Corporate Banking and Mental Health meet head on in this fast paced thriller.

Harry Rowlandson, a wealthy Banking Chairman finds that his whole world is about to be turned upside down after a chance attack.

He must prove to his friends and family that he hasn't met the same cruel fate as his late sister.

However, sinister forces are set in motion and Harry must fight not only for his mental health but for all the he holds dear to his heart.

A spine tingling, nail biting novel by Allen Cooke, one that is sure to keep you on the edge of your seat!
