Chapter I

The hyperactive Indigo Children

It is the year 1962, and finished the Age of Leo, which remained for a period of two millennia. For approximately the last hundred years was that, many babies were born or dubbed Indigo children's future. These fantastic children began to rise as we know in large quantities due to the need that existed at the time of evolution as a species. As such the mission that brought initially was to help in the reform of all existing systems in Social and Educational Humanity.

Except that it did not happen fast enough to match, due to entrenched societies and religions, as well as the non-acceptance by parents and educators of these spectacular Indigo children, as gifted children, which fell by about 85% of births worldwide this time around the year 1955. After their birth these light beings had many times the size of the head a little higher in the rest of the body. This was due to a greater amount of mass head, thus having a greater capacity for reason of all that beheld the brain. One other notable peculiarity that distinguishes them from other children they considered normal, was the fact that they have big eyes and fix other people eyes.

This setting was because the Indigos have a very strong perception of light, and could have the privilege to read the auras of other people, with extreme ease. Also saw angels and other beings of Light, had premonitions and predicted events, accompanied by great intuitive power. They were also holders of a powerful brain structure very different as regards the use of the potential of hemispheric. The left less developed, representing the right side of the physical body. And the right to clear cut more developed than the spiritual. This allowed had the ability to go beyond the intellectual, most of these parents as they witnessed these events as well as more relevant, and do not feel qualified to deal with these children as normal.

These parents often sought in the medical findings that would lead to discern, who actually their children were and what they were born. But to live with the medical science, and was not yet well developed, consolidated at the beginning it was not of facts belonging to a higher spiritual nature. They began to put them on the fringe of society and to regard them as being hyperactive, so during the term of this century these Indigo children, who have always been rising over the Scale but rarely, then had to start fighting against this type of human discrimination. Many of those who had the patience and courage to be able to reach adulthood without being played in its evolution, able to develop certain specific skills, through their human cells, causing them to change certain provisions to remain in the Society, as part of their faces and ways of being, as human beings that were overdeveloped achieved these remarkable achievements, for that time. And families began to accept them, respect them and take pride in having someone with these special gifts in the family.

Society in general found that was not so well with these Indigos, and admitted them as potential sources of structural development, the changes they had to do originally.

They were then initiating the necessary changes, abolishing old habits, beliefs, changing the guidelines that existed on Earth previously imposed by beings more avant-garde, implementing new ways of living for future evolution of the entire human race, thereby bringing a new Peace on Earth.

But the mission that led to the earth at that time was not yet complete, in his quest for survival down these Indigo beings to adapt to the Society going later start to change them. Had to serve more than part of the intellect, taking most of them have dropped a veil over the spiritual evolution, which was also part of their missions in general. Thus giving rise to many disagreements between families, social classes, religions and countries, drawing many of them to war. They felt they needed support for this part was as delicate as Spirituality. They joined then all those who needed to evolve spiritually, whether Indigo or not by asking the Cosmos of Light to send reinforcements, as they had much of an unimpeded path to a new Human Spiritual Awakening.

Chapter II

The Crystal Children with Autism

The age of Leo and the beginning of new era ruled by Aquarius which is justified for a further period of time, 2000 years, it had its beginning on February 4, 1962. By this time as a result of a rare alignment of the Sun with the Milky Way, a new color born and stayed for the next two millennia, as a motivator of spiritual change. The hitherto existing colors that persisted through this time, such as red, orange, yellow, green, blue, violet, and indigo blue, then came to them to join the new color the crystal Universe.

Assuming that these colors formed the Human Auras, after the births of babies since that time, a vast majority of them came to be born with the color Crystal. They then came largely replace the birth of Indigo as well as other beings with other colors of Auras.

They had all the capabilities of the earlier pioneers and explorers Indigos, and more. When they began to incarnate as human, his mission represented the next stage of human spiritual evolution. Were classified as spiritual warriors, and soon began teaching small since the virtues of Dimensional. And because their energies are anchored in the Sixth Dimension, had the ability to open the Ninth Dimension that gave the name of Christ Consciousness. That way they could enter the Peace, Love and Harmony among the other beings in other Auric colors.

They testified how to live lives empowered, as well as recognition of all his powers were confined to the human race. Thus came also assist in connection with the divine energies, due to the high spiritual power they had. A very private individual who also had to communicate was through the eyes. They looked deeply into the eyes of others to feel the Auras of them, was their way of identifying other beings, an aged to introduce this form of communication over time, giving up the spoken language and gestures, passing just to communicate telepathically.

These Crystal children have also suffered at the beginning of its incarnations, because most of them come from their first Reincarnation, hence a new world completely unknown to them, because they were previously only Cosmic Light.

To overcome these shortcomings of previous experiences, helped themselves to the mothers and sometimes their parents, who signed contracts before they were born as a shelter, the Society only and only until the age of seven years. These parents and other caregivers were the first to feel that something strange was happening in the relationship between them and these Crystal children, something that has not happened to other children born earlier. This fact was due to these children right from babies; they can access the registry of the Aura, and therefore could feel the anger, tension, their parents entailed in their subconscious, starting at how to begin to change the behaviors of these parents. Among several behaviors that these children had Crystal, one of them was their personal energy powers, worthy of great spiritual masters.

Other multidimensional skills that come with them were having the ability to read people's energy fields, so how to move large objects and weights through the mind, could read books without opening them as well as the levitation of bodies, due to the extraordinary capabilities Crystalline unusual that these children had, only parents and guardians or other more developed spiritual beings. Interacting with them the feeling is that they could identify who they were. And that brought the mission to accomplish on Earth; the latter gave them the name of peacemakers among others Sacred in vogue by humans, the others who had not been touched by these children Spiritual Light Crystal, they began to put aside in Society, as they did with the Indigo, considering the crazy or autistic.

Only to the extent that the more children were born in Crystal increasing amounts. These beings of light more antiquated, were affected by the new Crystal Light. And many are forced to change their concepts to these children regardless of their ages Crystalline, moving to a new consciousness born within them, leading to rushing into a new spiritual awakening.

Chapter III

The Crystal Children / Indigo

At that time during the transition, most babies born Planetary Crystal, their auras were the color of pure crystal, after starting to develop to an older adult, many of them to be misunderstood by the Society that region. They chose to hide their original cravings and that if they intended to do. Many have chosen though opposed by living in an intellectual way, many times a decision of the Society.

These beings, because they have a system very advanced bio-rhythm, not giving vent spiritual energies, which retained in themselves, were forced many times to gain certain habits of dependencies, as consumption of drugs, hard drugs, or alcoholism among others. Which in time led to atrophy were increasingly in primary essence? Many of them are dying with advanced age but these aspects have, often unconsciously, to enforce some of their visits to Earth, other Crystal / Indigo, who when the spark of Light Spiritual touched them, and was streaked color Indigo. These could easily situate some of its energy on Earth. Why could apply energy Indigo or Crystal as a form of self-defense. Later when the ages have changed, most of them are updated by changing the color indigo, which had for the entire crystal.

There were also spiritual beings of Light Crystal, these even rarer to find, they have always been rising over the millennia, though more narrowly. These pioneers were the first crystal, known as Buddha, Christ and other Masters of Light Realized or Enlightened. Who had already made all the wheel rises up Reincarnations Spiritual totals? And decided to do one last Reincarnation them to be one of the hallmarks of Spiritual Light, or the future of other beings as they follow their footsteps Crystal Sacred.

Many of them were never identified, who were discovered in general were killed or burned alive regarded those as witches, or mad because they rebelled against the ways that societies had for their peers not accepting them.

Because of these barbaric events, Crystal beings as they began to feel that their frank complacency, humility and love, was not well accepted by Moor other beings more economically affluent. Who held high positions in the Social World, and served this power to kill whoever he was, to bring new hopes of progress poorer classes. Thus passed during a good part of life to live hooded, patiently applying their skills to others without making themselves known and get noticed, because one of the largest capacities that the beings of Light Crystal had was to heal the illnesses of other beings, whether animals or humans, due to its facilities to penetrate the souls of these beings and leading them to heal from there. And therefore, after that they felt their souls strengthened by Spiritual Energy.

Such changes were bound to happen because as people of color also Crystal, the universe began to feel a greater quantity of crystalline light, causing them to wake up even more than they already were, going to have a greater power of nature Spiritual Energy. Because of this change the new Light Crystal Planet, began to relocate the beings that were basically carbon for crystalline beings.

These new DNA sequences only exist in higher dimensional levels. This change has been great traction bodies now have only two DNA sequences to 1,024 sequences, this does not affect only humans but also all vertebrates and invertebrates, like everything else he lived and remained at the top of the Earth. Human beings as a whole had to get rid of their old prejudices that kept them tied to the 3rd dimension, both mentally and physically, starting a new path to tread Spiritual higher. As all these changes were needed in human evolution were extremely fast. But most people did not feel ready, how not live spiritually, served only the physical body and mind as well as everything that was created by her. These ancient humans, naturally those who have accepted these new changes in his being passed easily and quickly this new set of changes, which it gave the new DNA sequence.

Only the remaining, who was the majority of the world, began to suffer increasingly from new diseases and diseases previously unknown to the medical and scientific at the time, although it evolved a little mental and physical fields, spiritual but not in the field, with the sole exception of small groups that are especially dedicated to these types of cures, the compounds which were in general by Indigo / Crystal and Crystal pure. Crystalline these beings were then begun to be sought by people to be treated and cured, as it had for many centuries earlier, before being discovered and applied to modern medicine. These beings of Crystal Light, for their remarkable ability to penetrate the souls of these patients, and heal through the Light They began to be called the Trustees of Souls.

These names appeared because many humans have never despised, its geological roots came from ancient tribes, who continue to perpetuate from generation to generation the teachings and practices of their ancestors. With regard to treatments or healers also called Trustees. They began to admit this Crystalline and venerate them as they did to their ancestors.
