Preface

Teaching is a one of the noble professions and to the surprise of many, the most trusted profession in the world, next comes nursing. To teach is to preach and there has to hence some innovation in teaching practices with the march of time. We just can not teach the way we were taught and there comes the importance of “200 WOW TEACHING IDEAS” towards quality spectrum for all at all levels of teaching and learning.

I am sure my book, 200 WOW TEACHING IDEAS would help and inspire the teaching fraternity to explore excellence and students’ delight which is none the less a requisite today rather than just being a desire. We must learn to explore the power of learning with a spree of learning to learn as a hobby rather than an occasional occurrence for our future builders of our nation, our students.

IDEA 1

Change your vocabulary of teaching:

Think different.

Children no longer love the

What they want is A for Android,
B for Blackberry and C for Cloud!

- IDEA 2

Make use of colored chalk for writing on the black board. Also explore the possibility of using WHITE Boards and Colored Markers as a practice.
