

Two Poems
by Anna Belle

My heart, where are you now?

Once upon a time
I roamed the lands with you
Those days are gone
My heart, where are you now?

I loved you dearly
I remember the sunshine on your hair
When we strolled through the fields
And made love under the blossomed trees

The touch of your hand on my face
Tender and soft and so sweet
Why did we fall from grace?
My heart, where are you now?

I roamed the lands without you
Through the ages I reached out my hand
To touch your lovely face once again
Why did he cast this spell over you and me?

My heart, where are you now?
Now see, his time his up and his race is run
I lifted the curse, I lifted his ban
No longer we live under a scattered sun

I reach out my hand to you
Soon I will move on, it's time I leave
My heart, where are you now?
Won't you come with me?
