The Return Of The Other Personality!

Volume 4 Synopsis

DIANE D The Return Of The Other Personality! is the fourth book of the series DIANE D. It involves Diane D being locked away at an Upstate, New York mental institution for the horrible vicious slaughter one of her other personalities has committed a year prior. Family members of some of the other patients in the mental hospital want to know why do several of Diane D's family members get to stay in the mental institution with her, while only one of them get to stay with their family member. The security guard tells them that they have to make sure a lot of Diane D's family members are at the mental institution to keep Diane D's other personality away, that they have to make sure her killer personality or killer entity do not take over Diane D's physical body while she's there.

Later on, Diane D is let out of the mental institution temporary on house arrest and is in her family's custody for the time being and is back at the organization. It is causing fear around the organization making everyone feel very uncomfortable and very afraid knowing Diane D's presence is there at the organization. Several children at the organization approach the staff members and claim to have seen Diane D sitting in a chair inside her grandmother Margarita's office angrily looking out the doorway at them as they passed by Margarita's office doorway. Staff members start to wonder could it be the evil, vicious, powerful, dangerous and murderous other personality of Diane D's sitting there in the chair inside Margarita's office angrily looking out into the hallway at the children. The children also claim to have seen something black strapped around both of Diane D's ankles.

Diane D's house arrest is over. She is locked back up in the mental institution. Her family is planning to do a Fundraiser for the victims' families by putting on a concert. Diane D is planning to perform in the concert. She wants to know why the ticket sales for the concert are not being sold out so fast this time when they usually sell out real quick. She becomes suspicious. She thinks the ticket sales aren't being sold fast enough is because people might still be afraid of her.

Diane D is let out of the mental institution temporary on house arrest again. Days later, a young white male named Kurt is very angry and very upset about the killing of his father who was one of the police officers or SWAT team members killed by one of Diane D's other personalities. He secretly plots revenge against Diane D. When Kurt sneaks up the back stairwell of Diane D's family's organization with a loaded gun in his hands, he gets hurt in the process causing his mission to fail!

Diane D's house arrest is over again. She is locked back up in the mental institution. Michael's parents are in the lobby of the mental institution talking with him. They are scared for him. They fear for his safety and want him to leave Diane D. Diane D's relatives and organization staff members visit her as she sits depressed and disappointed inside Margarita's office inside the mental institution. They surround her trying to comfort her, but Diane D is so upset about the public not purchasing tickets for seats near the stage that she ignores everyone in the room.

Days later, Diane D and her family discover that even though the ticket sales for their family's concert are practically sold out, still none of the rows of seats near the stage are being sold. Diane D is very upset about the rows of seats near the stage not being sold that she goes crazy and tries to escape right out of the mental institution right in front of her family! She tries to break out of her grandmother Margarita's office by pulling and breaking away from her family! Her father, husband and brothers are forced to bend down and lift Diane D right off her feet and carry her as she remains out of control, until her grandma Margarita grabs a paddle that was beneath her desk, raises it high in the air and whacks Diane D right on the behind with it causing Diane D to scream and fall right out of her father's, husband's and brothers' arms dropping to the floor! That still didn't stop Diane D! She tried to make another escape attempt until Margarita swings the paddle and whacks her right on the behind several more times!

Diane D is let out of the mental institution temporary on house arrest again. She performs on stage at a theater with martial arts performers from Asia. At the end of the show, another young white male whose father was also killed by one of Diane D's other personalities secretly aims a gun at her from the balcony after she and the other performers on stage take a bow.

An online commercial producer who is looking for a couple of female athletes hires Diane D and her cousin Dangerous Dana to do an online Sword Fighting commercial. When the Sword Fighting commercial is shown on the internet, Kurt and his family burst into the producer's office and sabotage the idea saying that both Diane D and Dana don't need to make money from the commercial due to them being criminals and that Diane D killed his father. The online commercial is later squashed and not shown any more preventing Diane D and Dana from making any more money from it. An owner of a wax museum is inspired by Diane D and Dana's online Sword Fighting commercial and tells Diane D's family that he wants to create Diane D and Dana's online commercial in wax! He is turned down by Diane D's family. Later on, the wax museum owner decides to secretly create wax figures of Diane D and Dana anyway behind Diane D, Dana and their family's back hoping that Diane D's family will all change their minds once he gives them a private viewing and they actually see the wax figures.

Kurt claims to see Diane D stalking him in a few different places on a few different occasions. He even claim to have seen Diane D stalking him right inside his own apartment building right on his floor! When a police officer confronts Diane D and her family about it at the family's organization, Diane D denies ever stalking Kurt claiming that she does not know where he lives. Later on that night, Kurt has a nightmare. He finds himself inside a creepy forest or woods at night. He hears a deep mysterious voice way in the distance calling out for help! When he follows the sound of the voice, he is shocked to see that the mysterious voice came from Diane D! He sees Diane D five yards away from him down in the grass on her belly handcuffed, shackled and chained trapped in a contortionist position trying to break loose from the handcuffs, shackles and chains. When Diane D looks up and notices Kurt standing there, she asks him to help her. Kurt doesn't feel that he should help or trust Diane D knowing that she's been stalking him and knowing that she killed his father. He feels that Diane D somehow lured him there. He later gets chased by Diane D!

The following night, Kurt has another nightmare about Diane D right inside the same creepy forest or woods at night. This time, he gets stalked and attacked by Diane D and her look-alike soldiers! When Kurt wakes up, he tells his family and the police officer about his nightmare of Diane D and wants the police officer to arrest Diane D for the nightmares he's having about her! The police officer tells Kurt that he cannot arrest Diane D over his nightmare. Kurt is afraid to go back to sleep fearing to have another nightmare about Diane D that he tries to force himself to stay awake, but he cannot stay awake! When Kurt falls only half asleep, he suddenly sees Diane D and her look-alike soldiers right inside his hospital room surrounding him!

The following night, Kurt has another nightmare about Diane D right inside the same creepy woods at night! She is still in handcuffs, shackles and chains trapped in a contortionist position as she approaches Kurt! Kurt becomes frightened! He gets up off the grass then runs from Diane D through the dark woods, but she winds up stalking him throughout the woods! He cannot seem to get rid of her!

Diane D is at a local hotel conference room apologizing to family members of the victims one of her other personalities has killed which she still claims not to remember. When Diane D keeps using the phrase 'if she killed their loved ones', the widows stand out of their seats and go off on her, telling her there's no 'ifs' about it, that she DID kill their husbands whether she remembers it or not! Jeremy, a young white male whose father was killed by one of Diane D's other personalities, becomes very angry with Diane D also accusing her of harming, tearing up and bringing pain and suffering to his entire family! He angrily heads towards the front of the room towards Diane D, but all the other families rush in front of him and try to stop him! Diane D hollers back at Jeremy telling him to stay in his seat and warns him not to come near her! Jeremy ignores Diane D's warning and continues to head right towards her anyway! When he reaches Diane D and physically tries to attack her, Diane D immediately goes right into a defense mode then she and Jeremy get into a vicious fight right in front of all the victims' families as they scream! Diane D then locks Jeremy's arms behind his back as she puts him in a choke hold, then body slams both herself and Jeremy to the floor! When the families are about to pull Diane D off Jeremy, she back kicks them all causing some of them to get hurt! They had no choice but to throw objects at Diane D to stop her, but she puts Jeremy's body right in the line of fire and he gets hit by the objects instead! She also kung fu kicks the objects right back at the families causing more of them to get hurt! The families are very powerless to stop Diane D's rage! Dr. Stone and Diane D's family finally burst into the back door and are shocked to see Diane D spinning and swinging Jeremy's body around ready to slam his body right into the wall! The police burst into the back door and aim their guns right at Diane D telling her to drop Jeremy! When Diane D ignores their orders to drop Jeremy, they pull their triggers and shoot! Countless victims are sent to the hospital!

Chapter 1

The Mental Hospital

Several of Diane D's family members including her parents Mary and Barry, her maternal grandparents Margarita and Tomas, her paternal grandparents Gracy and Grandpa Mike, her husband Michael, her older brother Nicolas, her younger brother Mickey and some of her cousins Eduardo, Raquel, Elisa, Nancy and Charlotte are sadly standing inside the lobby of the mental institution talking and drinking coffee. They then turn and head towards the elevators.

Across the lobby, several family members of some of the other patients in the mental hospital look across the lobby at Diane D's family members. They watch Diane D's family members head to one of the elevators then enter the elevator. They then see the elevator doors shut behind them. They turn around to a white male security guard around his mid-40's who is standing behind them talking with a couple of other male security guards. One of the family members, a Hispanic male around his mid-40's, says to the security guard, "Excuse me sir."

The security guard turns his head and looks at the man. He then approaches the man and says, "Yes sir, what can I do for you?"

"You know I don't understand."

"You don't understand? Understand what?"

"Why do several of Diane D's family members get to stay here in the mental institution with her, while only one of us get to stay here with our family member?"

"Because we have to make sure a lot of Diane D's family members are here to keep that other vicious personality of hers at bay."

"What? You have to make sure a lot of Diane D's family members are here, to keep that other vicious personality of hers at bay? What do you mean keep that other vicious personality of hers at bay?"

"We have to make sure that the other vicious personality do not come here and take over Diane D's physical body while she's here."

"What? You have to make sure that the other vicious personality do not come here and take over Diane D's physical body?"

"Yes! When those two doctors hypnotized Diane D last year, they found out that she had two other personalities and both of those other personalities came out to the surface."

"Yeah we heard about that," one of the women says.

"We sure did," another man says.

“Yeah,” the security guard says. “The doctors spoke to the other two personalities and the other two personalities spoke back to them! I heard that one of the personalities did mention to the doctors, that whenever Diane D is locked up anywhere like inside jail, prison or the mental institution, that personality will come to Diane D’s physical body, pull Diane D’s original soul, spirit or personality out of her physical body then enter her physical body and take her original soul, spirit or personality’s place while her physical body is in jail, prison or the mental institution. I heard that personality told the doctors that they do not come to Diane D’s physical body and take her original soul, spirit or personality’s place while her family members are around! That personality told the doctors that they do not get involved with Diane D’s family members nor want to be around Diane D’s family members.”

“That other personality doesn’t get involved with Diane D’s family members nor want to be around her family members?” another woman asks. “Why not?! Why doesn’t that other personality want to get involved with Diane D’s family members nor want to be around her family members?”

“I heard that the other personality leave that part to Diane D’s original soul, spirit or personality. So if Diane D’s family members are not here, that other soul, spirit or personality might come right to her physical body again, pull her original soul, spirit or personality out of her physical body then go into her physical body and take her original soul, spirit or personality’s place and none of us will even know it!”

“Oh nooo!” everyone else shouts.

“We’ll just all assume that it’s Diane D’s original soul, spirit or personality! If that evil, vicious personality go into Diane D’s physical body and take her original soul, spirit or personality’s place again, who knows if that evil vicious personality might start killing people here!”

“Oh no!” everyone else shouts as they frighteningly stare at the security guard.

“Oh yes! It already killed a lot of those authority figures who tried to enter that hypnosis room last year!”

“We know!” the second man shouts, “three police officers, two swat team members and a priest! That’s six people altogether!”

“That’s right, that vicious personality killed six people and it injured a lot of other police officers, swat team members and a lot of other security guards too! One of them wound up brain dead, another one is still in a coma! They can still die later!”

“Oh God!” everyone else shouts.

“We don’t want to be next!”

“We don’t blame you!” the first woman shouts. “We understand! We heard that Diane D’s other personality even caused that little kid Marcus to take his own life by coming into his dreams and nightmares! That’s seven people altogether! That’s seven people Diane D’s other personality killed so far!”

“That’s right, that’s true! If what that evil vicious personality did to all those authority figures can happen before, it can surely happen again! I don’t want that evil, vicious personality to come here! I don’t want to be on the receiving end of that vicious personality’s wrath! Now you don’t want that evil, vicious personality of Diane D’s to come here to Diane D’s physical body, snatch and pull Diane D’s original soul, spirit or personality right out of her physical body then enter her body and take her original soul, spirit or personality’s place and cause havoc here do you, especially while your family members are patients here!” The people frighteningly stare at the security guard. He then says, "I don't want that beast coming here! That's why Diane D's family members HAVE to be here, to keep that vicious killer other personality away from her physical body and to keep it away from here! I want to make it out of here alive and get back home to my family! They want to see me again and I want to see them again too!"

"Well if that evil vicious personality might come into Diane D's physical body again and take over her physical body while she's here, I'm transferring my family member the hell out of this mental institution!" the first man shouts.

"Me too!" the first woman shouts. "I don't want that evil vicious beast to kill my family member!"

"Me neither!" the second man shouts. "I hear that evil vicious personality of Diane D's is very powerful! I hear that it has superhuman strength!"

"It does have superhuman strength!" the security guard shouts. "I mean anybody that is capable of lifting a heavy psychiatrist couch right up off the floor and hold it real high up in the air, then starts spinning it around and around while several broken chains are still hooked and attached to them, then tossing the heavy couch twenty to thirty feet across the room at a very fast speed like if it was a piece of rag and take down six men, especially cops and swat team members who had guns and rifles, has to be the work of something supernatural! I mean that's not normal!"

"It certainly isn't!" the first woman shouts.

"That's why we have to keep several family members of Diane D's here to avoid that other personality or evil, vicious entity from approaching Diane D's physical body and take over it again causing havoc and I would not want to be around if that ever happens here and I know none of you would want your family members to be here either if that ever happens!" The people frighteningly stare at the security guard.

Chapter 2

Curious Journalists Approach Nancy And Question Her About Diane D

One afternoon, Nancy and her boyfriend Evan, a young handsome Hispanic male, are coming out of a courtroom in White Plains, New York. They step into the hallway as Evan turns to Nancy and says, "Hey Nancy, which way is the office you're supposed to meet up with your family?"

"I think it's the office that way," Nancy says as she points to her left. "Come on." Nancy and Evan turn to their left and walk down a large hallway.

Three curious journalists, a white male around his mid-40's with short light brown hair who has a microphone, a taller stocky black male around his late-40's who's bald and wearing a trench coat who also has a microphone, a white female around her mid-40's with dark shoulder length hair also with a microphone and a white male camera person pointing a camera, rush towards Nancy as the journalists shout to her, "Hey Nancy! Miss Nancy!"

Nancy and Evan stop and turn around. They see the journalists and camera man rushing towards them.

The journalists and the camera man approach Nancy and Evan as the white male journalist shouts, "Hi Nancy! How are you?!" Nancy and Evan puzzled look at the journalist. The white male journalist then says, "How you doing Nancy?"

"Okay," Nancy puzzled says.

"Okay? Good! So Nancy, can we ask you a few questions, if you have the time?"

"A few questions?"

"Yeah."

"Well, what is it?"

"How is your cousin Diane D doing?"

"How's Diane doing?"

"Yeah!"

"She's okay."

"She is? That's good! How is she coping with being locked up inside the mental hospital or mental institution? How is it like for her there? How is she handling it?"

"She's handling it okay I guess."

"She is? That's good. How does she feel being locked up inside there?"

"Well, she feels that she's being locked up and punished for something she doesn't remember doing."

"What!" the black male journalist shouts. "Feels locked up and punished for something she doesn't remember doing?! She still don't remember what she did last year?!"

"No she doesn't."

“She still doesn’t believe she killed anybody?!”

“No she still doesn’t believe it. She claims all she knows, is that she was about to be hypnotized inside that hypnosis room last year. The next thing she knows, is that she wakes back up in tremendous pain, didn’t know why she was in pain and didn’t know where the hell the pain came from! The next thing she knows, is that she’s laying in the hospital still in pain and discovers sores, wounds and bruises all on her body. She wondered if she was in a car wreck or something or did she get ran over by some vehicle.”

“What! She wondered if she was in a car wreck and wondered if she got ran over by a vehicle?! She didn’t know that she killed six people?!”

“No she did not know. She wasn’t told that until days later.”

“What!” the white female journalist shouts. “Diane D wasn’t told that she killed six people until days later?! My goodness! How did she feel when she heard about that?! How did she feel when she heard that she killed six people?!”

“She was shocked when she heard that, she couldn’t believe it!”

“She couldn’t?!”

“No! She felt real bad when she heard about that because she says she’s not a killer and does not go around killing people!”

“That’s what she said?”

“Yeah. The next thing she knows, is that she’s locked up inside the mental institution again and to this day, she still doesn’t know why she’s locked up in there.”

“She still doesn’t know why she’s locked up in a mental institution?!” the black male journalist shouts.

“No she doesn’t! She feels she’s innocent!”

“She feels she’s innocent?”

“Yes she does.”

“Wow, that is so sad!”

“It is,” the white male journalist says. “I feel for Diane D Nancy! I really do! I know she’s sorry she ever agreed to allow herself to be hypnotized because look where she’s at now! How is she being treated in the mental institution?”

“She’s being treated very well there.”

“She is?”

“Yeah. The doctors, nurses, hospital staff members and my family members are always around her taking great care of her.”

“They are?”

“Yes they are.”

“That’s good.”

“How does the mental hospital or mental institution look like on the outside Nancy?” the black male journalist asks.

“It is?”

“Yeah. It sort of looks like a palace on the outside.”

“A palace?”

“Yeah.”

“How does it look on the inside?”

“The inside looks like a palace too.”

“It does?”

“Yeah. It’s not bad at all.”

“No.”

“Wow. So what I get, is that Diane D is locked up inside a place that looks like a palace on the inside and outside, has doctors, nurses, hospital staff members and her family members always around her on hand and foot taking good care of her. It sounds to me like Diane D went from slaughtering several people, to living life like a princess! Anyway, we hear that Diane D gets a chance to come out of the mental institution temporarily. We hear that she gets house arrest at times, is that true?”

“Yes it’s true.”

“It is?! You mean she not only lives like a princess, but gets to come out of the palace too after taking innocent people’s lives?!”

“She does not stay in any palace Sir!”

“You just said that the place your cousin Diane D stays in looks like a palace on the inside and outside! As far as I’m concerned, that’s a palace!”

“But when she gets house arrest, she is not able to leave the house!”

“But she still gets to go home to her family temporarily! The people’s lives she took are not able to do that!”

“I understand that, but what do you want me to do? I can’t bring those people back!”

“Nancy,” the white male journalist says. “We hear that your grandmother Miss Margarita has your cousin Diane D watched at all times at the mental institution and at home when Diane D is on house arrest to keep your cousin Diane D from secretly meditating to prevent her other personality from coming out to the surface again, which caused all that havoc last year and wind up slaughtering six people and seriously injuring more than twenty others! Even though it’s a year later, more victims of Diane D’s other personality’s wrath still might die! A couple of them are brain dead and might have to be taken off life support! So is it true?! Is it true that your grandmother Miss Margarita has your cousin Diane D watched at all times to keep your cousin Diane D from secretly meditating to prevent her vicious and dangerous other personality from coming out to the surface again?”

“Yeah it’s true.”

“It is?! We hear that your grandmother Miss Margarita has Diane D watched even while Diane D is in the bathroom like when she’s taking a shower! Is that true?”

“Yeah.”

“Wow! So that means that Diane D is being seen completely naked without any clothes on at all?”

“Yeah, and what’s your point Mister?”

“What we would like to know is, does Diane D still have any bruises left on her body after that ordeal she, or should I say ‘her OTHER personality’ went through, like breaking loose from those chains she was strapped in while she was hypnotized? Because a few people have said, that they can see slight bruises around Diane D’s arms and wrists. A few nurses at the mental hospital said, that they can see slight bruises around Diane D’s lower legs and ankles. So that means Diane D does have some leftover bruises on her body, right?”

“It is not my place to tell my cousin’s private business. All I will tell you, is that her bruises has healed.”

“Her bruises has healed?”

“Yes they have.”

“You mean she doesn’t have any bruises left on her body at all.”

“Just slight bruises.”

“Slight bruises that the nurses can see, right?”

“Yes.”

“Wow! Is she still in pain from those slight bruises?”

“No she’s not in pain anymore.”

“She’s not?”

“No.”

“Oh that’s nice! Good for her! I’m glad she’s not in pain anymore! We hear that all the females in your family take turns to watch Diane D while she’s in the bathroom or taking a shower, is that true?”

“Yes all the females, except for Charlotte.”

“All the females except for Charlotte? Why not Charlotte?”

“Because Charlotte is afraid that other personality might come into Diane again while she’s alone inside the bathroom with her, and she doesn’t want to take any chance of meeting or encountering that other personality, like me and my grandma did.”

“Really?!” the black male journalist shouts. “Charlotte doesn’t want to take the chance of meeting or encountering that other personality like you and your grandma did?! Wow, that is heavy! So Charlotte refuses to be alone inside the bathroom with Diane D?”

“Yeah.”

“Then how come you and the rest of the females in your family aren’t afraid to be alone inside the bathroom with Diane D?”

“It’s not that I and the rest of the females in my family aren’t afraid to be alone inside the bathroom with Diane, but someone has to be in there to watch her to make sure she does not sneak to meditate while she’s in there.”

“I see. Do you and the rest of the females in your family look at Diane D the whole entire time while Diane D is in the bathroom, especially while she’s behind the shower curtain taking a shower?”

“Yes. That’s the point of us being inside the bathroom with her in the first place, is to look at her the whole entire time while she’s in there, especially while she’s behind the shower curtain.”

“Doesn’t the shower curtain be closed?”

“Only halfway.”

“Just halfway?”

“Yeah.”

“So you can be able to see Diane D, right?”

“Exactly.”

“Do you really have to look at Diane D the whole entire time while she is in the bathroom and shower?”

“Yes, that’s the way my Grandma has it, is for us to watch Diane the whole entire time while Diane is in the bathroom and shower to make sure she does not sneak to meditate.”

“So you don’t take your eyes off Diane D at all?”

“No.”

“Not even to read a book or be on your smartphone or anything?”

“Nope. My grandma doesn’t allow us to bring any items or gadgets into the bathroom while we’re inside there with Diane.”

“She doesn’t?”

“No. She said our eyes is to just focus on Diane and nothing else.”

“My God, I couldn’t handle that! I couldn’t handle anybody constantly inside the bathroom with me watching me while I’m in there looking at what I’m doing, watching every move I make! I don’t know how in the world Diane D even handles that! It would freak me out, that’s for sure! What if Diane D all of a sudden, has to get up during the middle of the night and use the bathroom? Does someone else in the family get up during the middle of the night and go into the bathroom with her?”

“Yeah, my grandma usually gets up during the middle of the night and goes into the bathroom with her.”

“Your grandma?! Really?!”

“Yeah.”

“Isn’t your grandma Miss Margarita afraid, that she might encounter Diane D’s other personality again like she did before inside the hospital bathroom last year? Because if it happened once before, it can happen again! Isn’t your grandma afraid?”

“Yeah we’re all afraid! But it’s something my family just has to deal with! But as far as anybody in my family knows, none of us has had any encounters with Diane’s other personality since my grandma did inside that hospital bathroom last year.”

“None of you did?”

“No none of us, as far as any of us knows.”

“Oh, okay! That’s good! That’s good to hear! I guess it means that Diane D’s other personality probably kept away and stayed at bay! I guess having Diane D watched at all times to keep her from secretly meditating worked after all!”

“I guess it did.”

“How does Diane D feel about being watched and looked at the whole entire time while she’s in the bathroom or behind the shower curtain taking a shower?” the white female journalist asks. “Doesn’t she feel that her privacy is being invaded or taken away?!”

“I don’t know what she feels or what she thinks Miss. She doesn’t really talk about it.”

“She doesn’t?”

“No.”

“Not at all?”

“No. She just seems to suck it up and do what she has to do.”

“Really! And you or another female in your family would just watch her while she’s in the bathroom or shower and not take your eyes off her at all?”

“Correct. That’s the way my Grandma wants it.”

“Yeah that might be the way YOUR GRANDMA wants it Nancy! But what about what Diane D wants?! What about how she feels?! Doesn’t she feel uncomfortable with you or anybody else in your family watching her and staring at her while she’s in the bathroom?! It sounds like your grandma Miss Margarita is really punishing Diane D for secretly meditating, because having Diane D be watched at all times even while she’s in the bathroom isn’t right! It’s an invasion of privacy and it’s just not right at all!”

“That’s easy for YOU to say Ma’am! It wasn’t YOUR granddaughter or someone in

YOUR family who killed six people last year and injured tons of others! My grandma had witnessed what happened inside that hypnosis room! She witnessed the whole entire thing, she was there! She saw all the horror and bloodshed that happened inside that hypnosis room, so did several of my other family members who were inside the room! It wasn't like they were inside the room watching a movie or something, they saw horror and death happening right before their eyes! They saw and witness police officers being shot! They saw people's heads being bashed in getting split wide open! They saw people being knocked out cold! A lot of the police officers and SWAT team members got injured real bad! My family saw injured police officers and SWAT team members laying helpless on the floor! It was like a war zone in there! My family couldn't believe the power and superhuman strength Diane's other personality had when her other personality lifted that heavy psychiatrist couch right up off the floor, held it high up in the air then started spinning it around and around, then tossed it twenty or thirty feet right across the room like it was nothing, then wound up hitting other police officers and SWAT team members who were about to enter that hypnosis room! A couple of police officers wound up being brain dead!"

"Brain dead?!" the black male journalist shouts.

"Yes! Their families might have to take them off life support, then have their organs donated!"

"Have their organs donated?! My God! Diane D, or should I say 'her other personality' did that much damage to them?!"

"Well if a heavy flying object came flying and speeding at your head at fifty or sixty miles an hour, you think you'll come out of that situation not dead or not seriously injured?! I don't think so! My grandma and other family members who were in that room almost got hurt themselves when Diane's other personality threw that psychiatrist couch right above their heads practically skinning their heads! If they hadn't duck in time, that psychiatrist couch would have slammed right into THEIR heads instead and they would have been the ones killed or seriously injured! They would have been the ones laying on that floor. My grandma and my other family members are never gonna forget what they saw and witnessed inside that hypnosis room! It's a year later and they're all still traumatized by it! As a matter of fact, they practically get nightmares from what they saw and witnessed inside that hypnosis room!"

"They get nightmares from it?!"

"Yes they do! They wake up in cold sweats!"

"They do?!"

"Yes they do!"

"Oh God. Do they get nightmares about it all the time?!"

"Not really. Just every so often."

"Every so often? What do they actually see in their nightmares?"

"The same thing they saw and witnessed inside that hypnosis room, Diane's other personality attacking all those authority figures and priest with that flying psychiatrist couch! They feel like they're living that same horror all over again! If my cousin Charlotte and I had not decide to leave that hypnosis room and would have stayed in there with my grandma and the rest of our family members, she and I would have definitely witnessed what happened inside that room and we would have been traumatized and get nightmares about it too! Thank God she and I left that hypnosis room! After all that slaughter and bloodshed my grandma and my other family members saw and witnessed inside that hypnosis room, now they're sorry they ever stayed inside that hypnosis room and wish they had left that hypnosis room right along with me and Charlotte! And they're sorry they ever agreed to let Diane be hypnotized because now their lives are changed forever! They have to live with the horror of seeing and witnessing their own family member committing those gruesome killings and now have to see psychiatrists themselves from what they all saw and went through!"

"They all have to see psychiatrists?" the white male journalist asks.

"Yes they do! My grandma and my grandpa were at the psychiatrist's office today! They had appointments themselves!"

"They did?"

"Yes they did! My Aunt Mary and my Uncle Barry who are Diane's mom and dad were at the psychiatrist's office yesterday!"

"They were?"

"Yes!"

"Wow! I can imagine what your Aunt Mary and Uncle Barry are going through right now! After all, Diane D IS their daughter!"

"Yes she is their daughter and they are going through a lot right now! My dad went to see the psychiatrist two days ago!"

"Your dad too?"

"Yes!"

"And your dad is Diane D's Uncle Tonio, who was inside that hypnosis room too."

"Yes he was!"

"Oh God."

"Diane's brother Nicolas went to see the psychiatrist last week, so did her husband Michael."

"Her husband and brother too?!"

"Yeah! They were inside that hypnosis room too, they saw everything, so did my aunt Marilyn."

"Your aunt Marilyn was inside that hypnosis room too, right?"

"Yes she was! She went to see a psychiatrist a few days ago!"

"She did?"

"Yes she did! I have to see a psychiatrist myself from the encounter and experience I had with meeting Diane's other personality inside my family's house that night!"

"You too?!" the black male journalist asks.

"Yes me too! Now I'm sorry I ever told my family about the encounter I had with Diane's other personality that night because look where it's gotten us! We all have to see psychiatrists now! Our whole lives has changed forever! That encounter and experience I had with meeting Diane's other personality inside my family's house that night is one experience I will never forget! It is going to stay with me and haunt me for the rest of my life! That horror and bloodshed my family members had to witness inside that hypnosis room is one experience THEY will never forget! It is going to stay with THEM and haunt THEM for the rest of THEIR lives! Now you see why my family and I have to constantly stay in therapy?"

"Wow Nancy!" the white male journalist shouts. "I'm sorry that you and your family members are going through this! And I'm sorry that your family members had to witness the horror, slaughter and bloodshed that happened inside that hypnosis room, especially by someone in their own family! There was no way your family members
