

Puppy & The Wicked Wasp

Author & Illustrated

Paulina Skudlarska

It was a sunny day. There was a puppy and a rabbit. They went to the garden to play. Then a wasp flew and she sat on the puppy. Then puppy started running and then the wasp stung puppy. After that puppy fell.

15 minutes later. The dog master Lilly opened the door. She went to the sitting room and she saw from the window puppy lying on the ground. Lilly quickly opened the garden door. She lifted him up and she brought him to vet.

She brought him to the vet. There was a big queue. She cried "O lord, he is nearly dying" She asked the person on front of her, could she go on front of him. He laughed of course.

"Thank You" lilly murmured the old men called another person into his room.

"So what do we have here" wondered the old man. I don't know I was in the shop. When I came back I saw the puppy lying on the ground.
