Introduction

Welcome to the fascinating and intricate world of astrology!

For thousands of years the movements of the planets and other heavenly bodies have intrigued the best minds of every generation. Life holds no greater challenge or joy than this: knowledge of ourselves and the universe we live in. Astrology is one of the keys to this knowledge.

Freebiesave.org's Horoscope 2014 gives you the fruits of astrological wisdom. In addition to general guidance on your character and the basic trends of your life, it shows you how to take advantage of planetary influences so you can make the most of the year ahead.

The section on each sign includes a Personality Profile, a look at general trends for 2014, and in-depth month-by-month forecasts. The Glossary explains some of the astrological terms you may be unfamiliar with.

One of the many helpful features of this book is the 'Best' and 'Most Stressful' days listed at the beginning of each monthly forecast. Read these sections to learn which days in each month will be good overall, good for money, and good for love. Mark them on your calendar – these will be your best days. Similarly, make a note of the days that will be most stressful for you. It is best to avoid booking important meetings or taking major decisions on these days, as well as on those days when important planets in your horoscope are retrograde (moving backwards through the zodiac).

The Major Trends section for your sign lists those days when your vitality is strong or weak, or when relationships with your co-workers or loved ones may need a bit more effort on your part. If you are going through a difficult time, take a look at the colour, metal, gem and scent listed in the 'At a Glance' section of your Personality Profile. Wearing a piece of jewellery that contains your metal and/or gem will strengthen your vitality, just as wearing clothes or decorating your room or office in the colour ruled by your sign, drinking teas made from the herbs ruled by your sign or wearing the scents associated with your sign will sustain you.

Another important virtue of this book is that it will help you to know not only yourself but those around you: your friends, co-workers, partners and/or children. Reading the Personality Profile and forecasts for their signs will provide you with an insight into their behaviour that you won't get anywhere else. You will know when to be more tolerant of them and when they are liable to be difficult or irritable.

In this edition we have included foot reflexology charts as part of the health section. So many health problems could perhaps be avoided or alleviated if we understood which organs were most vulnerable and what we could do to protect them. Though there are many natural and drug-free ways to strengthen vulnerable organs, these charts show a valid way to proceed. The vulnerable organs for the year ahead are clearly marked in the charts. It's very good to massage the whole foot on a regular basis, as the feet contain reflexes to the entire body. Try to pay special attention to the specific areas marked in the charts. If this is done diligently, health problems can be avoided. And even if they can't be completely avoided, their impact can be softened considerably.

By studying your Solar Horoscope I gain an awareness of what is going on in your life – what you are feeling and striving for and the challenges you face. I then do my best to address these concerns. Consider this book the next best thing to having your own personal astrologer!

It is my sincere hope that Your Freebiesave.org's Horoscope 2014 will enhance the quality of your life, make things easier, illuminate the way forward, banish obscurities and make you more aware of your personal connection to the universe. Understood properly and used wisely, astrology is a great guide to knowing yourself, the people around you and the events in your life – but remember that what you do with these insights – the final result – is up to you.

Regards

Understanding an Aries

Aries is the activist par excellence of the zodiac. The Aries need for action is almost an addiction, and those who do not really understand the Aries personality would probably use this hard word to describe it. In reality 'action' is the essence of the Aries psychology – the more direct, blunt and to-the-point the action, the better. When you think about it, this is the ideal psychological makeup for the warrior, the pioneer, the athlete or the manager.

Aries likes to get things done, and in their passion and zeal often lose sight of the consequences for themselves and others. Yes, they often try to be diplomatic and tactful, but it is hard for them. When they do so they feel that they are being dishonest and phony. It is hard for them even to understand the mindset of the diplomat, the consensus builder, the front office executive. These people are involved in endless meetings, discussions, talks and negotiations – all of which seem a great waste of time when there is so much work to be done, so many real achievements to be gained. An Aries can understand, once it is explained, that talk and negotiations – the social graces – lead ultimately to better, more effective actions. The interesting thing is that an Aries is rarely malicious or spiteful – even when waging war. Aries people fight without hate for their opponents. To them it is all good-natured fun, a grand adventure, a game.

When confronted with a problem many people will say, ‘Well, let’s think about it, let’s analyse the situation.’ But not an Aries. An Aries will think, ‘Something must be done. Let’s get on with it.’ Of course neither response is the total answer. Sometimes action is called for, sometimes cool thought. But an Aries tends to err on the side of action.

Action and thought are radically different principles. Physical activity is the use of brute force. Thinking and deliberating require one not to use force – to be still. It is not good for the athlete to be deliberating the next move; this will only slow down his or her reaction time. The athlete must act instinctively and instantly. This is how Aries people tend to behave in life. They are quick, instinctive decision-makers and their decisions tend to be translated into action almost immediately. When their intuition is sharp and well tuned, their actions are powerful and successful. When their intuition is off, their actions can be disastrous.

Do not think this will scare an Aries. Just as a good warrior knows that in the course of combat he or she might acquire a few wounds, so too does an Aries realize – somewhere deep down – that in the course of being true to yourself you might get embroiled in a disaster or two. It is all part of the game. An Aries feels strong enough to weather any storm.

There are many Aries people who are intellectual. They make powerful and creative thinkers. But even in this realm they tend to be pioneers – outspoken and blunt. These types of Aries tend to elevate (or sublimate) their desire for physical combat in favour of intellectual, mental combat. And they are indeed powerful.

In general, Aries people have a faith in themselves that others could learn from. This basic, rock-solid faith carries them through the most tumultuous situations of life. Their courage and self-confidence make them natural leaders. Their leadership is more by way of example than by actually controlling others.

Finance

Aries people often excel as builders or estate agents. Money in and of itself is not as important as are other things – action, adventure, sport, etc. They are motivated by the need to support and be well-thought-of by their partners. Money as a way of attaining pleasure is another important motivation. Aries function best in their own businesses or as managers of their own departments within a large business or corporation. The fewer orders they have to take from higher up, the better. They also function better out in the field rather than behind a desk.

Aries people are hard workers with a lot of endurance; they can earn large sums of money due to the strength of their sheer physical energy.

Venus is their money planet, which means that Aries need to develop more of the social graces in order to realize their full earning potential. Just getting the job done – which is what an Aries excels at – is not enough to create financial success. The co-operation of others needs to be attained. Customers, clients and co-workers need to be made to feel comfortable; many people need to be treated properly in order for success to happen. When Aries people develop these abilities – or hire someone to do this for them – their financial potential is unlimited.

Career and Public Image

One would think that a pioneering type would want to break with the social and political conventions of society. But this is not so with the Aries-born. They are pioneers within conventional limits, in the sense that they like to start their own businesses within an established industry.

Capricorn is on the 10th house (career) cusp of Aries' Solar horoscope. Saturn is the planet that rules their life's work and professional aspirations. This tells us some interesting things about the Aries character. First off, it shows that, in order for Aries people to reach their full career potential, they need to develop some qualities that are a bit alien to their basic nature: they need to become better administrators and organizers; they need to be able to handle details better and to take a long-range view of their projects and their careers in general. No one can beat an Aries when it comes to achieving short-range objectives, but a career is long term, built over time. You cannot take a 'quickest' approach to it.

Some Aries people find it difficult to stick with a project until the end. Since they get bored quickly and are in constant pursuit of new adventures, they prefer to pass an old project or task on to somebody else in order to start something new. Those Aries who learn how to put off the search for something new until the old is completed will achieve great success in their careers and professional lives.

In general, Aries people like society to judge them on their own merits, on their real and actual achievements. A reputation acquired by 'hype' feels false to them.

Love and Relationships

In marriage and partnerships Aries like those who are more passive, gentle, tactful and diplomatic – people who have the social grace and skills they sometimes lack. Our partners always represent a hidden part of ourselves – a self that we cannot express personally.

An Aries tends to go after what he or she likes aggressively. The tendency is to jump into relationships and marriages. This is especially true if Venus is in Aries as well as the Sun. If an Aries likes you, he or she will have a hard time taking no for an answer; many attempts will be made to sweep you off your feet.

Though Aries can be exasperating in relationships – especially if they are not understood by their partners – they are never consciously or wilfully cruel or malicious. It is just that they are so independent and sure of themselves that they find it almost impossible to see somebody else's viewpoint or position. This is why an Aries needs as a partner someone with lots of social graces.

On the plus side, an Aries is honest, someone you can lean on, someone with whom you will always know where you stand. What he or she lacks in diplomacy is made up for in integrity.

Home and Domestic Life

An Aries is of course the ruler at home – the Boss. The male will tend to delegate domestic matters to the female. The female Aries will want to rule the roost. Both tend to be handy round the house. Both like large families and both believe in the sanctity and importance of the family. An Aries is a good family person, although he or she does not especially like being at home a lot, preferring instead to be roaming about.

Considering that they are by nature so combative and wilful, Aries people can be surprisingly soft, gentle and even vulnerable with their children and partners. The sign of Cancer, ruled by the Moon, is on the cusp of their solar 4th house (home and family). When the Moon is well aspected – under favourable influences – in the birth chart, an Aries will be tender towards the family and want a family life that is nurturing and supportive. Aries likes to come home after a hard day on the battlefield of life to the understanding arms of their partner and the unconditional love and support of their family. An Aries feels that there is enough 'war' out in the world – and he or she enjoys participating in that. But when Aries comes home, comfort and nurturing are what's needed.

Horoscope for 2014

Major Trends

Life has been exciting – to say the least – since 2011 when Uranus entered your sign. Never a dull moment. It's been all about change, change, change and then more change after that. Life seemed hectic and frenetic. The unexpected always happened. On the surface this seemed like a 'craziness', but underneath there was a deep spiritual agenda happening. You were (and are) being liberated, released from all kinds of attachments and bondages. You wake up one morning and discover that there are no longer any obstructions to following the path of your dreams. These obstructions have been blasted away – sometimes in dramatic fashion – and the path is clear. These trends are continuing in 2014. In previous years it was the 'early' Aries, those born early on in the sign, who felt this the most, but now even those of you born later in the sign will feel it. This is a time to embrace change, to make it your friend, to be calm in the midst of it. Beyond the drama there is an open road to your dreams. You are in a cycle where it is important to express your personal freedom.

Neptune, the most spiritual of all the planets, moved into Pisces, your 12th house of spirituality, in February 2012. This initiated a great and powerful spiritual influence generally, but especially upon you, Aries. You are becoming more spiritual. Your spiritual understanding is increasing by leaps and bounds. And much of the change going on in your life has to do with the spiritual changes happening deep within you – unseen and unnoticed by the world. This transit will be in effect for another 12 or so years. There's more on this later.

Pluto has been in Capricorn, your 10th house of career, for many years now and will be there for many more years. A cosmic detox is going on in your career – both in your actual career and in your attitudes towards it. Many of you are rethinking your career path and perhaps even changing it. Even if you do stick with the present career, it will be with a whole new attitude. Again, there's more on this later.

The year ahead looks prosperous and basically happy – the latter part of the year, from July 16 onwards, more than the early part of the year. Benevolent Jupiter will move into Leo on July 16th and start making fabulous aspects to your Sun. This brings prosperity, good fortune in speculations, enhanced creativity and just more 'joy of life'. Aries of childbearing age were more fertile last year and the trend continues in 2014.

Your most important areas of interest this year will be the body, the image and personal pleasure; home and family (until July 16); fun, children and creativity (from July 16 onwards); love, romance and social activities (until July 26); sex, personal transformation and reinvention, occult studies, reincarnation and life after death (until December 24); career; and spirituality.

Your paths of greatest fulfilment in the year ahead will be home and family (until July 16); children, fun and creativity (from July 16 onwards); sex, personal transformation and reinvention, occult studies, reincarnation and life after death (until February 19); and love, romance and social activities (from February 19 onwards).

Health

(Please note that this is an astrological perspective on health and not a medical one. In days of yore there was no difference, both of these perspectives were identical. But in these times there could be quite a difference. For a medical perspective, please consult your doctor or health practitioner.)

The years 2011 and 2012 were very challenging healthwise. If you got through those years, you'll get through the year ahead with flying colours. Since 2011 we note a steady, gradual improvement in health and energy. Though challenging, 2012 was better than 2011; 2013 was better than 2012; and 2014 will be better than 2013.

Though health is improving it still needs watching for the first half of the year, until July 16. Three long-term planets will be in stressful aspect with you. On July 16 Jupiter will move from a stressful aspect to a harmonious one, and on July 26 Mars will move out of his stressful aspect. You should feel a big positive difference in your overall vitality from July 16 onwards.

With your 6th house of health basically empty for most of the year (only the short-term planets will move through there) the danger is that you won't pay enough attention here. And you should. You will have to force yourself to pay attention to your health – to follow good health regimes – even though you don't feel like it.

Uranus has been in your sign since 2011. This often indicates experimentation with the physical body – a tendency to test its limits. Basically this is a good urge. Our bodies are capable of much more than we think and we only learn about this through testing it. But these experiments should be done in mindful and conscious ways, otherwise there could be a tendency to indulge in daredevil kinds of stunts and this can lead to injury. Testing is best done through regimes such as yoga or martial arts, which are basically disciplined and safe ways.

The most important thing for the first half of the year is to maintain high energy levels. When energy is high – when the auric field is strong – the body resists disease. It is basically immune to microbes and destructive kinds of bacteria. But let the auric field weaken for whatever reason and the body becomes more vulnerable to these sorts of things. The auric field is the spiritual equivalent of the physical immune system. Weakness in the auric field, in overall energy, has other consequences too. The vision, the hearing, the reflexes become a tad slower than normal. They are not up to standard and this can lead to accidents. So, rest when tired. Don't burn the candle at both ends. Work rhythmically and alternate activities. Wear the colours, gems and aromas of your sign (see the Personality Profile at the beginning of this sign). Have regular massages or reflexology treatments. This will enhance your energy in subtle ways. It might also be advisable to take weekends (or longer holidays) at a health spa – depending on your finances.

Health can also be enhanced through regular scalp and facial massage. The head and face is one of your vulnerable areas. When you massage the head and face you not only strengthen those areas but the whole body as well. There are reflexes there that go to the whole body. Also enhance the health by paying more attention to the lungs, arms, shoulders and small intestine. Arms and shoulders should be regularly massaged. Tension tends to collect in the shoulders and needs to be released. The heart is also more vulnerable this year. The reflexes to the heart are shown in the chart. Avoid worry and anxiety – the main spiritual root causes of heart problems.

Mercury, your health planet, is fast moving. During the course of the year he will move through all the signs and houses of your Horoscope, as our regular readers know. Thus there are many short-term trends in health that are best dealt with later in the monthly reports.

Mercury goes retrograde three times this year – from February 6 to February 28; June 7 to July 2; and from October 4 to October 25. These are not times to make drastic changes to your health regime or to make important health decisions. These are times for study and review.

Favourable numbers for health and healing are 1, 3, 6, 8 and 9. If you are exercising or making affirmations do them in sets of 1, 3, 6, 8 and 9 – you will get more out of your exercises.

Home and Family

Your 4th house of home and family is a house of power this year, so there is a great focus here now. With Jupiter in your 4th house since June 26 2013 it is a happy area of life.

Many of you moved in the past year. If you didn't then, it can still happen this year. As our regular readers know, Jupiter moving through the 4th house does not always indicate a 'literal' move but an 'as if' move. Sometimes people buy additional homes or properties. Sometimes they buy expensive items for the home, or renovate or enlarge the existing home. The effect is 'as if' a move has occurred. The home is enlarged and more comfortable than it was before.

Since Jupiter is the ruler of your 9th house of travel, many of you are moving or thinking of moving to foreign countries or faraway places in your own country. Or, as we mentioned, are acquiring properties in these kinds of places.

The family circle gets enlarged under this kind of aspect. Generally this happens through birth or marriage, but it often also happens through meeting people who are 'like family' – who are emotionally supportive. They play the role of 'family' in your life. In many cases the 'like' family can be more supportive and helpful than the actual biological family.

As we mentioned earlier, this aspect indicates heightened fertility for those Aries who are of childbearing age. This will be the case all year – even when Jupiter leaves the 4th house and enters the 5th on July 16. The focus then will shift from family as a whole to a focus on children.

Jupiter in the 4th house shows that the family as a whole is prospering and more supportive this year. When people are prosperous and optimistic it is only natural that they will increase their support. They are much more generous this year. If you need a favour from them – especially from a parent figure – this is the year to ask for it.

Children (or children figures in your life) become more prosperous after July 16. I have noticed that it doesn't matter what age they are. Even infants and toddlers prosper under this aspect – they receive expensive kinds of items or a parent or grandparent sets up a fund for them behind the scenes.

Jupiter is the planet of religion and higher education. Thus I can see many of you holding religious services in the home – perhaps classes too. The family as a whole seems more religious. Moreover, many of you will be adding a library to the home or expanding your present one. The home is a place of study as much as a home.

Finance and Career

The year ahead will be prosperous. Things will start slowly, but as the year progresses, and especially in the latter half, prosperity will increase.

Your 2nd house of finance is not a house of power this year, so finances are not a major focus. And perhaps this is the major weakness. You might not be giving them the attention they deserve. You can be too distracted by family, home, personal freedom or the desire for personal pleasure. If finances are troubling you, the solution might be to give the area more attention. Force yourself.

With Uranus in your own sign you are in the mood for new ventures, new start ups. You are an experimenter with almost everything in your life, including finance. You tend to be a risk-taker by nature, and these days even more so. And when you hit the big time, it will be BIG. Failures however – and there will be a few – can also be big. Risk taking – speculations – are much better during the latter half of the year – after July 16 – than before.

Venus is your financial planet. Regular readers assuredly know that Venus is a fast-moving planet. During the year she will move through all the signs and houses of the chart. Thus there will be many short-term financial trends, all depending on where Venus is and the aspects she receives. These are best dealt with in the monthly reports.

With Venus as your financial planet your social skills (and, Aries, you need to develop these more) are a huge factor in earnings. It's not so much your innate ability and merit, though these are important – it's the likeability factor, people skills, the ability to get on with others that are important. When Aries develop these qualities, there's no stopping them. The sky is the limit.

In the Personality Profile we discuss the best financial areas for Aries. These should be reviewed this year.

Your spouse, partner or current love is having financial challenges. He or she feels squeezed. Perhaps some new expense or financial burden has been placed on them. They just need to reorganize things, shift things around here and there, and work to get financially healthier. If they do, they will find that they have all the resources they need. They have been making very dramatic financial changes in the past two years and there is more to come. But after this year, their finances should stabilize.

If you are involved with estates or tax issues, be patient. Only time will resolve things. Borrowing – accessing outside money – is more challenging this year. Again patience and persistence will win the day.

Your favourable financial numbers are 2, 3, 7 and 9.

Though money is not that big a deal, career is very important. What I like here is that you have a great single-minded focus, an intense drive to succeed. This tends to success. We get what we focus on. The only problem here is that you might be too career driven – too fanatic about it. This leads to conflict, strife and perhaps to making some dangerous enemies. There is sort of a 'tunnel vision' when it comes to the career and it can make you unaware of whose toes or turf is being stepped on.

Pluto in the career house indicates that there is great change and transformation happening in your company and industry; deep and fundamental change. The rules can be so changed that it is 'as if' you have embarked on a completely different career. Often Pluto brings 'near-death' experiences in the career. But always keep in mind that after death or near-death experiences comes resurrection and renewal. This is a cosmic law.

Bosses, parents and authority figures in your life are having surgery or near-death kinds of experiences too. The company you work for can be having a near-death experience as well.

Love and Social Life

Your 7th house of love, romance and social activities is a house of power until July 26. Thus there is great focus here. Focus tends to bring success.

However, love is complicated this year. You've recently come through some very stressful love years in 2011 and 2012, perhaps even traumatic years. Many of you divorced. Relationships that survived those years will probably last forever. Although 2013 was a little easier in the love department, it was nothing special.

If you are just coming out of a divorce, you need some quiet time. There is no need to jump into a new relationship too quickly – though perhaps you want to. Uranus in your sign is not especially good for marriage or committed relationships. Uranus craves personal freedom. Too much personal freedom doesn't go well with a committed relationship, which by definition is a 'limitation' of freedom. Those involved romantically with Aries need to understand this. Give them as much space as possible so long as it isn't destructive.

You are very socially active until July 26. You tend to be aggressive and go after what you want. You are creating the social life that you want. You are popular and well liked and you go out of your way for others. This is good. But will this lead to marriage? Unlikely.

Love affairs, though, are very favourable this year – especially after July 16. However, these are more in the nature of entertainment than serious love. My advice is to enjoy them for what they are without projecting too many expectations on to them.

Those working on their first or second marriages are not likely to marry this year. They will date and have fun, but most likely will not marry. Those working on their third
