Preface

Let us understand the Universe!

Q1. Why should anyone understand universe?

A1. To lead the life in peace. Life, is otherwise described variously like :

Treading through a dark premise with ups & downs where we are injured.

A struggle to float in a ocean.

Q2. Why, not many people are keen to know the universe?

A2. There are trillions of lives in the universe. There are all created with a purpose to serve the Creator!.

Normally the lives are under the spell of the great force called Maya. This force creates illusions in the lives.

There are a few who escape the influence of Maya for good reasons! This book is meant for those escapees!

Q3: How do one benefit by understanding the true nature of the universe.

A3: This can be answered through a life-situation that one can easily imagine!

Thanks to Maya, our mind is filled with wrong knowledge and ignorance. This is compared to treading through a dark tunnel injuring ourselves in every step that we put forward.

The truth is like a light that brighten the dark premise.

Q4 After understanding Universe, can one become a saint?

A4: One who understand Universe, become a seeker. That sets one on their journey in the Spiritual path! Needs to travel a long way to become a saint!

In this book we will be discussing the nature of Universe and the lives in it.

PART I

Introductory Chapters

The Man - Maya - Mystics

(The Chapters in Part I of this book will be repeated in most of my writings on Spirituality).

Chapter 1

Life in Universe!

The Man and Mystic

There are several life forms in the universe. Each of which has different life-spans and occupy various extents of space in the universe.

The man is just one among the many.

What do the lives do in the universe?

There are two types of people Man and Mystics.

Metaphorically, the lives run for their creator!

The creator has created every one of the specie for a definite purpose. The lives are provided with knowledge & skills.

For the reasons of effectively controllinthoseg the lives, created a force that limit the knowledge and abilities to the extent that is required from time to time.

There are two types of people among us. The bulk of it, are those who under the spell of Maya.

There are the others, a few among us who are known as seekers! They, become mystics in their course of search for the Truth!

The mystics can be thought of as rebels among us! They defy the control or influence of Maya in order to know the truth. The true form of universe is revealed to these lives in the universe. Those who seek stop their (metaphorical) "running" for their creator.

(The seekers are always small in number. When the number of those who are revealed become large, the creator must be getting troubled)!

Seekers have a role!

The seekers are in small number. They themselves do not run because they cease to be under the spell of Maya. But yet, they are useful to the creator in their own way. How?

The Lives, blinded by Maya, are on the run for their creator. They are injured and their run comes to a halt.

The seekers, known as saints, sufi, sage,

Zen masters heal the injured lives and make them run with their full force.

Chapter 2

Maya the force

The universe has an engine or a power source called Maya!

Every one of us, (the way we are created) are capable of looking at the Universe in full. The Maya, for a very valid reason, through the tricks she plays ma ke us blind to the true form of Universe.

The mystics tell us that the Maya hides the truth from every one of the lives in the universe.

What is that truth that the Maya hides from the lives?

The true form and nature of the universe is hidden from the lives. (Allowing merely a partial, limited and distorted perception of the universe)

The lives, further, are influenced by Maya with falsehood so that they serve the needs of the creator.

It is possible to compare the horses that we tame and use are fixed with blinders!

They have faculty of see but turned blind to serve the need of its master!

Maya, the blinder to lives!

The Maya's are like Blinder that is put-on to domesticated horses. These horses take part in race and also deployed in farms and for pulling cart.

With the blinder on, the horse moves, strictly, in the direction and pace set by its master.

The lives blinded by Maya undertake a metaphorical run for their creator.

Due the influence of Maya, every of the lives believe that they live for themselves,

live by their knowledge and abilities,
and also that

they are born to achieve a great goal!
Maya is the force that cause the lives in the universe to run as per a script, (a predetermined steps)

The Eastern mystics say that there are 60 million (6 Crore) tricks that the Maya plays.

Maya is explained as working in two ways:

(1) Hiding the truth; (2) falsehood as truth..

A book titled Illusion - Maya explains a few most significant tricks of Maya.

Maya can be compared to the Horse-blind.

Maya defiers!

There are a few, among us who pursue the Science, for a living. There are the few who can realize that the Sense Perceived world is an insignificant of the True Universe. These few could benefit from vedic scriptures.

There are always a class of people all over the world, all the time known as seekers. They knew that there is a world larger than what the eyes could perceive. They know that the Veil of Maya hide the true universe from them. They are busy learning the ways of tearing the Veil of Maya.

Maya a veil or Wall?

For most of us, to every common man, Maya is felt as a strong impenetrable wall.

Truly, the Maya can be seen as a Veil that moves some times (say, a breeze) with great ease.

Very often, the veil of Maya moves to expose us the universe, the truth, a little more than what we normally perceive. Either we fail to take note of it or ignore them. Even most of those who took note of the truth exposed by veil of Maya forget them.

Those who take note and remember, are alert and look for the next move become a seeker only to grow into a man-of-knowledge. Such individuals, spend their time, effort and resources to break the wall (tear the veil of) Maya.

Maya won't yield, so easily.

Every life is equipped with capabilities to learn & think so that it can act into the universe the way it is designed. But this capabilities can help a person to break the wall of Maya and thus, become a man-of-knowledge.

But, Maya has her own ways to prevent maximum number of lives from becoming man-of-knowledge.

Man-of-knowledge

Those who became men-of-knowledge, stops the metaphorical run for the creator. They do not indulge in any act that most other lives indulge in. But most of the men-of-knowledge, if not all of them, having stopped running help the lives around them to heal the wounds and run efficiently.

Thus, help the lives of the common man who are injured in their Run for the creator. Perhaps win the favor of celestial entities and get elevated to higher plane of living!

Chapter 3

Knowledge:

There is a different way of looking at people. Classifying the people depending upon their level of knowledge.

There are three levels of knowledge.

(1) Knowledge limited by sensory organs.

(2) Knowledge bordering sensory perceptions and into beyond sense perceptions. The scientists and philosophers possess this knowledge. They, over a period of time graduate to type (3) knowledge below.

(3) The knowledge entirely into a realm beyond Sense perceptible world.

Vedic knowledge on Universe.

Vedic Scripts contain knowledge which are typically of type 3, described above.

This knowledge is beyond the comprehension of any common man. Common man form the majority of the human lives on earth.

The common man can be best described as anyone who lives within the boundaries set by the Sensory organs. The Men-of-knowledge, the saints described every
