" What are you doing in this kind of place, young lady.?" Asked the man.

The young fairy smiled into him and answered." This is the place where I live in".

The man looked around, he saw a butterfly flying around the tree. The man walks towards the butterflies and the young fairy do. The man can't speak when he saw a beautiful place that is far from his imagination.

He was mesmerized by the beauty of the nature. The green leaves of the trees that are swaying with the night winds sounds singing it soothing his heart pain.

And then he remembered that he was driving his car earlier. He looked back from his origin and he saw an ambulance taking a body of someone else, but he never seems to care. He just walked up to the middle of the forest and touch the water well.

"What is this place?" asked the man.

"They called it Tremendous". The young fairy replied.

"Tremendous" Said the man to himself.

The man thinks where did he heard the name of that place. While thinking the man keeps on walking, the young fairy keeps on following the man.

" Aren't you Hungry?". Asked the young fairy.

" I am not hungry but I am thirsty". Said the man.

The young fairy walks towards the water wells and put down the bucket and pulled it up. The young fairy gives the bucket to the man.

" Here you can drink it". Said the young fairy

The man looked at the bucket and saw what's inside of the bucket.

" What is this ?". Asked the man

" A drink" Young fairy replied.

" A drink?, It look's like a rust. I cannot drink this". Said the man

And so they walked again towards to another water wells. And the young fairy puts down the bucket and pulled it again and give the man. The accepted the bucket and looked inside of it again. He saw a red colored water.

" I cannot drink this one also". Said the man.

Then again the young fairy walked toward to the third water wells in their place. And she put down the bucket and pulled it up again and give to the man. The man accepted it again and looked inside the bucket. He saw a blue colored water, he looked around to see if there are any water wells in the place. When he sees nothing but a tree, he decided to drink the blue water that the young fairy gave to him.

The young fairy watches the man with the smile on her face. After drinking the blue water the man decided to go back to his car to get his mobile phone and call his family. When he was about to hold the door to open it , his hands couldn't hold it. He can't even touch the car, he loses his patience and turn around to see the young fairy standing not so near with him.

" Hey lady, what's going on?" asked the man.

" Why I can't hold my car?" He added.

The young fairy clap her hands and the man went back from his past.

The man saw his self driving his car from the bar, he was so drunk that night and couldn't even see the road because of his being drunk. One of his friends telling him not to drive anymore, that he should spend his night with their house. But the man insists to drive home, when he was about to pass in the Tremendous place. He fell sleep and his car bumps on one of the trees.

The young fairy pulled the man back to the present. The man caught his breath as he goes back to the present, he looked around to see the place. It was horrible and every car that will pass by, they made their automobile horn for them to pass at the Tremendous place. Because they believed that the elves are cruising down the road. And the man saw the elves walking down that road.

" Am I Dead?". Asked the man to the young fairy

" Not yet".

" Then why I am here?". Asked the man again.

" You are not yet dead, you are just sleeping somewhere". The young fairy replied

" You mean, I am a spirit?"

"Yes, it was your spirit, who are traveling in this place". Said the young fairy.

The man couldn't believe in what he just heard. So he walked back to the forest and the Tremendous place change into a beautiful place. The man holds the second bucket and drink from it. The young fairy watched the man while doing it.

" I am just a spirit, then where is my body?". Asked the man.

" I want to go back". He added and drink again from the same bucket. The man suddenly felt the pain in his chest.

" What's going on?" Asked the man.

" You see, You want to go back into the world of living. But the futures hold you nothing but death". Said the fairy

" What do you mean?" Asked the man.

" You are the one who chooses death not the people around you. You're being stubborn, selfish and arrogant leads you into death". Answered the young fairy.

The man couldn't believe in what he heard, he wanted to shout but he can't do it.

" The three wells determined what kind of person you are. You choose the last and that is life. But now your drinking from the second wells and it means death. And the first one is the thing that we drink and you never choose it. Now you're choosing death and that would be done". Said the young fairy to him.

The man sits beside of the tree and the vine of tree embraces him. The man screams.

" Hoo! What is this thing?" Asked the man.

Youngest Fairy laugh when she saw the man scared in the vine of the tree.

" I am a tree". Answered from behind the man.

The man runs besides the young fairy.

" You see, here in Tremendous everything is moving and talking. You can speak with them." Said the young fairy. The bird came from the outside of the forest flew over the hands of the young fairy and speak. The man wanted to hear what the bird has said to the young fairy. But

He couldn't hear it. The young fairy nodded her head and then the bird flew away from them.

The young fairy looked at the man and the man walked toward the water wells and touch it. He asked the Young fairy.

" What's going on?".

The young fairy clap her hands and the place change into the hospital emergency room the man saw his family besides his corps. The orderliness of the hospital got his chops and went into the morgue. He follows his own corpse in the morgue, his eyes wet because of his tears. And the turn around to see the young fairy walking behind him, the young fairy watch him crying.

" You choose to die and it is not beyond our controlled, there is more powerful than we our and that is the God". Said the young fairy.

The man ran up to the place where his family staying. He saw his mother and his father holding each other hand while crying. His mom said I'm sorry and his father too. The man cried and wanted to hold his parents but he couldn't do it. Because he is now an invisible like an air can feel it but can never touch it.

The young fairy clap her hands again and they're back into the Tremendous place. The man feels that he loses all of his energy, he sat down on one of the bench before he asks the young fairy.

" Now what will happen to me?" Asked the man.

" I am just staying here for an hour and now I am dead?" The man couldn't believe it.

" Every minute that you are going to stay here is equivalent of days in the human world." Said the young fairy.

" And you are staying here for almost one day". Added the fairy.

" Am I really dead?" Asked the man with his soft voice.

"Yes, and there's nothing I can do for that". Answered the young fairy.

The man nodded his head so that the young fairy couldn't see his face. The tears in his eyes fell down on his cheek.

" In three days time all of your memory will be erased, since the day of your existence to the human world". Said the young fairy.

So it happens after three days the man never speak about the human world. And the man becomes a wanderer of the place. And now he lives together with the fairies, elves and other living creature in the Tremendous Place.
