

Your New World Of Career Choices

How To Win At The Game Of Finding A New “Job”

©Copyright 2011 – Paul Kaliher, SMS Design, Inc.

Did you just lose your job? Or, are you afraid you are just about to lose it?

I've been in your shoes three times in my career, and I know how painful it is and how you can sometimes lose hope. But, even if it doesn't seem obvious right now, you do have a whole new world of career opportunities. Right now is the best time ever to consider what you really want to do next with your life. Maybe you just want to find another job like the one you just lost. Or, maybe, you want to find a different job, a better job. Or, perhaps it is time for you to get out of the rat race completely.

Inside, you'll find out what your options are, the advantages and disadvantages of each, and what to do next.

There is hope! Read, think, act, succeed.

This Ebook is provided in a PDF presentation format so it is easy to read and absorb.

What's It All About Alfie?

- ⊕ How to get the right start to this new phase of your life
- ⊕ Your career choices, along with their advantages and disadvantages
- ⊕ Consider the option of starting your own part time or full time business
- ⊕ The steps necessary for success in winning the “find a new job” game, or the “start your own business” game

Getting a good start

Now is the time to reevaluate what you want to do with the rest of your life

- ✚ Identify your Core Desires
 - ▣ (What do you really want?)
- ✚ Identify your strengths
 - ▣ (What are you really good at?)
- ✚ Move forward decisively
 - ▣ (Take massive action in the right direction)

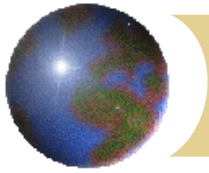

Identify Your Core Desires

- ✦ Identifying your core desires will help you determine what you really want out of life, and will help you leverage your passions and strengths to accomplish your core desires. A core desire is not just a superficial “I want to be rich”, for example. It is the deeper reason why you want to be rich, such as “I want the freedom to do what I want, when I want, and where I want (and being rich will give me that freedom)”.

Identify Your Strengths

- ❖ What are you really good at? Playing to your strengths is a strategy for long term success. But, first, you must look inside yourself, be honest, and list the things you are really good at. Everybody is good at something. You are probably good at doing more things than you realize. You might ask your ten closest family members or friends what they think you are good at doing. Once you know your strengths, you want to focus on doing those things, and let others do the things important for your business that you are not good at doing.

Move Forward Decisively

- ❖ Nothing happens without action. You can plan and plan, and dream and dream, forever. It might be pleasant to plan and dream. But, nothing will happen unless you act on your plans and dreams. Do your planning and dreaming, and then choose a course of action and move forward decisively. Take massive action until you have accomplished your goals. You'll be so glad you did.

What Are Your Options:

- ⊕ Find a new job similar to your old job
- ⊕ Find a new job that is very different than your old job
- ⊕ Buy a new job
 - ⊕ Buy a franchise
 - ⊕ Buy some other business
- ⊕ Start your own business
- ⊕ Retire or work part time if you can afford it

One Option To Always Consider

- ✦ My personal opinion: At least half of all job seekers should be starting and building their own business (yes...you too), even when they get a new job (start a business part time on the side)
- ✦ But, don't "jump off a cliff" and abandon your job search efforts to start your business. You probably need income right now, and you may not get enough income fast enough with any new business of your own.

Your Career Choices

Next, Let's Look At Each Of Your Options Separately:

- ⊕ Find a new job similar to your old job
- ⊕ Find a new job that is very different than your old job
- ⊕ Buy a new job
 - ⊞ Buy a franchise
 - ⊞ Buy some other business
- ⊕ Start your own business
- ⊕ Retire or work part time if you can afford it
