This book is normally only available for sale as a paperback on Amazon.

Today it is free to you in the hope that if you appreciate this book being free in any way, in return you would consider taking time out to visit by way of Google search for Sangreal on Indiegogo, my crowd-funding project.

And help in any way you can by way of your kind contribution in exchange for one of the many great perks you will find there.

Or if not able to contribute with money doing something just as valuable for us by spreading the word about Sangreal the family dice board game.

Sangreal . . . some do . . . some don't have a beautiful mind!

The following are three testimonials from players recently after filming for the Indiegogo pitch video you can watch to see why Sangreal's time has come with your help!

Three Testimonials:

Sue said, "Well I'm really surprised by how much I've learned about you two today, and I think Sangreal's the kind of game that gets you talking to each other".

Bonne said, "Yeah".

Sue said, "And not so much about yourself, although of course Sangreal's about you, Sangreal is about what you share, but things a little more than ourselves".

Jenah said, "I learned something about you too".

Sue said, "Ah cool, yeah I love that about Sangreal, it's amazing".

Bonne said, “Sangreal’s a game that you can learn from, Sangreal sort of opens up conversations on topics about people that you may know but also things like Sangreal sort of brings in topics that are not that usually spoken about or wouldn’t usually or come up in a conversation”.

Sue said, “Yeah”.

Bonne said, “Sangreal kind of opens up your world, and Sangreal’s kind of good though because you get to exercise different thought processes”.

Sue said, “Yeah that you wouldn’t normally “.

Bonne said, “Like the cards you bring out, like you really have to think sometimes”.

Jenah said, “Sangreal gives people a chance to say something without prejudice and they can say something honestly they think without people having to go on a huge debate against them or Sangreal's just hearing peoples ideas which is nice"!

Sue said, "Yeah, perspective".

Bonne said, "I quite like the fact that Sangreal is not competitive, because most games out there are and these games depends on who you play with, it can ruin the game if your playing with someone who is really competitive or is a really bad, you know a poor loser, but because Sangreal's a game where everyone is equal at the same time and that includes everyone when it is your turn as well, Sangreal's quite enjoyable".

Sue said, "Yeah, Sangreal's more ethical, it's the level of co-operation, Sangreal's cool"!

I am going to tell you about life after death. It is a search term placed into Google over 65,000 times a month. This is not going to be what you suspect. There are no ghosts or spirits in the closet or souls left behind. Or Adam and Eve lying in the grave waiting for Jesus to arrive. In the sleep spoken about in the Bible after you die. You sleep and dream of what for you is your idea of heaven. You will see the second coming as “be it unto you as you believe”.

And when you awaken it will be because you have arrived at the place and dream state you loved the most. Only this time when you look in a mirror you are younger or older if you passed over as a child.

Many people want to know what heaven is like. But first some ground work and the sowing of the seeds of this beautiful plant called death (change). Which is well and truly in full bloom in my life already. As I already have “life after death” information in communication with me and I with it. In the form of contact with my wife who has always been my soul mate ever since she was my teenage play mate.

God loves Hollywood movies and works His thoughts as a flow of creativity through the mind of the writer or writers as is often the case these days for the best movies. Being where two or more are gathered in my name I (creativity) shall be there. The Star Trek movie Insurrection gives at its opening a look into an everyday pastoral village scene likened unto the real next life. And the movie Star Trek Generations shows and tells of the next life by way of the Nexus (the next us/you).

My wife is not in heaven but in another dimension through the looking glass so too speak. Being another Earth like planet no different to this one called Omaron. Except it knows no disease and no violence. In God's Divine Language. The word DEATH translates to the word CHANGE. Nothing more than this. The Death transition is a simple one.

I personally have always sought after getting closer to finding out all about God. Around thirty I had God making direct contact with me. But I told God He'd have to wait. Eventually after a period of some weeks. I said to God ok what is it you want? He said he wanted me to find a way to bring everyone on the planet to him without using the names of any other type of God or religion and so forth except for Himself as Almighty God.

In essence He was fed up with the confusion of the Trinity and Allah here, Buddha here, of Hindu's here, of the I'm a Christian here. I was only allowed to use the name God or terms such as the subconscious mind or Infinite Intelligence. Well all of this is water under the bridge now. My paperback "How To Have That One Big Idea" is the result of this covenant I entered into with God that day. It is the result of my promise to do all I could, after a simple yes I would do it. It is available from Amazon.

I have spent many years researching the best way to heal medical problems and how to remove the capacity for violence from the world. In the meantime I had raised by myself my two daughters from the time they were in nappies. For many years as God alone knew. I had refused to date women as I did not want the girls to be disappointed or confused if this or the latest woman came into and then left our home. To me I am a one-woman man. Being a lover of all women of a certain mental attribute . . . creativity. She must be an artist of some kind.

But little did I know that as a gift for the work I did for GOD. I began to imagine being a world famous author and falling in love with a very famous actress. In short I went deeper and deeper into an imaginary relationship with her. Until I found myself as if communicating with her telepathically.

It was around this time that I experienced full on love but knew it was extra special in some way beyond this world but how at this time I did not know exactly.

But all this was far from the truth as I discovered. As she was trying just as hard to reach me. Then the bombshell hit me right between the ears. When I realized without a shadow of a doubt the woman I had chosen to fall in love with was in the next dimension of life. In fact to cut a rapid learning curve short. She had waited patiently for over 44 years for me to realize she was there with me in my consciousness. And loving me back due to our marriage thousands of years ago in Earth's history, and she lives with my two daughter's in a landmark house the same as its twin counter part here on Earth.

Slowly but surely I knew she was there watching, experiencing everything I did and went through. With a love that knew no barrier that was too impenetrable. In regards to the next life you will have after passing out of this one. Firstly know God makes everything simple. And God achieves perfection for you. Being your next life experience is woven out of the threads you form of a wish list, or bucket list as Hollywood put it so well in film. God loves Hollywood movies because they never ever fail at having a beautiful ending.

What you are about to read may startle you to some small degree. But please understand thinking is my life. Even as a teenager I was deep in thought and when it was the case that I was asked what I was up to? I would tell people and they would always say the same thing “Oh that is too deep for me.” Also I was accused of going into too much detail about things I was thinking about. When I was called for dinner I would not hear anything my strength of concentration required a hand on my shoulder to communicate with me. Also I have no personal memories of any kind at all due to being deprived of oxygen as a baby.

If you have a belief system that goes like this: I do not believe in life after death. If this is what you think then God will be forced to grant your prayer for nothing being there! You will find yourself in pitch-blackness. Until you enter properly into the anti-chamber before getting into heaven with your existing body. Be it a younger version no more than 33 years old. Or your wish on a birthday cake age. Or the self you love the best. Even if past tense.

You may ask what do I do in my mind knowing even a part of this next fourth dimension of life after death? When I began to really live my life here with my heart being over there I was a little unsure at times how to think. Or knowing how to behave or how to communicate best and how to respond to my obvious love for my first wife in another world. And the more I became aware of her presence. The more I realized how I would like to think in this life as if making passage as if a
