Chapter 41-Reunited

Earth Base is the same, as usual. I am feeling pretty good as I check in. Reeas is over-the-moon. Sionn is his usual self, which is very sober, but even he can't help smiling.

'How did you know I could pull it off,' I said?

'I knew; let us just leave it at that.'

'Where is Kallo, now?'

'We believe he is with Mannus!'

'What?'

'Yes,' he is being reprocessed.'

'Can we expect to meet him again?'

'Surely, Sionn said, 'but in what manner, I don't know.'

'Do you mean, he could be totally different?'

'Yes.' Sionn said, 'one can't be near Mannus, and expect to be the same.'

'Why was he allowed to get so out of control?'

'I will just say, Karma, and let it go at that.'

'He must have killed thousands.' I said.

'Much more than that, Dan, there comes a time when even the Guardians have to say enough is enough. The people will be reincarnated, but the effect from these experiences will linger a long time, also the agents working for Kallo are still out there and there will also be many apprentices. The work goes on,' said Sionn. All I want to do is Dance with Reeas! What Song, you ask. What about one from the old masters, you can pick whichever you want, they are all appropriate.

OK, my student friends, please continue with your efforts to become Trainee-Guardians, it will be worth it. Trust me!

I see Sionn wants me to go on another mission to the Astral World. I hope you will follow my exploits through the central databank, You now know how to access it, so onward my friends.

This next job is special. I have been asked to go into the lower levels alone, and I won't be given any information until later. This is not making my training any easier, I can tell you, my friends, please be patient. This job was not going to be easy, I know that, but why should it require so much effort to simply adjust my consciousness to a lower level? I have been in places like this before, maybe it is my own mind that has moved on, I know it sounds stupid, but the experiences I have been through over the past months, years, millennia, I don't know how long. On the astral world time doesn't register. I could go to the beginning of time or the end of time. The particular job I have to do, was, on the face of it, fairly easy, although I had made errors before thinking that something was going to be easy. I needed to get my mind in check! Why did Sionn want me to take this job on with no help from anyone, even Debra, simply because the consciousness of the place is too low, and so, I am on my own again! Could Sionn be testing me out, again? All I want is to reach his position, but I know it will be a long time before that happens. He said that I will have a helper when I reach Level-18; whoever it is will have to be very special, with access to the light book. They will also have to be able to reach level-18; they will have to decipher the access code, which seems very unlikely! This person will have to be very able indeed, but I have met some very able people while I have been with Sionn, so I will have to wait and see. Is Sionn sizing someone up for training, or is there something more to it? With the experiences I have had up to now the unexpected is all I can expect. Being a Trainee-Guardian-of-Space isn't easy my friend, as you will find out as we progress through this level!

Chapter 42-Astral World, Level 9, Lower Level.

I don't know why I am worried; all I have to do is transfer my consciousness into the base station on whatever level I am on and simply get back to Sionn and Reecas. Reecas is the love-of-my-life or I should say past lives; lives too numerous to mention. The thing is, I feel scared, and I have never felt like this on any of the worlds I have been on, and I have been on some scary planets, I can tell you. All I can do is assume Sionn knows I can cope, so I will trust him and my inner self, as usual. Right, I have to be at level 18 in exactly 42 days, that is physical time, although as you know by now, astral day time is non-existent but people who think they are still alive are still on a 24 hour clock. The job here, is to get a Manic-Monster to move on! It sounds simple, I know, but Manic-Monsters are not known for their patience. They are from the lower levels of the Astral Worlds, yes, I know we are on the lower levels already but I mean the really lower levels. Somehow this one has made it to level 11 and that is the scary part, I don't know what, or who, helped the monster to get to level 11 but whoever it is knows how to control a Manic-Monster and that alone is scary. Let me say here, I have been to a lot of lower levels but this is the lowest I have been up to now. As you know, trainee, sorry to call you that, but I don't know your name yet, your Physical body will be in the Earth base station at Kelsay in Northumberland, England, while we are on this mission.

Sionn informed me I won't be able to wake up until the job is done, that is another scary part of this job. So you also won't be able to wake up, I guess it is now up to us alone to complete this mission. You also know you can help by sending me your thoughts, or Telepathic messages, like my trusting friend Deria, she is a higher life form in the body of a fairy. God, I wish she were here now, she might have the body of a small being, but she has the consciousness of a Master-Guardian. I already know her abilities can't penetrate this heavy atmosphere here on the lower levels. OK, I should be getting some sort of signal from you by now! I have been waiting here in near total darkness for 5 hours. I know this is the right place as the marker for the invisible level is showing a red light, that means that anyone who has a degree of higher consciousness can see the way, also the danger of going into a lower world. Yes! I just got a signal from you. 'Thank you Tamia 2, I see you are a female, although I cannot access any more detail about you; I feel you are an able friend, yes, I know we can now go to Phantom-Point, I see it is not a nice place to spend any time but we will be OK, I feel I am getting my confidence back, onwards my friend.'

Chapter 43-Phantom Point Level 10

'First of all, I want to congratulate you on getting past The Deep-Thought-Codes at Earth-Base, also it means we are on a very similar level of consciousness, maybe we were past life partners, although you know me, I can't access your details yet, I am sure it is to protect you from whoever is behind all this, If I know all your details it would be dangerous; you could get trapped here, but I won't dwell on that, just keep sending me your thoughts up to level 38 on the 14th sub plane, that way it will be harder for them to access, yes, I know you already know that, I am just trying to stifle this fear, thank you for trying to cheer me up, Tamia, I know I can handle it as long as I have someone to contact. I have passed within some miles of Phantom Point on a very rough road, and I have met no one. The feeling of dread is still here, but I think I am getting used to it. I know I can handle any danger, whatever it might be, as you know, I had numerous dealings with a fearsome race of artificially created beings known as the Tourgen; one of the strongest and meanest beings ever to be put on a planet, If need be I can change into Cloft the Tourgen beast man, who was cloned for me to use on numerous occasions. I felt the time to change into Cloft is near, as my stress levels are shooting up, I feel an almighty need to be somewhere else. Suddenly from the darkness came a being I have never encountered before, or even imagined, I can also sense the fear in Tamia, all I can do is look at this being in a stupid way, as I can't make out any normal body parts, It is just a shape which floats and changes from one thing to another, one shape is a large black snakelike creature with red eyes, then it is a skeleton with a black cape and scythe, like you see sometimes as death. I guess it was trying to show it was bad or the Devil, I don't know, all I do know is I am scared. The vibrations of this thing are pure evil, I close my eyes and I can still see it! Tamia said, 'Dan, just stare it out.' I opened my eyes and said, 'Who are you?'

The creature said nothing, but I know it won't let me pass, I can now see we are at another passing-point as the red signal is up. OK, my friend, if you want to play, here we go, I felt the usual anger and rage boil up in me as I change into Cloft, the Tourgen clone. As you now know, Cloft is about 8 feet tall and 45 stone of pure muscle and teeth, with tiger like claws, and is one of the strongest creatures in the Universe. As soon as I change I can feel the tension mount as the creature before me transforms into a very large dinosaur like creature with very big teeth, it is as though it has to get back to life as an ancient being, and more animalistic. It said, "I cannot let you pass."

'Why?'

'I have been sent be my Master.'

'OK,' I said, but you will get hurt.'

I asked Tamia to try and get the name of the creature's master.

‘Watch out, Dan, Tamia, said’

I notice a dark shape move to the left side of me, this one is even more threatening than the first, although it is just watching, as I can feel no intent on action. I can feel a higher rate of vibration from the other shape. This is the so-called master, all I can think of to say is,

‘How long have you been here?’ The second dark shape said,

‘That doesn’t concern you’

‘Why don't you move on, I said.’

Suddenly the dinosaur tried to grab me, I also leap at it, we made quite a noise as we fight in the mud and dirt, I ripped a hole in the dinosaurs shoulder as it tried to sink its teeth into me, then it turned into a very large sabre-tooth tiger! I tear its throat out. I guess the creature never got by basic animal forms, unlike the Tourgen who were manufactured by man, so in the end, it had to give up, and fade away.

‘Good, Dan.’ Tamia said. I notice the second creature has also gone.

‘One sub plane done, 32 to go’ I said.

I also notice some more dark creatures watching me from the side of the road, but I don't feel any animosity, on the contrary, the feeling is of relief, I also feel lot better, and the darkness is less dark. I think, these beings can now move on. A figure in the shape of a man came into view. He said, ‘Thank you, whoever you are, for getting rid of the Shape-Shifter at the gate. Long we have waited for this moment, the way is now open to many of our people and to you also, I was the gatekeeper till the Dark Master came with his mutant friends to keep us back.

‘Have you any idea who the master of the shape-shifter is?’

‘No, but whoever it is, must be very strong, as we tried everything to overcome the darkness.’

So, I think, that is why I feel scared, this master has the ability to control not just their minds, but their consciousness. I said to Tamia, ‘ I have a feeling we will meet this Master again very shortly.’

‘Yes, Dan, let us go on.’

Chapter 44-Level 11

I move onto a higher level simply by walking through to Level 11. The feeling is a mixture of relief and wonderment as I can now make out some of what we take for granted as landscape such as trees and mountains, although these are less real and more hazier, I can still feel a threat but what exactly? I don't know. Tamia also says, she feels relief, I want to sleep, although I know I don't need it, strange how the astral body works, even after thousands of years needing sleep in the physical body, we also think need it when we pass over to the astral but we don't realize it. I can overcome tiredness, I know. I want to contact Sionn, but I can't, for some reason; I assume it is for my training. When I took this job on I assumed it would be fairly easy, as I had fought in the physical worlds, and also the other planes, so I thought this trip to the astral would be a picnic. I am beginning to think different as the meeting with the dark master was very scary, and

I know he will be waiting to trap us on the other sub planes also. It made me think of the ex-Guardian named Kallo who I had to do battle with at the former Far-Station outpost, it was a place which he had turned into a another hell hole for a lot of poor souls, surely, this dark master can't be him? Kallo is locked up in a maximum Astral World prison which is protected by Guardians; also he was neutralized by Mannus himself!

I said to Tamia, 'Can you contact Sionn?'

'No,' I was told we are on our own for the duration of the mission.'

'Why?' What is Sionn up to? Can it be he believes that this dark master will back off if he senses higher consciousness levels. I must admit, Tamia I'm finding it very hard to cope with the lower levels.'

'This is where I come in, Dan, I have had many journeys into the lower worlds.'

'Really?'

'Yes, I was a coworker on level 2 for a long time.'

'Why did you take the job?'

'My home planet was bombed out of existence after a long and bloody war with a cloned army of' ...

'Tourgen's, I blurted out.'

'Yes,' she said, 'Dan, we shouldn't really speak any more of the details in case whoever is out there is listening in.'

'No, Tamia, I have a feeling this master is not that able, otherwise he wouldn't have given up that easy on level 10, I think he is an apprentice, he may be luring us into a trap.'

'You know that we could get trapped for a long time on any of these levels, if we get caught out, Dan, don't you?'

'Yes, and I also know that Kallo was very able when he trapped me for a time on one of the sub planes back at Far-Station, but I managed to get out, we know he has trained many students to follow him, I just hope they aren't former Guardians otherwise we might be in deep trouble. A master like Kallo can promise to give you anything your heart desires without the hassle of doing service for anyone on any world; and on any plane of existence. I am beginning to adjust to this level now, Tamia, I feel good for the first time since beginning this mission, I miss Reeas though, she is an astonishing person.'

'I know Dan; I accessed her records, why wasn't she allowed to accompany you?'

'I really don't know, maybe Sionn thought I would try and protect her too much, which I indeed, would, but she also protected me. I really don't know how I would cope if I lost her.'

'That could be why he thought you would be better on your own?'

'Yes, Tamia, but I also feel you are a good friend, and ally.'

‘OK, the marker for the next level is a long way off according to my calculations, what do you think, Tamia?’

‘I feel a strange urge to go East, over that large range of mountains although I am not in the astral body I sense a strong need to help someone.’

‘Maybe it’s a trap, Tamia. The marker is telling me to go west? Right, let’s check out your urge, Tamia, we can fly over the mountains. I have got adjusted to this level more now, so let’s go.’

As we reach the mountain range I can make out large numbers of people making their way from level 11 to 12; most are walking but some have carts and horses. The technology here is far from modern as the consciousness is low, but when they reach level 12 it will improve, or rather, the people have already upgraded, so to speak, now, all they have to do is walk across the gateway to a better way of life. Imagine being a prisoner for years in a cell with no light, then suddenly, someone throws open the door to release you, your eyes will burn, but you would, in time, adjust to it. That is how it is when moving from one plane to the next. Kallo, or whoever it is, is holding people back from the light and I intend to make him pay again. That’s right; I put my Tourgen claws around his neck at Far-Station and just held him up till he died; if I get the chance this time, I will do the same. OK, you say, you are building up your karma, no, I say, it is balanced out by doing what I have been trained to do, I am a Guardian but I am also Dan Sherman, and Cloft the Tourgen, whatever I have to be, to get the job done. ‘I believe in you, Dan. said Tamia. I also want to help in any way, and I feel as though I may be able to contact Sienn soon.’

‘Great, I said, look, there is a sort of camp down there.’

‘Approach it with caution, Dan.’

The camp is about the size of a football ground, with various buildings about the place, as I get near the people start to run about in panic, I suppose it is only natural as I am still in the Tourgen body, and anyone would run from a flying tiger like creature who is eight feet tall, even more so, as I bounce off a sort of force field which is surrounding the place. Now, anyone who knows anything about the inner worlds knows that you can get hurt just by thinking you can. I know that I had hit something, but I also know I will be OK. I fall to the ground and simply get up. The people looked on in terror especially when I change into Dan Sherman. I can't hear any noise from the camp, it is, as though, they have been isolated. People are now staring out from behind their doors and anything else they can hide behind.

‘OK, I have to find a way in.’

‘I sense danger, Dan.’

‘Yes, I feel it also; but I don’t know where it is coming from, the dark master must be near. The next thing I know is I feel a sharp pain in my neck, and I'm paralyzed. I am then pushed through the force field into the camp. Nice going, Dan, trapped again. What am I doing in this Astral Hell Hole? I could have stayed with Reas in our honeymoon suit in one of the beautiful higher Astral Worlds. It is a place where I am happiest, I deliberately chose the Austrian Tyrol, as the beauty of the place is hard to beat on any physical world. Now, where am I?

‘You are in my domain, Trainee!’

I can still see and hear, but that is all, I know I am in the presence of Kallo, the ex-Guardian.

‘How did you get out of jail?’, I said.

‘There are no jails that can hold me, fool. You have the astral body of Kallo in a security cell, but as you know, I am a master of all planes, so here I am. I can't believe they sent a novice such as you to capture me, Ha. Now you will pay for killing me at Far-Station, and no, you will not be able to locate me later with your consciousness scan, as you did at the astral base, for you, the implant I put in your neck will keep you here for as long as I want you, also the realm here is of my making, so there is no escaping. You will be killed in a few hours! Yes, that's right, killed, how can that be? You ask. We are already on the Astral World, right? No, fool, we are on a world where I can manufacture life itself. Yes, this is a Physical World which I created inside the Astral World! When you die later, you will automatically come back to an Astral World of the same making. You will be trapped for eternity. Ha.’

‘You're completely mad.’

Oh, am I? Just try to shift your consciousness to the Tourgen beast when I release you in five seconds.’

My God, he's right, I'm stuck in a puny human body on a hell hole of a place with no chance of escape! Nice going, Dan, I think, what would Sionn say?

Chapter 45-Trapped

I notice, at once, that I can't contact Tamia! I am now in a dirty cell that smells awful. This must be the physical world; nothing this bad can affect me in such a way on the Astral. I think to myself, could Kallo be bluffing? Was he trying to make it seem that I am on the physical, but I would have been able to shift my consciousness, wouldn't I? Hold on, I think, Kallo was neutralized, that, I do know. OK, you say then how come he is here? I have to contact someone. This will be my last report to whoever can access my conscious wavelength.

As students, you know how I have been able to get my story down on to the Deep-Conscious Databank, at Earth base, for whoever can access it. I feel like a complete fool, yet, I have done my best, and that is what matters. Sionn, Reear, Deria, Tamia, and whoever else can access this, forgive me, for not being conscious enough. Suddenly the cell door opens, and in comes a scruffy looking jailer.

‘You will be terminated at sundown.’ he said. He then shoved a plate of inedible meat at me, which stinks to high heaven. I can now move, as the paralysis is gone. The jailer then shoved the plate at me again, and gave me a second glance. I know at once what he is trying to do, but I just look at him as if to say yes, I know, he then left. I take it for granted the cell is bugged, so I leave the plate untouched for a few minutes. The cell floor is covered in straw, so, I just pretend to stretch out and feel under the plate where I find a small battery size device which I know to be a Contact-Reacher. I think, thank Sionn, I have an ally here. I press the small button on the end of the device while hiding it under the straw, at once I can hear my beautiful little fairy friend, Deria!

‘Dan, please listen, you must be in trouble as you pressed the Contact-Reacher, I don't know what your circumstances are, so all I can say is this Contact-Reacher is from level eleven so I assume you are trapped in one of the various encampments that we know to be there, if you are in some sort of prison, then I assume again, you cannot use your abilities to get out, so I suggest you place this device against your forehead, and again press the button.’

No sooner had she said that when the hatch in the cell door opens and Kallo himself is staring at me. He has a strange look on his face. I slowly shove the device under the straw without thinking. My past life training as a Yoga teacher has stood me in good stead; I just hope it is good enough.

‘What are you trying to hide, Trainee? Oh, I see, you are trying to transform into your Tourgen friend eh? Ha, pathetic. I'm here to say you have fifteen minutes left to live in the Physical Realm, and then your life, is mine, forever.’

He then left. I know there is something different about Kallo.

Why doesn't he affect me like he used to? Is it my consciousness that has altered? Or is there something more to it. Right, here goes. I placed the device against my forehead and pressed the button. Straight away, I see Deria in all her beauty, she isn't a fairy anymore, but a beautiful young woman of about thirty, she is wearing a silken silver dress, and she has a golden tiara on her head.

‘Dan, I can't reach you, as the lower levels are too dense for me, all I can do, is tell you that whatever your problem is, it is Astral, and you can overcome it, trust your inner self and never give up, you are a Guardian-of-Space, and unlimited.’ Suddenly, she is gone!

Right, I think, this Kallo, is a bluffer, he wants me to believe I am on the Physical Plane, OK, I will play along with him, this implant he put in my neck is the thing that is holding me here. Don't forget, students, the implant in my neck is made up of Astral material and works just the same as a Physical one would in the Physical World. I know it is hard to understand sometimes but you, are students, and, as such, you will know. So, I have to, somehow, bypass this little trick that Kallo, or his apprentice has played. I now know, it will take all my strength, emotionally, spiritually and physically, as the Physical world is forever tied in with the Astral world.

‘OK, Earth man. Time to die,’ said the jailer, who is a filthy wretch with a disfigured face, and not the one that brought the Contact-Reacher. ‘OK,’ I said, ‘let's get it over with, Ugly!’

With that, he shoved a small dagger into my side, which is painful, but not, overly so. There is blood, but, as I look at it, I can see it is beginning to dry up, already. Good, it is as I thought, I am still on the Astral world. I can cope with this. I have to focus all my effort on getting back to Dan Sherman. If Sienn trusted me enough to take me on as a Guardian, then I am a Guardian. We reach a sort of execution scaffold with a small ladder like structure in the center and a noose hanging from the top. I already know this is a gruesome torture instrument from the middle-ages, it was used to hang-draw-and-quarter people, I must admit, I feel scared, but not for long, I just think of Deria in her finery, she is all a spiritual person can aspire to be, and more. I feel good now, even confident. Kallo is stood at the far end of the court yard, on a sort of podium, like an Emperor, he even raised his thumb as they used to do in ancient Rome. The executioner put the rope around my neck, I looked him straight in the eye, I can see the look of terror on his face, as I change into the Tourgen clone known as Cloft; of course, the scaffold now collapses, as my weight is too much for it. I can also see Kallo leaving the podium. I had to get to him, I run as fast as I can, but too late, he vanishes. All I can do is change back to Dan Sherman. I know Kallo won't come back, we had won another round, I notice the force field has also gone. The people are ecstatic. Tamia is again audible to me. 'Dan, you are as good as they say.'

'Really,' I said, trying to be noble. 'I couldn't have done it without Deria.'

'We can now go on to level 12.' Tamia said.

'Good, let's get going,' I said, trying to be cool.

Before I set off, I make it my business, to thank the jailer who helped me.

It turns out he is a coworker for us. What would we do without them? The place is known as Stonetop, a Bronze-Age type village before Kallo got hold of it, now it is free and ready to move on. Don't forget, students, our job is to complete a mission and not interfere with anything or anyone while we are here. That is something that Kallo and his helpers are frequently forgetting, or not caring about.

Chapter 46-Level 12 Meeting with a Master

I said to Tamia, 'Can you get through to Sionn, yet?'

'I don't know, I keep sending, but no reply,'

'I think we are both on test, Tamia.'

'Yes, I feel you are right, although, why can't I access our database, I mean, I am not as near to the actual level as you are but maybe, it is a test for us, as you say? I can see you and hear you, but I feel far away.'

'Yes, that is to protect you, but you are nearer to Sionn, so, with luck, as they say, you will contact him soon. I am sure he knows everything that is going on, but for some reason he can't interfere. I also think Reeas, Deria, and Grenwer know, but can't help us. Grenwer is a Higher Guardian, and on the same level as Sionn. I think there is more to this mission than they tell us, but I don't really know; maybe I've said too much already, but, I wonder why I should be given this job? It was supposed to be easy, and a sort of training exercise for you and me. Help to get the Manic-Monster, to its rightful place, but now we are battling with one of the greatest enemies of the spiritual and physical worlds, and we can't contact base! I want to rest, Tamia; I need a small vacation with Reeas, to charge up my batteries, she would know what to do, she has a higher consciousness than me.'

'Yes,' said Tamia, 'but you are nearer to the lower worlds, are you not? I mean, you can alter your consciousness to a far lower level, right?'

'Yes, I know, that is why they picked me, but I need more help. Reeas was always there when I needed her, she even died for me, once.'

I know, Dan, I saw it on the records.'

'Of course, Tamia, I'm sorry, I keep going on about it, but I need help, I feel we are going into more danger.'

‘Don’t worry about me, Dan; I am not near enough to be a threat to Kallo.’

‘No, but I am, and he knows a lot more about existing on the Astral Worlds than I do, I fear he has more traps for us. OK, Tamia, I have been walking for about 3 hours, and we haven’t met a soul, should we fly? I should say, I could fly, you are able to go wherever I go in spirit, so to speak.’

‘Yes, Dan, but I feel we are going the wrong way! You say the signal marker is to the East again?’

‘Yes, Tamia,’

‘I feel it is to the West again, Dan. I also feel a bad presence.’

‘Yes, me too, It could be a trick. OK, I'm going to take a break Tamia, please be patient, while I meditate.’

‘Do you think this is the right time, Dan?’

‘Yes, Tamia, I do, I can't go on without help from the Inner-Master, Sionn knows this, although he told me to be aware of danger always. I trust the Inner-master to help and protect me everywhere. I'm going to seek out Mannus, please rest awhile.’

I put myself in the lotus position and meditated. I became aware on a beautiful cloudless day in a forest clearing where the view is of extreme distance over mountains and seas. I can see more than just scenery, I am aware in the highest sense. It is difficult to put into words, but I can zoom into whatever I wanted to see or hear, whether it is wildlife or plant life, such as birds singing many miles away! I feel at peace, totally. I look to my right and see Mannus. He is, as you know, a giant of a man sitting on a large golden cushion. He looks about 30 years of age, with beautiful golden skin. He is wearing a loin cloth and he has golden bands on his wrists, and ankles, he has no hair, and looks at perfect peace. I know he isn't a man, at all, but the highest consciousness in this Universe. I can't tell you what, or who he is, or was in life. Maybe he is, or was, lots of souls rolled into one body? Maybe millions of souls. All I know is I want to be here, always.

He didn't say a word and I didn't speak either. I seem to be getting something out of just being near him. After a while, he holds up his hand as if to say goodbye, and a light began to shine forth from it, my head is reeling with the light and love that I receive.

I awake back on level 12. Tamia said, ‘Dan, there was a man here, he looked very old. I tried to contact you, but I couldn't. He said nothing, but he looked straight at me! I’m sure he sensed me. He touched you on the forehead!’

Well, if he meant me harm, I’m sure he would have done worse than that. I assume he is a coworker. I feel good now, Tamia, I met Mannus, the Lord of this part of the Multiverse.’

‘Really!’

‘Yes, and everything seems better now, I'm sure I can cope.

I now know who the old stranger is, also!

‘Really?’

‘Yes, he is an old friend from many past lives in India, schooled in the Kriya Yoga system.(Kriya means karma, and Yoga means union) A true Guru, he is a Guardian here on the twelfth level.’

‘Why didn't he wait till you woke up?’

‘There is no need. True masters are always with their students.

He probably didn't want to bring attention to me from any entities who might be around. He gave me the direction that we must go, Tamia, and it is not East or West!’

‘Really?’

‘Yes, there is a trap at Fourth-Crossing near Bolinia, which is a large town; also there is a trap at Warron-Relay-Station to the West.’

‘Good Gracious, that is fine work, Dan.’

‘Yes, the Old Master is all I know him to be, and more. We will travel in the direction that I feel is the right way, and I feel that way is to the Southwest, there won't be a marker, so, we will have to find the Hidden Gateway.’

‘What's, that?’

‘It is a gate used by people that can come and go at will, such as Masters, and Higher Beings.’

‘Wow! You are a master, Dan!’

‘Not really, but for a short time, I have been given access to certain ‘ways’ to get the job done.’

‘Are you sure about the direction Dan? I feel we should go to the West, maybe there are more people trapped and want our help?’

‘If there are, then I'm sure Sionn and company will cope, later. All I want to do is get on, we have to step things up a bit, as we are behind time.’

‘Yes, but really feel we should go west, Dan.

‘Please, Tamia, don't make things difficult for me, let us get on, we will fly over land to Calcenum-Point, then walk the short distance to the gateway.’

‘You're the boss, Dan, and I am just a coworker.’

‘You are much more than that, Tamia!’

Chapter 47-Hidden Gateway

Now, for you student Guardians out there, who think they can get this far, I have a message for you. Please keep your thoughts to yourself. That is one of the first lessons in yoga, talking, or even thinking too much, can get you in an awful lot of trouble. Control your mind, and you can achieve all things, I should know, my inability to keep my mouth shut, has, over time, got me into a lot of trouble, also, when you do speak, make sure it is always polite, and true, only bend the truth when absolutely necessary, don't brag, as it always comes back to bite you in the, you-know-where. Now, as you have access to the records at Earth base, and you know my circumstances. Let me at this point upload my conscious actions, so you can keep track of the way, so to speak, good, as a future Student-Guardian these records will be a sort of training manual for you, and any who follow you, although they will be few and far between, always remember you are eternal and cannot be hurt, either physically, or spiritually, if you are conscious of the Master. And even if you get hurt, or killed, in the service of God, you will reincarnate. Of course, you already know that.

I get a little carried away from time to time so I'm sorry if I come across as a teacher. But I am a teacher, or was? 'OK, we are coming up to the hidden gateway.'

'How do you know? Dan.'

'I can feel it, or I know it.'

I see a person standing in the exact place where we have to go. I also know this person is friendly, but I am a little wary as he is looking at me with a very 'knowing' stare.

my instinct is to just ask him what he wants, but I feel I have to wait for a time, (ten minutes actually) it was as if he is trying to access some part of my consciousness. I also know he is a master, but not the same one who touched me when I was meditating. With a casual movement he steps aside and just holds out his arm as if to usher me into the gateway, Tamia has been quiet all this time which I think is odd.

'OK, let us proceed,' I said.

'What did he want?, Dan'

'I don't know, Tamia, but he was friendly.'

'How do you know that?'

'I could feel it. Let us get on.'

For you students again: I can only say that hidden gateways are really hard to find, you will only be able to access them once you have been able to come into contact with a master, and look into the light book. OK, best of luck, although, by now, you know there is no such thing as luck, as was said in a famous science fiction set of films, we make our own luck by earning good or bad karma. It is as simple as that. Do well, and you will be rewarded, do bad and again you will be rewarded by being setback, so to speak, but, again, you already know that, as student Guardians.

I set foot over the threshold of the gateway, and, straight away I am in an altogether lighter and happier place. 'Wow', I think, level 13 is not an unlucky place after all. Tamia seems unusually distant.

'Are you OK? Tamia'

'I feel we should have gone to the West, Dan, I know you think you know better, but I feel we should go back.'

I feel an unusual presence, for a short time, as we made our way along, but I don't say anything to Tamia, I also think she should know we can't go back through a hidden gateway!

What is she trying to do? I am trying to be conscious of her mental and spiritual wavelength, when, I feel a sudden pain in the neck, where Kallo had put the implant. I know the implant is safe now, but, why should it flare up like that? OK, there is something going on, but I don't know what it is. I know I would have to be unusually quiet, without trying to hide it from Tamia. She may not be aware that something or someone is trying to access her. If I know this, then Sienn will also know.

‘OK, Tamia, what next? Where do you feel we should go?’

I feel we should go to the Northwest.’

‘Why?’

Because that is where the signal light is.’

‘Yes, but now Kallo also knows this.’

‘What else can we do, Dan’

‘Well, as you know, we don't need food or water or anything else, as we are on the Astral Plane, and we can conjure up anything we need, right?’

‘Yes.’

‘OK, then Kallo can also do the same, but what he can't do is interfere with the structure of the plane itself as he tried to do back at level eleven, Right?’

‘What are you getting at?’

‘I'm saying we have him trapped, he can't go back, so, he must be on this plane, or fourteen. My guess is he is here waiting for us.’

‘So what do we do?’

‘I want to lure him out.’

‘How?’

‘I want you to manifest yourself and appear here now in the shape of your physical self!’

‘What? You know I can't do that until we are at level forty-two.’

‘No, as you should know, the situation has changed, we are now facing a real menace. Kallo has shown himself, and wants to destroy us. You can help by becoming more real.’

‘Yes, but what can I do?’

‘You can go back to the Hidden Gateway and use the signal button, which is always at the lower-right-hand corner.’

‘Why didn't you do that when we came through?’

‘Because, this time, I will be waiting for him to show himself, and I don't want anyone to know where I will be hiding, not even you, Tamia.’

‘Do you think this is a good plan, Dan, you know Kallo is very strong.’

‘Tamia, I have fought him before and won; I know I can take him, please do as I ask.’

‘OK, I will try.’

I can now, feel tension, also, a bad feeling. What is Tamia up to? Can it be, that she is something other than a Student-Guardian? Surely not! If so, I would have to be very careful; she now has access to records, and has information that would be valuable to Kallo or anyone who wanted to access the Guardian files. I am also keeping my thoughts, and consciousness under strict control.

I'm having trouble getting into the astral body, Dan.’

‘OK, just keep trying, and I will make my way to the gateway.’

‘Please wait, I don't want to be alone when I make it into the Astral Body.’

‘You will be OK I will see that you reach the gateway, although, I will be Invisible.’

‘You know I can't use the invisibility shield as yet, Dan.’

‘I know, Tamia, but it is the best way to lure Kallo out, I know he's not near, as yet, so we are safe, Just head back, the way we came, and I will direct you when we are near the gate.’

I see Tamia manifest herself a few minutes later. She is a young slender woman of about twenty five, with long brown hair; she also looks scared, she hasn't got the ability to see me, as yet, but I know, if she is a dark agent, she will be able to cover it up easily. I directed her to the gateway, where she presses the signal button. This usually brings a coworker, or sometimes, a Guardian, if we have any to spare, as you can imagine, Guardians are incredibly rare. That is why I want you, as students, to learn all you can and access the records. But you already know that, sorry, all I want to say is if Tamia is an agent then her consciousness will be erased to the time when she enlisted, Oh, and that goes for you, or any student who thinks he, or she, can beat the system. OK, enough said. You realize that being a Guardian is the highest thing you can be, well, so did Kallo, but he literally fell from grace, all through planes, to this level. Although, with having been a Guardian, he knows, and has access to, certain records. He also, has the ability to travel to higher levels. Well, if I get my way, he won't be hurting anyone for a very long time.

Tamia looks worried, she is also looking around, as though, she is looking for me, instead of a Guardian, or is it my imagination? Yes, I still have imagination. I know, Kallo, also, has the ability to be invisible on the astral plane, or indeed any plane. I know I have to find a good hiding place. Tamia will know that she can go through the portal, but only with the permission of a Guardian. I know, Kallo, will be wary with coming so close to a gateway. I also know, he is the sort of being, that will take a chance of being caught, just to get even with me; that is all he wants. Well, his confidence will be his downfall.

I sit down in the lotus position, and just waited. I put myself in deep meditation mode, that, plus the invisibility shield, should conceal me from danger.

I was in the middle of a small area of bushes where, Tamia, or anyone else, will not accidentally walk.

I am, straight away, conscious, and surprised find a master from a past life in India, waiting for me. We are in a lovely little courtyard, in a small village near the Ganges River. My God, they were peaceful years we spent together; now, we are together again, but, as I mentioned before, we are never apart, if we truly believe it. After having some food and refreshment we sat and talked for a short time. He said, 'Beware of the Dark-Master, he will try to capture you. The only thing I can tell you, is beware the traitors, there are two, and very near.' We meditated for a short while, and then we said our goodbyes.

OK, I said to myself, as I came out of meditation, I am trying to keep my feelings under control. Now I know, Tamia, must be one of the agents, but why? She is only young, or, is it my stupid way of thinking that young women can't do any wrong. I think to myself, dark agents can come in any disguise. But, surely, she must have been securely checked.

What is Sionn up to? I watch as Tamia waited for the coworker to appear. No sooner had I focused my attention on her, when, the gate opened. I can see, straight away, Kallo and the so called coworker gatekeeper, he then pulled Tamia into the gateway and vanished! I rushed over but, the gateway itself is now gone. I feel stupid and sick at the same time. How could I not know that Kallo would be waiting inside the actual gate! He didn't even disguise himself. I feel like turning into Cloft, and smashing everything in sight! OK, Kallo has Tamia and access to the records. Nice going Dan. All I can do is sit on the floor and sulk. I also know Kallo could get access to me, through Tamia. This calls for some serious meditating. But no sooner had I thought that, when the gateway opens up. All I can do, is look on stupidly, as Sionn himself and my Darling Reeas step out!

'What happened?' I shouted.

'Don't worry, Tamia is OK.'

'Thank God.' I said, 'what about Kallo?'

Sionn said, 'You now know, it wasn't Kallo, but an apprentice, we had him trapped, but as usual he made precautions and escaped, which is something they are very good at, but we have the coworker, we also, have several others from the levels you passed through. Good work Dan.'

'But, I messed up?'

'No, you did your best, and that best, is good, you are learning all the time.'

Reeas gives me a big hug and said, 'Tamia says, don't be disappointed; she is a fully-trained Guardian and more than capable of taking care of herself.'

'So, this is all a setup, as usual?'

'Yes, I'm afraid so.'

'When will I be fully-trained?', I said.

'Not just yet, Dan.'

'And, I will be there to help you,' said, Reeas. 'I'm also in training, don't forget.'

Sionn said, 'OK team, back to the sub base to assess the situation.'

Chapter 48-Sub Plane, Base 2

All we need to do, is simply, walk through the gateway to the sub plane base.

I said, 'We were supposed to get all the way to level 42?'

'No,' said Sionn, 'all we wanted, was to trap the apprentice, or rather, the agents that were abusing the gateways, we were working down from level 42, while you were working up.'

'Well, I didn't get very far, did I?'

'Don't put yourself down; we have been working for many months to trap the Dark Apprentice, and his coworkers. We knew he wouldn't be on the higher levels, as his intension was to trap you. You know Kallo has a debt he wants to settle; well, now his apprentices are trying to settle that debt for him. Our agents were able to infiltrate his domain before we started to worked down to level 13.

'So the Manic-Monster, really, doesn't exist?' I said.'

Oh, yes, indeed, as you know, monsters such as the Manic-Monster, exist on the Inner Planes, Dragons, Unicorns, Giants, Trolls and all the other fabled entities, really do exist, but they can't exist on the Earth plane, or Physical plane. Everything is soul, but beings such as Pixies, Fairies, Gremlins and the like, have to work out their Karma on the inner planes. They sometimes show themselves to humans and other species when they won't move on to the next plane, and simply get caught between levels. Some psychic people can see and hear them from time to time, especially in dreams.' For you students out there, Sionn has asked me to tell you to please meditate on the creatures that you know to be in existence on the inner planes. You never know, you may be the one to find the whereabouts of some fantastic creature that has been newly created. When you dream please be conscious of the level you will be working on, and do not strain, it is simple, if you just trust. Then upload your thoughts to central database. Thank you.'

'Dan and Reear, here is you're next mission.'

'Please, no, Sionn, can't we just relax, for a while?'

'I'm sorry, Dan, but this one can't wait, we know where Kallo's apprentice is headed! We were able to access his consciousness, when he passed through the gateway. That is why we wanted him to snatch Tamia, she is especially trained in deep conscious mental control. The apprentice is already at level 36, one the level above this.'

'How did he manage to get by security, so easily?', I said.'

'You know Kallo, he has experience on all major levels, well, now, the apprentice, has access also, even though, he is trapped in the lower levels, we need to catch the agents on the level where he is now dwelling.'

'OK, but we need help.'

'Yes, Deria is to go with you, and of course Reear.'

'Hold it!' Sionn said, 'change of plan, news has come in that a fleet of android space ships has been detected heading for Sector 21354.'

‘That is the Milky-Way Galaxy! I said, this is too much of a coincidence to overlook. Kallo must have initiated this, before he was Neutralized.’

‘Yes,’ said Sionn, ‘also the apprentice must have extensive knowledge of robotics, Dan and Reeas, go with Deria to intercept the lead ship, use your invisibility cloaks, and wear your light suits for protection. If there is anything else you need just send a message to base.’

‘What about using Tourgen-Clone bodies?’

OK, but I doubt you will need them, this calls for brains rather than brawn.’

‘I know, but sometimes brawn can go a long way, you know, for, persuasion.’

‘Yes, I’ve seen Cloft in action, Dan, The cloned bodies will be in the sub base on the physical, when you arrive.’

We transferred our consciousness into the Physical Plane simply by going to sleep, then waking up in the cloned bodies of the Tourgen’s, it is something that needs a little practice, my student friends.

OK, time for another lesson: You know, how you can lucid dream, well, when you do, you are simply working on the Astral or other inner worlds, you can go wherever you want, for a short time, sometimes flying, or swimming with the fishes, but as you are student Guardians, you already know that.

Well, we are doing it the other way round, we are dreaming this time from the Astral to the Physical. OK, enough said,

I don't want you to think I am trying to be some kind of nurse maid. I just want you to be fully aware, that’s all, after all, the future is yours, Trainee, and that future is Eternity.

We board the lightship from the Earth base, although there are numerous planets in the Milky-Way galaxy with Guardian bases, Earth base is as good as any to set off from.

The usual, U.F.O.s, are at the base, also, one mother ship, and five smaller craft. The underground base is 23 miles below Northumberland, but you already know that; you also know it is protected by a light shield which is totally invulnerable and inaccessible. The ship itself is powered by light itself and taken from the stars themselves. It can even travel through any object, even stars, the speed is much higher than light, even though we usually travel at light speed to intercept messages from anyone who might be in trouble. OK, as students you have a lot to learn, but so have I, without the light book I wouldn't have had any chance of accessing any of the information. All you have to do is be conscious of what, you want, and what you can achieve. Of course, you have to be contacted by a master or rather, you have to contact the master, usually in dreams, but mostly by meditation, but you already know that! Sorry again, but I get carried away sometimes. We don't need to make any on board checks before setting off, as the ship itself, or Debra, is consciously aware. Don't ask me to explain, I don't know that much about the mechanics of it, but I'm assured it is the most technological piece of engineering ever to be brought into use, so far, of course, technology is always changing and usually updated by machines or super computers in super robots.

I am a little worried about this next job, as Kallo has extensive knowledge of robotics, so the android army which he has brought into existence is bound to be highly intelligent and ruthless.
