Gold over water
Gold over the sea
The shifts between
The calm and the current
Carries us through our lives

I want to live
To see water go by
Both in my city
And on the shore at Lindö
Where it always is blowing
Through the trees
Where my heart
Longs to be
All the time

Lindö I love you
Here's my resting place
When I'm tired
I get recovered again

I'm in the silence
Living in my world
And everything
Is as it should be

I'm living in the vibrations
Of the invisible
It's not constant
Comes and goes

The other night
I saw an angel
Before my bed
Carrying a big feather
In his arms
I saw his blue clothes

The other night
A devil-like head
Who looked like
Darth-Maul
Was watching me
With anger in his eyes
But I didn't fear
He couldn't hurt me

They are afraid when
We reach enlightenment
They envy us
Wants to destroy

Time to use Reiki-healing
To protect my house
So they can't come near again
The good and the evil lives close to us

We come down in love
To help each other grow
We don't remember it
Water of oblivion
Was drunken
But we play our part
On this planet
As the masters of the sky
Have decided with you

Every step is closely examined
Before we leave heaven
Whom we are supposed to meet
And why
What challenges we have to solve

Life is never easy
No one can say you make it
Unexpected events can happen
We are the adventurers of the world
Creating with the Lord

When we don't remember
That we are not alone
Then it's easy to fall down and cry

But pray to the Lord
The masters and guides
Are there for you
You will be helped
Through your troubles

If you want love and truth
It will come to you
In spite of it all

Archangels through time and space
We pray to you for guidance
Michael protector
In our lives
Uriel nature's angel
Guide our steps
In our environment
Rafael healer of Everything
Gabriel gives us
Spiritual guidance
Please lead us
So we can be free

In a prison
In Rome
300 A.D.
I was tortured and killed
Because I believed in Jesus

Didn't want to give tribute
To the emperor of Rome
They believed that you could
Even if you worshipped one
Or many other Gods

Don't have memories
But my body has
Only water and dried bread
Caused severe constipation
And my problem
Still remains in this lifetime

I have gnashed my teeth
Since my teens
They are deep as holes
All because of Rome

I was a merchant
In old Persia
Traveled long distances
I was a healer too
In that lifetime

In this lifetime
A woman came
Dressed in a green sari
From the spirit world
To see me be initiated
Again to my calling

A huge angel
Cleansed me
As a chimney
To go the spiritual way
Once again

I was a hittitian woman
Healing wounded
Giving food
In the war of Kadesh
Hittite against Egypt
I was killed by an Egyptian soldier
By mistake
He didn't know
That I was an Egyptian citizen

I couldn't take it to me
I was so shocked
Before I died
That's why
I'm so divided
In my mind
In this lifetime
About making choices

Illusions break your heart
Initiations all through your life
As it was in the pyramid of Giza
Where the sons and daughters of God
Were initiated through a machine
That sent them to heaven or hell
Of feelings to be overcome

Everything to get closer to the divine light
Dangerous if it didn't work out
It could burn your nerve system
If you weren't ready
For the transformation

The machines were too dangerous
To be left behind
They destroyed them
Before they left for the sky
They weren't needed
Anymore

The pyramids blocks were lifted
By taking away the gravity
Using light and sound
In a way that is unknown to us
This technique maybe we will Learn again in the future

Why should I
Take care of my Brother
He's not a relative
Of mine

In this world
We only take care
Of ourselves
We don't care
About other people

No responsibility
Is craved from us
We do as we please
Running around
Like children

We all face trouble
In our lives
Lies inside
Which we used
To believe in
But now I've come
To the turning point
And I strike

Underneath
I strike underneath
There's no other
Calling so strong
Than to strike
Underneath
No one can harm me
Anymore
I strike back

I been living
In my own chains
My thoughts
About whom I am
Love has come
To deliver me
From guilt and shame
The only true emotion
Is love

I'm not one of the Coldhearted
No I'm warmhearted
Touching the sky
With every heartbeat

I want to change the world
Create it with my own hands
And no one can stop me
From doing it

I want to create with Compassion and empathy

There's no other way
That I want to go

Dreamer
No I'm not a dreamer
There's a reality
To take care about
But without our dreams
There will not be a
Different world
It's time to choose both
Let all flowers bloom
On the earth and the Spiritual too

Darkness and light
Are the same
Darkness is only
Absence of light
But it still scares us
Because we are afraid
Of it

Earth angels
Earth keepers
Around the world
Join in spiritual circle
In the fire of believing
That our thoughts count

Fires
Burning
People gather around them
To stop freezing
To get warm
From the coldness
In society

Brothers and sisters
Hear our God is calling
Mother Gaia too
Please help they say
Spirit world
Is calling us all
To give service
To the world

What about money
The old thoughts
Of economy is coming
To its end

It doesn't serve us
The way it used to do

We got to change it
To become more in Tune of our souls

That's why economies
Over the world are Crashing
Because they have
Over lived their purpose

The old ways
Hinders our raising
In global consciousness
To heighten in frequency

It will boil over
As it has in Europe
Collapses has already set in
The disharmony will continue
Until we reach the turning point

We must think love
When using money
To trade by bartering
As we used to do
For many thousands
Years ago

I am lovable
God you told me
To my heart

So many times
When I thought
I wasn't
I've been stumbling
So many times
Through my life
Trying to find
My self-worth
In this world

I am lovable
I am enough
Thank you for healing
My heart

Temple of knowledge
Up in the sky
I wanted to go there
To read all there is
To be enlightened again

Surrounded by all my friends
We would ask ourselves
Where's the next life on earth
Where is our trip going?
We will ask our masters
When the timing is right

Please give me gold
From your soul
Give me of your Precious love

It's worth more
Than diamonds
Elevating me
To the moon

So near so close
There are no borders
Between us two
No questions
Are there to be Answered

Lift me up
Let me sail
Through the night
Meet eye to eye
In the dark of the night

This is a true calling
To the ones whom are called
Serving humanity
With their souls

This is a true calling
To all helpers
Of the earth
I summon you
To the center
Of the world
Join with me
In your mind
Everything is love

Beauty butterfly
Show me the way
To the spirit of your soul
Fly away over the fields
Over the herbs with Healing powers

Strong but so weak
With pride you sail your way
Through the air

Bring peace wherever you go
Land in a flower
Sip its nectar
To live in the moment
Without time

I'm a spiritual warrior
And I'm never giving in Whatever happens in life
I go forward

I know I'm a vulnerable human
Keep going on anyway
Through all the pain
There's in the end
Always salvation
But it can't be seen at first

This is the time that we have
Only in this life-time
You must do what's right
But it's not so easy sometimes
To see the difference between
The true and the false

Have compassion
With those who stumble
It could have been you

Don't condemn
Don't hate
You don't have the right

Why people do
As they do
We don't know

Everyone has their story
A heart has many ways
Many secrets and reasons

Have compassion for all faults
It could have been you
Every scare you leave
With your anger makes fear Inside

Show understanding
Show love
And all will be well

Entering
The Great Portal
To see the evidence
That the soul exists

Maybe the year
Will be 2080
Then we will understand
That the soul
Is immortal
That we live forever
Our scientists will know
And everybody will Hear the truth

There's no death
Has never been
Just an illusion
For millions of years
Will be taken away
We will not fear death
Anymore

When I look at the world
In my perspective
I see a world teared apart
Don't do it
People of the world
Every thought is valuable

They can build up
Or they can destroy
Send to this planet
Every friend
Every enemy

A thought of love
And you shall see
We are more than
The wars
We are more than
Greed
We are love

Africa, Africa
My anguish is with you
When I see that you
Suffer
People in the land of Suffering

The pain is for us to learn
The mysteries of love
But when the strong one roars
Only violence will rule

The one who thinks
I am always right
Has put many to die
And doesn't care
As long as he's living
In overflow

Zimbabwe
N'debele and Shona
Irreconcilable enemies
Without end

Ancestors are pleading
For peace
High up in the heavens
And a stop of the killing

The stonefalk is watching
With cruel eyes
From ancient times
Let their memory of Rulers and slaves die
The respect must appear

South America

The farmer works hard
For his daily bread
Or there won't be Any wages
But the wages that he Gets is very low
Where people are Counted for nothing

The owner of the land
Is the oppressor
Who doesn't sell
A piece of the land
So that the farmer's Family can live in peace

Money is the strong one
To teach up someone
To a new life
Is surely not a good idea

Laugh yes laugh
You most wealthy
As your fortune
Goes beyond my fantasies

You are worth your success
But other's children
Are crying tonight

Who cares
Yesterday became today

Our child

Called from eternity
Living in emptiness
Out of the darkness
You were born

Now everything is terrifying
Water and care
Only screaming

With me you find
Peace and quiet
Except when
The stomach aches

You have changed us
Made us to a family
A girl became a woman
A boy became a man
But they surely already Existed

The child

The child
What it's thinking about?
Here is mother and father
In the spring's dazzling light

Everything that I've never seen
Toys and bears
The mobile over my bed
Spinning around
With animals on it
With them I speak
When I feel I want to do

While in the bath
As I enjoy I kick about
And laugh and smile

On the nursing table
I get taken care of Get dressed

Now it's night and dark
It's time to sleep
Goodnight my mother
Says to me
I always sleep so well

Diabetes

The day that they stung you
With your first injection
They stung me too
Straight into my soul

They couldn't help it
Who could?
Tears of pain
Eyes that smarts of it

Anger that goes through
You and me
The sharp needle
Is our eternal suffering

This trial that was definite for you
In this life-time
We who are one
Through the commitment
Of marriage
The child that we are expecting
We grow even closer
In lucky harmony anyway

Sorrow

Life and death
Goes hand in hand
Into eternity
When someone dies
Someone else is born
The cycle of the seasons
Returns

We watch over our
Dear ones
We want them
Close to us
But one day
We can't touch anymore

Their voices are gone
The love we had
Between us
It still lives
Without body

If we don't get outlet
For our feelings
Then our sorrow is hard

But the soul lives
It still remains
The dead takes care of us
That we are doing well
So live in the assurance anyway
That life always forward goes
