at some point
even the change in the weather began to frighten me overwhelmed by pressure and fear i was losing ground which was never stable anyway they won't stay with you if they want to move on you will not stop anyone by force nor with requests sometimes even love is not enough for someone to stay

you shrug your shoulders just as the wind moves the branches of the trees your 'too late'

was never literal
i tried to look for a chance in it yet how wonderful it is to be able to call my body my home my refuge my armor

my everything
my body is for me

'almost'

always contains inaccuracies that you put into every sentence you utter i wish you that you find your inner self inside of another person affinity of souls is much stronger than kinship of bodies

i learned to limit the word 'never'
and 'always'
no more going back to old bad habits no more going back to toxic relationships no more returning to emptiness and hunger but nothing is a certainty humbly hoping that bad things will not return i don't know if i've matured enough to win against them again you crush ice cubes you crush women's hearts depression is like a waterfall you swim with the current of water you get used to the whirlpool of water that swamps you suddenly you are falling down you notice where you are all over again

i idealize the future i tire of the past the past really torments me i try to see the present in colors other than those that i have already come to know you were born alive but do you feel alive - functioning
