The Good Person

One may say, if I do my best to live a good life, and always try to do that which is right; I believe God would allow me into heaven when my time ends here on this earth. Because you see, I feel am actually a good person.

Well it's sad when you hear someone say something like that above. But there are actually people believing if they live their life in a way that seems good to them, that some how their so-call righteousness will outweigh their bad, and God is going to welcome them in heaven with open arms when they die. But we that know the truth from God's word, knows that ones own righteousness, and so-call good works, will not get them into heaven, anymore then a zebra can change its own strips.

Because the Bible says there is none righteous, no, not one. And it says our so-call righteousness in nothing more then filthy rags.

Romans 3:10-11 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

Isaiah 64:6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

But it's because of ones own ignorance, that one goes about trying to establish their own righteousness, instead of righteousness that only comes by God's grace, through faith, in believing on His Son Jesus Christ and what He done for us.

Romans 10:3-4 For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

Now one can see, it's not by one's own righteousness, and so-call good works that a person can be saved from their sins and be able to go to heaven. But it's by God's grace, that a person can be saved from their sins, and would be able to enter into heaven. So it's by God's grace, that one can have the faith to be able to believe on His only begotten Son Jesus Christ, to be saved. And it's a gift from God: Not by works.

Ephesians 2:8 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.

Romans 3:22-26 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him. John 3:36

Does not this one verse say alot. It speaks of the saved, and the lost person.

First the saved person is the one who believeth that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. So because we do believe, we now have peace with God, and our sins has been forgiven, and we are now called God's sons and daughters, and we will forever be with him, and He with us. Praise God! And all of this was made possible, by God's grace, through faith in believing on His Son Jesus Christ.

Then you have the lost person that believth not, that Jesus is the Son of God. So because of that, they are dead toward God, and the wrath of God abideth on them. Because they haven't had their sins washed away; by that precious blood of Jesus Christ.

John 3:16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

John 3:18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

Romans 5:1-2 Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

Romans 5:9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

If you're not saved; I pray by God's grace, and by the power of His Holy Spirit, that you would though faith, believe on His Son Jesus Christ, and what He done for you, so that you can be saved.

Before one can truly be thankful to God, they have to know God. But before one can know or be known of God, they must know the way to God. And that way is only through His Son Jesus Christ.

John 14:6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Ephesians 2:17-18 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. For through him (Jesus Christ) we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

Galatians 3:26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

Thankful for God's Holy word

I thank God for His Holy word. I can remember around 17 years ago how God saved me there in that hospital room, by His grace. And how afterward I became hungry for God's word and wanted to hear, and read His word, so I could grow thereby as a Christian.

1 Peter 2:2-3 As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious.

I can remember before God saved me through His Son Jesus Christ, and by the power of His Holy Spirit, that there was times that I would pick up the Bible and try to read it, or make some sense of it. But I couldn't get hold of what it was talking about, or make any sense of it. But it was because a lost person truly can't receive, or know the things of the Spirit of God, because they have not God's Holy Spirit living within them.

1 Corinthians 2:14 But the natural man (un-saved person) receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

John 8:47 He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

But after being saved, God's word came alive, and it made sense to me. And I was able to read, and hear what God had to say to me. And since then, I have been able to grow as a Christian, because of His Word.

Ephesians 1:13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise.

2 Timothy 2:15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

2 Timothy 3:16-17 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

Colossians 3:16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

Do You know Him?

Do you know the One who knew no sin, but became sin for you? And loved you so much that He laid down His life for you, and suffered like no other man has ever suffered before. Do you know Him? Who allowed sinful men to beat Him, scourged Him with a whip, crown with thorns that pierced His head, mocked Him, was spit on, and allowed them to crucify Him.

John 18:22: And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

John 19:1: Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. (Scourged means: of inflicting severe suffering, or punishment. A whip used to inflict punishment.)

Matthew 27:29: And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

Matthew 27:30: And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

Matthew 27:31: And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him. (Crucify means: to execute someone by nailing them to a cross with metal spikes. Their hands are stretched out on the crossbeam and with spikes driven through their wrists or hands. Their feet or ankles are attached to a cross with a metal spike. Crucify also means: kill, persecute, torment, torture, afflict, and agonize.)

Do you know Him? Not just His name, which everyone knows it's Jesus, that the Holy Bible scriptures is speaking of. What am asking, do you know Him personally, as your Lord and Saviour? Have you believed in Him who was without sin, but became sin for you. For God allowed our sins to be placed on Him, and He suffered by shedding His blood, and dying for those sins which was ours, so we could be made righteous in Him.

2 Corinthians 5:21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

So the price has been paid for your sins. And it was at a great price of God's only begotten Son who shed His blood, and died in our place. And was buried and God raised Him up on the third day. So because of that, you can now be saved by God's grace, through faith in believing on His Son Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 15:1-4 Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures.

The Greatest Gift

Had a birthday yesterday, it was my 41st. birthday. Am thankful for all of the birthday wishes I received, and the gifts that I had gotten. But you know I was thinking last night about the greatest gift that I had ever received, and it came from God. It has been over 16 years now since I had received that gift from God, and I can say that gift just keeps getting better and better as time goes by. And even in death it's going to keep on giving. Praise God. And this free gift was given to me by God's grace, and by faith in believing on His Son Jesus Christ. But even know it was free for me to receive, it came at a great cost, and that was the shed blood, and death of my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who died for me.

So I do thank God for His grace, and my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ for taking upon Himself my sins, and suffering and dying in my place, so I was able to be saved. So it was God's Son Jesus Christ, that took my and your place. He was our representative. All the punishment we deserved because of our sins - He suffered. Someone had to pay the penalty for divine justice to be satisfied. Jesus paid it for us, so we could receive the free gift of salvation.

Now if you're not saved, you can receive that same gift, by believing by faith that God sent His Son into this world; to suffer and die for our sins, and on the third day God raised Him from the dead. So because Jesus Christ has paid for our sin debt in full, and had victory over death, hell, and the grave. So we that believe and are saved, has that same victory in Jesus Christ our Lord. Praise God.

1 Corinthians 15:55-57 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law (ten commandments). But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 6:23 For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 3:23-26 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

Lord God; help us that are Christians, not to be worldly motivated, but spiritually motivated---Daily being lead by thou Holy Spirit.

The Baby Leopard

A baby leopard was washing himself over and over again. The mother leopard seen the baby leopard washing itself over and over again, using its tongue, front legs and paws. So she asked, why is it that you keep on washing yourself over and over again. The baby leopard replied by saying: am trying to wash off all of these spots from my fur. (haha)

Well that may sound funny about the baby leopard, but there are alot of people who are trying to wash themselves from all of the spots of sins that covers them. Many may think if they try to be good, and do good works, or be baptized, or by joining a church, or praying ten times a day, or etc..., that their sins could be washed away, and their sins be forgiven. But let me tell you something; just as it's impossible for a leopard to wash the spots off it's fur. It's just as impossible for a person to be able to cleanse themselves from their sins. Well you may be asking yourself; how then can I have all my sins washed away? Here is a short answer to your question ---Nothing but the blood of Jesus Christ.

1 John 1:7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

Ephesians 2:13 But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

Revelation 1:5 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood.

Romans 3:22-26 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

A smile and a kind word -- can make someone's day.

Colossians 3:12-14 Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

A word you don't hear to much about these days is the word "Fornication".

Even know it's happening all around us, from young kids up to the elderly. For some reason these days people don't seem to have a problem with having a Sexual relationship with one another, being not married to each other. (Fornication: Sexual intercourse between a man and a woman who are not married to each other).

Many people may think it's alright to live in that type of lifestyle. But just because the world approves of it, and promotes it, as being alright; through tv, radio, magazines, at some schools, and etc... By no means make it right. Let God be true, and every man a liar. Other words if God's word says it's not good and that it's a sin, that is what it is. It doesn't matter who may think it's alright to commit such a thing as fornication, because we should obey God, and not what this world may say is alright to do, and not to do.

I guess I can see how a lost person can commit fornication, and it really not bother him or her that is doing such a thing. For a lost person, it's their sinful nature, that leads them to do such things as that. And at the same time they don't have God's Holy Spirit within them constantly convicting them, that it's not good to be living in that type of lifestyle.

But if there is one going around confessing to be a Christian, and is committing fornication, that is not good. Because God warns Christians that they shouldn't do such a thing.

1 Thessalonians 4:3-4 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication: That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour.

1 Corinthians 6:17-20 But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit. Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

So if one is claiming to be a Christian and is committing fornication; and if they don't feel God is disciplining them, or if they don't feel God's Holy Spirit within them constantly convicting them. Maybe they should examine themselves to be sure they are truly saved.

2 Corinthians 13:5 Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

I believe in god

Some may say; I know am not perfect, but I do believe in god. Am not like them atheist who disbelieves there is a god. So I believe with me just believing in god, that He accepts me as I am. I believe I have a personal relationship with him; and when I die I will forever be with him in heaven. Because I believe in him and I love him, and he loves me.

You may have notice that I used lowercase letters on the (g) for god instead of using capital letters. The reason is the god that they are speaking of is not the God of the Bible, it's an imaginary god that they have created, that will accept them as they are. So they have created an idol that replaces the one true God; which the Bible calls committing idolatry. Now if they would just take the time and read what God's word says, they would realize that their god is nothing more then an imaginary god, that they have made that suits them and will accept their lifestyle no matter what it may be.

Lets take a look at God's word, and see how a person can have a personal relationship with the true God of the Bible.

John 14:6 - Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

1 Peter Chapter 3:18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:

2 Corinthians 5:17-19 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

So now by having read what God's word says; one can see that the only way that a person can have a personal relationship with the true God is through His Son Jesus Christ. And it's only through Jesus Christ that a person can have their sins forgiven and be made worthy to be called a son or daughter of the one and only true God.

1 Corinthians 1:30-31 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

Ephesians 1:7 In whom we have redemption through his (Jesus) blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace.

Romans 6:23 - For the wages of sin [is] death; but the gift of God [is] eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Funerals

Am sure most of us has attended a funeral to pay our last respects to that person that has passed on, or to just have one last chance of seeing that person's body here on this earth. And as you may have attended that person's funeral, you may have seen the deceased body in the casket and people viewing him or her.

And after the viewing of the body maybe a pastor or others may have been standing up above the casket speaking good and comforting words about that person to their family and friends. And afterwards you may have seen or may have even been one of the pallbearers carrying the casket out to the hearse, so it could be taken to the grave site. And then there at the grave site a few more words may have been spoken of the deceased before being lowered down into the ground where the deceased will be seen no more here on this earth.

I sometimes think maybe it's good for us to attend a funeral. So it will remind us on how short and temporal our lives are here on this earth. And to remind us before we know it, that same funeral we may have attended to see a love one or just someone we knew for the last time-- will be us one day.

So one day we all will be lowered down into a grave and seen no more here on this earth. But the most important thing is where is your soul going---- the real you, not the body that is going to be placed in a grave one day. The soul is the real you. The body is just being used as a temporal place for your soul to dwell in. And once your soul leaves your body (it) that is your body, is not good for nothing, but for the grave. But your soul the real you will either go to heaven or hell. There is no in-between, one or the other. In God's Word it says in:

2 Corinthians 13:5 Examine yourselves, whether you be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know you not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except you be reprobates?

Does Christ dwell in you or are you a reprobate? Other words are you saved or lost? Am not asking are you a Christian. Because most people probably think they are. Because you got some believing their a Christian because they was baptized when they where a baby, or one being older in age got baptized without being saved first. For them water baptism did nothing for them, just coming up out of the water a wet lost sinner instead of a dry one.

Or some may believe they are a Christian because they try to live a good life and do good works thinking they can please God and earn their way into heaven. But in God's Word it says in:

Isaiah 64:6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousness are as filthy rags.

continue----->

----> Romams 3: 10-12 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

So it's not by self-righteousness, or so called good works that a person becomes a Christian. It's only by God's grace through faith in his Son Jesus Christ, and is a gift from God, (not by works). So no one can boast about what they done to be saved, because it's by God's grace.

Ephesians 2:8,9 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:Not of works, lest any man should boast.

So my prayer and hope is, that you will examine yourself to see if you're truly saved or not. If not; I would plea with you that you would humble yourself before God, and ask Him to send His Holy Spirit down to convince and show you that you are a sinner and need forgiveness, and that it's only by God's grace, through faith in His Son Christ Jesus, that you can be saved.

Are you ashamed to confess Jesus Christ before men? Or do you just deny Him altogether. If you're one of these people, then here is what God's word, says about you.

Mark 8:38 Whosoever therefore shall be (ashamed) of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be (ashamed), when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

Luke12:8-9 Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall (confess) me before men, him shall the Son of man also (confess) before the angels of God: (But he that (denieth) me before men shall be denied before the angels of God).

1 John 2:22-23 Who is a liar but he that (denieth) that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that (denieth) the Father and the Son. Whosoever (denieth) the Son, the same hath not the Father...

So if you're ashamed of Jesus Christ, and deny Him. You shouldn't be surprised if you die in your sins being not saved, that Christ is going to be ashamed of you, and deny you.

Romans 10:11 For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him (Jesus Christ) shall not be (ashamed).

Romans 1:16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth...

A Man Named John

There was a man named John, that had everything the world had to offer him. Anything he seen or thought of could and would be his. He had money, gold, silver, and all types of jewels. He had a large mansion with men and women servants, as well as all types of luxury automobiles. He knew people that could get him anything that he wanted or desired. He had the best doctors that the world had to offer, but he had never needed them being 35 years of age, he had always been in good health. And his doctor had told him that he was as healthy as an 18 year old.

So he felt that he had it good and knowing he had everything he wanted or needed, and thinking he had many years ahead of him where he could just pretty much eat, drink, and be merry, and just enjoy all of the pleasures that this would had to offer him.

Now there came a day where John was driving down the road heading back home, when all of sudden his tire blew out on his car. So he pulled over on side of the road and he started to call someone on his cell phone, but all of sudden there was someone knocking on his car window door. It was a man asking him if he needed help changing his car tire. But he told him he would just call and get someone to come there and fix it. But the man insisted he would change the tire for him. So John went ahead and let him.

So after the man changed John's tire for him, John offered to pay him money, but the man would not take it. But the man did ask John if he was saved. John replied by saying saved from what? So the man explained to him about Jesus the Righteous One who became sin who knew no sin. How He suffered for our sins by shedding His blood and hanging on that old rugged cross. And how He died for our sins, and on the third day God raised Him up from the dead, so that we can be justified through Him (Christ Jesus). And that it's only through Jesus Christ that one can be saved from their sins, and be saved from being condemned to hell.

So after the man got finished sharing with John the good news of Jesus Christ. John said I don't need your Jesus, I got everything I need and more. I am rich and in good health and my doctor tells me I should be able to live to be 80 or more, before I die. You come see me when I get 79 years old, then maybe I will see about getting saved. But until then am going to keep enjoying all of the pleasures that this would has to offer, and live the way I feel is right.

So the man wish John a good day and left. So John went on home and laid down in bed, but all of sudden a sharp pain run up his arm and his chest, then everything turned black, and John died at the age of 35, being not saved.

The moral of this story is, that people shouldn't put their trust and hope in the things of this world, which can do nothing for them once death comes. Which could happen at any time. No matter how young or healthy one may seem to be, death can come when one may least expect it. And all of the money, material things, and pleasures of this world, will be no more. The only thing a lost person will receive after death, will be hell, because they died in their sins being not saved.

One's Outward Appearance

No one should ever think they are better than someone else because their skin color may be lighter or darker than someone else's. Because a person's skin color doesn't determine who that person is, or that person's character ----> (Aspects of a person's behavior and attitudes, that make up that person's personality. Everyone has character traits, both good and bad).

So we should never judge a person by their skin color, but by their character. And everyone should know that the only thing that determines if a person's skin is going to be light or dark, is the amount of Melanin that is in their skin. (Melanin: The pigment that gives human skin, hair, and eyes their color. Dark-skinned people have more melanin in their skin, than light-skinned people have). So if we all could just get pass on how someone looks on the outside, and get to know that person's character which makes that person who he or she is, this world would be a much better place to live in.

And guess what. We all have the same blood running through our veins which came from our first parents, Adam and Eve. Acts 17:26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth...

If God is not a respecter of persons and doesn't look on the outer appearance, but the heart. Shouldn't we do the same.

Romans 2:11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

1 Samuel 16:7 But the Lord said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart.

So I believe unlike us, God only sees two type of people, those that are His and those that are not. For one to become His, they must be saved by His mercy and grace and faith in His Son Jesus Christ.

Romans 8:9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

Galatians 3:26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

So people should be more concerned about if they are truly saved or not. Instead of given place to Satan's lies of one thinking they are superior than others, because of ones outer appearance. None of us are any better than anyone else, because we all have sinned and come short of the glory of God.

Romans 3:23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.

Romans 5:12 Wherefore, as by one man (Adam) sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned.

Only thing that can make a person better; is by one being saved, then yes, they are better, because they have had their sins forgiven, and have made peace with God. Which was not of ourselves, but it was a gift from God, and by faith in believing on His Son Jesus Christ.

*Either you have been made righteous in Jesus Christ.
Or you have no righteousness at all.*

Romans 3: 10-12 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

2 Corinthians 5:21 - For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

Romans 5:21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

1 Corinthians 1:30-31 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

Romans 3:22-26 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

Which road are you traveling on? The broad way which will lead to destruction, and hell. Or the narrow which leads to everlasting life in heaven.

I will make it easy for you. If Jesus Christ is not your Lord and Savior, you're on that broad road headed straight for destruction and hell.

But If you're traveling down that narrow way; you have been saved by God's grace and by faith in believing on His Son Jesus Christ. And the end thereof will be everlasting life in heaven; where there will be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain.

Revelation 21:4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

1 Corinthians 2:9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

Believing unto Salvation

Romans 1:16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

John 3:15 That whosoever believeth in him (Christ Jesus) should not perish, but have eternal life.

John 3:16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

John 3:18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

John 3:36 He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

John 6:47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me (Jesus Christ) hath everlasting life.

John 11:25-26 Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

John 20:31 But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

Romans 3:22-26 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

Romans 10:9-11 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

Ephesians 1:13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise.

Fulfillment and Contentment

There are a lot of people that are going about seeking fulfillment and contentment in the things that this world has to offer them. But many have found out that the things of this world can't bring them the fulfillment or contentment, that they have been seeking for.

Many have sought for them in money, fame, in work, religion, other people, as well in other things that this world has offered them. Which for a short time these things may have given them a sense of fulfillment and contentment, but before long they found out those things to be nothing more than an illusion, that only last for a short time, then fades away to nothing. But unfortunately many will just keep seeking after the things of this world; hoping one day that they may find that true fulfillment and contentment that they have been seeking for.

But thank God; for the people who God has opened their eyes, and showed them that true fulfillment and contentment will never come being apart from His Son Jesus Christ. It's only through Jesus Christ that one will ever find that fulfillment and contentment that they have been seeking for. So for you all that are still seeking for those things; I would ask that you would cry out to God, and ask Him to open your eyes, heart, and mind, to the truth, that is in His Son Jesus Christ, so that you can be saved. And then you will be able to have that true fulfillment and contentment which only comes by God's grace and faith in His Son Jesus Christ.

Fulfillment - When one becomes saved that true fulfillment comes in by knowing we now are at peace with God, and His Holy Spirit now dwells within us. And also knowing that true fulfillment doesn't come from ourselves or other things, but only in the things that comes from God. Which is love, peace, comfort, joy, everlasting life, and of course contentment - because we know that God our Father will never leave us, nor forsake us.

Hebrews 13:5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

What we Christians have and are in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
