IF THIS BOOK WAS REFERRED TO YOU – PASS IT NOW: TO AT LEAST 3 PEOPLE.

AGREEMENT

Book has been written to preserve the most important knowledge ever existing, by an anonymous author. No liability is taken, as it's done purposely for Him.

Forbidden is to take any medication, drug, vitamin, supplement or any other substance during the treatment, #3: as it might result in your death. You must be at least 18 years old.
If you're a woman: you need to ensure you're not pregnant before and during the treatment as it might result in a death, of the unborn child.

Certain conditions/ lack of particular body parts i.e. tissues, organs – may be a contradiction to the treatment, as it might result in a dangerous responses and possibly even death.

There might be an error or a typo, therefore please always ensure to at least triple-check all that has been established in the work – for all, of the information supplied. Please put your personal thought: to check very precisely and from various sources, of whatever data is provided as it might be wrong/ potentially hazardous or even deadly.

Always, at least quadruple check in two approaches – the dosage you're using, as one mistake could result in your death/ note: use immediately information, #3.29L. Be particularly very wary to the liquid form of any substance used/ procedure is – as above. Understanding, that you might be possibly allergic/ have a serious reactions, due to known & unknown reasons or a trace contamination of the specimen: causes, an always obligatorily requirement for the usage of smallest possible product sample (as suggested: even smaller than a minimal dose of it, #3.29A). Enabling yourself time – through the first few repeated dosages: to understand the substance and the reaction of your body, is a necessity – as lack of it, might end in your painful death (e.g. through suffocation in an allergic reaction).

You need to be always fully conscious of All, which you do – not being limited only to the treatment, but upon all actions that you precede.

Be thankful for any experience that is brought upon to your reality and always search for an everlasting improvement, understanding and development: sharing the useful knowledge and being helpful, by allowing such understanding of others – that might not be so bright, the ones that are worthy of it. Be a guard of morality at all cost and understand, that knowledge and understanding imposes on you a need for responsibility and the highest morals which are required for the good of all. Therefore, it is only viable to make others match your level of understanding and ever-existing pattern of morals, and to impose them either through a positive/ negative actions and consequences, that are superimposed on you – in a time of attaining them. Those on the bottom: are the primary concern for all, as those are the people that should be brought to a higher level of spirituality, due to their lack of incentive/ understanding and being fortunate as you, to have the right kind of tools and circumstances to bring the change (those are people, that require help but in an open and helpful manner, first in the queue).

Avoid at all cost, to impose on others your will by force, but instead show an example by your actions and inspire, also by sharing – they might not be ready, in that time for change: although tell/ punish and avoid to allow anyone – immoral behavior, even for the stake of taking damage by yourself and show always no-tolerance upon such actions towards you or others. Provide and explain the rules that need to be followed by any person that populates this realm of reality – density, for the stake of attaining the best, that can be received and to His best for one's self and all others in the sphere of their influences (μ , #1.1). It's a moral duty, for any of the intellects who exist in this Universe.

Keep in mind, that you are the only one responsible for your actions and nobody can think or impose them on you. It includes refraining and to deny any order or quote, with or without explanation of the cause – when it might be sensed, as not true with your inner conscience or in the place of moral justification. You're the only one, that would be held accountable for your actions and you would suffer the consequences: without the need of any law or persecution – caused by the work of those mechanisms implemented in this Creation, #1. It's also applicable to teaching others and showing them the consequences, of taking them – those actions which are required by their superiors or people attached. Make sure: you would always take an action if only influenced, even if such occurrence is probable – without the need of any evidence. Be wary of the people you attach yourself with and choose only those who are contributing to your life in a positive manner (evil is such consideration, always). However, be conscious to always be as yourself – living to your highest means and the usage of your highest potential possible. It is your personal duty: to repay the debt you were born into this World as due to your work and thought attached – increase the life of others and help them become the most moral and most perfect people possible. It would cause the most, of what could be achieved and would bring to your life only the best.

Avoid to ever serve for the bad, as rewards and gains – without putting in: are only a mere illusion and All would be lost in a very short amount of lifespan, bringing you the worst of possible – suffering and everlasting condemnation, until the sins are cleared (which would last: possibly even extent the current lifetime of unfounded and unmoral pain, that was brought by you or with your consent, allowance or part – upon others). Morality in this world needs to be restored and it has already started now (all beliefs that are held by people are mostly wrong and need to be resolved, changed in All that are living here within this World – it's all achieved due to constant education and everlasting imposing of the universal rules by All of people, who are holding the knowledge of Moral Laws, #1).

All, if not told otherwise – was tested extensively: in various doses and the treatment has been completed. Therefore the process here contained, is safe and 100% verified. It's the highest truth, which revealing has been permitted to better the human race – starting from you, now.

Impose morality upon others, as there is nothing – that could hold you back (your life would be spared and saved, by an invisible Laws and you would live as there is always a way out of the immoral – even if it is impossible: it would be created and your only task is to put an active efforts into executing what has to be done). What you would do, if somebody would at the present moment – tell you, that you would achieve everything that you truly desire: money, health, happiness, fullness in life and fulfillment – if you would only invest a 5-year time of your life, on reading – understanding and full implementation of the knowledge here contained. It is absolutely granted.

Sacred knowledge, available and used only by the most powerful. The one, which is unavailable for a mere mortal, as it holds the key to everything that is important. Knowledge, the most important in this world. Its usage grants, that maximum power is achieved, available to the people populating this Universe.

Mechanisms that rule this realm have been all disassembled to the first elements and based on this understanding: a system has been developed that implies the most powerful and maximum usage of the Laws present – for people who understood it and use in a certain way, making it all a natural process.

It is a knowledge, which possessing and appliance causes achievement of everything, which is desired. Based on your personal work, that needs to be invested mostly on the beginning and which does not involve the usage of any entities from the other dimensions as it is forbidden. It uses Laws, that perform in this reality – independently and which govern this Universe to be developed with the intentions of the Universal Intellect, although it is associated with only maximizing the results of those Laws by understanding of all that is to be and by acting with certainties that are pointed, giving the most prolific effects and to produce the best results, ever possible.

Would you take your time and do whatever is necessary to completely change your life, as you have dreamed of? Would you take this challenge or refuse it. It is guaranteed, for all – independent of any other reasons, as we are All the One and Laws are the same for everyone. Understanding is the key to achievement, but the work performed and the actions taken: are the necessity, which show results. Have you already made your choice?

The Most Important Knowledge You would Ever Read, Implement and Live up to Forever

Do you know that feeling for which every person in this reality strives for? The one, that you have after consuming high doses of alcohol or which can be experienced through the usage of a stronger drugs? It's the goal of us all, to feel good and that's the ultimate prize.

What would you do, if were told: that this godlike state of feeling happy – powerful, best and the most loved can last forever and drugs only permit 0.01%² of its intensity at their peak level (of 100% that is)? Would you take an action now, if you were told that that – you would be all the time on it – living it, without the consumption of any drugs, after implementation of the knowledge here written?

Would you follow, if you would know that after realization of this text-map fully: you would gain all those qualities you've always desired, turn you life on the best what is possible and make it a living dream of your reality? Having the wealth, the joy – a sense to wake up everyday waiting for more of what it has to offer?

Would you refuse?

This is, how it is. Either take the certainty you've had been given, by finding this work and putting the knowledge to action or suffer the consequences of having not.

It's only your choice. Your personal work and effort would be required, continue.

² Up to 0.04% is possible, but due to other factors involved – nobody in practice: never experiences it beyond the 0.01% mark (of 100% that is). Usually, it's much less than it.

The Most Important Knowledge You would Ever Read, Implement and Live up to Forever

THE PRELIMINARY PROCESS OF CHANGE

0.01. BEGINNINGS OF UNDERSTANDING

All great journeys begin with finding and setting a worthy-cause to live for. The one, which achievement would set you apart from others and would create a flow of abundance in your life. If you want change – you need to change. It's the only thing that is required, the rest is only just a follow up process that might require certain efforts, tools – means for attainment and this is something you shall find with the appropriate drives.

The process of attaining any knowledge, understanding it with the purpose of its use and growing, is connected to the chakra sphere. Firstly, we encounter fear (which is the lowest, below ourselves): would this work; would I die; what if not; what if I would loose 5 years or what if the results would be poor, not as I wanted; what if somebody has done a joke to use people such as me for their purposes? In the next step, when the previous are answered – partially questioned, it is either skipped in a certain way if there are no warnings, red flags or other means that are sensed wrong. Intended or not: it comes to opening it's content/ taking particular action, but only to the point of 'taking a glimpse' (e.g. reading few words or either sentences from various paragraphs or sometimes even a section, few also read a preface) and assessing does it makes sense, other issues that are valid to the person with a specific belief system, based on the experiences however also temporarily on emotions, state or all the surrounding conditions. We're rather all emotional, indeed very simplistic and commonly lazy, emotion-driven to cover our true feelings that are the source of our actions, even if some may refuse to acknowledge it – we want everything now. We also want to be seen by others in a positive view, and nobody is really free from the least to the end. Proactive, is the next – if the previous have passed, we're in a state of excitement and want to get everything – now. However, the first enjoyment suddenly drops as the reality sets in. More than 98%+ never really finishes, anything to the end – motivations are high on the beginning only (therefore you've might pay for the gym, go few first times and end up keeping to pay the monthly tariff, for a full year which was imposed). Only the best, who have got a certain brain programming and attributes, with all the conditions attached – really make it, to the end. It's also common, that many influenced by the lower chakras – wants, to 'give it a try' (that is, on the side: a recipe for the failure expectation). Indeed, 95% of them, with such approach – resigns, as they're easily swallowed by the un-important predominantly tasks of everyday life. Therefore only few succeed in life, those that have put their life at the stake to win in it and that have applied all the required, for the purpose of achievement. Under it's done as such by you, try to skip reading the next.

You see, basically the only one difference between those who made it really in life: are the ones who made a conscious decision, that – they would do whatever necessary to succeed and it's done by them, until the very end. Most resign, as there are no benefits in the short-term, the process is hard and there are no shortcuts, but it's only valid to those 5 first years and everything is already – ready to give you, but your firstly need to be prepared. Would you make such decision or do you choose not to?

It would come after you, until you would and the confidence exists that it's stronger in every step: that this is the way, the track that needs to be done – firstly, by allowing a tiny bit of faith – then by applying it to the actions and knowledge gained, to proceed – the time required with those efforts and win in this period qualities, philosophy, All the wisdom, skill and merits that would make you a living success and a glowing example of accomplishment.

Therefore, if you would act as others, with similar thought and participation – you would also have the things that others have and the last, would be rather guaranteed if you would only perform the track. However, despite all the financial gains and having a beautiful wife, home, car and all the other stuff – you would probably somewhere along the way find, that beyond of what you've achieved in your life and the things you've acquired: there is something lacking in it and it's a hole that is so big, either you would probably not be able to identify the causes behind. A happiness would be lost, when you would get to this point and probably you would see that all you've been striving for – has no value really, as there is no fulfillment in having all those things, as they're just things...
