

My $500 a Day
Secret.

CONGRATULATIONS!

The secret for making $500 per day is now yours!

But before we move on to that let me first introduce myself. My name is John C Wilson and I am from USA. I am a reputed member on many internet marketing forums & websites. Today, thousands of people on the internet know me for publishing the most realistic internet marketing e-books and reports.

I take my time while publishing an e-book. I always try to find new methods to make money online & if I am successful, I tell others about those methods in my e-book. I write few e-books every year and try to put my best into them.

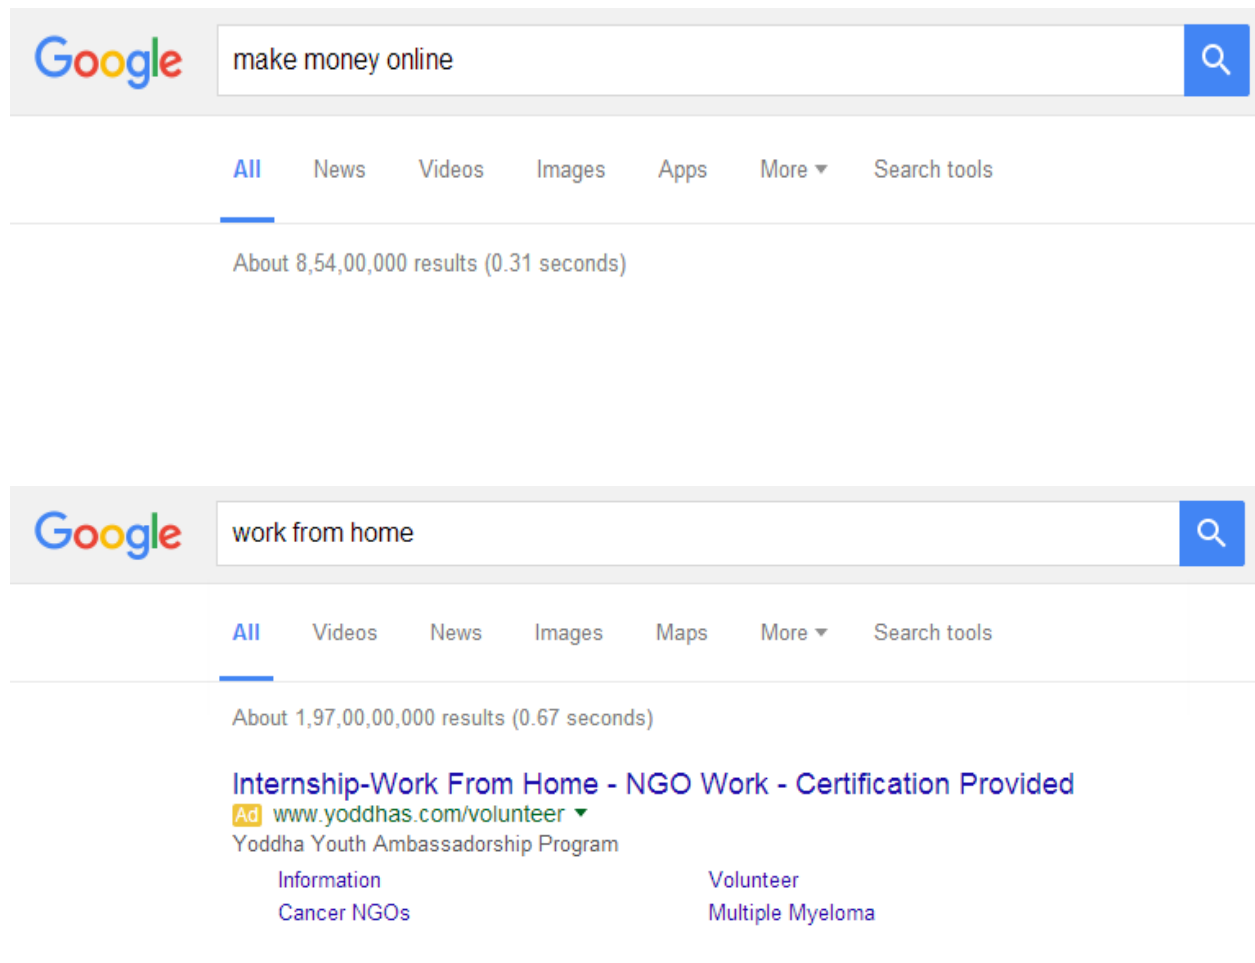

Now, I guess this should be enough as my introduction. Let's stop this chitchat and head towards making $500 per day.

As you have made your way till this e-book I can put you potential money makers in 2 categories.

- ✓ You have already found few methods to make money online and successfully made some serious amount with it. But still want to make more.
- ✓ You just heard about the term 'make money online'. But have no idea where to start.

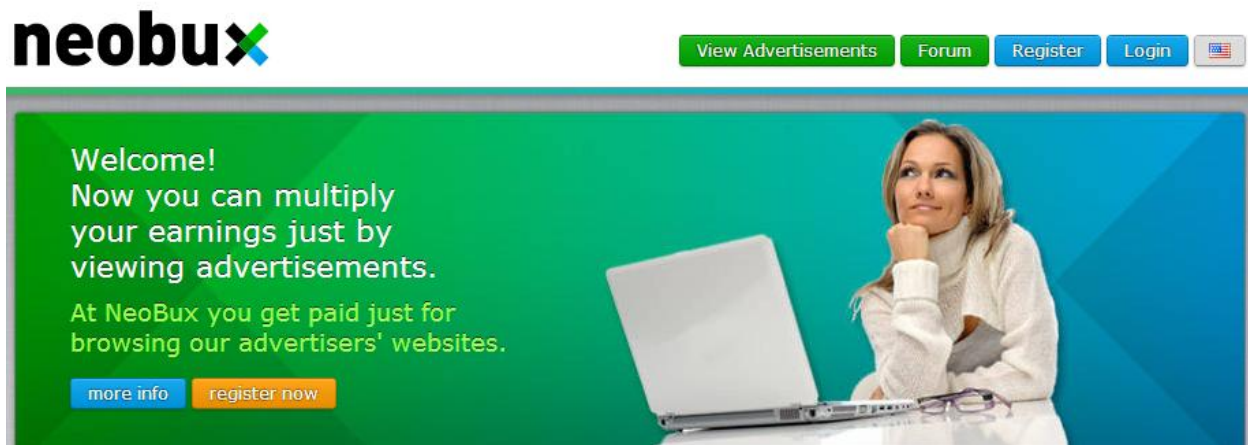

If you belong to the category 1 then congratulations as you have already made your online money dream come true. As for the category 2 there's nothing to be worried about. This e-book was made especially for the people like you. Also keep that in mind the people who are making money online today were in exact same state as you are today.

Now, before I get to 'My $500 a day Secret' let's talk about how people begin making money online. They start by searching Google with the key words like 'make money online' or 'work from home'.

When people search these keywords they usually get exposed to the some PTC sites, survey sites or eventually to a scam site. Those top PTC sites includes Neobux, Clixsense and so on (There are thousands of them!). Some top survey sites are Superpay.me, MySuvey etc.

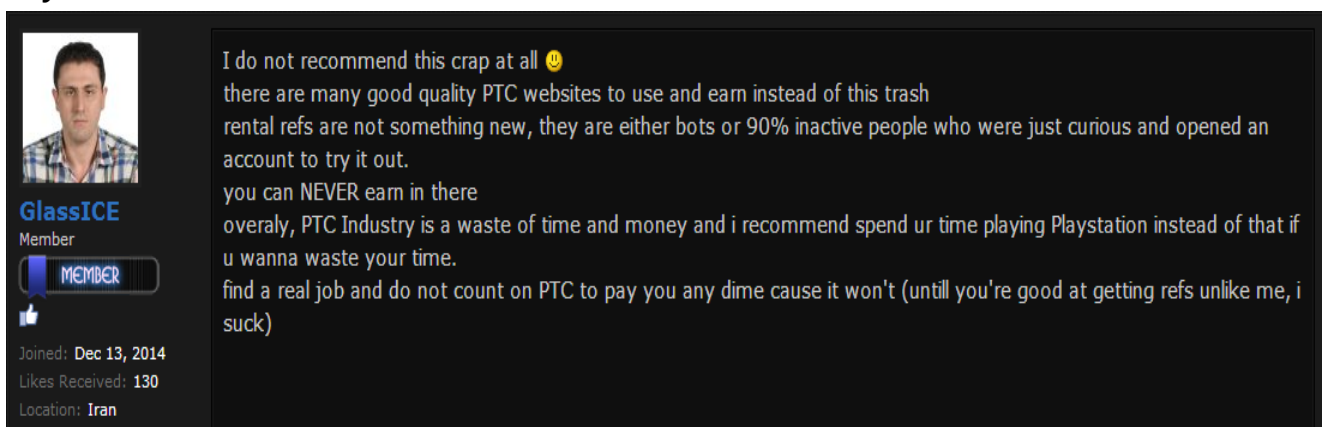

This is how Neobux looks like.

There is nothing wrong with the PTC sites or Survey sites. They do pay their members but their real problem is,

- They are time consuming.
- False promises.

The PTC Networks attract members by saying 'Make upto $1000 per day' and the survey sites keeps on saying 'Make $150 every hour taking surveys'. I wasted my complete year on a PTC site and didn't make a dime. Here's what one of the member says,

Now some of you might say that this e-book also talks about 'making $500 per day' something similar to PTCs? First off this is an e-book not a website and I am not charging you anything for what I am providing. Also I would just put this payment proof here.

My method has nothing to do with PTCs or survey sites. This is a brand new term which has helped people to say goodbye to their day jobs and live a stress free life. And that term is now known as 'Affiliate Marketing'.

So, what actually is Affiliate marketing?

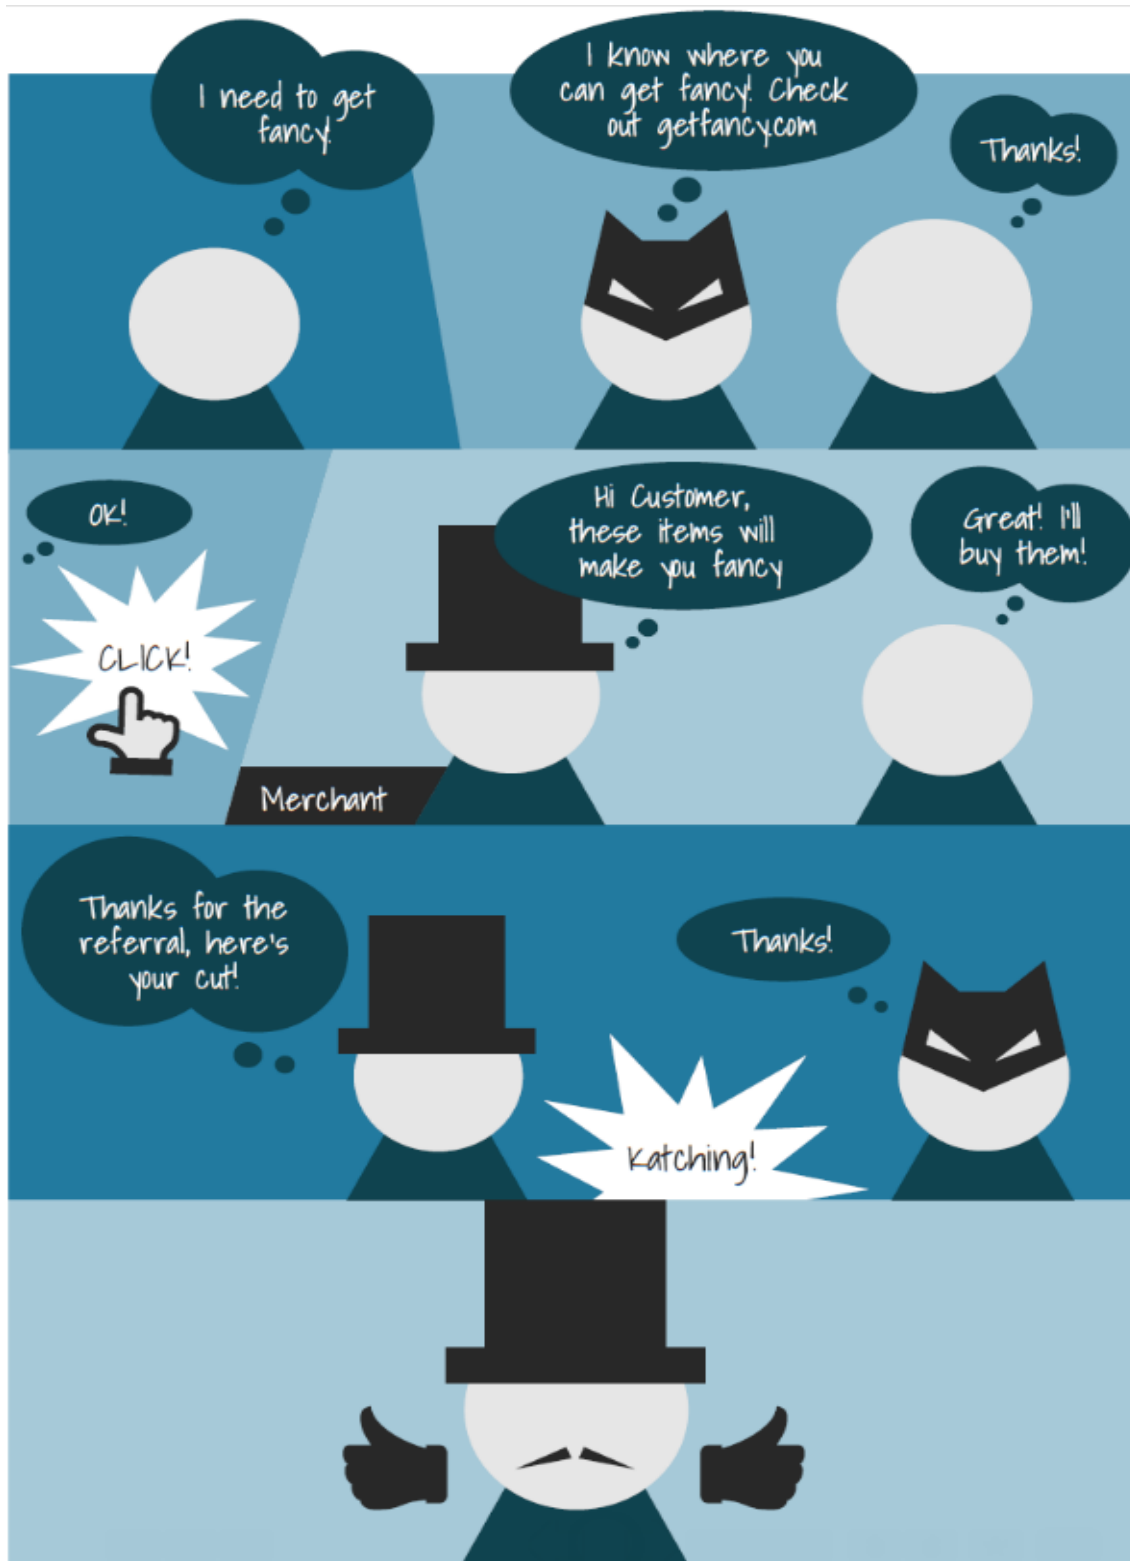

Affiliate marketing is an online business model where you can earn a commission for selling someone else's products. You do not own the product or the service you are promoting on your website. But you do receive a piece of the pie for every paying customer you send to the merchant.

I guess that was a bit too back-breaking to understand. Let me put it in simpler words.

Let's consider this process as analogous to buying a home. When you are interested in buying a new home, who shows you around? A real estate agent. But does the real estate agent actually own the property he or she is trying to sell?

No, but the agent does receive a commission for every home sold.

Check out this example of the marketing cycle:

As you can see, there is a mutually beneficial relationship among the customer, the affiliate and the merchant.

WHY IS AFFILIATE MARKETING $UPERIOR TO OTHER $TRATEGIES?

For people who want to make money online, affiliate marketing outshines other online business models. Here's why:

Simplicity

You don't have to create, produce, store or ship the actual products you are selling.

Basically:

- You don't have to buy inventory.
- You don't have to store goods.
- You don't need to figure out how to accept credit card payments.

How do I start? You might ask.

Well literally there are many websites that sell affiliate products such as Clickbank and Commission Junction. Amazon also has an affiliate program.

Amazon is the best affiliate program for promoting any kind of physical product, such as a smartphone or watch. They have over 1,000,000 products that you can promote, and you can earn up to 8.5% commission on the sale price of an item.

On the other hand, Clickbank marketplace is digital, the commission rates are much higher than with Amazon. You will typically get paid 50-75% commission on any product you promote!

So I recommend signing up with Clickbank instead of Amazon.

PICKING UP A PRODUCT TO PROMOTE.

Once you are successfully signed up the next step you need to do is to pick up a product to promote. Clickbank market place has products available for almost any category you can think of, like match-making, weight loss, dog training, paleo diet etc. You will surely find a suitable product in no time.

Select a product that has Ave$/sale of more than $30. If it's less than that you won't be making much on your selected product. So choose wisely.

Once you click on the 'promote' button you will be provided with a hop link. Note that affiliate links can often look a little strange. Like this,

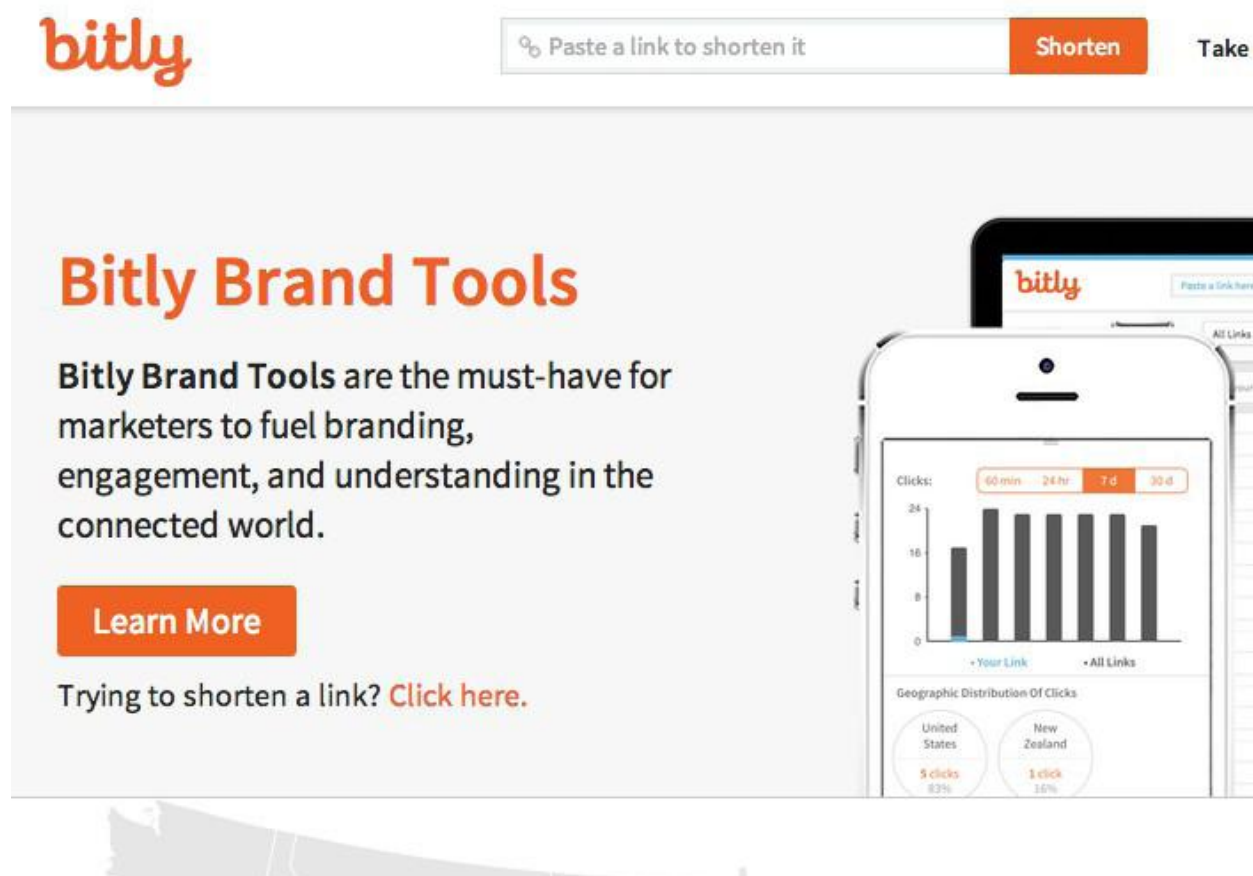

<http://ef494bjvco1n1q4o1bblx5zzdx.hop.clickbank.net/>

When a customer clicks this link and makes the payment for the product, you make a commission.

The hop-link might look suspicious or spammy to some as it's too long and contains random characters in it. I got a bit when I first stumbled upon an affiliate link.

Now to make your affiliate links or hop- links look less spammy, you can make use of url-shorteners. There are many url shorteners that you can use on the internet.

I recommend using 'bit.ly' url shortening service.

The screenshot shows the Bitly website. At the top, there's a search bar with the text 'Paste a link to shorten it' and a 'Shorten' button. Below this, the 'Bitly Brand Tools' section is highlighted. It features the text: 'Bitly Brand Tools are the must-have for marketers to fuel branding, engagement, and understanding in the connected world.' Below this text is a 'Learn More' button. Further down, it says 'Trying to shorten a link? Click here.'. On the right side of the screenshot, there's a smartphone displaying a Bitly analytics dashboard. The dashboard shows a bar chart for 'Clicks' with tabs for '60 min', '24 hr', '7 d', and '30 d'. Below the chart, it shows 'Geographic Distribution Of Clicks' with two circles: 'United States' (5 clicks, 83%) and 'New Zealand' (1 click, 16%).

After generating hop-link for a clickbank product it's time for you to start promoting it. Hop link is of no use if you don't promote it and allow it to remain idle. Following are the best methods that you can utilize to promote your valuable affiliate hop-links.

Blogging

Your blog can either focus on one single CB product you are promoting, or make the blog dedicated to all sorts of products reviews from Clickbank.

There is no restriction on the content of the blog, so you could include product reviews, testimonials, and even informational articles, but keep them in perspectives, or that they should be relevant in term of your chosen keywords and affiliate links.

Forum Posting

Look out for forums and message boards related to Clickbank products.

If you are currently promoting an exercise machine then you should join a fitness forum or message board. This principle applies to other product niches as well, so you could potentially participating in gaming forums, technology forums, and webmaster forums.

Sign off with your affiliate links as signature in these forums or message boards.

Regularly post helpful contents there so as to convince the forum members of your credibility, which makes them want to buy your Clickbank products through your affiliate links embedded there.

Yahoo Answers

Now what is Yahoo Answers you might ask. Well, Yahoo! Answers is a community-driven question-and-answer site or knowledge market from Yahoo! that allows users to both submit questions to be answered and answer questions asked by other users.

A question and answer site like yahoo answers is full of potential. You can use it to promote your affiliate link. Here's how,

🏆 Best Answer: Losing weight is a simple equation: if you burn more calories than you eat, the weight will come off. Start off by estimating how many calories you burn each day using the daily calorie needs calculator

<http://calorieneedscalculator.com> This will give you an idea of how many calories to eat. Healthy weight loss is 1-2 pounds per week. To lose 1 pound per week you need to create a calorie deficit (burn more than you eat) of 500 calories per day. To lose 2 pounds a week, you have to double the deficit to 1000 calories per day. You can achieve this by eating less, exercising more or a combination of both.

Beginner's Guide to Dieting - <http://straightdiet.com>

As you can see above a user has asked about methods for losing body weight. Another user has provided a solution for it. Also he has provided a link for more information.
