GECKO on the WALL

Danielle Bruckert

There's a gecko on my wall,
I don't mind him there at all;
Lying quietly watching me,
he is quite good company.

There's a gecko on the rock,
she seems to be wearing a frock;
And I think she is asking me,
if I want to come to tea.

There's a gecko in the pool,
he really does look cool;
Sipping a long cool lemonade,
wearing sunglasses in the shade.

There's a gecko on the roof,
he is acting quite aloof;
Whispering calmly to me:

I simply must get down,
since I have to go to town,
I need to be there by three.

Of all the geckos that I see:

The gecko on a rock in a frock;

The gecko looking cool in the pool;

The gecko who's aloof on the roof;

I like best of all,
the gecko on my wall,

lying quietly,

watching

me.
