Introduction

Nobody is born in this world with the innate propensity to attain prosperity and abundance. Building abundance prosperity and wealth in all aspects of life is a life-long process. Mistakes will be made along the way but if used to your advantage, those mistakes will increase your ability in attracting abundance in your life.

All of us have different, pre-conceived notions of abundance and prosperity. Certain turns and twists in life will challenge these notions. Eventually, your way of manifesting abundance will adjust as you grow older and wiser.

The first step in bringing prosperity and abundance in your life is to want it. If you have enough desire for abundance and prosperity, it will be easier to attract both in to your life. Prosperity and abundance increase when you are able to enjoy and relish the abundance and prosperity that is already in your life.

Allow yourself to bask in the abundance of your life. It doesn't matter what you consider abundant. It does not even have to match the abundance you see in your favorite celebrities.

Your favorite actress may seem to have it all beautiful face, fit body, a legion of fans, luxury cars, signature clothes, and a personal assistant, just to name a few. But you also have something that she does not have. She does not have the abundance of time and relaxation. With her job, it comes once in a blue moon.

But for a person who works a 9 to 5 job, he or she can spare time for family, friends, and other hobbies. Expensive gourmet restaurants may be out of reach but for a regular person, it can be prepared at home and with the help of family and friends. Manifesting abundance can be done in so many ways. Once you cherish the existence of abundance in your life, no matter what form, your ability to attract abundance will naturally improve.

You can also improve your ability to attract abundance and prosperity by feeding your prosperity consciousness. It is the ability to weed out negative thoughts and replace it with positive ones. You can do this by visualizing your dreams every day.

Allow your imagination to run free but be realistic. Don't only imagine your dreams; also imagine yourself working your way towards it. Connecting your final destination (dream) and journey (steps to fulfill it) will motivate you to work harder. The positive energy you gain through visualization will power you to work for prosperity and attract it.

The ultimate myth of mankind is that prosperity and abundance are only bestowed upon a handful. The truth is, everyone is born with the power to attract abundance and prosperity. The degree of abundance and prosperity you gain is determined by your actions.

Raise Your Abundance Vibration
In 5 Easy Ways

The Energy And Grace of Abundant Prosperity

To have abundant prosperity in our lives requires a mix of both the mundane and spiritual. As we are both human and spirit, we need a balance of harmonies to be the energy and grace of abundant prosperity. The following suggestions are to help you find - and keep - that balance.

Honoring Money

Too often we equate money with greed, but money can be a spiritual source. It can help our lives be more comfortable and it can help many, many others.

We need to recognize that money is a helpful tool, that there is nothing inherently evil about money, and having a lot of money may allow us to serve even more. Money buys medicine for the sick, food for the hungry, homes for the homeless. Money allows research to find answers to help humanity live in more harmony with all life and build a brighter future for all the children of the world.

Greed and misuse of money is a fact of the reality of our world today, but do not put your concentration there. As someone on the spiritual path, keep your focus on how abundant prosperity can help make your life and all life better.

Create a Relationship with Money

What is your relationship with money? I've learned over the years that I get bored with money, so to have abundant prosperity, I've had to change my attitude.

I've had to make money fun and I've had to change my attitude to convince myself that money is good and it brings me great happiness and allows me to serve others with greater devotion. If I'm worried about paying the mortgage, I can't serve my clients as well as when I know all that I need is provided for. One allows me to serve from a fullness of my heart; the other from a place of lack.

Like any relationship when we are concentrating on the goodness of the relationship, more of the goodness manifest in our lives.

Staying In Integrity with Money

Be honest with yourself and others. It's that simple and yet it can seem so difficult at times. Whatever we owe - to an individual, to an institution, or to the government - we must pay.

My bane is record keeping for taxes. Quite frankly, it's a pain to keep meticulous records. People pay me for psychic readings and coaching sessions by check; Sacred Circle donations are in cash. It would be so much easier if I didn't have to take time to report this money, to add it all up at the end of every month and again at the end of the year, and to pay taxes for that which I don't support in my heart. But it's not about the tax man and me. It's about my telling the Universe I am grateful for all that I have been given this year and that I can afford to pay that which is asked of me.

Certainly I don't pay any more than is asked of me, but I must pay what is asked or be open and honest about choosing to not pay because I am taking a stand, and be prepared to pay the consequences.

Live with a Generous Heart and Collect Your Debts

Be generous; allow money to move in and through you, and at the same time, respect yourself and money enough that you collect any money owed to you. If you cannot collect the debt, then make a conscious decision to write it off and change the energy from a debt to a donation.

Practice the Practice

Create your vision boards, read magazines about wealth, and practice the tools that help you manifest. Dig into your attitudes about money and change them to ones that create wealth instead of pushing it away.

Go pretend shopping, learn about investing, join or start a money-making club, write yourself large checks (don't cash them) and post them where you can see them, go for a walk and chant an affirmation, and when you visualize money put yourself in the vision. Keep practicing until you become the vision and embody abundant prosperity.

God is your source.

By whatever name God/Universe/Spirit /love/Energy, this is your source of all abundance. No other. You may think your job is your source, but your job may end. You may think a person is your source, but not so. God/Universe/Spirit/love/Energy, this is your source of all abundance. Remember this.

What Kind of Faith Delivers the Goods?

Abundant prosperity requires living by the right kind of faith. It is through faith that we touch the very source of life. If we could measure a man's faith we could come very near to predicting accurately the measure of his success in life.

TWO KINDS OF FAITH

There is a specific kind of faith that will deliver the abundant goods for a prosperous life. The kind of faith required is heart faith.

BELIEVING WITH YOUR HEAD FAITH

First let's talk about the kind of faith that does NOT deliver the goods - head faith.

Chances are you've heard of this type of faith found in a man often referred to as 'Doubting Thomas'. Thomas did not believe the other disciples when they said they saw the Lord. Thomas only believes after he himself sees Jesus. Jesus says blessed are those that have NOT seen, and yet believed. (You can read this account in John chapter twenty of the Bible.)

The point is: head faith only believes what it can see and feel and is based on mental reasoning.

BELIEVING WITH YOUR HEART FAITH

Heart faith is what delivers the goods. Heart faith believes regardless of what it sees and in spite of circumstances.

No wonder Abraham is a primary example of someone whose faith was of the heart. In Romans chapter four it says Abraham believed in what was spoken even though he couldn't see it. He didn't consider the present situation in unbelief, but was strong in faith and fully persuaded.

What happens when you have real faith of the heart? Faith in your heart produces results.

By the way, it's no surprise that a lot of people struggle because they have doubt in their minds. But I want to point out that you can still get results even when you have some doubts in your mind.

Jesus says we can have what we say if we do not doubt in our heart. (Mark 11:23) And then Proverbs 3:5 tells us to trust the Lord with all our heart, and lean not on our own understanding (thoughts and feelings).

The simple fact of the matter is this: True faith is of the heart and not the head. What is in the heart of our being is who we are and what we become.

"As a man thinks in his heart, so is he." -- Proverbs 23:7

Faith comes by hearing the Word of God. So take time to listen to the Word in the area you believe to receive.

Doesn't it make sense to harness this dynamic heart faith to produce abundant prosperity in your life? Now you can. And confessing and speaking the powerful phrases of The Word is one of the most effective ways to attract abundance.

May you live by heart faith and continue to experience growing prosperity!
