Chapter 78-Sionn's Quest

Message to Guardian database:

This message will be inserted later for security reasons.

This is Sionn, I am, at present, moving through the inaccessible regions, in my quest to find Debra. I want to conceal myself from whoever has taken Dan. I am in high cloaking mode, plus light suit, the mental side of my personality has been strengthened by Mannus himself. I don't usually put into thoughts, anything to do with my private life, but I feel that these recordings will play a major part in helping students to understand how the Guardians work. I have, as you know, had an actual merging with Debra. I don't know, at this time, where she is, but I feel she will go to somewhere where Dan would be familiar with. Dan, I feel, will be in a depleted state, he is being held in some region, where we can't access.

There is no sign of Dan in any region of God, that we know of, therefore, I am going to concentrate my efforts on trying to locate Debra, although, I am not in the same mental state as Dan, I am, none the less, capable of reaching her. Students, of course, won't be able to help at this stage, but if you have had any dream experiences about these on-going events, 'before they happened' then please contact database. I am receiving a thought message at this moment, from the database, about this very same thing! A student (a young girl) has reported a sighting in her dreams, of a young woman, who resembles Debra.

I am going to transfer to her region, and investigate. All I can say at this stage, is that this young girl, must be highly receptive, as the sighting is from the Higher-Mental region, or the Ethereal-Plane. I arrive at the designated spot. I can see a young girl, who is transfixed with looking at a young woman, who is trying to get into a university building. I am now out of cloaking mode. I ask her if she knows the woman. She said that she didn't know her, but she wanted to make contact, but the woman won't respond. I am now receiving information from the database, that this young girl, is a potential Guardian, and has had many past lives teaching and meditating, in fact, she is similar to Dan. I continued...

'How did you manage to get here?'

'I have been here many times, but I haven't been able to get into the building, just like this young woman. I wanted to see if she managed to get inside.'

'You should know that, this area is restricted to Higher- Entities.'

'I know, but I have managed to get this far, many times, I just thought, I should message database about this woman.'

‘You have done well, Selira, I have been searching for this person, please report to the sub base at Eritanne for your on-going training. You will then be formerly asked, if you want to be a Trainee-Guardian.’

I am now alone with Debra. The area is, as I said before, a restricted region, and very few people manage to even get onto the actual plane itself. Debra is obviously in a depleted state, as she doesn’t even know me! I know I have to be careful in how I make this first contact with her. I asked her...

‘Why are you trying to get into this building?’

She looks at me in a confused way. She then sat down on the steps and started to cry. I went over to her and sat down beside her. She said, ‘I have been looking for Dan, but I can’t find him. I have been to many places, but he is nowhere to be found. This building is one place, where I know he visited more than once, so I want to get inside, but it is locked.’

‘Debra, look at me.’

‘How do you know my name?’

I know I have to be very careful at this stage, as too much contact with her, could be critical.

‘Debra, please trust me. My name is Sionn, I want to help you find Dan; I also want to find him, we are work colleagues.’

‘Yes, I can remember a little, you are his boss, yes?’

‘Yes, I want him to come back to the database; we are missing him very much.’

‘Oh, Sionn, I am so lonely, without him. I can’t function. I thought I found him a short while ago, when I helped to protect him from some spiders, you know he hates them? But after that, I came back here, I couldn’t help myself.’

‘Debra, you couldn’t help that. It was for your own good, and Dan’s also. He has managed to isolate his mind, from whoever is keeping him hostage. Can you see? I don’t want you to dwell too much on this situation. All I want, is for you to trust me, and agree to help me.’

‘What can I do? I am only a one person.’

‘You are more than that, Debra. You are part of the database, and you are part of Dan. Please let me touch you behind the neck, and you will understand.’

Debra turned around to show me her neck, while pulling her hair to the side. I have to be very careful, when I make the touch, as too much contact, could be bad.

For Students:

The incident with the spiders, could have been catastrophic, as Debra, was brought back to Dan in a lower state of consciousness. Luckily, Dan managed to resolve things before whoever has taken Dan, managed to link into it. I know things seem confused sometimes, but this is the way things are, in the ever changing worlds of God. You have got to realize, that you, as a student, can also help, as did Selira. I touch Debra quickly. She disappears. I know she is now safely inside my mind, and I will have to keep a constant watch on her. I enter the university building. I want to access the records, to give me some information about what Dan was doing here. Maybe it could help us locate him.

I am back under high cloaking mode. I make my way to the computer room, and easily accessed the system from the Guardian-Database.

Students will know that, I have special permission to access these places. I find that, with Debra, I can also, easily find the exact files that Dan was using; these files, are now telling me that Dan had earlier gained information about what will happen to him later, and about where he will be trapped! I am feeling happy at this time, my students.

Dan is all that I hoped he would be before he became a Guardian. Some students will already know what happens next, but not many, if you do, please log onto the database, for your probable Guardian upgrade. I know that the man sitting over to my right, is a Dark-Agent, he then came over to me, with a smug look on his face and said,

‘You will never find Dan Sherman, this time, Sionn, we have been expecting you. The data that you accessed, was planted by us many weeks ago. It doesn’t matter that you have found me out; I can take whatever the Guardians can give; I am earmarked for the position of second apprentice to Kallo, what do you think of that?’

I think, you are foolish.’

‘Well, we will let Kallo decide, he is about to inform us about Dan Sherman’s future, via this computer.

I am feeling pretty low, as Kallo comes onto the screen, but I also know, that as a Guardian, and with Debra, I will do whatever I have to do. This is a long running saga, that won’t be over, just yet. One thing is baffling me, though. How did the Dark-Agent, manage to get to this high region? Whoever is keeping Dan prisoner, has to be very powerful and dangerous? Kallo is only a small player, in this part of the story; he comes onto the screen, with a smirk on his face, as usual, and started his speech with a laugh.

‘Sionn, how could you be, such a fool? You completely missed the plot. Dan the Trainee, is now in a place, that you will never find, yes, Sionn, I know you have me in the Astral prison, for now, but the preparations were made many weeks ago, to trap Sherman. All the data that you have, is false, also, you have been compromised, by simply being here, my colleague here, has managed to use a revolutionary new device on you. It will...

I make a jump for the Dark-Agent, who is now trying to escape, but I grab his wrist, he is now on his knees, and in agony. I don’t need to use any force on him, such as physical type strength, all I have to do, is simply hold his wrist. The heat is starting to build up in me. I know it is from Mannus and Debra; the heat is now, melting through his bones. I can also, access his mind, and I also know that Dan is still in existence. Message to students:

As many of you know, Kallo made a vital mistake, in telling me about the revolutionary new device. He is so wrapped up in his ego, that he just can’t keep it to himself. All I have to do is grab the agent, to neutralize it; also, the agent couldn’t resist being nearby to watch the result! I know what some students are thinking. Why didn’t Kallo, or his agent, know about Debra being outside the university, and why didn’t they try to capture her? The truth is, Dan, in his subconscious mind, managed to keep Debra outside the building. The agent was inside and wasn't aware of her. This may seem simplistic, but the simple truth is, the building isn't just locked, but secured in a highly technological way, by ethereal light. How did the agent manage to get in, then? I hear you say, Kallo in his planning, and whoever has taken Dan, made preparations earlier, that is all I can say, but at this stage, I am inclined to think, that the agent was allowed to get into the building, so that I could get information from him, also I am sure that he himself was trapped and wouldn't have been able to get out.

The relatively easy way, in which I saw through this little plan, is leading me to wonder about the way in which, Dan was taken. Kallo, even though he is able to control certain aspects of the inner worlds, is not, in my opinion, capable of taking Dan, out of all the worlds that we know of, or secreting him in some nether world. Yes, I know he has done this before, but we were able to quickly overcome this; this time, however, I feel a bad sense of thought. I know you probably can't relate to that, but let me put it this way, the Mental Realm is very complex and confusing place; entities with a higher than average mental capacity, can control large areas. I am certain that Dan has been trapped in one of these.

Please excuse me, if I haven't got Dan's ability to put these recordings in the same format, I am out of practice, somewhat. I am going to meditate to the special light region of Nirvara, where there is a Meeting-of-the-Masters taking place. Students won't be able to access this obviously, but you will be able to access these recordings later.

Chapter 79-Nirvara

Message from Reeas:

Tharial was asking people to help in any way, with any information that could be relevant to Dan's predicament. We are expecting a Special-Envoy anytime to appear and preside over the meeting. This messenger will be specially trained and highly spiritual. We can't even be told his or her name, as this could be harmful to whoever it is. Students will ask, why? All I can say is that, if anyone thinks too deeply about this unknown person by name, then those thoughts, could be picked up elsewhere on the Inner Planes; but, we are in an inaccessible plane, are we not? Yes, but who knows what, or who, could be listening in. People here are under stress at the moment, and agitated by the Higher Mental light waves. I know, I am. All I can think about, is my Dan, trapped somewhere, in an unknown place.

Tharial raises his arms, and quieted the crowd. He said, the Special-Envoy will appear, in a few moments, please can everyone be calm, and meditate.

I notice that Mannus is a different color; he is lighter shade of orange! Students will know that, each plane has a different color; the higher up we go, the lighter the color. The meeting is now in meditation, and absolutely quiet. I open my eyes, as a stir goes round the crowd. I look on in awe, as Sionn, himself, materializes in the center of the auditorium.

Tharial said, 'I'm sorry that we couldn't disclose Sionn's name, earlier, as this could have brought him negative thought waves, and could have affected his mission. I will let him inform you, what has transpired. Sionn looks around with an unusual stare. He seems to be looking for someone. After a few minutes, he said, there is a Dark Agent in this arena. Everyone looks around with amazement. Tharial said, 'I'm sure, you're mistaken, Sionn. This meeting has been personally supervised by me, and my associates. Everyone here has been cleared.'

‘Everyone has been cleared, but you, Tharial.’

Sionn then grabs Tharial by the wrist. Tharial is now, on his knees, and crying out, with pain. Sionn continued: ‘What did the entity, offer you? Tharial, was it unlimited power, or the chance to be an Overlord? Tharial is, by now, screaming in agony. He shouted, ‘You have ruined everything; I was going to be upgraded, I could have been a Higher-Overlord. You will never find out, who my master is, he is so powerful, that not even the Guardian-Network can find him.’

‘I found you, Tharial, and we will find Dan, and when we do, your so called Master, will fall.’

Tharial’s hand, now falls to the floor, burned through, by the heat. His face is a mask of hatred. I know Mannus is about to speak, as the arena is getting brighter. His voice is very deep and solemn. He said, ‘Approach me, Tharial.’ Tharial became nervous, and tried to turn away but Sionn stopped him. Tharial can do nothing, but obey. He walks over to Mannus, holding his severed wrist.

Mannus, then said, ‘I trusted you, Tharial, and you brought in Dark-Agents, to deceive me. You were once, one of my right hand, men, and now you have lost your right hand. And so it will stay. You will be without your right hand, from now on. Kallo, will also lose his right hand. He is another, who deceived me. All people, who think they can trick their way, into my realm, will suffer thus. Shobdera, is expecting you. With that, he touched Tharial on the head, and he disappeared. Mannus continued:

‘Sionn, I want you to take a party of trusted friends, into the mental realm, and find out who is abusing my Higher Regions. You already know something of importance, to do with Dan Sherman, through Debra. Keep calm, and receptive, and you will, in time, prevail. You are too high in consciousness, to use Debra, in any usual sense. I suggest you, nominate someone, to take over control of Debra, for now.’ Mannus, then closes his eyes. Sionn turns to the crowd and said,

‘This meeting is now closed.’

We transfer to an Ethereal sub plane. (which we have to keep secret at this time.)

Sionn is, as usual, calm and collected. I have to admit, Sionn is the epitome, of a spiritual master. He informed me, that I will be taking over control of the messaging system, for now. This, makes me even more aware, that Dan is missing. Dan has, as you know, always been in charge of this side of things. I have now, and again, taken over of the messaging system, but only in a small way. I only hope, I can come up, to his standards. Sionn, has also told me, to make students aware, that the messages will sometimes seem to be lacking in security. Please be aware, that I cannot always tell students, when this will happen.

Sionn, has asked me to also take control of Debra! He told me that she is very limited, at the moment, due to Dan being away. I only hope, that I can keep control of my emotions. Sionn then touched me behind the neck. I can feel a tingling in my head, but it soon went. Sionn then asked me to concentrate on Debra. I no sooner do this, when Debra appears! She looks younger by several years, and has a nervous look in her eyes.

‘Have you found Dan?’ She said. ‘I have looked everywhere. I have even been to his home in England, but someone else has moved into his house! I was going to punish them, but I realized that they were only low in consciousness and wouldn't have been able to trap Dan.' I look at Sionn. He looks at me, as if to say, we might have a bigger problem here than we think.

Sionn said, 'Debra, you will have to promise me, that you will do as we say, for the time being. We are going to search for Dan, in the Higher Regions. We want you to agree to merge with Reeas, for now. If you should separate from her, in any way, it could be disastrous. Will you agree?'

'Oh, yes, Sionn, please find him.'

'Now, Debra, Reeas, whoever has taken Dan, has to be a powerful entity. I feel sure that Dan is being held somewhere on the Mental Plane. There is no need to worry about this message being intercepted, as Mannus himself, gave me access to a Mental-Isolation program. I have now given this protection to you, Reeas, when I touched you behind the neck; I also did the same to you Debra. We, as a team, are now ready, to track Dan, through the many levels on the Mental Plane, be aware, Reeas, that you will have to keep a keen eye on Debra, when we get near to Dan. The entity that has taken him, will probably attempt to control Debra, through you. Mannus has suggested, we concentrate on the 31st level, but we will start at the 29th level. Let me just touch you on the neck again, Reeas, to send Debra back into your mind.'

'What about Deria? Is she not coming with us?'

'No, Reeas, she and her sister, will be looking elsewhere for Dan, or anyone, who knows anything about this situation; she is still on our team, so to speak. Her brother Darian, is also searching for Dan, and will contact me when he finds anything. Darian has been in deep silence for years. This makes him very hard to contact and locate by anyone but me. In my opinion, he will be invaluable to us.'

I am now facing the entity known as the Mind Monster. One of the Brain's robots, picks it up from the glass jar and puts it on my head. I don't feel anything at first, but a little silly. I am thinking how I look, with this thing sitting there. I then feel the first pain, as the thing, starts to squeeze. My head is beginning to hurt badly. I think of my son, saying act stupid, dad, they will be expecting you to fight, but you can beat them, with your tactics, just like at Far-station. My son was always mentioning tactics. I know now, the reason why; he spent many past lives as a military commander, I am smiling in loving remembrance, when I lose consciousness. I become aware, in a large room, with a glass screen, separating me from a door; through the door walks Debra. Not the Debra from the ship, but the Debra from my past life. 'Dan. What are we doing here?'

I know that this is a trick, to get me to open up, to the Brain. I sit down in the lotus position. Debra is now talking about everything we ever did, in our life together, as kids, from her liking of dogs to my loathing of spiders. I didn't react. I try to meditate, but to no avail. The glass screen separated and Debra is now able to touch me. The Brain is starting to assert himself. He knows Debra, is my weak link; she is now, holding my hand and stroking my hair, of course, this isn't the real Debra, but a mental image, conjured up by the Brain, to get me to bring back the all-powerful Debra.

Students will probably not be able to access this part of the story, but if you can, and I believe anything is possible in the worlds of God, then please help.

‘Debra, why did you leave me? Why did you have to go off with that guy, and get married? You left me with our baby boy, who was only a year old, how could I take care of him?’

‘Enough, shouted the Brain. You will not be allowed to continue this farce.’

‘What do you mean?’

‘This is an attempt to trick me. Do you think I am naive enough, to accept this rubbish?’

‘Maybe, speaking of you, I have a joke for you. ‘Why didn’t the ghost need a telephone?’

‘What are you trying to do, be funny?’

‘No, that’s not the answer. It is because he had no body to call, just like you, ha. OK, ‘Mr. Brain, I have another one for you.’

‘Silence, I will have your brain removed, without delay.’

‘That would be like the last joke. I would have no body to call, ha, ha. Here’s another one, what weighs seven tons, and wears a dress?’

‘I’m not sure if a Mental-Insertion-Capsule would help me gain access to Debra, but I may try it.’

No, that’s not the answer, its Cinder Elephant. Ha.’

‘This is childish. I thought you, at least, would be above such things.’

‘Speaking of children, why was the baby ant, confused?’

‘I’m not going to stoop to this level.’

‘Wrong again. The answer, is because all his uncles were ants. Ha.’

Debra has now disappeared.

‘I will have this, Debra. Eventually, you will submit to my superiority.’

‘As long as I don’t have to be your tailor, I would hate to fit you up with a suit. Now, here’s one that will crack you up, I hope. What do you get when you cross a T Rex, with a chicken?’

‘I may have to fuse your brain. I don’t want to injure you too much, but I have to get access, you understand.’

‘Wrong again! It is Tyrannosaurus Pecks. Have you even got a sense of humor?’

‘I was a master physicist, when you weren’t even thought of.’

‘What happened? Did you take in one particle too many? One thing’s for sure, your hat fitter would make a fortune.’

Students will understand what I am trying to do. I don’t know whether, you can actually log into this part of my story, as I am in no fit state to even think straight. Forgive me if I am becoming vague and nonsensical. My head still hurts, and I am not even in the physical body. Usually I can override these things, but the Brain has me in his power, for now.

All I can think of, at the moment, is my Reeas. I know she will move Heaven and Earth to find me. Sionn also, will not stop, until he finds, and defeats the Brain. I am now in the other room, with the Mind Monster still on my head. The pain is so bad, that I can no longer function, as myself. God, I wish I could die, and move back to Reeas. Students, forgive me; I am in no fit state to carry on with the recordings.

Chapter 81-Reeas's story

We are about to move into the 29th level of the Mental Plane. Students will be asking why we don't go to the 31st level. The reason is, we don't want to make it obvious to whoever has taken Dan, that we are searching for him. The powerful entity that is keeping Dan prisoner, will probably know every being, on the 31st level. If indeed, he is there. Sionn is now asking me to hold hands and stay calm. He will guide us to the Hidden Portal; we arrived there in a few seconds.

I can already see the gatekeeper. He or she, is an angel of extreme beauty, tall, fair, and with multi colored robes, and with wings that shimmer in the light. He knows that someone is entering the portal, but Sionn said that he doesn't know any more information about us, just that we are higher entities. He bowed low as we came through. Sionn and I, do the same. Darian is waiting for us, a short distance away. He messaged Sionn in high security mode that there is a person on the 31st level that is giving out information which is relevant to our quest. Darian also said it is fortunate that we had come to this level first.

Sionn, said, 'Reeas, you will have to remain here for the time being. Darian and I will travel to the 31st level, and bring back this person, stay calm, and receptive.' Sionn and Darian then disappear. I sit down to meditate, but without trying to force it.

I can see the gatekeeper looking calm and serene. I wonder if he was a he or whether he was a she? How would he cope with the passage of time? Maybe he is in perpetual ecstasy. I know I would be bored, but who am I, to criticize. I am thinking of my Dan again, when he came through the portal. I jump up and run for him. I can't help myself; I grab him, and just hold on. I can now see that Dan is staring at me with a faraway look in his eyes.

The scenery changes to a different shade of orange! I know we have moved to another plane. I also know that I am a prisoner, and that this person with me isn't my Dan. How could I have been so stupid?

'I know you have access to Debra,' said the voice. But all I can see is a large brain in a glass jar!

'Who are you?' I said.

'My name is unimportant. All you have to think about, is whether you want to see Dan Sherman, again. His mind is beginning to break up. I can help him back to normality, or I can destroy him. You can help me to gain access to Debra, through him. He is the one who will ultimately bring her back. You only have partial access to her. I can see it in your mind. Someone else has assisted you to find me, but no matter. You have been subjected to a mind blocking process to hide information from me. This will not help you. I will eventually break through your awareness. You will now be taken to the scanner room to access your mind.

This message has been added later:

Students will know that Sionn has protected me, from this entity, by shielding my mind; only Sionn can do this. I don't know how it works, or how he managed to hide things from this entity. All I know is, I am grateful to Sionn.

I am taken to the scanner room. Students will know that, this is the Mental Plane; where we are exposed to thoughts from any number of entities; also, we are in the mental body. It is the same as the astral body with a higher light content; it has no substance, like the physical body. It can be confusing sometimes, but if students can get this high, then it will be no problem to you. Dan told me, that he often tried to explain things to students in a simple way; he also said he couldn't understand why he had been chosen to be a Guardian, I told him more than once, that, he has earned the right to be one, funny how we can't see the truth sometimes, especially when we are caught up in materialism.

The Brain is trapped, in this very same thing. He wants to rule the Higher Regions with his robots. He is isolated from human emotions. He has also had untold past lives dominating others. That can be very hard to break free from. I feel pity and sadness, for this creature called the Brain. Students will know that this recording has been added later, that is how I know the entities name. Please be aware, that I cannot relate these messages as they occur. It is another thing that is confusing, but that is how the Guardian-Network functions.

At this time, I feel it would be right, to talk a little about the Super-Robots. You may think it a little silly, that robots can exist in the mental region. Dan has no doubt talked about this same thing before. I can tell you, that whatever exists in the physical plane exists in the inner regions. You should be familiar with this. Let me say that these robots don't have any faces, just a head, which was a sort of glass, smooth, with no features. They all look alike. Their bodies are all the same. They are made of some shiny metal alloy' which I believe, can grow or shrink, depending on the circumstances. I will endeavor to find out more, when I can, but for now, I will carry on with the story. I am now strapped in a chair, facing another chair. Seven robots are evenly spaced throughout the room.

The Brain is in his tank on a balcony above, and to the right of me. Two robots are guarding him. Students will wonder how the Brain can speak. I can tell you, that on the Mental Plane it is by thought, but on the Physical Plane it will be through his robots. I am now looking on in awe, as Dan himself, comes through the door. I know this is my Dan, simply by the look in his eye. I can also tell, that he wants me to play along with whatever, it is that he is contemplating. I won't say thinking. I don't want the Brain to break into my thoughts. Dan is strapped into the chair facing me.

Robots then, bring two small tanks into the room, with what looks like lumps of meat in them. I realize at once, what is about to happen. The meat is placed on our heads simultaneously. Dan starts to chant...Om-Mani-Padme-Hum. I joined in. I can feel the pressure starting to build up. My head is starting to hurt. Dan, also looked as though, he is suffering. We keep on chanting, as the Brain begins to talk.

‘You will not be allowed to continue this fiasco. You will be destroyed, if you keep up this silly game. The Mind-Monsters, will eventually break your will to fight.’

My head is throbbing, but I am starting to feel better! I can see Dan is also looking calm and collected. Then I notice that the robots heads are starting to glow! The most amazing thing then happens. The Mind-Monsters, on our heads, start to glow, also; within a few minutes, they are transformed into halos! The Brain is now, starting to get excited! He instructs his robots to stop us chanting, but they don’t react. I notice that his tank is starting to glow. He shouts, ‘Stop this, you are hurting me!’ We didn’t stop. After a few minutes, a man suddenly appears! he is tall, hairless and wears a long grey robe.

He walks over to Dan and said, ‘I had such plans, I was going to be the most benevolent lord below the First Grand Division. You could have shared in that. You could have been a Higher-Overlord! But I see now, that you are nothing but a simple fool. I have to destroy you myself. Debra at least, will be nothing without you, and so the Guardian-Network will suffer; it is some consolation, but someday, I will gain control of her, from some other entity.’

I obviously know that this man, is the Brain in human form. I want to break free, and splatter him all over the scanner room, but I am helpless, he is about to touch Dan behind the neck, when Sionn appears behind him, and touched him behind the neck. The Brain looks up with a helpless gaze. Two seconds later, he fades away. Sionn looks at us, as if to say, what are you waiting for? He knows we can simply release ourselves, from the bonds. He said, ‘Oh, and well done, team, back to base for debrief.’

I run for Dan. We hold each other, for the longest time.

Chapter 82-Debrief

Sionn is in his usual place. Grenwer is beside him, and Deria’s 1 and 2 are also there. Dan is beside me. I think about the never ending war with the dark forces, and the ever changing worlds of God, but this little group of ours, is something which, I treasure beyond anything. Sionn started to speak:

‘The strategy used to trick the Brain, has worked a treat. We were able to neutralize his robots. Leaving Reesas, at the portal was an important part of our plans, as it allowed me, to follow her into the realm of the Brain; we then got him to compromise himself, by leaving his tank, that was the only way, to gain access to him. Dan was able to break his defenses, by simply acting silly! This is the reason why Dan, is so special to us. We Higher Entities, sometimes, can’t relate to mirth, I am still having problems with the Cinder Elephant joke, perhaps Dan can explain it to me, sometime. (People in the room, are now laughing,) all I can say is, thank you Dan, and Reesas, you are two people, who we treasure.’ Sionn is now, stood up, and looking around with a glassy gaze. I know Sionn well enough to know when something is about to happen of great consequence. Sionn continued:

‘The messaging system will shortly move back to Dan. Debra will also move back to Dan. She will make her appearance before us, in a short while. I can tell you, that she allowed herself to be used by me, and Reesas, simultaneously. This allowed me, to gain access to the Brains realm. Without Debra, I wouldn’t have been able to even get to the 30th level. Darian has also been invaluable to us. He was able to get right into the Brain’s center of operations. I cannot tell you what he managed to do exactly, because it is too secret. I can tell you though, that he managed to disable some of the robots, he will be a very useful member of our network; he has also been awarded ‘Master Guardian.’ (People are now clapping). ‘I am being informed, at this moment, that Mannus has neutralized the Brain, he will now move to Shobdera’s realm. The Super Robots will be reengineered to help people.’ Grenwer stands up. Sionn knows something special is about to happen, he sits down.

Grenwer started to speak...

‘We have, in Sionn, a very able, and loving Higher-Coordinator. He is not just that. He is something, most people can’t relate to. All I can say is, Thank God we have him. The meeting with the Brain, could have been catastrophic. Mannus has instructed me, to award Sionn with ‘The-Order-of-Space.’ (People are now clapping and cheering).

Sionn looks at Dan and said, ‘What exactly is Cinder Elephant?’

Everyone is now laughing. I know my time, with the messaging system, is coming to an end, but I also know that Dan is with me. This is all I want. Students will forgive me, if I got the student messages mixed up. There was a lot of pressure at the time. Dan and I are going for a holiday. You probably know where. This is Reeas, signing off for now. Onwards my friends, as Dan says.

Chapter 83-The search for Debra.

This is Dan Sherman signing in. I am somewhat worried. Debra has not shown herself, as Sionn said. I expected her soon after we came out of debrief, but she did not appear. Reeas and I went for our special holiday, which was delightful, but now, I am concerned that something bad has happened. Sionn says he is confused, as Debra told him that she was alright and that she would come straight back to me. Reeas is also not aware that Debra has been taken somewhere. Students will know, that Debra is a part of me. She is also a big part of the Guardian-Network. Sionn and Grenwer are also worried that the database will be at risk. I can’t understand how she can simply disappear. Is it me who has changed? Reeas says it is not me that is at fault, I am not so convinced. Maybe, I should contact Mannus? Sionn wants me to meditate to a lower region, to see if she can relate to it. Maybe she was overcome by the higher light content on the mental plane? Whatever it is, I have to find her. I am a Guardian, but without Debra, I am sorely limited. I am now being messaged by Sionn, to come to the briefing room; I arrive to find Grenwer, Reeas, and Deria’s 1 and 2 there.

‘Dan,’ said Sionn, ‘we have a problem. Debra has been located on one of the Astral levels. She has tried to merge with Debra, your ex-girlfriend.’

‘Why didn’t I know that?’

‘You would have, eventually. On the face of it, it is only a small problem, because Debra number one, is not in a state of consciousness to cause problems to the network. The thing is, she may be given access to the light book, through Debra number two.’

‘Surely not,’ I said.

‘Dan, I think Debra number two, has gained knowledge of the actual emotional or Ethereal Light from the higher mental plane. If she has, I dread to think what might happen. I want you and Reeas to go there and find out what you can. You will have to treat this as a delicate emotional problem. I know you will be caring enough to bring Debra back. I, myself, would have big worries with it, so I will leave it to you, and Reeas. Just know that I am here for you. Deria's 1 and 2 will go under cloaking mode to access things. I have to say one thing, though. (Sionn was now looking at me with a worried look.) It may have been my fault that Debra has come to this stage; I didn't mean to fragment her so much with myself and Reeas. If things become worse, I will accept responsibility and resign my position as Higher-Coordinator.'

'Sionn, I don't blame you, I know you did your best to bring the Brain to submit. Please be assured, that I will bring Debra back, I know in my heart, that things will be OK.'

Sionn is now looking his usual calm self. He even has a smile on his face! Reeas and I went to the restroom to meditate and generally attune ourselves to the emotional level, or light content of the Astral plane.

Students can help at this time. If you are in a loving relationship with someone, and that someone wants help, please do as we do here. Sit down in the cross legged position facing each other, and place your arms on the other's shoulders. If you are alone just sit in the lotus position and meditate. Imagine someone you love, sitting facing you, and you will contact them. Be assured. Do not think negative about these things, as your thoughts are very important. Now, imagine you are travelling with Reeas and I to the 25th level of the Astral Plane, time doesn't matter on the inner planes, so you can actually be there, but you will have to reach the database first. Sorry, if I am going on a bit, but I need all the emotional help I can get. Reeas and I are now in meditation.

Reeas suggested we go to my Room-of-Doors. I asked her why. She said she wanted me to go to the actual time when Debra got killed in her boyfriend's car. I said, 'Reeas, please, no.'

'Dan, Debra has got some information from Debra 1 that you are still attached to her; this is why she is trying to merge with her.'

We became aware in my Room-of-Doors. All we have to do, is walk through the second to last door. We emerge into an unfamiliar scene. The city is Chicago and it is obviously the place where Debra had moved to after leaving Iowa. The year is 1940. Debra is sixteen. Her boyfriend is eighteen. I was just fifteen. I can see Debra sitting in the car, it is a 1936 Buick. Her boyfriend said, 'What's the paper you're holding?'

Debra said, 'Nothing, It's only a note from a friend.' I can see it is the little love note, that I posted through Debra's window, one night just before she left. I had forgotten it until now; how can that happen? I am starting to become confused. Reeas said, 'Dan, don't be nervous, it is for your protection. Just try to relax and you will see.'

Her boyfriend said, 'Let me see it.' Debra said, 'No, it is my property.'

Her boyfriend said, 'It's from that stupid kid.'

Debra said, 'Don't call him; he is a true friend, and someone who wants to marry me, when we are older. I am going to send him a letter, when I get home. I like you, Dave, but you drink too much, and smoke a lot.'

'What can the kid do? Can he drive his own car? Does he have any money?'

'He will love me forever, that is all I want.'

‘He will have to catch us first, honey. Now I will show you how to drive a car. You will be my girlfriend, or no ones.’

I said to Reeas, ‘That’s enough.’

We are now going to travel to the 25th level of the Astral Plane to seek out Debra’s 1 and 2; this is the level which Debra 1 has been allocated. We arrive at a house, which although, it is in good condition needed some repairs. It is a suburb of Chicago. We walk in, under cloaking mode. Debra 1 is seated on the couch; Debra 2 is seated next to her holding her hand. This is how the conversation went:

‘Debra,’ said Debra 2. I want you to come with me to the Guardian-Database. I will show you something that will help you to move on from here, it will also let you join me, in gaining access to Dan Sherman. He is what we both want, isn’t he?’

‘I don’t really know, Dan Sherman, I know a John Summers, who wanted to be my boyfriend. But that was a long time ago. He was only fifteen, when we moved away. God, I wish he were back with me. I haven’t really found a true friend, since. I can remember I met Dan Sherman, once, for some reason, but I can’t recall more than that, If this Dan, wants to contact me, then he will. But all I want, is John.’

‘Debra, I don’t want to hurt you, but I must have your cooperation. You are the original, Debra, so I have to merge with you. I will then be part of you, also. Dan says, I am part of him, but I know, I am only a small part. If you become part of me, then Dan will also be more in tune with us.’

I am now becoming concerned. I have to take a chance on revealing myself. For students:

I can’t really relate to this situation. Debra 2 is supposed to be part of me, but she is acting as though she is something, apart from me. Mannus himself said, that we couldn’t be parted. How is it, that my consciousness is threatening someone that I love?

Reeas said she would stay under cloaking mode, unless she is needed. I become visible to both Debra’s. They both look at me with amazement.

‘What are you doing, Debra?’ I said, looking at Debra 2.

‘I am trying to get, this Debra, to understand that I must merge with her.’

‘Why?’

‘Because, I want to be more like her, you love Reeas, but you never said, that you love me, in the same way.’

‘Is that why you have away from me?’

‘Yes, I want you to appreciate me, for myself.’

‘Debra, come here. I held her for some minutes. ‘I want you to know, that I more than appreciate you. I love you, because you are part of me. Can you understand that? We cannot be parted. Maybe you got confused when Sienn managed to split you between himself, and Reeas. I don’t know. I only know that, you are loved, very much. You will always be here. I touched my heart.

Debra looks at me with a smile. She then looks at Debra 1 and smiled again.

‘I am sorry, please forgive me. She said.’

She then disappears. I turn to Debra 1. She said, ‘You are John, aren’t you?’

‘Yes, I am.’ Debra starts to cry. I sat down next to her, and put my arm around her shoulder. She said, I remember meeting you before, but I was confused.’

‘It’s alright, Debra, don’t worry, you have managed to overcome your loneliness. I am being told to take you to the next level. You are to move on.’

I transform myself into John Summers. Debra is amazed. She is starting to understand what reincarnation is about. We simply walked through a golden door, which appeared in a suffusion of light. I can see her parents waiting for her. I can’t help the tears. She is now able to relate to circumstances, which she was held back from before. Students will probably think that this simple ceremony is not worth recording, but I have to say, it is one of the most inspiring events to take part in. We all have to move on, and the more we understand about it, the higher we are able to go. I kiss her and tell her that I will keep in touch. I then walk back through the door. Reeas is now visible, and has tears in her eyes. I hold her, as we transfer ourselves back to the sub base.

Reeas said, ‘You are very handsome, John, and the uniform is totally captivating.’ I forgot to tell students that I escorted Debra through the portal dressed in my best U.S. Marines dress suit. Students will know that John Summers died on the beaches of Normandy in the Second World War.

‘Reeas, I am feeling totally reinvigorated. Before I change back to Dan, I want you to dance with me. I want us to do the boogie-woogie. I tried to do it once, but I got in a tangle. But now, I can do it. What do you say? Are you up for the jive?’

‘Just try and stop me, soldier boy.’

‘Marine!’

I am feeling pretty good, as we bopped around the sub base. Deria and her sister join in plus others. This is one of the best moments of my career as a Guardian. It is a simple thing, I know, but simple things are usually the best. Sionn is now visible in the room. I can see he wants to talk to me ,so we finished dancing and everyone clapped. I am now back to my Dan Sherman self. Sionn raised his arms to hush the crowd.

‘I want to thank Dan, from all of us, for bringing Debra back. The situation with Debra 1, could have been serious. Also the incident with the so called Brain, could have been catastrophic. I accept responsibility for this. I wanted to bring stability to the Guardian-Network, but I nearly brought ruin. I am going into silence, for a time. Grenwer will take over as Higher-Coordinator while I am gone; he is more than capable. Dan, I have to say something to you, I should have trusted you more, you were capable of defeating the Brain, by your chanting, I only had to touch him, to neutralize his power; but you had already done the same thing, Debra was only needed, in a small way, to nullify that power. What I am trying to say is, you are capable of completing any job for the network, with Debra, or without Debra! I proved that she can be split from you, but you still managed to access the power!’

‘But the Brain was about to touch me, when you touched him!’

‘Yes, but that was only a formality, he would have started to burn up, within a short time, his robots are also fused and useless, but they can be brought back if need be. What I am saying is, Debra is now submitting to your will, she is no longer the threat that she was, she would have appeared at once, when I said a short time ago, that you are capable of completing any job with, or without her. You know I am right. Today is the start of a new era for us. I am now formally asking you, to accept the rank of Higher-Guardian.’

‘It is only a short time ago that I became a Guardian.’

‘Time is of no consequence on the inner planes, I believe in you, and everyone here, is of the same mind. Reeas will also be appointed the same rank. I am now going into silence for a time, of course, if the network wants to contact me, I will be available. Farewell.’

Sionn is now gone. I feel terrible, because I didn’t have time to say goodbye!

Grenwer starts to speak...

‘I have to tell you, that Sionn, has been awarded Master-of-the-Multiverse. This appointment, is from Mannus himself.’ Everyone started to cheer. I cheered more than most. Reeas has tears in her eyes, again, which started me off, again. Deria’s 1 and 2 came over to hug us, and let me tell you, that you haven’t been hugged, till you have been hugged, by an Elfin Princess in human form. We are about to go to the restroom, when Grenwer said, ‘Dan and Reeas, will you please join me in the briefing room.’

Chapter 84 -Super Robot threat

‘Dan and Reeas, I want you to listen to, and consider something, that Sionn and I have been working on in secret, for the last few months. We knew someone, or some entity, was secretly planning to bid for power, in the Higher Regions. That someone was the Brain. He is now in isolation, on the Astral lower levels. The trouble is, he has most probably planned for this situation. We believe he will instigate a backup scheme anytime.’

‘You mean, like Kallo did?’ I said.

‘Yes, only more so. We know the Brain, has the network, and the power, to bring devastation to any world, although, he is in isolation, he can still function. In other words, he is the most dangerous entity, we have ever come up against.’

‘Surely, Shobdera can keep him, secure?’ Reeas said.

‘It is not just that; he can control large areas of the Mental Realm, simply by the power of his mind. Sionn, has not just gone into silence. That was for the audience in the other room. This room, has been especially prepared for us to use in absolute secrecy. It has been insulated, with a new material, which is top secret, and has the same, or better qualities, than some inaccessible regions. We can talk freely. What I am trying to say is, the Brain cannot be kept secure. Kallo, has many times less ability, than the Brain, and he managed to escape numerous times.’

‘What is Sionn going to do? I said.

‘He is attempting to access one of the Super-Robots, which we have been working on. We played down the robot threat, in the conference room, because we don’t want to start any sort of panic; but the robots are a threat. In fact, they are such a threat, that we are extremely worried.’

‘I thought the robots were now, fused?’ Reeas said.

‘They are, but they can still be brought back. If the Brain, can, in any way, escape, he will most certainly access his robots. We have reason to believe that, there are many millions of robots, on many thousands of planets! We want you, Dan, to go to Shobdera’s realm, and figure out some way to keep the Brain secure, while we work on accessing the robots.’

Reeas said, ‘What about me, Grenwer?’

‘Yes, Reeas, I want you to lead a team of coworkers, to help us find the many planets, where the robots are secreted. You will know who to choose. I will leave you to consider, what I have said. I will just say one thing, Dan; you may need to access the Room-of-Doors, to retrieve whatever information you need about the Brains past, to secure his isolation. I know you will be under pressure with this, but we believe, you will succeed, Debra is now stable, and you are now, in control of her.’

Grenwer then disappears.

This room, is, as he said, a highly secure place, where we can materialize, as in the other regions. I look at Reeas.

‘It looks like we will be separated, for a while.’ I said.’

Reeas has tears in her eyes. I hold her close. ‘Don’t worry,’ I said. ‘We have been in tighter spots, than this, Reeas.’

‘It’s not that, Dan. I thought we could be together for a while. I am getting fed up, of us being apart.’

‘We can go for a small holiday, before we leave, eh?’

‘Yes, but I know we will eventually have to part.’

‘I know, how about us going, to one of our past lives, to dwell in past happiness?’

Reeas, is now, looking at me with love.

‘We will only have to be a short time, though, Dan’

‘A short time with you, Reeas, is ecstasy.’

We meditate to my Room-of-Doors.

‘Do you remember our lifetime on Bophious, Dan?’

‘How could I forget, Reeas? I was the woman, that time, and as I remember, I was very stupid.’

‘You were a delight, to me. I couldn’t wait to get home to you, after the war on Delvion. I had lost an arm, when someone left a small time-grenade, in the barracks where we were stationed.

The planet Delvion, was a highly technological place, but the weapons were highly sophisticated also. We lost a hell of a lot of people.'

'Reeas, do you really want to go there?'

Message to students:

I just want to let students know, that this lifetime, was on a futuristic planet, before, and not after, our last lifetime on Earth, so you see, we were together many times, on Earth, and other worlds.

'Yes, Dan, let's go there, just for the day, I want to experience the love that I had, for you again.'

'I can feel it, already, Reeas.'

'I know, but I just want some time to mentally, reacquaint myself with you, as Soul. You were called Maylee and I was Arion, Do you remember, Dan?'

'Of course, Reeas, OK, let's go.'

I felt excited, like a child, and for some unknown reason, I can't relate to the danger, that I am about to put us in.

***

This message has been added by the Guardian-Database later.

Dan and Reeas have now accessed his Room-of-Doors to a past life, where they were in a lower state of consciousness. Dan and Reeas are now at the home, that they shared in the barracks where Reeas was stationed on Bophious. The story continues:

'Arion, do you want me to massage your back?'

'Yes, Maylee, can you also, try to help me get this false arm, to cooperate, it seems to want to strangle me sometimes.'

'You are so brave, Arion, joking like that. I don't know how I would have coped, if I had lost you, though?'

Message from the Guardian-Database:

Dan and Reeas are now, in a low state of consciousness. They don't recognize that the Brain is observing them. They are suddenly transported to a lower Astral Plane.

'What the hell, happened? Reeas, are you there?'

'Reeas is trapped, in one of my robots, as are you.'

'This can't be happening.'

'Why? Are you so low in consciousness, that you can't believe your robot eyes? Perhaps you will believe this.'
