The image is a screenshot of the Chess.com website. On the left, there is a large chessboard with a green and white checkered pattern. The top row of the board shows black pieces: a rook, knight, bishop, queen, king, bishop, knight, and rook. The bottom row shows white pieces: a rook, knight, bishop, queen, king, bishop, knight, and rook. The middle rows are empty. Above the board, there is a black bar with a white icon of a person and the text 'Opponent'. To the right of the board, there is a black bar with the text '10:00'. Below the board, there is a black bar with a white icon of a person and the text 'GuestPlayer (1200)' followed by a small American flag icon. To the right of the board, there is a black bar with the text '10:00'. On the right side of the page, there is a dark gray background with white text. At the top, it says 'Play and Learn Chess on the #1 Site'. Below this, there are three lines of text: '5,409,592 Games / Day', '40,423,918 Members', and '382 Masters Playing Now'. Each line has a small icon to its left: a chessboard for games, a group of people for members, and a crown for masters. Below this text is an orange button with the text 'Play Now'. At the bottom of the right side, there are three icons: a green cube with a chessboard, a green square with a chessboard, and a green square with a question mark. Below each icon is a label: 'Learn to Play', 'Play Computer', and 'Daily Puzzle'.

Introduction

Special tactical exercises mate in 2 moves

Chess is a great opportunity to develop memory, concentration, creativity and a sense of responsibility. It teaches us to make the right choices at the right time. Winning a game of chess is always a great moment in the life of a player, whether he is a beginner, an enlightened amateur or an International Grandmaster. But to win, you have to know how to win! Tactical mate in 2 exercises are the most popular for beginners and club players to learn winning tactical patterns. Practice seriously with these progressive exercises, based on real games. Practice again and again to become a good chess player and win as many games as you can! The more time you spend training, the stronger you will become.

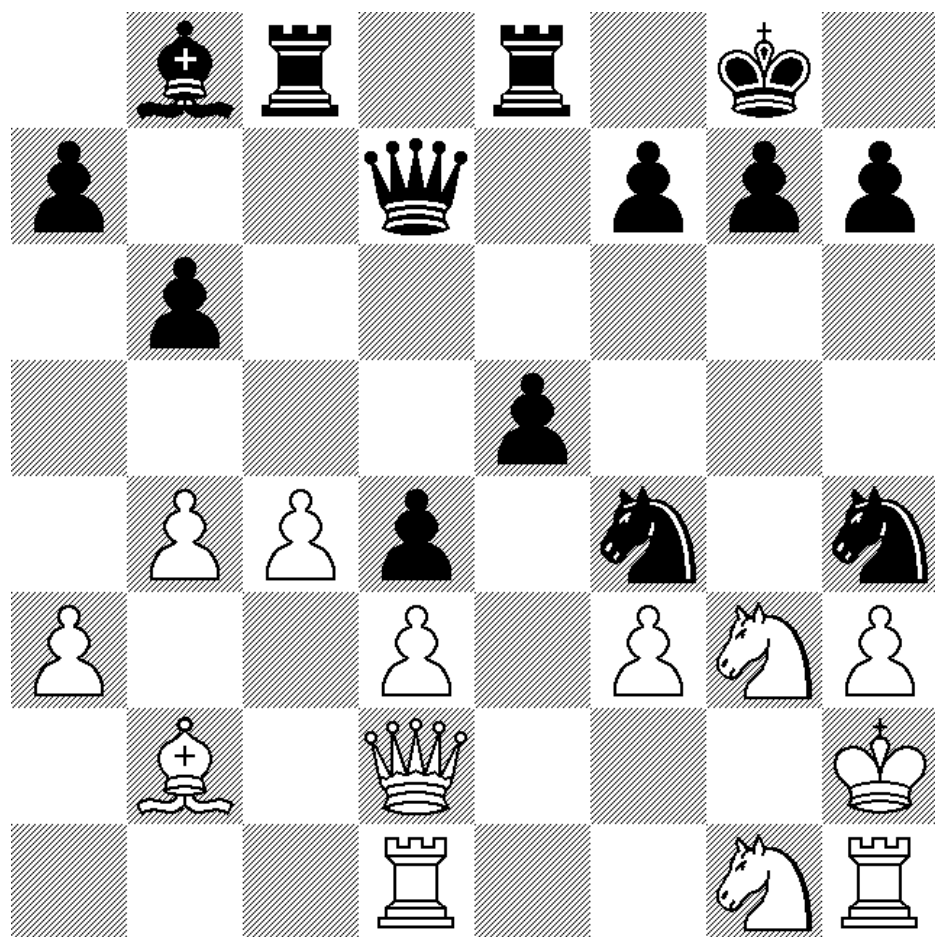

Robert James “Bobby” Fischer

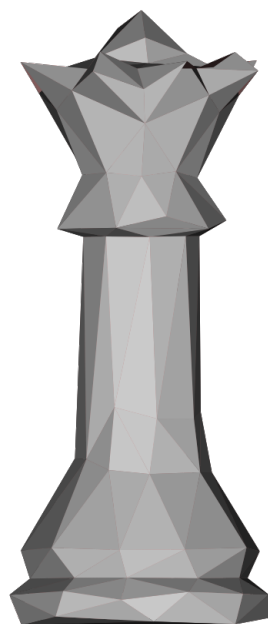

“You can only get good at chess if you love the game. Chess demands total concentration and a love for the game.” - Robert James Fischer
