Chapter 1

Men Don't Really Know What They Want

Dear Friend,

Let me start this letter by asking you a few questions. Please be honest when you answer them.

Have you ever felt frustrated because the relationship is stuck and going nowhere? Have you ever felt confused about what he's thinking and why he's not responding to you the way you'd like? Have you ever felt a lack of deep connection between you two? Doesn't it just kill you that when it comes to communicating with him, you have no idea what to say or what to do to get your desired outcome?

Have you ever wondered how some women can get any man they like? They are never the best-looking, the smartest, or the most accomplished. But for whatever reason, they can get a man to do anything for them ... without even lifting a finger.

If so, you are not alone. For many years, I was confused about how attraction works. I had no idea what to do or what to say to get my desired outcome. It took me many painful trials and errors to finally figure out these must-know secrets that will help you transform your love life.

1 Targeted Action Results in a Targeted Outcome

To get your desired outcome in love, you need to execute the actions that will result in that specific outcome.

I used to believe that attracting a man was about being myself and having my fingers crossed, hoping for the best. The reality is that attracting a man is no different from getting a new client.

In either case, both are looking for specific things that can satisfy their needs. And your actions indicate to them if you have those qualities that they're looking for.

Summary – Secret # 1:

To get your desired outcome in love, you need to execute the actions that will result in that specific outcome. Target Mr. Right and show him you have the qualities he is looking for.

2 Attraction is a Learned Skill

Being an attractive woman isn't something you're born with. If you look at the top seductresses who have seduced some of the most powerful men in the world, you would notice that beauty is not their most important asset. A deep understanding of male psychology and how seduction works will serve you better than a pretty face.

You may have heard of some of these legendary seductresses: Cleopatra, Wallis Simpson and the now infamous Camilla Parker-Bowles.

These women were neither the smartest nor the most beautiful (please tell me you know someone who looks better than Camilla!). But there is one thing they know and understand better than 99.9% of women in this world – they know HOW TO INFLUENCE MEN.

In other words, they know how to align men to their way of thinking and make them want to satisfy each and every one of their little wishes. They also make men fall so deeply in love that in the case of Wallis Simpson, King Edward VIII gave up his throne to spend his life with “the woman I love.”

Imagine you want to become a successful account. You will have to LEARN how to work with numbers. Right?

To be a successful woman in the dating world, you need to LEARN the skills of attracting and keeping the man of your dreams.

Summary – Secret # 2:

When it comes to attraction and seduction, beauty is not your most important asset. To be a successful woman in the dating world, you need to LEARN the skills of attracting and keeping the man of your dreams.

3 Most Men are Confused

Here's the reality: most men are confused. They can be the smartest guys when it comes to work, but when it comes to what make them feel deep attraction for a woman, they're just as confused as we are sometimes. The thing is that most men don't know what they want. Take up the challenge (AND the responsibility) to figure out what he truly wants and then give it to him.

Have you ever met a guy who told you something like this, "I like a nice, honest woman who doesn't play games and who truly cares about me." Then, you see this exact same guy fall for a woman who play games and who doesn't care about him at all.

Have you ever dated a guy who told you he liked a woman to act a certain way and when you did exactly as he asked, he got bored and lost interest?

And how about this one?

The guy would say that he loves you and wants to be with you, but he never makes time for you or dates you.

If you have ever seen any of these inconsistencies between what he says and what he does, you've witnessed one of many examples of the fact that men are confused and they don't know what they want.

Summary – Secret # 3:

Many men are simply confused and do not know what they want. Take up the challenge and the responsibility to find out what he wants and then give it to him.
