Chapter 1

I got the above on a LinkedIn Page. A pity I don't recall from whom hence I can't provide an attribution

I once was a horrible alcoholic. Sadly, when I was on my path to recovery I had no idea, I had several addictions. One of them was being a sucker to internet marketers.

I was born in San Francisco in the United States in 1970, to two loving parents who I cannot fault for the way my life eventually turned upside down. I did get all the love, attention and affection I desired as an only child. I was very shy, probably a result of the amount of moving we had to do. I grew up in the Philippines, UK, Singapore, South Africa, Morocco, Colombia, etc.

I was an average kind of person. I never did shine and had very few friends. When my parents passed away as I was abroad, I sought attention through other means. I dropped out of college/high school. Most of my life between the ages of 18 and 25 was uneventful. At 25 I got married to someone I considered a soul mate. Although I was still struggling with addictions, she became a pillar of support in my life. I relapsed.

A life as a hippie, rebel, and trouble maker made my life spiral out of control. I convinced myself I was a truth seeker, when in actual fact I was lost. I finally hit rock bottom when I got divorced, lost most of what I had and the respect of my family.

I was dead alive! I won't bore you with the details but the reality is I struggled to keep myself going emotionally, spiritually and financially (paying rent). Luckily the one thing I had was my laptop and an internet connection.

During this time I started to read up a lot on motivation and self-help. The bad news is just like so called internet marketing gurus, most self help gurus are charlatans wanting to make a quick buck. They made me deny my problems as I tried to manifest something out of nothing and dug myself deeper into a pit. The good news is in self help there is a wealth of information that is truly transformative once understood right.

Frustration set in and led me to just Google terms like “make money online”. This took me to the world of internet marketing that promised me instant millions. I gave it my all and I sucked. I still know exactly which guru (whom I will not mention) I bought a very expensive program from, but it flopped. I even had a series of e-mail altercations but still my money was gone. I had been duped was acting like a robot in those days looking out for the latest products using all my hard earned income from menial jobs I did.

I know most of you or at least some of you will relate with me here. I was posting posts like “I am making $200 a day...Blah blah blah...When in actual fact I was losing $200 a week. I started to believe my lies and the lies of the gurus. These are the times I wished I was as well read as I am now.

As they tell you, when you reject something you tend to go to the extreme opposite direction. The make money online programs that wasted my time and money were glossy, full of bling, salsey and sleazy. In rebellion I joined the several dull programs that seemed like a direct opposite thinking certainly I had hit jackpot. I had not yet understood the synthesis of two opposites. I wasted more time, clicking away my life rarely making much.

When I turned 40 I had an epiphany. I was living a life with no purpose. I needed to turn my life around in a dramatic way. Listen to me here, I am not talking about things that happened 20 years ago. I turned 40, 4 years ago. I am talking 4 years ago. It is only recently that I am implementing my master plan to steer my life towards my purpose and make money online.

At 42 I quit the internet marketing arena worked as a salesman, baggage carrier, travel guide, etc. I hated these jobs. Reading kept me going. I finally came upon a set of books that transformed my life. It is then I understood that you have to use what is there to change your life. When life gives you a lemon make lemonade all of sudden made sense. I got back to internet marketing wiser. Everything was crystal clear as to how I needed to make money online and also help others do the same. I have limited technical knowledge but as you get to know me you will see how simple the things I do, but how in essence there is an element of genius. I had escaped the matrix!

I have since recently got back to the game of internet marketing. I am using some of the strategies I disliked in a positive way to help myself and others make money online fast, faster and fastest. I am a happy internet marketer, affiliate marketer, transformation coach, entrepreneur making enough to keep me going and focused on the things I enjoy aimed at fulfilling my purpose.

I have been in the gutter and pulled myself out, so can you. You can make money online fast. So let's get started! Maybe soon I will be popular but I doubt as I will let you know there really is an inner circle from which most of us are barred from in the make money online space. I have also recently published a book. The shortest online money making e-book ever! Look out for it on Kindle, Barnes and Noble, Lulu, Smashwords and other pdf directories.

Even if you are a seasoned marketer; this current book you are reading book is also for you. This make money online game is like a jigsaw puzzle that one has to solve if you miss one piece you can get all of it wrong. Therefore be patient and let us go back way back to the foundation.

Chapter 2

Behavioral Psychology is concerned with people's observable behaviors and relates to concepts such as Conditioning, Reinforcement and Punishment.

In the bold letters in the above paragraph I have exposed the secrets as to why so-called gurus take advantage of you. This book is about making money online fast, so I do not have time to go into details, I leave that to you to read for yourself and research the above topics. I have opened the door for you! Secrets revealed!

You are struggling to make money online due to a wide range of psychological reasons also; some are emotional, social and cognitive factors. We tend not to make rational decisions when getting online money making products. It's time to break the cycle. This book you are reading is powerful, use it to its full potential.

Daniel Kahneman the 2002 Nobel Prize winner in economics elaborated quite well on these topics such as Heuristics-how people often make decisions based on approximate rules of thumb and not strict logic. Framing-the collection of anecdotes and stereotypes that make up the mental emotional filters individuals rely on to understand and respond to events.

The so called gurus have an information monopoly and exploit psychology to con you. The less you know the more they gain. It's time to take charge of your life and stop being a sucker.

LETS MAKE MONEY ONLINE FAST-LETS START WITH A GOOD FOUNDATION!

Why do you buy from Nike, etc all the top brands. Trust and reputation is built and not bought. I have never come across a shop that sells trust and reputation so why are you wasting time not building it.

Trust and reputation don't require you to be an expert. I once knew a lady who was not an expert on technical aspects of Internet Marketing, but, because she was very sincere, offered help whenever needed, she soon set up a large community of beginner internet marketers. Because people could relate to her, saw where she came from and trusted her, she makes income online and a difference in people's lives.

People approach Internet Marketing incorrectly. They jump straight into trying to become a Pro. They try to sell products to people without a name or a brand. Want to know why people like John Chow, Mike Filsame, Peng Joon etc can sell products easily? In addition to reputation, they invest in knowledge and being efficient in executing what they do and so should you!

It's because, they put a lot of hardwork in building a brand and reputation. Whereas other people are going to simply ask "who are you?", when you try to sell them products. You don't have to have a reputation equal to them, but at least have a presence online. Next I talk about the simplest tool to build your reputation and so we get started in our step by step system.

I will not refer you to countless options of products and resources to crack your head. I will refer you to the right products to get started so you never have to waste time again!
