

IDEAS IN THOUGHTS

Music Never Dies

Songs never die

Music never fades

Always present to keep us rollicking

From our genesis

Till our ghost are revealed

Never absent to keep us lonely

When the first baby bungs the world's door open

Music – Songs of welcome – Ushering

When the second kid catches puberty

Music – Songs of caution

During marriage and initiations

Musical scene corrupts the atmosphere in celebration of the occasion

And when the third dies – when the unexpected happens

Music – dirge – songs

But let's sing songs to exploit our might to success

Other says music is the food for the soul

I say music is living it.

The Love of Joshua

Oh!

The love of Joshua

Lay me to bed

Lay me in the depth of thine heart

So when I awake – I shall see sparkles of love

Lightening around my helpless heart

Make me never see sorrow

Make me never feel pain

B'cause pain and sorrow steal love

Engulf my very heart with thine love

And never say good bye

Oh!

The love of Joshua

Lay me to bed

(Responds)

I'm lost in the den of love

Because I tried to proof my love

In a far unseeable dream

If love was so wicked

I would carry it everywhere

But life goes on so long as blood flows

I must gather up the pieces

Life! Not on a silver platter

What!

No!

They shouldn't know

The secret of life, but death

No

When all the surveyors hide

And leaders throw golden dust in the eyes of the innocent

No! They shouldn't know

Nobody should hear me speak

Let's bag the cash

And fill our insincere hearts with ironic joy and peace

When the gray thought same

The surveyors soaked their intellectual hair in coal

Oh no

The innocent girl must let the gray disappear

Night falls on their future

No problem
