts.

Now let's speak on environment since everything is energy all things that are of a natural state such as nature or any natural setting is of Extremely high vibration and will in turn speed up your "personal" vibration allowing you to experience higher thought feeling and understanding. If I Were to place you in a setting where nature was rare such as a city you wouldn't be exposed to a higher vibratory environment and thus you aren't experiencing higher vibratory thought and feelings. I Think You Get Where I'm Going Here! Now think about us human beings Most Of Us Live In cities are exposed To unnatural food & as a result are living in a Extremely low vibratory environment. Our thoughts and feelings mirror that environment & as a result we act as we do. We fight not because we are mad at someone or Something but because of the energy and vibration or lack thereof, that we are exposed to ! And We Have Systems & Governments That Mirror That Vibration & Are Held In Place Because We FEEL & BELIEVE There Is No Other Way Because & Of Corse Human Beings " Can't Be Trusted" in the eyes of the "elite" But I Beg To Differ.

We Are Soul Traveler's exploring Space & Time in the Lower Dimensions. Our Soul Group Which Is Every Living Soul On This Planet, Decided To Play In The Illusions Of The Lower Vibrations. The Lower You Go in Vibration the More the Connection with You and That Higher Source of Knowledge Wisdom Love & Overall Experience is seemingly cut off. Your Once Lucid And Moldable Energy Is Now Dense & Very Slow Giving The Appearance Of physicality, Movement, Time & Space.

In The Higher Vibrations Everything Is Already Done All Potential Realities, Universes, Planets , situations So On & On. We are basically Back Here Telling a Story out Of the Infinite Potential Stories That Exist, Each Story Corresponds With The Next Because Again We Are Souls & Are From The Same Source The Names & Separations' Are Illusions & Are Only Able To Be perpetuated Within In the Lower Vibration Of Information. As We Raise In consciousness And Understanding Of Our True Selves We Will Begin To See The Potential Of Our "Future" ! Hold On .....We're doing it Now.

We are now at a point in "time" where this awareness is flooding into our consciousness, the story is ending & we are to begin a "new" story with full creativity & infinite possibilities. The vibration of our physical body, world & universe are rising to the point of instant manifestation we are indeed moving back into a dream like state in the "physical" world. Imagine what this means as we continue to align with our souls love & creative abilities, we will begin to create a world based on love, compassion, peace & respect. You will begin to see the old systems crumble & fall away as we gain our inherent understanding that we've built this reality and it will only stand if we allow it.

When human dreams

When a human dreams worlds come into being, possibilities of how they can achieve these dreams suddenly appear. Little does the human know that the flashes of insight, premonitions & visions are the very basis of the outer manifestations. The human being must hold a clear mind and be grounded in the moment to perceive the intuition of the soul. When this occurs the outer world no longer dictates the experience of the human soul. The very nature of this soul is infinite not bound to time & space realities, it contains time & space within itself. With this knowing the human soul no longer identifies with the human body, name or story of the human experience. Freedom has been reached for the human soul, the entire reality is remembered to be a dream that was destined to come true

At the age of 24 I can easily say that I've been through a lifetime of experiences. On the planet earth as it has been, age has been mistaken as wisdom & experience, but I assure you that human age has little to do with the timeless wisdom of the soul. I've realized through my reconnect & initiation of the soul that our mission has been a simple one, remember who we are in truth & live this truth with an incorruptible faith. Our oneness with nature & the universe as a whole must be detected by the human soul in order to perceive our everlasting beingness. From the outer waking state to the meditative to our sleep realm, we truly never stop being, doing & existing. We are essential to the universe, we are inseparable from the fabric of reality & we are waking to this fact.

At the age of "24" I have become what I have always been, The timeless ageless & omnipresent being that seems to be a human. A being that seems to be apart of the crowd but in truth is the Awakened Creator Of Matter. It is truth that every human is this ONE being & NOW Is the moment when the humans of earth will remember this & act on such revelations. At The Age Of 24 I found love deep within, hidden in the shadows of my heart & the depths of my mind, at 24 I found peace, in the silence of nature as the trees whispered the secretes of the stars. The blinding light of the human experience was to be no more as the everlasting truth of consciousness came to the forefront of my awareness. At the age of 24 I found the light of my very own awareness, this awareness that validates all of reality, this awareness that shines & is the reason for all that has ever been or will be. At the age of 24 I found God Looking out of the same eyes that had searched for god for a lifetime only to find that I'd been searching for myself.
