Introduction

Hello from Egypt, the Land of Pharaohs! This is Mohamed Tohami.

Our culture is steeped in history. Everywhere you travel, you are reminded of the great legacies left behind by our pharaoh forefathers.

Abundant legacies of success surround us. The Great Pyramids, the Sphinx, and grand temples built by wealthy, successful pharaohs are a daily reminder of what each of our lives can be. Not just in Egypt, but anywhere in the world.

This culture has inspired me since my childhood and has guided me to my mission in life – to uncover the success wisdom of the ages and to share it with others so that they may awaken their inner giants and transform their lives from making a living to making a difference.

The Lost Emotion

And I want to help you explore the many possibilities that lay in front of you.

Possibilities for greatness. Possibilities for success.

Through my personal experience, my research, and the interviews I've conducted with close to one hundred successful people, I have discovered that there is a single emotion responsible for ALL great success stories in the history of mankind.

The world moves very fast these days, and the hectic pace of life forces most people to fight for shelter and security, trapping them into just "making a living" and "fighting for survival." And once people are trapped, they start saying they're "sick and tired of being sick and tired."

The constant stress of modern life has overshadowed the importance of this one emotion, and its loss has taken more lives than all the wars in the history of the world – but the biggest tragedy is that its loss took the lives of people who are still breathing. Yes, the loss of that one emotion left people like zombies. They may be alive physiologically, but their hearts and their passion for life were lost long ago.

And the world has become more violent since the loss of this emotion. People are disconnected from one another, focused exclusively on their own lives and on how to SURVIVE.

The focus of everyday life has shifted from SERVICE to SURVIVAL.

The path of mankind is congested with people who enter and exit the world without so much as leaving a smudge on the pages of history, whereas others manage to create everlasting success and, through their legacies, live on in the hearts and minds of those who come after them.

Those shining stars excelled because they embraced the lost emotion and incorporated it into every single moment of their lives.

The day I discovered that lost emotion inside of me, and started pumping it into every area of my life, everything changed for me and I experienced a complete life makeover.

Only once I breathed it in, could the transformation begin.

The Lost Emotion

When I was seventeen years old, I started searching for what I really wanted to do with my life.

I didn't want to live an ordinary life. I didn't want to go to college, get a boring dead-end job, get married, and keep working...at that boring dead-end job... just to pay the bills and barely support my family.

NO! I wanted more out of life!

Don't get me wrong – there's nothing wrong with going to college, getting a good job, and getting married. But I wanted to give my family everything they deserved, all the wonderful things life has to offer – AND I wanted to be fulfilled while I was doing it!

I wanted to live my dream, enjoy what I was doing with my life, and make enough money to LIVE...not to get by, but to really LIVE!

Most importantly, my friend, I wanted to find a way to serve others and make a difference!

So I started reading all the books about success and personal development that I could get my hands on. And I attended as many courses and seminars as I possibly could.

I believed so much in the power of human potential, and in what a person can achieve if he has a dream and a clear purpose in life.

One day, after six years of searching, I discovered the giant inside of me! At last, I had found the meaning of my life. And in the process, I found a way to contribute to other people's lives.

From that moment, I started doing things I would never have been able to do before!

I'll tell you about a few of those achievements later on – but first let me tell you the number one reason for my transformation...

My life transformation began when I slowly started to venture out of the cocoon of the ordinary and began to explore the realm of the extraordinary. It began when I reclaimed the joy of waking up every morning, full of energy and exhilaration.

It began with the birth of THE LOST EMOTION, the most powerful transformational life force of all ages. Want to know what it is? Just keep reading.

This Decision Is Guaranteed to Change Your Life Forever!

One day I made a decision that was so powerful, it changed my life forever.

You're guaranteed to experience a complete life makeover if you make the same decision.

Here is the story...

One night I was sitting around thinking of how I was living my life. I had always been amazed by the great achievements and high levels of success reached by top successful people, and I was wondering why successful people are so rare and why most people tend to live mediocre lives.

I kept thinking along those lines, until I suddenly shifted my thinking 180 degrees. Instead of thinking why this and why that, I made a firm decision – the decision that I consider the spark for ALL greatness on earth.

And that decision was...

"I won't settle for a good life – only a spectacular one."

Wow...Wow...Wow

Powerful...Powerful...Powerful

Most of us just hope to live a good life – to have a nice family, to raise good kids, to have a decent job.

But greatness and the creation of everlasting success begin when you aspire to live a spectacular life.

A life that makes an impact and leaves a legacy. A life that gets you out of the cocoon of the ordinary and into the realm of the extraordinary. A life that ensures you are remembered after you pass away.

The Lost Emotion

We are born to succeed and make a difference. We have a mission to accomplish from the moment we enter into life. That mission is to make the world a better place to live in. That mission is to make a difference that will positively impact thousands, even millions of people. That mission is to serve and cultivate value that will benefit the generations to come.

Don't ever settle for good life – only a spectacular one.

Make the decision today, and I guarantee that if you are committed to it, you will experience a complete life makeover.

Live SPECTACULARLY starting TODAY!

And please take care as you'll soon hear the following...

Education vs. Passion – Which Should Win?

“Are you crazy?!”

“Do you want to throw five years of engineering education in the wastebasket just to follow what you call your ‘passion’?”

“Forget about it. You’ll never make it.”

“You trained as an engineer and that is what you should do for the rest of your life.”

“Don't waste five years of education, my dear.”

Can you relate to these declarations? These bits of “wisdom” that other people call “advice”?

That was the first challenge I faced when I started following my passion and living my true purpose in life. This is what I heard from my parents, my friends, and my family. Sure, they were all just trying to give me their honest advice, but they didn't realize that there is only one path to success – and that is the path of passion!

The biggest challenge for me was figuring out how to start from scratch in a field that I knew nothing about. Could I do it just because I loved it? Would that work? Was it possible?

Did I really waste five years of education? Should I continue on that path just because I already spent five years of my life following it?

Let me tell you this bluntly, based on my experience and the point I've reached now, after five years of following my passion BOLDLY:

Fact #1: You can neglect five years of education – it's better than neglecting the rest of your life. Five years shouldn't determine or destroy the entire course of your life.

Fact #2: You only excel at what you love to do. Education won't make you excellent.

The Lost Emotion

Fact #3: Education won't provide you satisfaction. Satisfaction only comes from your heart, by following your passion.

Fact #4: Your past should never control your future. As Stephen Covey says: "Live out of your imagination, not your history."

Fact #5: All great people achieved massive success because they followed their passion and their spiritual impulse.

Fact #6: Your true purpose in life is where your maximum passion lies. You can only embrace your life and get the most out of it if you follow your unique purpose. Otherwise, you just live a half-hearted, meaningless life.

Fact #7: I have never achieved greater levels of success and satisfaction than I did when I simply followed my passion. And I did it faster than I would have if I had taken any other path. In just five years, I became an internationally recognized success guru! And yes, I started without any previous knowledge or education.

Passion performs miracles, my friend.

Don't let anything or anyone override your passion.

Passion gives you a beautiful sense of freedom, satisfaction, and meaning.

To achieve massive success, you just need a passion that is much more powerful than all your fears and all that the naysayers tell you.

Unleash your passion, and feel the power of an enlightened life.

When you have to choose between Education and Passion, don't hesitate for a moment. If you want to live your ideal life, then there is only one answer. And the answer is LIVE WITH PASSION.

The path to success is the path paved with passion. Now, you might ask: "What about the problems that I might face along the way?!"

And the answer is: "They DON'T matter!!!"
