In this report, I'm going to share with you 7 killer traffic strategies for attracting thousands of visitors to your website each and every week. They include:

1. High-Profile Article Marketing
2. Forum Marketing
3. Ebook Syndication
4. Video Marketing
5. Viral Pushes
6. Ad Swaps
7. Paid Advertising

These are the exact strategies I have used to build a mailing list of over 7,000 subscribers. So without further ado, let's dive into the details...

1. High-Profile Article Marketing

As you probably know, article marketing is one of the best ways to drive highly-targeted traffic to your website. However, if you re-focus your efforts towards high-profile article marketing can generate 10x as much traffic.

Instead of submitting your articles to article directories, you submit them to the top websites and blogs in your market.

So, for example, if you have a blog about sports, you could submit your articles to <http://bleacherreport.com/>, one of the most popular sports websites online. If you have a website about weddings, you could submit articles to <http://www.favorideas.com/submit-wedding-articles/>

If you have a website about parenting, you could submit articles to <http://www.momsnetwork.com/submit-articles.shtml>

If you have a website about finance, you could submit articles to <http://www.istockanalyst.com/article/submitarticle.html>

Are you starting to get the idea here? No matter what market you're in, there are very popular websites that you could be submitting articles to for massive traffic.

Here's a list of very popular websites that I personally submit articles to. The list below is a gold mine for building a list of thousands of subscribers. If you published just ONE really good article every day to the following websites, and had a good call to action in your resource box that sent people to your squeeze page, then you would have a highly responsive list of AT LEAST 1,000 subscribers by the end of the month.

2. Forum Marketing

Forum marketing is another excellent strategy for building a list of subscribers and sending tons of traffic to your website.

Forum marketing is a highly underrated, but extremely effective strategy for building a list of subscribers, driving highly-targeted traffic, and establishing yourself as an authority in your particular market.

Forums put you directly in front of your target market, making it a goldmine for driving thousands of highly targeted visitors to your website.

But keep in mind here that the key to successful forum marketing is to become an active participant in the community. Your first priority is to deliver lots of value. And that means posting highly valuable content in the forums and helping people with their questions.

Once you've become a trusted member and delivered some great value in your posts, people will naturally want to learn more about what you have to offer.

This is where your signature link comes in...

You'll want to use your signature link to send people to your squeeze page where you can build your list of subscribers.

Here's an example of a good signature line:

"Find out how to get front-page Google Rankings in 24 hours with my FREE Google Domination Video series... <http://www.yoursqueezepagehere.com> "

The key here is to entice them with some sort of benefit to get them to come to your website. Keep your signature file short and to the point. You should only be promoting one page in your signature file. Don't confuse people with multiple options.

Also keep in mind that it's the value of your post that drives people to look at your signature. If you provide people with extraordinary value, then they will naturally want to check out more of your content.

So focus on providing value. One extremely valuable post is worth 10x more than 20 average posts.
