

Dan Sherman Space Guardian

All Worlds

Book Ten

Overview:

Dan has been tricked by his mentor and friend Sionn, who was the Higher-Coordinator of the Guardian network. Sionn has managed to merge with Debra who is Dan's alter ego. Deria, who is a higher being and Dan are going into the inner regions to track him down. Reecas, who is Dan's wife, in his present lifetime and many past lifetimes, is also going.

Super Robots are decimating numerous worlds in five galaxies, but Dan knows he can't fight them, until he gets Debra back; he also knows that Kallo the Dark Agent, although in isolation at a high security Astral prison won't be able to interfere with their plans, his apprentice clones, on the other hand, will try anything to destroy Dan, and anyone, or any world, who they cannot control. As student Guardians, you can help by logging on to Guardian database, in the dream state, onwards my friends.

Chapter 73-The corruption of Sionn.

Reecas and I, are now in the restroom, preparing to transfer by dream travel, to Axvious, which is in the Quintos-Galaxy.

As you students know, if a planet is too far away to travel by light ship, we can dream travel to the equivalent Astral world, and then transfer into our Astral bodies, and then transfer, or wake up, in the physical body, which is usually a clone. I know you students, can understand all this, as you have access to the dream worlds, and can also access the Guardian-Database; many of you have also been of help while accessing the earlier recordings of my adventures in the Physical, Astral, Mental, Ethereal, and higher regions of God, plus, the thousands of sub planes in between, for this, I am eternally grateful, and that is the key, word my student friend; Eternity, we are all Eternal Beings.

Our physical bodies are now asleep in the rest room, but we, as soul, are now able to access numerous places while dreaming; one place we frequently visit is the Room-of-Doors, it is a place where we can access our past lives. Reecas, as you know, is the love of my life, or past lives, as we have been together many times before. Now, students, this is the situation: a fleet of super robot ships has attacked numerous planets in five Galaxies. We have to get to a planet called Axvious in the Quintos-Galaxy; there is a Guardian base there, we then have to collect a lightship and transfer to another planet called Rifion, where Super-Robots have already started to destroy the population.

What can we do with just one lightship? You say. We can link into many more ships from Axvious and also any other ships which we can contact. The trouble is I can't contact Debra. She is what I named the lightship; she is also the reason why we have to seek out Sionn. He used to be the Higher-Coordinator. He asked me to follow him into an inaccessible region where he used his powers to incapacitate me; he then somehow, managed to link into Debra, who was, at that time, part of my consciousness, and merge with her.

I know all this is a little hard for you to take in, but you, are Student-Guardians and so, you are able to relate to these circumstances.

We have just received a message in high security mode, from Deria, who is a Higher-Guardian; apart from Reeas, Deria is my closest friend, she is also a master, when it comes to cloaking or invisibility, and you will also know, that she is an Elfin-being, or fairy, and just six inches tall. The message she relays to me is about Sionn; he has been located on the Astral equivalent planet, of Dienna³. We cannot reply to the message for security reasons, so we will have to transfer to the inaccessible plane, to meet Deria. You students will know, that the inaccessible plane, is only inaccessible for anyone other than Guardians, and higher beings.

For students who are new to the database, and want to know why we can't reply to the message right away, the reason is, Deria, is a higher being, and can send Thought Transfer messages to us, but although, we are Guardians, and higher beings, we are not as high as Deria. All these details will become clear to you, as we travel together, on many planes, and sub planes, in the past, present and future.

Reeas and I are now conscious, on one of the inaccessible planes. Deria is now in her human form and unbelievably beautiful; she is wearing a silken silver gown, with a golden chain belt, and a golden tiara on her head, with a big ruby stone, in the center. Reeas and I are dressed in white. You can access the database, so you will also know when, and to whom, you were related to in your past lives. Deria said, Sionn is on Dienna 3, but he transferred to his Room-of-Doors probably thinking that he can link into Debra better, by going to one of his past lives, and where he was in a lower state of consciousness. Sionn, as you know, is a Higher Being and has been in his last lifetime over three thousand five-hundred years, he wants to merge with Debra, to gain the power, and knowledge, to defeat the Super-Robots, and to finally defeat the Dark-Agents; these agents are clones of a master called Kallo, he was a friend of Sionn's, and a Guardian until he fell from grace in a spectacular way, he is also the reason why Sionn, has took it upon himself to put a stop to the never-ending battle between the Guardians and Kallo's Dark- Empire. You will also know that Kallo, was Lucifer, in one of his past lives. If you are a new student, and you want to access the recording of Kallo as Lucifer, please access the database, for the recording of Dan Sherman 'All Worlds.' Deria is now telling us, that Sionn has accessed a past life, where, he was a teacher on a world which was very much like Earth. Surely, he can't be trying to copy me! I used to be a teacher, in my past life. I was then chosen to be a Guardian, or in truth, I had earned the right to be one. Sionn must have tried to merge with Debra, but he must have failed, so, now he is trying to get, on a par, with her, so to speak.

Deria said, ' Let us proceed to my Room-of-Doors, you will be perfectly alright, as long as you are aware that, you can only observe, just follow me, and stay silent. I will relay any messages, I have to you, but please, don't reply; if you must message me, use Thought-Transfer. Sionn may have laid a trap for you, but he won't be able to access my Room-of-Doors. Deria then said, let us hold hands. It only takes a few seconds to transfer to Deria's Room-of-Doors, the difference between Deria's Room-of-Doors and mine, is startling! Standing in front of Deria's first door I am amazed and transfixed, by the beautiful colors, and sounds! In my Room-of-Doors it is drab, and plain, with no noise.

Deria said, 'don't be disappointed, you will become more attuned with the light and sound, in the future, just be at rest, and learn.' I can see Reear, is in awe of this place, also, but we can't talk. As you know, there are three-hundred and sixty doors, in the room, which surround us, in a big circle, plus, there are invisible sub plane doors, in between each door; these sub plane doors only become visible, when we are conscious of them. We start to walk through the first door; you will know already, that this door, emerges into another Room-of-Doors; this is because, Deria is conscious of travelling to a certain lifetime, in the past; that lifetime, is some thousands of years ago. We will have to travel through many rooms.

Students, take note: each room is ten-thousand years. This means, that if you don't want to go to a certain lifetime in the first set of doors, then you simply walk through the first door, to the next Room-of-Doors; these doors, are the previous ten-thousand years of lifetimes. It can be confusing, but knowing that, you are Student-Guardians, you will already understand. We are now one hundred and fifty-thousand years in Sionn's past, but we are only sixty-eight thousand years in Deria's past. Why is this? You ask. This is because, Deria is an Elfin being, and she is able to live very long lifetimes. Sionn, though, has chosen to reincarnate numerous times, but even so, he has managed to live some very long lifetimes also.

We have now walked through seven doors; each door representing ten-thousand years. Deria is now, standing in front of the actual door, that we need to access. Deria said, 'This door is the lifetime that I spent learning about genealogy, and all things related to it.

When we walk through this door, please be aware that we cannot relate to anybody. We will be invisible, of course, and untouchable. I will then navigate my way, to Sionn. Stay close to me, and be calm.'

We walk through the door into a world where everything seems strangely alien, but beautiful. It is an Astral world, but as you know, the Astral World is only a copy of the Physical World, or vice versa. I can't recognize any of the many plants, and trees, that are in the wooded area where we now stand. Deria said, this is a world where all plant life is unique; each plant, you can see, has been propagated to a stage where it will never die. Before you, become too interested in this place, I can only say, that we have to find the equivalent Astral region, where Sionn is. Suffice it to say that, you can access this place from the database later. Please stay close as we transfer to Sionn's lifetime in this region.

For student purposes: a region on the Astral Plane can be anything from, a main region, to a sub plane. The astral plane itself, is astronomically big; many times larger than the Physical Universe, but it has no space, as such. We are now holding hands with Deria, as we transfer to Sionn's lifetime, in this region; all we have to do is be aware.

Deria said, 'Dan, be mindful, that Debra, might possibly recognize you, even though, you are with me, and in high cloaking mode, this is because, you are still linked into Debra; Debra is still part of your consciousness.' I know that I can't reply, but I also know, that Deria understands. After a short time of holding hands, Deria said, 'close your eyes, and within a few seconds, she said, open them. Sionn himself is stood only a few feet away, he is talking to Debra, who is stood next to the character, who was Sionn, in that lifetime! The character, is a male, of about forty-five years old, and dressed in similar clothes to the Earth world! The unusual thing is, that this character is me! Sionn has managed to transform his past life character, to resemble me! Debra said,

‘Dan, can you hear me! Please say something.’

I realize that Sionn, has made himself invisible to Debra, but is probably directing her thoughts.

Students will know, from previous recordings, that Debra is not just part of my consciousness, but she is also, the lightship, and everything connected with the Guardian-Database, she took a liking to me, while we were travelling in the ship. I said she sounded like a girlfriend I used to have in my last-but-one lifetime on Earth. From that moment, she became fixated with me, to the extent that, she wants to be with me all the time; she even transformed herself into a hologram and then a robot, but I have to be very careful, when Debra is with me, as she doesn’t like to be referred to as a robot; Debra, can also appear in the shape of anyone, or anything; I like it, when she appears as one of my favorite female movie stars. Imagine being with someone like Marilyn Monroe, with ultimate power! I have been able to control her, up to now, but Sionn seems to think, he can use his power, or consciousness, to manipulate her! I am starting to feel angry, but I know I have to keep myself in control. I can see Sionn is now trying to concentrate his thoughts on Debra, as he is holding his head, in his hands and Debra is in the body form, of the original Debra, who was, as you know, my girlfriend; well, actually, I refer to her, as my girlfriend, but she was a year older than me, so, she didn’t think of me, as a boyfriend but as just a friend; she was also my next door neighbor. We lived in Iowa in the U.S.A. in the 1930s. She got killed, in her boyfriend’s car, after her family moved away, so I didn’t even know, although, I never forgot her; this connection with her, has never been broken. Sionn may think, he can link in to her, but I know different. Mannus himself, told me that Debra, is part of me, and that we cannot be parted.

Mannus, as you students know, is the ultimate power, in this part of the Multiverse. I am getting more and more worked up, and Deria knows it, she sends me a message, telling me to calm down.

I am trying to focus my mind on something else, when Debra looks straight into my face! She can’t see me, but she can sense my presence. She walks up to me, and says,

‘Dan, is that you? Dan, please answer me. I’m lost; I can’t find my way back, Dan, please help me!’

This is now getting too much for me to handle. I reach out my hand and try to touch her. Of course, I can’t actually touch her, but she knows what I am doing, and she put her arms around me. Straight away, I am once more united with her.

Sionn is stood staring at me, with a look that I have never before seen on his face; it is a look of amazement and hatred! Sionn is to me, everything that a spiritual person should be, and more, but this person stood here, is more like Kallo, the Dark-Agent.

Deria is now visible, as is Reeas. Deria said, ‘Dan, are you alright?’

‘I don’t know, yet, but Sionn has changed!’

Deria is now looking at Sionn, and holding out her hand, as though she is going to send a shock wave through it, she said,

‘Don’t come anywhere near us, I know what you are!’

I am now confused, although, Debra is with me again, she is nowhere near, her usual self. I also feel very tired. Dear, God, I think, please don't let this be another trap.

The next thing I remember, is being conscious in a dark and depressing place. I can't make out the size of the room that I am in, because it is too dark. All I can think about, is Reeas and Deria. Where can they be? I am starting to panic now, as I can see the walls starting to close in. I have never liked closed in spaces, so this experience, is now, really starting to freak me out. Yes, I know, students; I am a Guardian, and I should be able to control myself. All I can think is, that Sionn, or Kallo, have managed to link into Debra, and deplete my consciousness. Suddenly, Kallo himself came into view.

'Well, if it isn't Dan, the Trainee-Guardian. How do you like being imprisoned? Not very nice is it? I suppose you think you can easily get out of here. Well think again, my friend, and I will make sure, that you never interfere with our plans again.'

I am now, stood facing Kallo, I am trying to find out whether this person, is actually Kallo, himself or another clone.

'I know what you are thinking, Trainee, well, let me inform you, before you damage you're fragile little mind. I am the real thing, now; let me introduce you to my old friend, and partner.'

Sionn came into view. I am now, not only speechless, but more afraid than I have ever been.

'I suppose you are wondering how I got out of the Astral-High-Security prison,' said Kallo with a laugh.

I am now looking at Sionn, and I am still speechless. All I can do is to sit down, in the lotus position.

'Well, look at this.' Kallo said, 'The Great, Dan Sherman, lost for words, and beaten.'

Chapter 74-Tourgen Nightmare.

Sionn is now looking at me with contempt. I am trying to come to terms with this, when he walks over to me, grabs me by the arm, and lifts me to my feet.

For students: please be aware, that we are still on the Astral Plane. The room changes into a place, similar to the sub plane base rooms. Sionn guides me to a seat, where I sit facing a machine, which I know to be a Brain-Scanner, and Mind-Transfer device.

'Dan, I know what you are thinking, but this is, believe me, the best way to end this infernal war between the Guardian-Network and the Dark-Forces. I will ensure, that Kallo, is under control, and I will be responsible for order in all of the regions, below the First Grand Division of God.'

'What about Mannus?' I said.

'I've told you before, Mannus is the watcher; he is not concerned, with things, in the lower worlds, he is the power.'

'What happens to me, then?'

'Please, Sionn let me tell him,' Kallo said.

‘You, my fine friend, will be cloned into a Tourgen beast; and before you ask, whether you will be able to do all the amazing things, that you were once capable of, the answer is no!’

‘Please, Kallo.’ Sionn said, ‘Let me deal with this. Don’t worry, Dan, you won’t have any memory of this, and it is for the overall good.’

‘What about, my good?’

‘You will eventually rise up in consciousness, and move on.’

‘But that might take ages.’

‘Yes,’ laughed Kallo. That is the beauty of it, it will, and you won’t be a problem to me anymore.’

Sionn said, ‘Dan, believe me, if there was another way out of all this, I would take it, but we can’t have you reuniting, with Debra again. This cloning, will be permanent, in that you will actually believe, that you are the Tourgen life form. When you were cloned into the Tourgen before, you knew that you could change or transfer out of the body, well, this time, you won’t be able to. I’m sorry, but I am trying to justify my actions. You won’t be able to remember, but I will, and believe me, you are the lucky one.’

‘I am the lucky one? Just let me say, this, if I can, in any way, get out of the Tourgen body, I will, and I will come for you, Sionn, and Kallo also.’

Kallo said, ‘let’s get it over with, Sionn, I am starting to get very bored, with this; but just let me say this: ‘You, Trainee, will no longer be a Guardian.’

I am now fitted up with the head gear that is linked into the machine. For you students: I can’t do anything about my situation, as my ability to transfer my way out of the body, is gone. I can’t even meditate myself out, as Sionn and Kallo have obviously got control over this region. You will also want to know, how I can message you, while in this trouble. I don’t know, but I presume it will be added to the database later. Don’t forget, Debra is no longer with me, so I am vulnerable. Sionn and Kallo are Masters, when it comes to anything to do with the Higher or Lower regions, and so, I am, at this time, not able to message any longer. Students, please help, if you can.

This message is from Reeas: students, please note, Dan has been taken prisoner. Deria and I are back at the sub base. We know now, that Kallo has escaped once again, and that it was probably Kallo himself, who masterminded the taking of Dan. Sionn is probably linked into this also, but God help us, if he is. Deria used her powers and got us out of danger, but Dan, was already trapped. I feel sick, with worry, but I know Dan, will try everything in his power, to escape. Grenwer is now in the room. Grenwer, as you students know, is a Higher-Guardian and also the Higher-Coordinator while Sionn is away.

Grenwer said, ‘Deria and Reeas, you will not now have to go to Axvious. The Super-Robots are being dealt with by local forces, and Guardian ships. I want you to seek out Dan. Sionn is probably in league with Kallo. We feel that Dan is in serious trouble, more trouble than he has ever been in up to now.’

‘How do you know, that?’

‘Don’t ask me how, Reeas, just trust me. Deria, get together with your sister and your brethren, try to locate the region where Dan has been taken.

For students: Deria’s sister is her twin and is called Deria 2. They are so close that they haven’t been out of communication for even one minute in their whole lives, and their lives are very long, my student friends. You can now access Dan’s part of the story, as it was put on the database later. Sorry if it is too late for you to help in the dream state in this part of the story.

For students: This part of the story will be related to you by Reeas. Deria is the higher being but she will keep herself in silence for the time being.

Deria and I are going to meditate to the inaccessible region, for a special conference called the Meeting-of-the-Masters. All we have to do, is lie down, or sit in the lotus position. We soon become aware, in a beautiful setting, which is overlooking a mountain range. The distance is too far to evaluate. But for any students who have managed to access this place, you will know what I mean, when I say it is beyond any words to describe.

Mannus, who is the lord of this region, is sitting in his usual place, which is in the center of the group but higher up. He is seated on a golden cushion; he is a giant of a man, with golden skin and wearing golden bands on his arms and ankles, his only clothing is a loin cloth, and he has no hair on his body. Of course, he isn’t a man at all, but the image, of what we ,in the Physical World can relate to.

I know this place as Sanctuary, a special place where spiritual people gather to find a master. Some people manage it, but some don’t, Dan found the Master in one past life, but died a few days later, now, that master is here! plus many more, also, numerous students, maybe you are here also my student friends? Don’t scoff, it is totally possible. Grenwer is here, plus Deria 2, I also see, Deria’s brethren, and all manner of higher life forms, plus Thalo and his people, they were liberated when Dan and I infiltrated the Tourgen base, also Fagil from Far Station, which is now the planet Yalton. They helped to bring me back to life, when I got killed by the Burin.

These masters, plus many students, are now seated in meditative positions. Deria is now out of silence, and ready to address the conference; she has now earned the right to be an Elfin Princess and she is also a Master Guardian; Mannus himself appointed her, she appears in her human form, which is breathtaking in its beauty. I sit down at the outer edge of the conference, while Deria walks to the center, and stands at the right-hand side of Mannus. After a few minutes of prayer and meditation, she starts to speak thus:

Conference: We are gathered here for an emergency Meeting-of-the-Masters. I have to report that Sionn, our Higher-Coordinator has now become an outcast. Dan Sherman has been taken prisoner and Debra, who is the power of the Guardian-Network, has disappeared.

Message from Reeas: I am feeling pretty depressed, at this moment, I can tell you. As most of you know, Dan has been in some pretty tough places, and has been taken prisoner many times. He has managed to escape by his own resourcefulness, with help from the Guardian-Network. Students have also helped in the past, by working in the dream state and sending their thoughts to central-database.

Students will know that, we, as soul, cannot be killed, but we can be captured by various means, and kept prisoner. Kallo himself is a master, when it comes to escaping from any inner world prison. I just hope Dan, can do the same. I feel somehow different, this time, though. It is as though, Dan, is somewhere that we cannot get to; Far-Station was such a place; also Dark-Space was a very scary place; Dan managed to enter these places, plus many more and help many beings to freedom. Sorry, if I am digressing from the moment, but you will understand why. Dan is my life, and he is also my lifetime partner, and past lifetime partner.

From Deria: Reeas and I are going to keep searching for Dan. We are here to seek help. Three students have managed to locate a temporary rift, in the time continuum. This is very commendable. The rift has now disappeared, but we know the exact location of the space. Reeas and I, plus one student who managed to find the rift, will travel there in high cloaking mode. I have to tell you that, two of our brethren here at this conference, have now been found to be Dark-Agents; security is already moving in to apprehend the culprits. Please try to stay in higher consciousness as we meditate to the nearest inner region, to locate the rift and to gain any sort of information which will be of use. Dan Sherman, is a well-loved, and loyal Guardian; we will do all in our power, to bring him home. Will everyone please pray?

Message from Reeas: the atmosphere is now something to behold. The light and sound of this inner region, is now making me feel dizzy. The next thing I know is Deria holding my hand and saying that we are already at the designated spot. I look around me, to find a young girl of about seventeen years old; I know her to be the student who has managed to locate the time rift, she is looking at me and Deria, with a puzzled expression.

‘Where am I,’ she said.

For students: beings who manage to locate certain places on the inner planes, are sometimes in awe, when they actually become aware; usually they are in the dream state, and protected.

‘What’s your name?’ I said.

‘I am Unysal,’ she said.

Deria said, ‘How did you manage to locate the time rift?’

She said, ‘I was with some other students when we found a code book, in one of the galleries in the Halls-of-Learning.

For Students: the Halls-of-Learning are places that anyone with a higher or high enough consciousness can access; they can be located on many spiritual planets, on the inner planes.

‘Where are the other students, now?’ Deria enquired.

‘I don’t know. They disappeared.’

‘What did the code book tell you?’

‘It said that if we were to be at the precise spot, at the right time, we would be able to move into another world, which would fulfill our wildest dreams.’

‘Why didn’t you go through with it, then?’

‘The other students said they were scared.’

Deria is now looking at me, with a serious stare.

‘What’s wrong?’ I said.

‘I feel a dreadful emotion, coming over me. Reeas, step back. Unysal, I’m sorry.’

Deria touched her behind the neck, and Unysal disappeared.

For students: she was sent back to the sub base, and then back to her bed, on whatever planet she comes from.

‘Why did you do that, Deria?’ I said.

‘There are two entities who are watching us from close by. I know these to be the students who were with Unysal while accessing the code book; they have now disappeared, but I know them to be Dark-Agents.’

‘Why did they come here?’ I said.

‘It was a trap, Reeas. They were about to touch us, when I disabled Unysal; they are not just agents but masters, and if we had been taken, it would have been to a dark inaccessible region where we might have been prisoners for years.’

‘How come, they didn’t know this, at the meeting?’

‘I suspect they did, but they knew I would do what was required.’

‘Why then, did we come here?’

‘I am accessing that, right now, Reeas. I feel that this spot, is nothing to do with what happened to Dan, yes, I am now, sure. We have to go to a place which Unysal found, some time back; it is the actual spot, where Dan was, when he was taken, I got this information from her when I touched her behind the neck. Reeas, hold my hand and we will transfer out of here.’

I must admit, holding on to Deria’s hand, I felt like a child would with its mother. Deria is without doubt, the epitome of a spiritual being.

We are now standing in a sort of rocky deserted place, that reminds me of a lifetime, that Dan and I shared while on Earth; we were North American Indians of the Shoshoni Tribe; the year was 1726, Dan was the man, and I was the woman. He wanted to be the hunter, but I wanted to learn about other things. We lived to the west of the Rocky Mountains in Utah, life was very hard, there was a lack of big game; we had to live on rabbits, fish, roots and seeds. I wanted to learn new skills, but I couldn’t with the way of life we had. I then incarnated to a series of planets in the galaxies of Zeta3 where I could finally learn about mathematics and other such things, and then finally to my home planet of Erinon 5, of course, I didn’t realize at the time that I was leaving Dan.

Deria said, ‘This is the place where Dan was taken, before he disappeared, there is a hidden gateway over there, by the rock wall, let us be careful, as we make our way there. We were within a few feet from the door, when suddenly Deria’s sister appeared.

Deria 2 said, ‘Stop right there!’ Deria froze on the spot, as I did. Deria 2 then said, ‘There is a booby trap, just a meter away from you.’ Deria reached out her hand to touch her sister who reached out her other hand to touch me. I was then told to close my eyes. After a few minutes Deria said, 'Yes, I can see it, now.' Deria 2 then said, 'I realized that you we're going into trouble, when I felt a dread come over me, you, of course, couldn't feel it, as you are already in a lower region.' Deria said, 'let us move back, slowly.' I can now see the booby trap; it is starting to manifest itself as a classic Demon, complete with horns and cloven feet. It started to speak:

'You can move away from me, ladies, but it won't do you any good. My little helpers are all around you, can't you feel them? Before you ask me how I managed to trap you. I suspect you already know.'

My mind is in a whirl. Deria and her sister, trapped? It could never happen. The Demon continued:

'You are now in my power. The actual spot, where you were stood when your sister arrived, was the place we had chosen for the trap. It is an inaccessible place, and you, my dear friends, are going to rue the day, you stepped into my domain. We now have Deria 2. Not a bad day's work, do you think? Kallo has advised me to take great care that you don't escape. I may not be good looking, to you, my fine ladies, but I know some pretty good techniques, for getting information. Deria 1, Deria 2 and Reeas, you know that you can access places which we in the lower regions cannot, yes? Well, this region where you are at this moment, is a region where you cannot escape.'

I am now starting to get very frustrated. This Demon, is everything that I had once believed to be very easy to defeat! Why can't I simply contact Deria, and her sister, to overcome it! The Demon continued:

'Kallo himself has supervised the procedure for bringing down your consciousness. So, if you will accompany me to the Mind-Transfer room, we will begin.'

Message from Grenwer: the situation is now critical. We have been informed by Dark-Forces, that Deria and her sister plus Reeas, have been taken prisoner. Sionn has joined forces with Kallo. Dan is missing, and Debra is inaccessible.

Things at the Guardian base, have never been this bad. I am liaising with coworkers, to see if we can gain any information on the situation. Students, please help. The place where our friends have been taken, is probably an inaccessible region, and will have been secured with many traps; these traps, will be dangerous to any beings, who have not been forewarned. If any students can be of help, or access anything to do with this crisis, please get in touch with the Guardian database.

I am now being informed that Mannus, himself, is calling for a special Meeting-of-the-Masters. I will be relating the on-going story for the time being.

This message has been added later, for security reasons. The region where, I am, to go, is a special inaccessible place, where only Higher Beings are allowed access. I am sad to say, that this is the only time, that I have been to one of these meetings, without Sionn, or Deria, or her sister with me. The beauty of the place, is without doubt, something to behold, but the crisis that is now unfolding, has sullied things, somewhat. I look around the august scene, and feel a deep sense of sadness.

Mannus, is in his usual place, but he is unavailable! How can this be? The meeting is being led by a master from the Delvincium galaxy. She is a Female master, called Amelaria. I will let her take the floor for now, and she will update us on the situation.

Fellow Guardians: The situation that has arisen, is without doubt, one of the most serious crisis, that has transpired, in the history of the Guardian-Network. Dark forces have, over a short time span, captured a number of our colleagues; they also, have been able to incapacitate our network by isolating Debra, who, as you know, was part of our loyal colleague, Dan Sherman's consciousness.

This separation from Debra, has brought about the most serious condition, that we are now facing. We can't access the network, as we once did. Our beloved colleagues Deria 1 and 2 are together, with Reeas, stranded somewhere in the lower regions. We cannot access these regions as we once did, simply because, Kallo and his helpers, have created Time-Blockers and Mind-Transfer traps, in many places. I am opening this meeting up to all members who want to ask questions and give opinions. The first question is from Guardian Selkam from Merios, please continue...'

'I would like to know how this situation has been allowed to come to this stage. Surely, you must have known...'

'I'm sorry, Selkam; there is not the time to debate this question, at this time, please confine your questions to what we can do, to bring about an end to this crisis.'

'Next member, Delvar from Yaafen, please continue.'

'We are told, that Mannus, is unavailable, how can this be?'

Mannus, is, as you know, the Guardian of the Power; he is also the Watcher. It is up to us, to keep order, although he will, exert his power, when needed; the time to exert that power, might be at hand, only he will know, all we can do, is our best. Next question from Callibon from Barion: 'are there any students, who can help? We need lower conscious people, to access the lower regions, don't we?'

'As yet, we don't know, who is best suited to go into 'Kallo's New-Empire.' This is the name with which it is now being referred to. Kallo has planned this situation, for many years. Don't ask me how he managed to conceal it from us. He is a Master, when it comes to anything to do with the lower regions, and we simply can't keep up with him, when he is down there.'

Next question from Fihlem from Asgest:

'Can you tell me, if there is any truth in the rumor, that Sionn has reportedly teamed up with Kallo?' Everyone says it is true, but many people won't accept it.'

'Perhaps our esteemed colleague, Grenwer, can answer that question, best.'

I take the podium, with a heavy heart.

'It is with extreme sadness, that I have to confirm, that Sionn has, indeed, gone into partnership with Kallo.'

'How can this be? Might it be a ploy, to capture Kallo? Fihlem said.'

‘All out information is negative, to that question. Sionn, has taken it upon himself, to access Debra, without success, or permission, and is now, in league with Kallo. I suspect it will come to an almighty battle of wills. I hope to God, that Sionn wins through. He is my longest and dearest friend. I would like to put a proposal forward, with respect, if I may Amelaria?’

‘Please, Grenwer, go ahead.’

‘I want permission to lead a team of coworkers, to find Dan; he is the only one, who can bring back Debra.’

‘I’m sorry, Grenwer, you are the Higher-Coordinator and you are needed to help supervise the network. I agree that Dan, is the key, and that, it is imperative to find him. I propose that we make up a team, consisting of people who know, Dan, and have worked with him. I am receiving a message from Guardian base. It seems that Darian, who is Deria’s brother, has come out of silence, and is offering to be part of the team. Also, there is a Guardian who is specially trained in concealment. Her name is Tamia; she has worked with Dan, in the past, and has actually touched Kallo. This means, that she will be very useful. Very few people have touched Kallo, in the Physical or other planes, but we know Dan, is one of them. Beings, who don’t want to communicate by touch, or any other means, isolate themselves from their brother beings, and are sometimes lost, for long periods of time. Kallo wants to be elusive. He has also brought into being, many clones, with similar genetic and mental patterns to himself. This is what we are now facing, an army of Kallo lookalikes, who are willing to sacrifice themselves, for his glory. Mannus is now out of silence and will speak to us. Will everyone please hold hands and meditate.

Message from Grenwer: Mannus has spoken to us, but I cannot relate his message to students at this time. You can understand the reason why, I’m sure. The security of the network is all important at this time.

Chapter 75-Shobdera, Dark Queen, of the lower regions.

Automatic message to students from the Guardian Network:

This message was inserted into the recordings later. As you can appreciate, the events of the latest time span, have caused uproar in the network, and so, the recordings that usually occur have not been available. Grenwer is busy organizing a team of people to scan the inner worlds for Dan Sherman. A Guardian or student, will be appointed to supervise the recordings sometime in the near future. Please upload your thoughts to central database to be assessed for this job.

Kallo has been summoned by Shobdera, Dark Queen of the Lower Regions. She is Mannus’s equal. to account for his actions over a considerable time period. We will take up his story now:

‘Sionn, I feel more confident now, than at any time before. I may try to put myself forward for the position of Overlord.’

‘An Overlord has to have a compassionate mental ability, Kallo.’

‘Correction, firstly, an Overlord has to be non-caring, before the compassionate part of his character is brought into play.’

‘What is it that you want, Kallo? Do you really want to destroy everything?’

‘You know, what I want, Sionn. You also want it.’

‘All I want, is to bring balance, to all the worlds of God.’

‘I understand, that you are jealous, Sionn. Why else, would you come into my realm, and try to make a pact with me? You know that, you failed miserably, and so now, you are trying to get me to help you bring balance, into the picture.’

‘Balance is everything in the inner, and outer worlds, Kallo, you should know that.’

‘All I know is, you are an outcast, like me. How does it feel, Sionn? Will you ever be able to meet your precious Mannus, again?’

‘I swear by all that’s holy, Kallo, that if you don’t do as you agreed, in this partnership, I will see that you are destroyed, as Soul.’

‘Ha, you are the same as me, Sionn; you only want to destroy things. When I come back, I will personally see to it, that Earth is blown apart, and its souls scattered like dust, throughout the lower regions. Now, if you will excuse me, I have been summoned by Shobdera. Do you think I have been earmarked for the overlord job? Never mind, Sionn, I may use you, in some small capacity, sometime in the distant future, Ha.’

Automatic message from the Guardian network:

Kallo arrives at the entrance of Shobdera, he approaches her throne.

‘Stand fast, Kallo. I never said you could approach me.’

‘I assumed you...’

‘You assume too much. Who do you think you are, Kallo?’

‘I am your servant, my lady.’

‘My servants, do as they are bid, you, on the other hand, take it upon yourself, to wreak havoc, in all the worlds of God.’

‘I bring souls to their appointed place.’

‘You condescending little toad; you have brought the wrath of Mannus, down on us. I have been brought out of silence, to account for numerous worlds, that you are destroying, through your agent clones, and the Super-Robots, that you, and others, brought into being. Explain yourself!’

‘I thought I was in line for the Overlord job? I am ruthless enough, am I not?’

‘You are the most pathetic creature, that ever came into being; do you not recognize that balance is everything down here, as well as the Higher Regions?’

‘Sionn said that, but I am not convinced, surely, we have to try harder to secure our side of things. They, on the higher planes, are always building more and more, so we have to destroy more to keep in balance.’

‘Kallo, I tell you this, and listen to me with eagerness; Mannus says he will exert his power down here; if that happens, me and my domain, will be tainted by the light. Billions of souls, will be lifted up. I cannot allow that to happen. You will release Dan Sherman, and unite him with Debra. He is the only one, who can stop the Super Robots. You will, also release, Deria and her sister, plus Reeas. Fail me in this, and I will bring down my hand, and crush you like a fly. Now go.’

Automatic message: Kallo arrives back in his domain.

‘Hello, Sionn, old chap, how are things?’

‘You are talking different now, Kallo, what happened?’

‘Nothing, Shobdera said, she is considering me for the overlord job, but she wants me to supervise the destruction of one of the Astral sub plane regions. She said, the war with the Super Robots has to stop, for the moment. We also have to release Dan Sherman, and his associates.’

‘I knew it, Kallo, you have been ordered by Shobdera, to come to terms.’

‘Not in the least. It is only a ploy, to decimate the Astral World.’

‘Did she say, you are pathetic, Kallo? Because in my eyes, you are’

‘Don’t provoke me, Sionn; I am deciding whether to keep Dan Sherman and Debra apart for the moment, just till he begs me for mercy.’

‘From now on, Kallo, you are my enemy, again. If you do anything to hinder the process of stopping this war, I will personally find you and bring you before Shobdera.’

Chapter 76-Searching for Dan

Thought message from Sionn: (this was put on record later.)

The situation with Dan Sherman, is still critical; he has been partly exposed to radiation from the Mind-Transfer machine. I just hope that we are not too late. Kallo would have destroyed him, and he would have brought down the wrath of Shobdera, on himself! What kind of mad-man, is Kallo?’ I will let you students gain access to Dan in these recordings. I am now going to release Deria and her sister and Reeas. I will then bring them to Dan, to see if they can help stabilize him.

Dan’s story: I feel I am somewhere very different from anywhere I have ever been; it is a dark room, the walls seem to be made up of living creatures! I can see snakes and all kinds of insects, trying to get at me but when they show their faces through the wall, they are driven back by something. I am only a teacher? Why should I be tortured, like this? I have been in some hellish places in my dreams, but this place, is the worst. Why am I here? And why can’t I find my wife Elaine, and my son, John? My yoga training, isn’t helping, and why is this beast like creature here? I have never seen anything like it; it is a cross between a tiger and a werewolf. We are separated at the moment by a glass screen, but the glass seems to be getting thinner! I only hope I can wake up before the creature can gain access to me.

My memory is also fading; I can’t remember what I am supposed to do? I know I have to do something, or go somewhere, to find some people, who did something bad to me, but what? My God, please help me.

Deria and Reeas story: (added later) Deria and I have been released from a place, which I never thought could exist. The lower entities, which trapped us, were given special powers from the Higher-Mental realm. How can this be possible? I still can't understand how lower entities such as the one that trapped us, were able to keep us under submission, for any length of time, but they did. Sionn was able to release us, under cloaking mode, by simply switching off the transmitter which was fused into the door of the prison room. Once this was done he was easily able to overcome any resistance from these lower entities.

We are now to the trying to decipher the code which Kallo himself put into the mental transfer machine which has stranded Dan in some inaccessible place. I hope to God we will be in time to save my Dan. Kallo is saying he can't remember the codes. I have told him that if we are too late to save Dan, I will personally flay him alive in the physical world. He is submitting at the moment only because Shobdera has threatened him, but as we all know, once he sees an opportunity to escape, he will. I am going crazy waiting for the codes to work; we have found out, that these codes are so enormously complicated that only Debra can successfully find the key code to access the final lock. Kallo is sitting here looking at me with the usual self-satisfied smirk on his face.

Sionn has tried to access Kallo's mind by touching him behind the neck as usual, but Sionn had to stop this, as Kallo was able to block him. The conversation went like this:

'Do you want to be annihilated, Kallo?'

'We all have to go sometime, Sionn.'

'Do you really hate Dan Sherman so much, that you would put your Soul at risk?'

'There is no one who I would rather go out of existence with, more than Dan, the Trainee-Guardian.'

'You joke about it, Kallo, but you will think twice when Shobdera summons you back to her realm.'

'Why don't you get Debra to unlock my codes, Sionn? I'll tell you why. Because she is no longer of any use, am I right? You tampered with her so much, that she couldn't even open an airlock.'

Message from Reeas:

'Sionn, can we speak in private, please.'

We went into the other room; of course, Kallo, will probably be able to access our conversation, but I was so desperate, that I didn't care about it.

'Can you please try again to access, Debra?'

Reeas, I have tried till I am sick; she is unavailable.'

Thought Message from Deria to Sionn: (Sionn is now gesturing Reeas to be silent) 'You are still in contact with Debra, Sionn, I can sense it, and my sister feels the same way, (this message was given to Sionn by higher cloaking mode and, by Thought-Transfer) we will now try to bring Debra out your mind?’

Sionn replied in the same way. ‘Yes, Deria, now is the time to bring Dan, back.’

‘Please relax, Sionn, while we touch you behind the neck.

Message from Reeas:

After a few minutes of Deria and her sister touching Sionn, Debra suddenly appears! She touched Sionn behind the neck and then all four of them disappeared! I was conscious that I had to keep myself in check, and not let Kallo, know about the recent events.

Automatic message from the Guardian database: (Inserted later)

Sionn, Deria and her sister and Debra materialize in Dan’s Astral prison cell, to find that the only life form in the room is the Tourgen beast man.

‘My God, we are too late,’ said Sionn.

‘I won’t accept that,’ said Deria. ‘Let us see if we can access the Tourgen.’

‘Are you looking for me?’ The Tourgen said.

‘Dan, is that you?’

‘Yes, Sionn, it is.’

‘How did you, I mean how come...’

‘I think I know,’ said Deria. ‘Yes,’ said Deria’s sister, I also know.’

‘You mean, Debra?’ Sionn said.

‘Yes, she immediately managed to get to Dan as he was being absorbed into the Tourgen.’

Debra is now starting to materialize in the room. She said, ‘Stand back everyone, I am going to bring Dan out of the Tourgen body.’

‘You don’t need to, Debra; I can do it on my own.’

‘No, Dan, you don’t realize. There is a mental-probe in your mind; it must have been placed there by Kallo. It will activate in three minutes just be calm, and try to meditate. Will everyone else please transfer to the sub base? We will meet you there later, please make sure, you are separated from Kallo; don’t tell him what has happened, he thinks Dan is destroyed. We may be able to turn the tables on him, and gain information.’

‘Debra, I am eternally grateful to you. Thank you.’

‘Dan, you are part of me, we cannot be separated, so they said, but we very nearly were.’

Automatic Message:

Dan, Reeas, Sionn, and Deria transferred back to the sub base, while Debra dealt with the probe. The messaging system is now back to normal. Dan Sherman will take charge of the recording sessions from now on.

Message from Dan: I have to thank students, for all their help, during the recent crisis. Sorry for any inconvenience, over logging on to the Guardian-Network. The Dan Sherman adventures will continue...

Reeas has managed to keep things under cover, as she and Kallo transfer back to the sub base. He is so convinced, that I was unreachable and that only he, could bring me back, that he simply accompanied Reeas back to the sub base.

Reeas is crying as I materialize back in our private room.

After much hugging and kissing, Reeas is summoned into the briefing room. I know from Debra, that Kallo is about to be questioned about why he didn't help to get me back. His arrogance is overwhelming. He didn't seem too bothered about whether, I was destroyed or not, and he wasn't too bothered, about Shobdera knowing about it. Debra is now with me, she managed to deactivate the mind probe, and is about to attend the debriefing session under high intensity cloaking mode. I don't need to join her, as I can understand everything that happens through Debra, while I am in the restroom.

Students take note: I am now back to being my old self. Debra is fully functional. I am also aware, that my consciousness has expanded! Don't ask me how. I just know that, with Debra, I, or we, can do anything. That might seem a bit of an exaggeration, but it is true. I don't need to be debriefed, or told what to do. We will now take up the story in the briefing room:

Kallo is stood in the center of the group; Reeas is facing him, and Sionn is on the right, while Deria and her sister are over to the left.

'Why don't you say something, Reeas? Do you feel like tearing me limb from limb?' Reeas doesn't react. Kallo turned to Sionn. 'What will you do now, Sionn? now your precious Dan Sherman, is gone?' Sionn doesn't react. 'And you, Deria, and your sister, you would still be stuck in the prison cell, but for the mighty Shobdera stepping in. Can anyone doubt, that I am the most powerful being, on this side of the Multiverse?'

'Sionn said, do you mean apart from Mannus, Shobdera, and numerous Overlords and all the rest of the hierarchy such as archangels?'

'They are just watchers! Don't you remember when I was Lucifer Sionn? I wanted to do things, I wanted to be somebody. I was sick of watching. I made people notice me; I made them worship me, now I have millions of clones ready to do my bidding. I am the only one, who can bring about the end of the Super Robot Wars, but it will cost the Guardian network big time.'

'Oh,' said Sionn.

'Yes, you and your entire, petty little student helpers will have to accept my proposals for dream students.'

'And what will they be?'

'It is too long, to go into now, but I have already started the process, when I was the Higher-Coordinator, remember, Sionn?'

'Do you mean, the data that you secreted into the databank, while you were allowed to be the Higher-Coordinator?'
