With the popularity of the movie “The Secret” reaching epic proportions, the aim of this report is to show the secret behind The Secret and point out why The Secret (The Law of Attraction) doesn’t always work.

Before I do, however, I want to point out that I am not bashing the movie or book in any way. There is some really good info in there that is improving many people’s lives.

I feel, however, it can be improved upon...rather, it has been improved on... long before the movie ever came out. More about The Sedona Method later.

If you are not familiar with the movie or book The Secret, which is based on the law of attraction, I recommend you check it out. It’s a cool movie. Basically what they are getting across is that what you focus upon with emotion, you attract into your life.

So if we are always worrying about our financial situation or our health, we are creating more financial and health problems. If we cringe every time we open the mailbox expecting bills, we will create/ attract more of what we don’t want...and the emotions associated with what we focus on determine how quickly we attract certain things in our life.

So by attaching these negative emotions to your financial situation, you are creating more of it. This is because you are holding in mind what you don’t want...and the emotions power those negative thoughts, thus making them stronger.

You see, the mind is only creative. It will create whatever you hold in mind provided there are no subconscious blocks in conflict with it. So if you are always worrying about money problems, your mind will create more money problems for you.

The mind is kind of like an oven. If you put in a shoe, it will bake a shoe...it doesn't care (or can't tell the difference) that you don't want what you are holding in mind...

Yet we do that all the time when we are resisting or trying to keep away what we don't want in life (like debt, extra weight etc)

When you are fighting something, whatever it is, you are unconsciously creating more of that very thing.

Put another way, if you are getting upset or angry at your current situation, whether it be financial, health etc, you are creating more of that. The Sedona Method is one method of releasing this resistance.

There are other techniques that can help you do that as well...but subconscious resistance is very sneaky stuff. You probably don't hear it get talked about a lot but it can really create a lot of unnecessary suffering and sabotage your best efforts if its not released.

Unfortunately, when trying to attract something into your life, associating positive feelings and emotions to it doesn't work as well. I know, that's what we are told in these books but it doesn't work. I will explain why in the next section.

Would You Rather Want Your Goals or Would You Rather Just Have Them?

We have been brought up to believe that in order to get what we want in life, we have to want it really, really bad...we have to have a burning desire for it.

May I ask you a question? How many of your burning desires have you achieved? If not very many, that's ok...its not your fault. I wanted the physique with the six pack abs so bad in my high school and college years and it seemed the harder I tried, the more elusive that goal would be.

What I have learned from The Sedona Method is that the best place to create what you want in life is to be ok whether you achieve your goal or not.

You see...AND THIS IS KEY...whenever you want something or you desire it, you are sending a STRONG signal to your subconscious mind that you don't have it...and because your mind is only creative, it will continue to produce the exact opposite of what you want!

Perhaps you have noticed this yourself if you think back to a time when you were really striving hard for what you want. It probably felt like there were invisible walls in the way or maybe it felt a bit like driving with the emergency break on.

What the Sedona Method program I mentioned earlier teaches is that when we let go our any emotional attachments to the outcomes, we are far more likely to get what we want in those situations.

In other words, if we released all of the negativity and all of the lacking associated with what we want, we are far more likely to achieve it. Perhaps you have also noticed this phenomenon as well.

The side benefit is that it's also a cool feeling to be free of the attachment to the goal. We spend so much of our time struggling and "I'll be happy when I make X amt of dollars" or "I'll be happy when I reach my target weight

We are miserable up until the completion of the goal...and the irony is, all that misery and struggle keeps the goal out of reach for most of us. It keeps us out of the flow of life...not exactly a fun way to live...I certainly didn't enjoy it!

So may I ask you a question? Would you rather want your goal or just have it? I know I asked that at the beginning of the chapter but it's important. You see, want=lack to the subconscious mind.

Can you stand up and sit down at the same time? And so it is with wanting. You can't want something and have it at the same time.

If you were to make a list of everything you wanted in the left hand column, and made a list of everything you have in the right column, how many of your wants are over on the right side?

Starting to make sense now? What I learned in the Sedona Method Course is a way to actually make the secret work. The real secret is letting go of the subconscious thoughts, feelings, and programs that block you from having, doing, and being what you want in life.

It's a much easier way to go about your goals when you aren't so emotionally attached to them. You can actually enjoy the journey instead of just the destination...and the journey in most cases lasts a lot longer...so might as well enjoy it me thinks ☺

In the next two chapters I am going to talk more about subconscious programs and have a chapter each for increasing wealth and weight loss...two subjects that most of us can relate to.

Do You Have The Wealth You Desire?

If not, maybe I can share a few things with you. I certainly don't want to come across as a know it all or a guru but I would like to share some things with you that I have learned over the years...if that's ok with you, of course☺

Does it seem like the more you want or need money, the more it eludes you?

Wealth increase is one of the most widely and often reported benefits of people who use the Sedona Method.

I will explain the reason why in this chapter and also tie together how to make The Law of Attraction work much better for you

It is believed that up to 98% of the thoughts we have each and every day are thoughts that are subconscious. So maybe 2% of the thoughts we have daily are conscious. This is where a lot of the techniques such as in the movie The Secret come short.

Controlling only 2-5% of your total thoughts isn't going to work very well when 95-98% of the thoughts below the surface are in conflict with what you want.

What the Sedona Method teaches you is how to let go of all of the garbage, all of the negative thoughts, feelings, and programs that are lurking below the surface and sabotaging us in our endeavors.

When there is no subconscious resistance to getting what you want, then you achieve your goals sooo much easier and you are just more in flow of life.

An example: If you are tired of working 7 days a week to try and make ends meet, your thoughts are going to be negative.

You are going to ask yourself constantly if this is the way it is always going to be. Why can't I be rich? Why can't I find a good job that pays well? These thoughts are attracting negativity to you.

The secret to stopping this pattern is to release the negative thoughts and feelings from your subconscious that you probably are not even aware of. Controlling your conscious thoughts is not enough.

It is really the thoughts and feelings in your subconscious that is running the show. When you learn to release them, you can naturally think more and you will naturally be more successful...and with lot less effort than you are putting forth now.

So it is possible to increase your wealth if you can get the negative thoughts and feelings to leave your mind.

And the thing I have found when applying the Sedona Method is that when you are working on one area, say attracting wealth, by releasing the negative programs in that area, other areas of life will clear up as well because negativity is negativity.

That is why when most people have financial difficulties, they usually have relationship or health issues and vice versa.

So essentially what happens is when you release all of your “anti-programs” in your subconscious mind, you essentially put the law of attraction on steroids.

What do I mean by that? Well, when you focus on what you want and you are free of everything in your subconscious that is in conflict with what you want, your thoughts are INCREDIBLY magnetic at this point.

So the reason why The Secret and The Law of Attraction works for some people or only in some areas of your life is because you don't have a lot of counter intentions in your subconscious.

When your conscious mind and your subconscious mind are in conflict, your subconscious mind always wins...always.

That is why it's so hard to break a habit. If you release those negative programs and feelings that drive the habit, however, the habits just drop away all by itself.

In the next chapter, I'll discuss weight loss. Weight loss and body image issue were a nightmare for me. I wish I had found the Method back in high school...or even college for that matter.

Conquer Weight Loss Once And For All

Is the whole weight loss cycle a struggle for you? Not just physically, but mentally as well? Its bad enough to not lose the weight you want to lose but thrown in the internal struggle and it can feel like you can't win.

The on again-off again dieting and obsessing about food is enough to drive the most grounded among us mad.

In this chapter, I will discuss some of my personal struggles with weight and food and how programs like The Sedona Method can help release that which is causing the weight concerns in the first place. Hopefully, you may even get a chuckle.

So, what I have found is that the mental game of weight loss is really the deciding factor...and its gets lost in the profits that are diet books/programs, diet supplements, liposuction etc.

Only problem is, there is not a lot of profit in teaching you how to easily release the subconscious blocks that cause/hold on to your excess weight in the first place.

A typical scenario is that you are on the best diet and/or workout program (especially after the new year) and something triggers you and you go on a binge. This is common for both men and women who are on "diets" as diets tell you what you can't have...which cause's and internal struggle.
