Foreword

At one point many of us even me thought to sacrifice myself and do service to the mankind when I saw the ignorance, poverty, disability, etc., of many people. After trying to set up a social service organization I understood the pros and cons of it as I was a fresher in employment and belong to middle class family, even, I know if we decide to do only social service any means we can do it whatever is our situation. At that time I did not take it as my full time career. But I didn't want to leave the service then I thought about many ways & decided to do it in another way. I got many ideas to do it and practiced many. Later I started Aanandeeswara Volunteering.

Now through this book I am sharing the practical and simple ideas. They are simple but very effective. These are not for Sages and highest life sacrificing people, but these are for the common people. This is not only for the kind hearted, mentally rich and humanized humans, but also for self-centered who can do service and have humanity and get benefited by doing so.

If you are in service already, use this for the others to initiate.

In this book, I would like to point out the ways we can do service to this universe without disturbing our regular work, doing works with humanity and leave a legacy.

Please take it as initiative and start with any idea which I share in this book or your own idea because you know very well than I about your situation and your interest.

I hope you like and share it. Please mention that how many copies you shared.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

With the deepest gratitude I wish to thank my parents, grandparents and especially my brother, whose patience and support was instrumental in accomplishing this task. I also thank the lecturers who taught me from my childhood and each and every atom from which I am continuously illuminating and learning.

Special Thanks to Sri N China Rajappa, Deputy CM, Home & Disaster Management Minister of AP for releasing this book.

The concepts are the result of collections from my thoughts and from various sources, such as newspapers, magazines, internet, and books of various writers, speeches of many speakers and trainings of many trainers. Regardless of the source, I wish to express my gratitude to those who may have contributed to this work, even though anonymously.

I have to specially express my gratitude to The Creator who has given the thoughts and getting things done by/ through me.

Each of us will one day be judged

by our standard of life,

not by our standard of living;

by our measure of giving,

not by our measure of wealth;

by our simple goodness,

not by our seeming greatness.

~ William Arthur Ward.

Humanity!....Why?

You can have everything in life you want
if you will just help enough other people get what they want. ~ Zig Ziglar

You born as a Human, a highly blessed, civilized being and you are born in this country, this state, this District, this locality and in this family with a purpose; you have to find it out to fulfill that desired purpose and in order to achieve your purposeful goal you have a lot of ways. In the process you live in a way which influence others and you be benefited and may others be benefited. If you live only for your life and used others and be benefited then you would leave this world without life after your leaving. To live in this world even after physically leaving this world you have to do very good or very bad or great things or create wonders or live for others....choose any one.

Whatever is your situation and present status as a Human you should have humanity, I know every one even a criminal have it.

We connected each other:

We are all social beings and we depend on each other and our lives effect by the action of each other's. We can't escape from the effects. Mother Teresa once said, "If we have no peace, it is because we have forgotten that we belong to each other." Think, observe, analyse and believe that we are need each other and we belong to each other irrespective of religion, caste, village, district, state, country and even continent.

"I have no country to fight for; my country is the earth; I am a citizen of the world." — Eugene V. Debs,

We connected each other and depended on each other. Our acts effects or sometimes affects others and other's acts effects or sometimes affects our lives, the intensity changes. You should agree this, because it is true. If you have doubt, analyse the situations and go through the chapter "We don't Know". If you understand this, you could act with humanity. If you give to others, you should receive form others, it is the Law. A magnet attracts magnetic materials. If you have strong humanity, the people who have humanity may come to your circle. Your chances of leading a happy life increases. So have humanity.

"Each of us is a unique strand in the intricate web of life and here to make a contribution." - Deepak Chopra

Other is not a good one:

We come across to many persons, all of them may not be good but I strongly believe that they have a lot of good in them. The conditions or situations may make them like that or maybe they are acting like that.

As Mother Teresa said, “If you judge people, you have no time to love them.” If you judge the people you may definitely find some fault in them. If your guess is wrong what happens! Don’t judge too much but be careful. Think about the final good objective.

“If you treat people right they will treat you right
... ninety percent of the time.”

- Franklin D. Roosevelt

What I say is, you should have humanity on all because you are humane and you are a good person, it is about you and not others.

“The greatness of humanity is not in being human,
but in being humane.” — *Mahatma Gandhi

Is it a life?

“A life not lived for others is not a life.”

- Mother Teresa

The life we live is a gift of our parents, their parents..., our teachers, our society, etc., Is the life of a one, who didn't concerned about them and worked for his self, considered a life?

“To live is the rarest thing in the world. Most people exist, that is all.” — Oscar Wilde

The quality of life is more important than the luxuries we enjoyed.

“Doing nothing for others is the undoing of ourselves.” — Horace Mann

“I am not just here to make a living; I am here to make a life.” — Helice Bridges

“Only a life lived in the service to others is worth living”. —Albert Einstein.

Even if we work for our self correctly without cruelty and cheating then we definitely either consciously or unconsciously we serve others. But what I ask you is add humanity to our work. If you add humanity the work which you do starts serving. The quality of your life starts improving. Then others say it is the life.

When a child is born, who rejoices? The parents, relatives, and friends. But who cries?

The child. However, when we die, it should be the other way round. We should be rejoicing and have the satisfaction that we made a contribution to the world and left the world a little better place than we found it. Let the world cry that it has lost a good soul and become poorer. We were not just takers, we were also givers.

Hindu philosophy believes that when good people pass away, they don't die, they only depart. Their names live on forever through their good deeds.

Think of the last time you heard a eulogy. As people pay their respects, the most common things talked about are the little acts of kindness performed by the person during his lifetime. Little acts of kindness don't go un-noticed. In fact, they are remembered a lot more after a person is gone. That is the time people realize how much those little acts of kindness meant to them.

-unknown /

No person was ever honored for what he received. Honor has been the reward for what he gave.

- Calvin Coolidge

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE REMEMBERED?

About a hundred years ago, a man looked at the morning newspaper and to his surprise and horror, read his name in the obituary column. The newspapers had reported the death of the wrong person by mistake. His first response was shock. Am I here or there?

When he regained his composure, his second thought was to find out what people had said about him. The obituary read, "Dynamite King Dies." And also "He was the merchant of death." This man was the inventor of dynamite and when he read the words "merchant of death," he asked himself a question, "Is this how I am going to be remembered?"

" He got in touch with his feelings and decided that this was not the way he wanted to be remembered. From that day on, he started working toward peace. His name was Alfred Nobel and he is remembered today by the great Nobel Prize.

Just as Alfred Nobel got in touch with his feelings and redefined his values, we should step back and do the same.

What is your legacy? How would you like to be remembered? Will you be spoken well of? Will you be remembered with love and respect? Will you be missed?

-Author unknown (I apologies)

If you an atheist:

... and believes that each of us has equal power and opportunity to rise high, then if you ask me why should I help others?

Find your answers from these:

Science is a beautiful gift to humanity; we should not distort it. -A. P. J. Abdul Kalam.

Someone had asked, our great scientist, Albert Einstein - "Why are we here?"

His answer,

"If the universe is an accident, we are accidents. But if there is meaning in the universe, there is meaning in us also."

And,

"The more I study physics, the more I am drawn towards metaphysics."

*We cannot help ourselves without helping others.
We cannot enrich our lives without enriching others.
We cannot prosper without bringing prosperity to others.*
--Nanette Cole

Have you got the answers?

If no, read them again.

If you a theist:

Yes, coming to theist more examples are required. Because many of theists believe on the super powers and everything is pre prescribed. So nothing happens to the beneficiary even if we help them. So let them go on the fate. Some are blindly following the misconceptions for example; if you don't offer... to God then God will curse you? Just think:

Is he a selfish?

Does not he have works to do other than cursing you?

Who is the owner of this universe?

Answer to yourself.

Don't believe the misconceptions and please don't be blind.

Think reasonably, realistically, practically and logically.

In my opinion and belief, God has three fundamental qualities: HE IS

1. OMNIPRESENT

2. OMNIPOTENT &

3. OMNISCIENT

All religions and their founders or followers stress about humanity. A few of them are mentioned here, go through them.

“If we pray, we will believe; if we believe, we will love; if we love, we will serve.”

- Mother Teresa

“Prayer in action is love, love in action is service.”

- Mother Teresa

“Before becoming a Muslim, a Sikh, a Hindu or a Christian let's become a Human first.”

- Guru Nanak

Here, I am not separating you religion wise but I try to give religion wise.
