

To All People of All Nations

What would say if He were here today??

Rev. Samuel Mack, OMS

<http://thegospelexpress.blogspot.com>

© 2005 y Rev. Samuel Mack.

All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form or by any means without the prior written permission of the publishers, except by a reviewer who may quote brief passages in a review to be printed in a newspaper, magazine or journal.

First printing

ISBN: 1-7854-70175600

United Christians Together

www.thegospelexpress.blogspot.com

Printed in the United States of America

I present this to you for a fact filled description of the entire Bible and all that God is telling us and in the new Testament with Jesus Is telling us as humans we need to do to be in and with

God the Father and Jesus our Brother and with each other as brothers and sisters and the way we should Live In Faith Ever as in L.I.F.E. because it's all there for us to see, and do with as God the Father tells and shows us in His Word so I hope you understand and see that it is simple just that simple and to take over 1200 pages and turn them in 34 is questionable but true because it's here before you to read for yourself and REMEMBER TO ASK GOD IF IT'S TRUE OR NOT HE WILL TELL YOU THE TRUTH.

Some time has passed since I was last among you, and I know that many of you long for my return...and long for it because you hope that when I return Your happiness will be complete, and that everything you consider wicked will Come to an end forever...

The first thing that I want you to know is that I never left...I know that it is not Easy to understand, but I tell you that when you look into the faces of your Brothers and sisters, you look also into mine, and each time you see tears in Their eyes or hear their laughter, those are my own tears that you see, and it is My own laughter that you hear...

I want you to understand that although I was flesh and blood and as real as you You are now; at the same time I became a divine metaphor in the most Solemn poem ever created, so that you might be educated and guided. And that Is why there are so many versions and interpretations of my legacy?

And I would have you know that this diversity has occurred because you, my Friends, have a great diversity of perceptions and opinions, and that is good, for It is a useful mixture from which truth, in its inherent clarity, always emerges... But it happens, beloved friends, that you are too accustomed to just seeing that Which you look at and just looking at what you see, but you should know that You have the potential to see much more than you look at, and to look at much More than you see...and that is why it is not easy for you to understand that I Never left...It is another of your mysteries.

And today I tell you that those things that you call mysteries are in reality Achievements to be attained by the most genuine and sublime among you, and You should perceive them as challenges imposed upon your intelligence by the Divine wisdom. If you perceive the mysteries in that way, and carry out the Labor that is required, your ability to perceive will grow and you yourselves will Grow with it, and you will be able to unlock the mysteries one by one, thereby Broadening your vision and understanding of the marvelous process that is Life...

And this is the reason for the metaphor: There are certain laws that establish the Need for human effort in achieving those goals, and they were created in that Way so that those achievements might never perish...

I am the metaphor of the mysteries and at the same time mystery made Metaphor, so that by the effort of your deliberations and your thoughts you may Achieve the understanding that no one can give you, but that you must reach for Yourself, for it is personal, and as I have told you, beloved friends, it shall Remain forever.

And I am speaking to you in a different way than I spoke to my beloved Disciples and to the people of my time, because your ignorance is not so great As theirs was...Many generations have passed; countless material and cultural Achievements have been attained as a result of the efforts of those generations. Yet with all those achievements, you should know that you suffer under the Same weaknesses and you have the same inner limitations as the people of my Time suffered and had...

And what makes you more blameworthy than they when you act badly is that My witness has been given and my word has been spoken, and today Knowledge is more accessible, for there are a multitude of precedents and Options that provide you with much greater discernment between what is right And what is wrong, what is good and what is evil...

Today, you and your society have much greater evidence, many more resources Of information, and much greater certainty when you make decisions, and thus Your responsibility is greater...

And you should know that the evil that some of you hope will disappear upon My return shall cease to exist only when you are able always to choose well. Only then will evil cease to exist. For if not, what merit will you have Achieved?

The only way to raise you in self-worth is through the implicit merit that Is gained through always choosing well.

The freewill that you now enjoy is an eternal good.

And that means that you

Shall always have the power to do evil.

Thus, if evil ceased to exist, how could
Future generations raise themselves in self-worth?
How could they make Themselves meritorious through their actions if they did not have the power to Choose between good and evil?
Or do you think that the day shall come when

Women shall no longer give birth and children cease to grow?
The generations to come will meet the same challenges and have the same
Opportunities that you enjoy today, just as they shall also bear the same burdens
And face the same consequences entailed by their choices between good and evil...

But the day shall surely come when, in your decisions at the individual level,
Good shall prevail forever, and that is what shall lead you to perfection and Make possible that return...

My return is within each and every one of you. And that moment when I am in
You, and you are in me, will be the moment when you merit being called Children of God...

The path to that achievement is a hard one to travel, but it is necessary...I know
That when you dream of my return, you dream of instantaneous happiness, you
Dream of being freed from that burden that results from making choices
Between good and evil, you dream of avoiding the most important
Responsibilities that you have-responsibilities to yourselves. You wish for the Easy way...but seek to understand that that is not possible. The reason for life
Is to grow in knowledge and love and also to develop the awareness of the true
Self that each of you really is and that achievement is only obtained through Effort and constancy, and that which is easy does not help you in this supreme Endeavor. You must understand that; it is just that simple...

My beloved ones, free yourselves from those pointless dreams, attain for Yourselves that which no one shall ever be able to give you.

You have always been fascinated by predictions of the future, which many Of you have idealized in many different ways. You must know that those Questionings are pointless, and you achieve nothing through them...
Today I tell you that the events of the future will be the result of what you are Able to do in your present, and that you must use your mind more in reflecting
On what is truly substantial, putting aside the imaginary things that so delight
You but so little give you.

At present, every day brings you discoveries, and you unlock the secrets of Matter. Every day you create new products and technologies that make your Mundane chores easier and more pleasant, bring you financial wealth, which is So fascinating to so many of you and which so few of you enjoy...but you must Establish the correct balance between the time and energy that you devote to the World and the time and energy that you devote to that inner being that each of You truly are. I say this to you as individuals and as a society, for upon the Society falls the collective responsibility to warn and educate each of its Members in their most sacred duties.

Beloved friends, today I speak to you not in parables, but you should treasure
And study all those parables that were recorded in the scriptures, for each of Them are a verse of that solemn poem that was my earthly life. You must stop
Wasting time in arguments over doctrines, precepts, and dogmas...and go Instead to the substance, to that which truly has value. Use your intelligence to Discern and discover for yourselves my true message. Use more time to study
And reflect, and less time listening to the modern Pharisees that flourish in all Spheres of thought today...For they shall be known by their fruits....

Long ago I told you that if you persevered in my word you would know the Truth, and that the truth would set you free, and today you have the resources to
Be freer, and therefore today I give you this new commandment: Know that you
Are free, for you were born free...and discover for yourselves what your path
Shall be, and walk that path with your own legs and your own feet, and know

That the paths to that destiny that you all long for are as many as you
Yourselves...Understand that no one in this world can claim for himself or Herself a monopoly on the truth. Long ago I told you that I would send to you
The spirit of the truth; know, now, that that spirit dwells in your hearts. All you Must do is listen closely with all your senses and pay due attention to its voice...
But be aware that that freedom entails the supreme responsibility of effort and Constancy in seeking, each day, the right direction and in walking, each day, the Distance that is given you to walk...

And laziness is one of the enemies that must be conquered along that path. It is Cunning and seductive, and you must meet it and conquer it, just as you meet
And conquer the temptations that you face every day, the temptations to do evil.
And to do this you must use your will and your conviction that it is right to act
In this way, for it is to your own benefit to do so...And ignorance, you must
Also conquer, and to conquer it, much effort and much sacrifice is needed.
Ignorance is the malignant thing that holds you back and makes you stumble,
And laziness is its best ally, for to conquer ignorance, you must perform the hard Internal labor of instructing yourself. Thus, be tenacious and constant, and the Knowledge that you attain will provide you the correct direction, the direction
That you need in order to free yourselves from all the obstacles you encounter
On your path, for you must know that knowledge is the ally of love, and those
Are the tools that you shall need...they are your greatest allies in your daily pilgrimage.

Long ago, with my life I gave many examples. I would have you know that I had to struggle against those same enemies, and as I conquered them, so you can also conquer them. I would have you know also that you will have no Obstacles to overcome that I did not have, and you will have no pain or grief to Suffer that I did not also have.

Convince yourselves that the potential you were born with is a grace from the Father, a living testimony to His infinite generosity. But there are other graces, Gifts and powers that are obtained only through the excellence of the labor that You exert upon yourselves and upon your fellow men and women throughout Your lives... These graces, gifts and powers must be earned...

You must understand many things, and one of the most important is the value Of humility... By being small you guarantee your greatness. Make not Yourself great, and you shall be made great; make not yourselves wise and You shall be recognized as wise; praise not yourselves and you shall be praised. Humility is generous in just that way, and it is in the generosity that virtues Offer to the men and women that cultivate them that its value lays. It is a good That enriches the spirit and strengthens it. Cultivate the virtues greatly, for they Ensure your prompt arrival at that destiny that awaits you. I tell you that the Virtues, too, are powerful allies...

But you should always be prepared to meet the danger entailed by the Consciousness of your own virtue, and never allow your ego to induce you to Pride yourselves on your own worth... You must identify the ego as well, and Always be alert to its caprices and prepared to counter them, for it is supremely Sophisticated and its cunning tricks can make you fall into banality.

Beloved ones, I would also have you understand that the way to have more is to Desire less. It is that simple... Constant desire is the cause of pointless anguish, And you should convince yourself that you would attain inner peace and harmony When you identify and appreciate that which is truly valuable, those things that

You already possess, both materially and spiritually. You must come to Understand the difference between ambition and the praiseworthy need to Prosper, for ambition is dictated by the ego while the need to prosper is the best Of one's self. Ambition constantly longs for the much, the easy, and the rapid, While the need to prosper longs for improvement in moderation, no matter the Time it takes or the effort that is needed or the risks that present themselves in Obtaining this improvement.

Long ago I commanded that you love one another, yet many of you still do not Obey that commandment. It is to you, those who look at your neighbor with Suspicion, resentment, and animosity that I want to speak now...I know that You have a baggage filled with reasons for being the way that you are: You Have been disillusioned, robbed, and victimized in countless ways. And with Those reasons you justify yourselves when you do the same to your brothers And sisters...

But when you act in that way you show your ignorance, you show how Repressed within the depths of your hearts is that seed of love that you were Born with...and that is both the sin and its own repayment...But it is through The commandment to love one's neighbor that you shall wipe clean the sin and The unhappiness and bitterness that always accompanies it...

And I also told you not to strike back against the wrongdoer: if someone strikes You on your right cheek, you should offer him also the left. Turning the other Cheek to the person who strikes you means much more than words are able to Show...It is domination of your emotions, domination of your instincts; it is to Be human in its maximum expression; it is to disarm the aggressor without Yourself becoming aggressors; it is to grow through adversity by not Allowing that aggressor or that adversity to conquer you and thereby strip you Of the most noble aspect of your being. You must understand that. It is another Step to take on that path chosen by you...

But that does not mean that you should stand with your arms crossed in the face

Of the base acts of some persons that you meet along your way. Remember my Attitude when I met the moneychangers in the temple...I expelled them with all The severity that they deserved...You should know that from time to time you Will have to use the authority required by the occasion and take right action, And in doing that, your conscience and your intelligence must be your guide. You should also understand what I have just reminded you of: All of you were Born with the seed of love planted in your hearts, and you should not allow Your mind to repress it, to keep it from germinating. For that seed is your most Precious inheritance, an inheritance that comes directly from the Supreme

Creator. And if you care for it and cultivate it with passion and devotion it will Help you open your consciousness wide enough to understand the miracle that Are you yourselves, to unlock the secrets that lie hidden in your own heart? You are the miracle of miracles...And when you understand this truth you will Realize how ignorant are those who constantly pray for miracles so that they Will be able to believe. I was asked for a miracle just yesterday, and today I am Asked yet again, and the more these persons ask, the blinder they become... The good works that I performed long ago were necessary so that the people of My time and of all times would believe; they guaranteed my place in history, Guaranteed that my legacy would endure as part of history forever, to the profit Of all generations and all peoples...Beloved friends, you are surrounded by Miracles on every side; it is the very constancy of those miracles and your Nearsightedness that cause you to perceive them as everyday, common things... Beloved, open your eyes and marvel at the creation that you are part of. Enjoy The divine banquet to which you have been invited. And that is one of the ways to honor the Father: Work every day to open you're Eyes ever wider, to become more and more aware of your own existence and Appreciate it more and more. I came to give witness to His infinite love and to Show you the way to become worthy of that love, so that you might give it to Him and your fellow men and women in return, for their happiness and your Own...

Recently you have had the opportunity to witness a modern version of the Calvary walked by me. I know that many of you have been profoundly moved by the visions of the flagellation inflicted on me and the blood running down my body...you have felt my pain, and experienced shame and indignation at the infamy to which I was subjected. Many of you have wept and been grieved by the horror of what you saw. Taking the story that up to now you have known only through words and making it graphic has allowed you to share that Calvary with me, and the greatest benefit you can draw from that experience is the conviction that there is no pain that does not bring renewal...My martyrdom led to my resurrection.

And with my martyrdom and resurrection, the Father increased your potential, And sealed it forever...Today I tell you that if the physical pain was a heavy Burden to me, much more burdensome is that pain caused by the vileness that Ignorance engendered, and still engenders, in many men and women Yet... With my pain there also came my joy, and the piety and compassion shown to Me by so many souls of yesterday and today has been and still is my greatest Joy...

My beloved ones, I gave my life for you, and for you I recovered it...It is you, The pious and compassionate, which are my greatest hope and my greatest Delight. But you must know, as I know, that it is not you who have the greatest Need of me—no, it is sinners, vile and ignorant men and women who have the Greatest need of me and of piety and compassion. And that is why I ask those Who are fertile of heart, those who follow me and love me, to be guides to the Blind, teachers of the ignorant and of the vile, for in doing so you will become Guides of other guides, teachers of other teachers, and will turn vileness into Love.

There is no other path, my beloved ones. It is only through your generosity and That commitment that each of you must make that you will be able, with your

Lives and actions, to improve your society and free yourselves, day by day,

From all the evils that beset you. That attitude will make you worthy of the Grace and peace that you so long for and that so few truly strive to achieve. Individualism has plagued you. I know very well that you are too concerned With your financial improvement, and that constant competition among you for Useless ostentation and the enjoyment of material things often drags you down And causes you to lose sight of what is truly most worthy of your time and Effort. That does not make you a bad person, but it does delay that which you Must irremediably achieve, my beloved ones. Your growth is a mission that you Cannot and must not shirk; for that you were born and for that you were given Life, and that is law and at the same time the greatest grace that you have Received...

And that knowledge is part of that truth that you so long to know and for which So many kind and generous souls have given their lives... Today I tell you That the commitment to help one's fellow men and women to understand and Become aware of the reason for their existence, to value the best use of each Second of their life, is as sacred and worthy of all love and respect as my Sacrifice for you all was.

May the emotions experienced by you in that communion that you have had With my Calvary be a pillar for that commitment to grow in life and Understanding...

May the revulsion that you have felt against the infamy of my punishment Serve as a curb against the abuses that you yourselves may someday commit... May your indignation become the ability to consolidate principles and maintain The good judgment and honesty that should govern all your actions...

And may your joy, as happened with me, arise from sacrifice. For your greatest Challenge lies in the willingness to confront and deal with anything that comes

In life, with constancy and love. Doing this will bring you the pleasure and the Joy, which is the grace that you grant yourselves.

All of this is part of the re-creation that the miracle that is your existence shall Achieve, and at the same time, it is in your participation with the Father in his Great Work that you will find the purpose and energy necessary to go on, with Joy and hope and with the certainty that each day you will be better, and that The future will be better too...Finally, you will rid yourselves forever of all Fear and doubt...

And you will smile at adversity, though your faces may be covered with tears.

My chosen ones are all those who are willing to walk the path of life with the same devotion and the same love that I walked it with, that devotion and love that so many kind souls have given witness to.

Remember that I told you that the person who eats of my flesh and drinks of my blood should have life eternal.

Sharpen your senses; understand the metaphor of my words. To eat of My flesh and drink of my blood means to live with the same willingness to Sacrifice that I embraced; it means to accept your mission, whatever it may be, As I accepted mine; it means to love your fellow men and women as I loved Them, and as I still love all of you. But my beloved, remember my words: My Yoke is not heavy, and my burden is light, and that is true because the treasure That you will obtain is so immensely wonderful that in the end you will realize That all the effort was worthwhile, that meeting and overcoming all those Vicissitudes that you met with on the path of life was worthwhile...And that is To know the Father and love him but it is also to begin to unlock the mystery of The metaphor that was my life.

In order to truly know what that mission is that I have just spoken to you about, You must closely examine your heart and see what your true inclination is, what It is that truly motivates you and gives you pleasure. If you do this with honesty And follow that inclination with integrity and determination, you will ensure Your inner gratification and bring added happiness to your lives.

Meditate over what I have just told you. That is the only way that you will be Able to enter through that narrow gate and walk that rugged road that I have Been speaking of to you...the road that leads to your salvation.

I did not come to ask for adoration either for the One who sent me, or for Myself. I told you before that the true worshippers shall worship the father in Spirit and in truth...understand that the one you should adore is your true own Achievements; you should value them, preserve them, and multiply them.

That

Is the only adoration that yields fruit; it is the way in which the Father should Be honored...

Love life and you will be loving Him; love your fellow men and women and You will be loving Him...Idols, things unknown and feared, are adored; but What one loves and honors is what one knows and is beneficial to one. For a Long time He has been revealing Himself to you, and it was for that reason that I was sent, for that reason I am speaking to you again, so that you may know Him and love Him and honor Him...

Blessed are the fertile of heart that strive to understand my words. I would Have you know that my happiness lies in you; I would have you understand that The universe is the visible fruit of that infinite love that creates everything at Every moment; I would have you know that everything around you is a creation That is renewing itself, by itself, at every moment. When you understand that The creation is the constant and ongoing work of the Father, you will be able to Feel His constant presence and will be part of my own happiness as your vision Of the universe and yourselves expands.

You know that the material creation is vast, and that in it there is always some New secret to unlock, some new world to conquer. Know, then, too, that your Inner universe is just that vast, and however much you get to know it, there will Always be something new to discover, something new to conquer...Life, even After death, is an eternal challenge, and therein lies its richness and Magnificence. Beloved ones, I would have you feel delight, for I would have You know that you are as deep as you are capable of diving, as perfect as you Are capable of becoming...there are no limits...Everything you are able to

Dream, everything you are able to imagine, is within the realm of your Possibilities, but first there are laws which must be obeyed, merits to gain, and Goals to achieve. For just as God is generous, His ways are wise and straight. Now I want to talk to you, the sheep in my flock, those of you who keep your Hearts clean. I know that you lovingly and devotedly cultivate the seed of love That you were born with, that your works are good, and that you walk on the Path of righteousness. You are my joy and my hope, and I ask that you also be The shepherds of those sheep who become lost. I would have you know that the Greatest responsibility of those persons who have cleansed their hearts is to aid Those who have not yet done so, those who have held back...It is there that that Seed of love with which you were born truly germinates. Be apostles of the Truth and give witness of the happiness that you have achieved, and you will Enjoy the fruits of that labor as I enjoy it in you. Do not become comfortable or Complacent, for there is always much to do and the fields are filled with those

Lost sheep calling out for consolation and direction...

The work is hard but its recompense shall be the ability to ever more rapidly Approach the fount of love, to take delight in the sacred honey that only the Prophets and my chosen ones are allowed to taste.

And you, who are lost sheep, open your hearts to the call of the shepherd.
I know that you are strong of character and that you boast that you need no one.
You face the world as conquerors of riches; you and only you really count...
But I know that in the dark of night and in the infinite loneliness that dwells
Within your hearts you often muffle your sobs so that no one can hear, and you
Hide even from yourselves... Therein lies your misery and unhappiness, for no
One can hide from his or her real self, just as no one can deceive the truth... I Would have you know that although you want to do it, the seed of love that is Planted in you from the moment you were born can never be killed... You will Be able to deceive yourselves, you will be able to employ all sorts of tricks and Ruses, you will be able to deny your own humanity and commit the worst of Crimes, but you should know that although you are always going to have to pay
The price of those acts, to suffer the consequences, you are also always going to Have the fount of love waiting for you, with the precious grace of forgiveness...
And it will be then, in your repentance, when your tears will come forth like a Torrent, when you finally understand the magnitude of your wrongdoing and Realize the waste you have made of your lives... Listen, then, to my words
Today, and make your path straight... There is still time; I and every fiber of Your being exhort you.

And those of you who look with mistrust upon your brothers and sisters who do
Not share your beliefs, and even come to see them as your enemies, I tell you
That you should always be alert to the temptation to judge your fellow men and Women. Long ago I told you that as you judge, so shall you be judged, and that Its fruit knows the tree, and today I have told you that there are as many

Paths as there are men and women among you, and also that none among you
Can claim a monopoly on truth...

Meditate on the content of my words, and you will understand that just as the Creation is immensely rich in its manifest variety, so is it splendid in the options
That it gives you in achieving that for which you were born. It is that attainment

Through which you become participants, with the Father, in the miracle that you
Truly are, growing in merits and in grace...re-creating yourselves through your Clean actions and the realization of the reason for your own existence...

When you understand this, your vision will grow and the opinion that you have
Of your brothers and sisters will be corrected...Value the fruits of those other Good trees that grow in such abundance in your fields. Their roots are not Planted in the same fertile soil as yours, but I would have you know that the Source of the fertility that you enjoy is the same source that has fertilized the Soil where all those trees that give good fruit are planted...

Working in that way for His own glory.

Know, too, that just as you should not judge others for their religious beliefs,
You should not judge any of your peers for their sexual inclinations.

I did not speak to you about this before because of the ignorance that was Rampant in my day; that was why in my writings I told you that there were Many more things to tell you, but that it was too much for then...

My beloved ones, you now know much more about the complexity of your Minds and how the circumstances of life can affect you and change you in Countless ways. Each of you has a personal history that makes you unique in Your preferences, judgments, and beliefs, and although your similarities are Much greater than you can ever imagine—for they are rooted in your truest
Essence—Creation itself, through your physical, emotional, and intellectual Diversity, mirrors the wondrous variety with which it manifests itself in all

Thank You for previewing this eBook

You can read the full version of this eBook in different formats:

- HTML (Free /Available to everyone)
- PDF / TXT (Available to V.I.P. members. Free Standard members can access up to 5 PDF/TXT eBooks per month each month)
- Epub & Mobipocket (Exclusive to V.I.P. members)

To download this full book, simply select the format you desire below

