DJ S.K.T

A fast rising name in the UK's underground music circuit. A producer, DJ, and label manager, the Londoner specializes in all forms of dance music — from deep & soulful house, garage & experimental bass, all tied together with a common thread of working a dancefloor.

Starting his career at a young age, S.K.T entered many under 18 DJ competitions between the age of 12-17 including the "Technics DMC under 18's battle" in which he came 4th in the country. He also entered the "Radio 1 search for a DJ" (under 18's) in which he came 6th in the country. Both of these competitions gave S.K.T a lot of experience playing in front of thousands of people his age up and down the country. He has delivered guest mixes for Kiss FM UK, Capital Xtra and was resident DJ on BBC 1Xtra Talent's UKG show in Feb 2014.

Tipped as a "Rising Star" (DJ Mag) and "One of the (underground) scenes best Producers" (htfr.com) "it surely won't be long until S.K.T crosses over (into the mainstream)" (DJ Mag).

Nightcrawlers vs DJ S.K.T - Push The Feeling

'Push The Feeling on 2014? started life as a bootleg remix done by S.K.T for DJ sets which went on to get support from tastemakers including the original producer MK (who recently played it on his BBC Radio 1 Essential Mix), Amine Edge, Steve Smart, Sam Divine, DJ Target, Pioneer and DJ Cameo to name a few. The songs original vocalist, John Reid, loved the remix so much he agreed to re-record new vocals for S.K.T.

Little Nikki & DJ S.K.T - Right Before My Eyes

Little Nikki's cover of the Patti Day classic started life as a track for DJ's to spin over carnival last year, since then the DJ S.K.T produced track has continued to grow and cause damage across radio and in the clubs. ROKURO

So here goes with my first contribution for Audiation Magazine, I think we should start with the incredible resurgence of dance music that has taken over the UK official pop charts at the moment, The majority of it Deep House, Chilled House and UK Garage, With the more full on EDM sound starting to lose ground here in the the last 12 months, As we speak, eight of the top 10 are all dance tracks, top 3 being at 1 and one of my favourite tracks of this year, Mr Probz - Waves (Robin Schulz Remix) at 2 Calvin Harris - Summer and at 3. Kiesza - Hideaway...

Great chilled and deep house tracks to look out for this month are Y.V.E "On the Road" (Armada), chilled guitars with a serious deep bass sound to this. With a repeating On the Floor male vocal, this one's going to be massive.

Another top track, Spanish Guitar summer style is Alex Kenji Ft Dacia Bridges, called "work", Out on Spinning deep, Forget Calvin Harris this track is what really what summer is all about.

One of the best house tracks around at the moment is Lovebirds, featuring Lisa Shaw called "holding on"... Electro beats and old school synths.

Another awesome Chilled deep track is EDX- "Breathin", Total blissed out piano's with an R&B style male voca tol this, plus one of the coolest baselines you will hear.

Spinnin Records seem to be releasing more and more deep house these days, Something I'm quite happy about personally ;-)

Another total killer is Tiesto- "Wasted", The Mike Mago Remix. Mike totally takes the original and turns it into a funky deep house baseline track, with cut up vocal snippets.

On a slightly harder edge, you shouldn't miss the new Don Diablo track, "Knight Time", Coming out on (SPRS). Old school style house updated for 2014, complete with retro vocal samples from the 90's.

Larse, Sneaky sound system - "This Feeling" is another blissed out house track. Pretty haunting in a way, plus an amazing vocal, coming out on Noir records shortly.

The Shapeshifter guys are also back with "Heartache" feat, Calvin Lynch. This one drifts slightly in Uk Garage with its baseline, but retains the Deep house vibe and a soulful male vocal.

Other nice ones to track down are Rene Amesz - Let Me on Toolroom records.

Oliver Heldens "Gecko" now has a vocal courtesy of The Voice Uk contested Becky Hill, It's getting abit of negative press for slapping the vocal on top but definitely UK pop chart bound when released on 22 june.

Others to track down this month are, Lupe Fuentes "So High" on Brobot records, 16bit liotes, the organ track on Anjuna Deep, definitely one of my favourite labels at the moment, Arron Smth - "Dancin" - Krono remix is an absolute beauty... Massive Nudisco/House/Electro track and Currently one of my favourite tracks around at the moment..

Out now is the huge Cazzette- "Sleepess", Its Destined for a top ten in the UK pop charts if you ask me, It's that big.

More great deep house tracks Include ten walls, "Walking with Elephants" on Boso Records, Sweet Baby - "Mickey" on Exploited Records.. And my other pop chart prediction for this month, "i feel the heat", in the new tesco advert, Wow what a vocal this has, and an MK remix to boot.

UK's 17 year old Ella Henderson is set for her First UK No1 when her Debut Single "Ghost" is Released on the 8th of June. A great soulful funky pop track. This girl is going to be massive, it also has a fantastic Oliver nelson Funk/Nu-Diso Total Quality remix.

On a more EDM vibe there is a great remix of Nicky Romero's "Like home" track, by one of Brazils most famous DJs Gui Arruda, Look out for this guy in 2014.

I'll be doing a DJ top ten so thought i'd kick it off with Gui's top ten...Also if you're loving you USA style EDM you can catch my man paul Grundman AKA PGX From Celeste&Rokuro, every monday at 6:00 pm EST live in the mix on the jrjm network, repeated on Wednesdays.

There are also a couple of cool remixes out by some bloke called Rokuro, Celeste&Rokuro - "Signs of time", Elsie- "Wild One" And Rita Ora - "I Will Never Let You Down"., all to be found on my Soundcloud page.

See you next month... Rokuro

Martin Carr & Junior UKG

Introducing "Hiding" produced by Junior UKG with vocals from Martin Carr. This is the first original track the pair have worked together on, boasting of summery vibes along with great vocals. Junior UKG has 2-step flowing out his ears and he loves to give the bumpy touch to various tracks, including his latest rework of Kat Dahlia's "Crazy". Martin Carr with his sweet vocal tones is sure to get you singing too, having also just released Rise EP.

"Since I released my first single GETAWAY from the RISE ep back in Feb 14th on BBC Northants Inspiration fm 107.8 with Paddy Grady, the music has taken a massive jump for all involved. Get Away led to the meeting of DJ Junior aka Nick Hounslow, as he heard the track on SoundCloud. Nick got in touch with me directly and asked me if he could remix the track as he thought he could make a seriously good UKG remix to compliment the original. So naturally I was interested and we immediately hit it off from the start. Within 24 hours Nick had finished the track to my amazement and to my pleasant surprise I was totally happy with the results. Since then Nick and I have gone onto making several other tracks and a couple of remixes such as 'Song For You' which I have put on the Rise ep along with 'Get Away' which has featured on many underground and internet radio stations such as the Award winning FREEK FM, KANE FM, SOUTHSTAR RADIO, URBAN KRONIX, KRISS FM and many more. The original Get Away track also had a video made for it and was released on youtube on April 1st and has since reached over 16k views. Our current project is a track called 'HIDING' which Nick has decided to release as a single ep with 4 remixes from different genres. The SoundCloud stats for the clip we put up for Hiding have been very impressive in the short time we have had it on Nicks page as are all of the tracks we have done so far. We think we have a fresh and unique style with catchy lyrics that crosses into mainstream commercial chart music and judging from the promo campaigns, DJ and radio feedback we've been encouraged to continue what we are doing. Anyway be sure to keep supporting our movement as there is plenty more coming from Nick and myself, Thankyou." Martin Carr.

"I was trawling through Soundcloud one day (as I do everyday looking for fresh new music & talent) and I came across this track called "Get Away". After listening to it, straight away I was hooked and thought "ive gotta do a remix of this" so I sent the artist a message basically asking him if I could do a remix of it and send it back to him to see what he thinks. We exchanged emails for a couple of days and eventually I received the acapella from Martin Carr and got to work. I finished it within 2 days and sent it back to him and well, the response I got I wasn't expecting, he loved it. We started chatting some more about music and how he liked my style of Uk Garage and if I had any other productions or could make some more similar to what I had done on "Get Away" so we exchanged a few tracks and song ideas which later turned into my remix of his other track from the Rise EP "Song For You" & our first original collaboration "Hiding".

Since we put the Hiding clip on Soundcloud the response has been MEGA, weve had loads of People, Dj's, Singers, Record Labels & even other Producers showing interest, love & support for it. Also with 4 of the BIGGEST producers around at the moment putting their stamp on the remixes for the EP, its gonna be a force to be heard. First on the remixes we have Jack N Danny (House Ent) with a Bass House remix, Solo Suspex (Ayklogic Records) with a 4x4 Todd-esque sounding remix, B1G PROJ3CT with an awesome homage to how Garage used to sound with his Dub remix and Zettin Zee with a nice minimal sounding 2 Step remix. We are currently working on the release date for the EP and it should be available on all good digital music download stores very soon.....

There is plenty more projects coming from me and Martin as we've decided to keep the collaboration going and produce an albums worth of music between us, so watch this space for future projects as you aint gonna be able to listen to a mix cd or turn the radio on without hearing one of our tracks. Lastly I just wanna say a MASSIVE thank you to everyone who's shown love and support over the past 5 months and propelled us to the position we're in of spreading fresh good quality music to the masses, THANK YOU."
