Home Internet Business Ideas

The background of the book cover features a silhouette of a person walking a dog under a large, leafless tree at sunset. The sky is a warm orange color, and the tree's branches are dark against the light. The person and dog are walking away from the viewer towards the right side of the frame.

Home Internet Business Ideas

By the time you finish reading this ebook about developing home internet business ideas for yourself, you will feel that a whole new future has been made possible for you. A place of infinite possibilities and personal financial security. Remember what it felt like when you were a little kid and everything was right with the world, when you were safe and secure? That feeling is about to return.

Obviously, this is all new territory for you if you are reading this ebook. Stay with it and you will be free before you know it! Decide now to put an end to breaking your back to create someone else's security. Clamp your jaw like Suzie in the little story below and create the future you deserve, raise those you love to high ground before a tsunami of bad events makes it impossible for you to make things better and safer.

Unlock the gem hidden in this true short story that applies to YOU:

As I write this, it is August of 2013. I live in North Central Canada where the forests grow thick and wild. A few weeks ago, a man was camping in a remote area and he decided to go for a walk after breakfast. Hearing a noise behind him, he turned to see a massive black bear stalking him. He ran for his life, the bear close behind.

The man ran into a lake and the bear charged in after him. Out of the forest, howling like a runaway 18 wheeler, striking like a Hell Fire missile, Suzie, the man's little Schnauzer dog, attacked. He later related that a rattle snake protecting its young could not have struck more viciously or with more speed.

Her Papa was in trouble. True to her nature, nobody and nothing was going to hurt her Papa.

The stage was set. A 15 pound dog, seething with terror and rage, sank its teeth into the face of a drooling 500 pound bear. We'll never know for sure, but Suzie must of known in her loyal, little dog heart that this was going to be a battle to the death. Hers. No matter.

It was no physical contest yet little Suzie had 2 great resources at her disposal to buy Papa some time. Love and commitment. Her Papa was in danger. Her personal safety was not an issue.

The man had already suffered severe injuries from the bear, but by the time Suzie's ear shredding screams of agony had died away, her diversion had bought him enough time to barely get away.

In Memoriam: Suzie

Little Suzie saw a terrible, urgent need; to protect her Papa at all costs. She didn't wait to see "how things would turn out", she did what she had to. She took action. That was Suzie.

What about you?

A true story about you: There is a great, black beast stalking you and your loved ones right now. It goes by many names: offshore outsourcing, mechanization, efficiency, becoming obsolete and so forth. The most dangerous parts of this beast are the incredible government debts and the people on Wall Street who like to play chicken with your retirement funds.

All it will take is a shift in the weather or something else in this volatile world and the whole house of cards will come tumbling down. You don't know it yet, but at the conclusion of this ebook, you will feel a sense of elation, of no longer being at the mercy of all the forces in the world that push, control and take advantage of you.

It can happen to any of us. I never believed it myself until I watched the news casts of people's belongings getting ruined in cardboard boxes in the pouring rain on sidewalks. This was after sheriffs had pried them out of their homes during the financial crises of 2008. These were good, honest, middle class people. I can't imagine what they were feeling.

You don't have to give your life to protect your loved ones like little Suzy did, but let this book whet your appetite to create for yourself a safe little harbor of security where you and those you love will be free of any harm that will shred society.

Read this ebook slowly, cautiously seeing how you can build your own, risk free defence against the threats that are looming. Everyone has hobbies. Read this ebook to the very end and learn how almost any hobby or pass time can be turned into a worthwhile business online. Be the little Suzie for those you love. Instead of giving your life, give of your time and let your mind run free.

What this ebook shows you is how to create your own secure financial fortress on the web using a system and set of tools that creates such wonderful, secure lifestyles that one such small online business was featured one day on Oprah.

The featured site is about RVing. It could be about anything from a web business dealing in stuffed rabbits to dealing in private jets. The theme or subject of the site doesn't matter. Only the quality of the content.

Home Internet Business Ideas

Introduction

Read this ebook to the end. Learn that there is a way for you to protect yourself and those you love from economic catastrophe. Everyone knows that the world is a volatile place. Some seemingly unrelated event far away all of a sudden has a sudden impact on you and your loved ones. It could be the price of fuel going through the roof. Maybe someone you know is called into military service. Somebody on Wall Street makes a decision and your partner is out of work and out of luck.

Practically everyone is hooked up to the internet. What this means is that practically everyone has access to the World Wide Web and the incredible market it represents. Never before has so much been available to everyone for free. Whether you make violins, are an expert at growing vegetables or are knowledgeable about anything else, there is plenty of market on the web for you to build a business for yourself.

The more you keep reading this document, the more you feel that home internet business ideas and the businesses from them that you can build are the way for you to create a buffer for yourself from the vicious ravages of the outside world. Remember that the Internet is the great equalizer. It makes for a level playing field. You want to start slowly, risk free and build on a solid foundation. You must know what you are doing, however, and that is the reason for this ebook.

Volume 1 of this “Make Your Knowledge Sell” series is available on Kindle for $1.99. It fits in with this ebook like two pieces of a puzzle complimenting each other perfectly. For the price of a cup of coffee, it will be the most significant purchase you will ever make.

STOP! and go over there right now before you forget ☺

At $1.99, I’m not making a killing, folks.

Just click on the “Volume 1” link above. NOTE: Please give an honest review of the ebook after you’ve finished it. If there are things that should be better, I want to know. If it is really good, I want to know what works, too. Either way, please take the few moments to honestly review it on the Kindle page that the link above takes you to after you've read it.

The second link will take you to a page on my website. It is a simple 3 minute video that shows what can be done with what you are about to learn. The video is about a small, online business that is so secure and unusual that Oprah featured it on her show. It will show you what niche websites are about and it will send your mind racing in all directions as you start thinking of all the possibilities for yourself! Click on "Oprah."

The third link is a video tour. This one is about 30 fabulous minutes long and covers the tools I use to build my websites and to SEO everything. I even SEO the ebooks I create. This ebook ranks #1 at Google for the terms "online business optimization" and "internet online marketing advertising business". My website Home-Online-Incomes came in at #1 against as field of 383,000,000 today (that's no accident!). The other day I caught myself starting to SEO my grocery list. No, I'm not kidding. "Doh!" The search engine results will vary a bit day to day, but this thing works.

You won't have to leave your name or anything.

The fourth link is to a page on my site titled "How To Sell

Online". Read the introductory paragraphs and then search the free library below. There are 12 ebooks covering everything from how to start your own ebay business, how to become a WAHM (work at home mom) developing your own home internet business ideas to how to make your knowledge sell. There is no charge and, again, you are not asked for your name or email address, but you will get a ton of high quality, free education. *Make sure to bookmark the page. You will want to come back and download many times. Give the url to anyone you know who might benefit from the information

Ch1 What is this all about?

Regarding home internet business ideas, there is no shortage of choices.

What is an Internet business income opportunity? This is one question that many people ask when they first learn about working at home through the internet. The fact is that you can make a good residual income by working at home with an internet business. The start up expenses associated with an internet business income opportunity are nowhere near what it would cost you to start up a regular bricks and mortar business. Selling on the Internet is called ebusiness and millions of people have latched onto this new way of making money, a very good Internet business income opportunity.

What if you were shown more home internet business ideas than you knew what to do with? How would you choose? This ebook will cover all that.

Consider all the things you have to do to start up your own regular business. Office space, staff, salaries, cost of equipment – these all add up to a huge start up expense. With an Internet business income opportunity, you get everything you need for your Internet business start up for the cost of a small cup of coffee a day.

Do you love animals? Start a pet grooming salon, pet food store, natural pet food recipe site, pet safety harnesses for in the car, pet clothing line to name just a few ideas.

How about a Chihuahua spa site for little ladies like the one below in pink? There is grooming to be explored. How about creating and selling your own videos on dog training, dog grooming, Chihuahua history, dog and cat Winnebagos, travel tips for pets (don't try to bring your Boa on an airplane) and so forth.

A sad part of owning pets is when they go to that big cat little box in the sky. How about an internet site on requiems for beloved pets. People from all walks of life are starting up their own home based business which lets them work from home on a full or part time basis.

The Internet business start up expenses only include the cost of a computer, an Internet connection, the purchase of a domain name and web hosting services and these are included in the cost of the system I use. If you already have your own computer and the Internet connection, then you are already on your way to taking advantage of one of many Internet business income opportunity that you are about to discover.

An internet business operates from your own home. Depending on what it is that you do, you don't have to have a stock pile of inventory or deal with shipping products to customers. Are you beginning to see how your choice of home internet business ideas virtually has no limits. You can become a reseller, which means you simply take the orders from customers through your website. You do need to find a supplier for your Internet business start up, but this is easy to do.

It involves something called affiliate marketing and is covered in a later chapter. You can build a risk free business on anything from flower pots to jet aircraft. With this type of internet business income opportunity, you can sell products from your website by sending the orders to a company, which in turn sends them out to the customers. You retain a part of the profit from each and every sale.

One thing you do need to know about an Internet business as you explore home internet business ideas and that is that it is not a get rich quick scheme. You do have to work at it and working from home requires discipline. It means that you want to devote a specific amount of time each day to growing your business, whether that is finding new affiliates for your website, adding new products to sell or spending time writing. Most of the Internet business income opportunities give you all the tools you need to succeed, but you do need to work at it. Just setting up a website and not doing anything with it will not get you anywhere, I don't care what the sales page said.

If you are looking for an Internet business income opportunity, there is no shortage of choices. The more you keep reading this document, the more you feel that there are no limits to what you can add to your list of home internet business ideas.

Choosing

an Internet Marketing Plan for Your Business:

It's no big news to say that the internet has transformed how world business works. Companies of all sizes are taking the power of web marketing and using it to promote their products and services. This is the norm amongst companies starting up who desire a fast and vast global reach.

Sites like PRWeb and PRlog allow you to submit a press release on your latest innovation and have it read by thousands of viewers on Google news. Not to mention that those sites have a high ranking with the search engines. Imagine what it would be like if you would build an exciting, highly profitable web site around the wildest of your home internet business ideas?

Provided your press releases are written properly and informative, showing the benefits, and optimized for search engines with the correct choice of keywords used to find your products, that press release will be found over and over again.

It's all about click throughs. This is the action someone takes when a site link or button is pressed to open a web page containing details of the product or service. Depending on the suitability to the interested visitor, this could be a conversion to a sale. This is the essence of the internet in marketing for businesses.

Google offer a wonderful set of tools to augment any plans set out by the marketing department or the sole marketer. Google analytics allows you to track all your visitor activity and conversions and plan out campaigns around those findings if this is what you want. And you will start to feel better and better about your home internet business ideas being too outlandish. You can research the right keywords that will allow your site pages to rank high in the search engines so people will find your site no matter what the subject.

Using the internet, you can build a mailing list by starting a blog and inviting people to opt-in for a newsletter or a free product. This in turn provides a good ROI (Return On Investment) that other forms of media cannot compete with. Your web site is operating 24/7, literally taking orders while you sleep. This has left many traditional channels for media exposure quite redundant which is why so many magazines have spent a lot of time crafting a web presence.

The internet in marketing strategies involves so many aspects that will drive a business. You can send email newsletters that launch a product or new benefit to a mailing list. Now, let me ask you this. Do you still have home internet business ideas that you still deem silly?

Video has brought in a wealth of possibilities for viral marketing with video clips showing business promotions. YouTube has become a platform for business launches as a result. There is podcasting, distributing audio files that talk about a business venture or the benefits of its products. People are moving away from TV, radio and the yellow pages in vast numbers to gather up to date information on the web.

Maybe you enjoy the great outdoors. You can build sites on:

Dude ranches

Horse riding stables

Horse care

Horse training

On how to become a weekend cowboy

Western clothes

Western movies

Camping

Terra caching

To just name a few. Go through old Readers' Digests and so forth for more ideas. Your local magazine racks are another great source of ideas.

A series of articles placed in blogs and article directories like goarticles.com and USFreeads.com can catapult a product launch. All you need to do is provide your email address or a link to your web site. Google Adwords allows you to bid on popular keywords allowing for direct targeting to your services using search engines. Care needs to be taken here as it can be expensive so consult an SEO expert initially about using the internet in marketing with Adwords.

An online shop allows you to sell to anyone globally. Your revenue potential then becomes limitless.

Choosing The Right Opportunity for You:

Whether technology like computers is your forte or not, it is a means to make money if you have some skills to offer in specific areas. Some people are great at marketing, or at building web sites, so they sell online design and SEO services. Imagine what you could do if you knew that there were no limits to what home internet business ideas could work out. There are no limits. Others are handymen, great with a toolkit and can build houses, perform expert carpentry tasks and so could setup an online business that sells their own style of furniture or offer an interior design service. How about a site on decks, on interior decorating, driveway repair, appliance repairs, making your own curtains and so on.

There are two paths towards an online business opportunity.

A home based job, or a home based business.

Just picture this for a moment, home internet business ideas that know no limits. If you wish to work from home, in your own business, you will need to establish your skill strengths. All you need to do to start is draft a business plan, whom will you sell to, how will you reach them and what's the competition? Do you have an edge on the market? Can you offer something that is missing with your competitors?
