

Episode 2: Two cups of Asp and Us

After their transformation, they all stand for a while and then they imagine what mischief they could do with their powers.

Brian first thought of destroying the university engineering department, using missiles and lasers, also by stamping and bashing it with his robotic arms, then when it became ashes he looks at it, then he jumps up in the air, and as he's landing turns into a ball of flames; he then lands on the ashes; he (in robot form then stands and starts dusting his hands.

At the same time, Jane thinks of turning completely into flames and then flying over to where Tamia was, and setting her and her two followers on fire; she then goes over to a pink convertible car, with license plate, Tamia #1, she turns round it then goes into the clouds then as she returns she sends down a rain of fire, blowing up the car.

Suzzy, thinks of using her dragons to destroy her mother's company, Nna Enterprise, a tall building, made of glass, the dragons go in breaking all the glass and destroying everything, then they get very large and squeeze the building till it crumbles to the ground, then using the dragons she will imprison her parents in a room. She then uses the dragons to chase all the lecturers away from school.

As the three stood there in shock smiling, a set of the army started gang beating the three. Brian then looks at Ted with his robotic head as he was held down by a lot of robots and one was jumping to smash him to the ground, Jane was held by a bunch of ogres, and one was coming with a club to pound her, Suzzy was being attacked by a set of flying beasts, one was flying over to drop a big rock on her head, Ted seeing all this then says:

Ted: Brian, guys, watch out!!

Brian,Suzzy&Jane: oh!

They then snap out of their day dreams and Brian says:

Brian: watch this bro, it's a gamer's heaven in here.

Inside the robot, Brian then stretches and reached a pad with two joysticks, direction buttons, four top buttons and four buttons close to the right joystick, then he turns the right joystick, this made the robot turn a full 360, tossing all the robots that held it down, the robot in the air then lands on one of his comrades making it explode, Brian (in robot form) then starts standing, taking a position of which one knee was on the floor the other foot, were on the robotic toes, while the hands were on the ground. He then says:

Brian: Missing me is the biggest mistake you'll ever make. Ahhhhhhh!

He then runs towards two robots grabbing their heads and smashing them together then taking one of the no headed robots by the leg and using it he smashes it into another one running towards him, this made an explosion as the smokes settled there is a lot of lasers directed towards Brian, but as the smoke settled and the fireworks stopped Brian is seen covered in a blue shield, as the shield goes out, Brian starts returning his own lasers, turning 360 and floating as he did; this destroyed a lot of robots. After this, he then picks a part of a shattered robot, and inside the robot Brian slaps his face as though to check if he sleeps, the robot then hits its face in the same pattern but with the part of the shattered robot, Brian then opens his mouth in disbelief as more robots start running towards him, he slots his Discman in a space in the robot, then a set of speakers came out of the two shoulders of the robot playing, a rock song. This excited

Brian who smiles and says to himself "robot wars, one of my favorite games". The music tend to help not only him, but Jane & Suzzy too. He starts displaying a lot of skills destroying the robots with ease.

Jane after the warning made her fire extra hot, this made the ogres let go, she then tosses a ball of flames at the clubs of the ogre, setting it on fire, she then lifts up the ground, then moves backwards, then spinning in flames, she flies towards the crowd of ogres, hitting each of them as she passed, she then puts her hands together and as she separates them a ball of blue flame is formed, she then flies over them, then she goes a little higher, then let the ball go, as it landed, it disintegrated the ogres, after which Asp sends more to attack her, she this time stays on the ground and starts doing some karate moves, as she holds an ogre, she sets it on fire, then pushes it away, she continued this until one tries to dive her from behind, she then does a back flip and uses her legs of fire to step on the ogre setting it ablaze immediately. she then turns 180 on it before it reaches the ground, and dives towards a second which was diving towards her and as they came in contact it went ablaze, she then passes through it like hot knife through butter. She then stays in midair for a while and looks at her enemies scattered on the ground. At this point the rock song had started playing from Brian's robot. Jane then wails in excitement as she starts destroying them according to the beat of the song. After a while she then flies upwards, clenches her fists together and descends at a rapid rate, that as she hit the ground there was a quake, but instead of the ground dividing a cylinder of fire the size of a wheel barrow tyre, comes out around her and burns everything that way coming in her direction.

Suzzy, seeing the flying creature after Ted's warning sends a dragon which breaks all the rocks before they came close to her, but leaving the creatures, as they came quite close, she raises her hands and 6 to 7 dragons come out, from her hands which now is fully tattooed to the nails with a lot of dragons, the dragons fly towards the creatures and goes round them twisting them till they disappeared. She then starts running towards Asp but is hit down by a set of huge dog-like beasts, on their four paws, they are as tall as Suzzy, who tries to shake off the pain of the knock, as she then started getting her vision, one of the beasts is seen mouth wide opening as though wanting to take off her head with one bite, she then brings her hand in front of her face, with her eyes closed; a dragon comes out and with a wider mouth, swallows the beast, she then does an acrobatic flip and stands up; she then smiles to herself, as the beasts circled her, she has a calm look on her face, then as they all start flying towards her at the same time, she rolls underneath one and a circle of dragons were in the middle where she once was, they then spin their way into a blue ball of light of which as the beasts entered they vanished immediately. She then turns and starts giggling, just as that happened Brian's rock music begun, Suzzy then does a hand twist and then two dragons were floating round her, making her fly, she then looks at the rest, smiles at Ted, and then she sees her next set of challenge, a set of those dog-like beasts this time with wings. They all have weapons and as they are coming towards her, she spins until she reached the ground, then she sends some dragons out again but, many of the beasts escaped the dragons, as they came very close, she then gets mad and screams;

Suzzy: STAY AWAY!!!!!!!

As she said this a set of blue light glows around her, then as the beasts are about to make contact, they starts dying and disappearing, after the last one did a set of blue dragons are seen like a hurricane around Suzzy, and she is in the middle. After which they all stat entering her hands back.

After defeating their opponents they then start running towards Kumodo and Kisha, Asp seeing this gets Kumodo in a swift way that Kisha who was about to hit him didn't even get to hit anyone, he then says:

Asp: somehow, you and your annoying little bunch got the powers of Hol and Fod Kisha, I don't know how it chose you, but to top the humiliation, they destroyed one of my best troops, well I guess till we meet again Kisha

Kisha: Asp, you know you and Kumodo's days are numbered.

Asp: don't push your luck sweetie, there is more than one way to free a lord.

Jane: shouldn't that be to skin a cat.

Kumodo: The prophecy would be completed and there is nothing you lot can do about it.

Brian: correct me if I'm wrong but you just got disgraced I think we are pretty confident.

Asp: fool, the powers are working on reflex, so don't press your luck, I want you to be ready enough for the powers to let you all control it. Till then, I'll be testing you once in a while.

Brian: Dude, we'll be waiting, prepared to get you extinct.

Asp: this is a little something to let you know what you are going against.

After saying this Asp says an incantation as slaps his hands together making the whole army disappear and making the four come back to their human forms. They all stood in shock, as Ted runs over screaming

Ted: Guys that was freaking awesome. I can't believe this, how, where, what was that?

Brian: Frankly, I don't understand, let's ask weirdo.

Kisha: my name is Kisha

Brian: whatever? So can you please explain how I'm a robot, Jane is on fire, and Suzzy is a dragon summoner. I thought the powers were ancient.

Kisha: It seems the powers were modified according to your recent desires. Brian your powers are modified to suite your controls of it, Suzzy your powers are adjusted to your feelings and Jane, probably to what you think about yourself.

Ted: what happened to me, how come I have no super powers but I feel different.

Kisha: your powers haven't been uncoded yet, we all know it's of great importance but we don't know what it is Suzzy: so we are meant to save the world from this Asp fella? That's a little crazy, Weirdo, so what do we do now?

Kisha: my name is...., oh don't bother; we'll have to stay alert, because now we are the defenders of mankind.

Jane: but they can't harm humans now, right?

Kisha: they can, and you can too in your transformed state; I guess I'll have to stay with you now, we are a team and breaking up will increase Asps chances of defeating us and freeing OergoornX.

Ted: what?

Kisha: the evil form that made Asp immortal.

Jane: so it has the powers to make a human immortal, bring to life an army of Ogres, beasts and robots, but he can't free himself?

Kisha: precisely, so do you have a place for me to stay.

Suzzy: Sure weirdo, my mum has this old flat in our estate which was meant for a friend, but since the friend is abroad, we use the place for a hang out joint. It's fully furnished, you can stay there.

Kisha: thank you, I'll have to contact P.D headquarters.

Just as she is about to bring out something from her bag pack, one of the students comes to them, he is wearing a blue shirt and a blue 3 quarter jeans, he has scrapped all the hair off his head. He then says:

Boy: guys, I've been looking for you; the tour guide says it's almost time. Hey, who's the sweetie?

Brian: Deji, beat it before I get to you.

Deji: you guys are the greatest, you go to check for snakes and trees, and you guys find the finest thing I've ever seen.

Jane: I'm sure she's flattered, now if you don't mind, we have a little family discussion of which Suzzy: your presence is a nuisance.

Deji: I'm gone, but better be careful Jane, she might be the new hotty in school.

Kisha: believe me I'm not here for that; but thanks for the complement all the same, would you kindly leave.

Deji: just the sound of your voice

All: LEAVE!!!!

Deji: I'm going, I'm going, cheese Louise, and you guys are so uptight.

Deji then leaves the bunch behind, singing African queen in an annoying manner. They all shake their heads and stays in a circle still discussing about everything.

Asp is seen walking into a chamber furious as hell, Kumodo, is close but keeping a distance, Asp gets to a table and hits it, this made the table turn into ashes. Kumodo then walks closer to him and brings out a list by twisting his hands horizontally; he then says

Kumodo: We have a great list of bounty hunters that could end this for us.

Asp: the master would be displeased to know that I was there and somehow, just somehow unexplainable, helped them get the powers. And to top it up, it's a bunch of rock and roll loving kids.

Kumodo: we could use this time to think up a bounty hunter. I know one who would be very useful.

Asp: who?

Kumodo: Anaconda, the human snake. The one who found a way to become human.

Asp: at the expense of becoming a snake. Where would we find him?

Kumodo: it could take days.

Asp: find him, and if he fails, find the quay twins, find all the bounty hunters, and also contact our friends from deprian solar system

Kumodo: The soul collectors?

Asp: yes, if they want the key to mortality they would have to help in getting rid of these problems.

Kumodo: and the dark lord, what do we tell him?

Asp: Let that be my problem, yours is getting as much help as we can.

Kumodo leaves Asp who continues complaining.

Elsewhere, Brian, Kisha and the rest seem to have gotten to the place suzzy talked about. Kisha is holding a communicator, and is talking to someone, while the rest keep describing how cool each persons powers was.

Kisha: father, you wouldn't believe this, I found the powers.

Mr. Lun: great news Kiki, I'm so proud of you, so when will you be returning with the powers?

Kisha: that's the problem, the powers have chosen the humans and believe me, they are the biggest set of university kids you'll ever meet.

Suzzy: who the hell is weirdo talking to?

Brian: beats me I'm just glad I got this cool powers. It's sad that the only thing we got new from the trip that people can see is weirdo.

Kisha: (ignoring them) so father I have to train them and help them into fulfilling their destiny. So I might just be here for a very long time.

Mr. Lun: and I hope you are one of the four.

Kisha: the essence.

Mr. Lun: now you have a way of making me unable to tell you otherwise. Congratulations. P.D is
