FOR GOOD SAMARITANS EVERYWHERE
(AND ESPECIALLY THOSE WITH BEARDS)...

Willy the whale had a bright, shiny blue tail

which he used to swim in the rain, sunshine or hail.

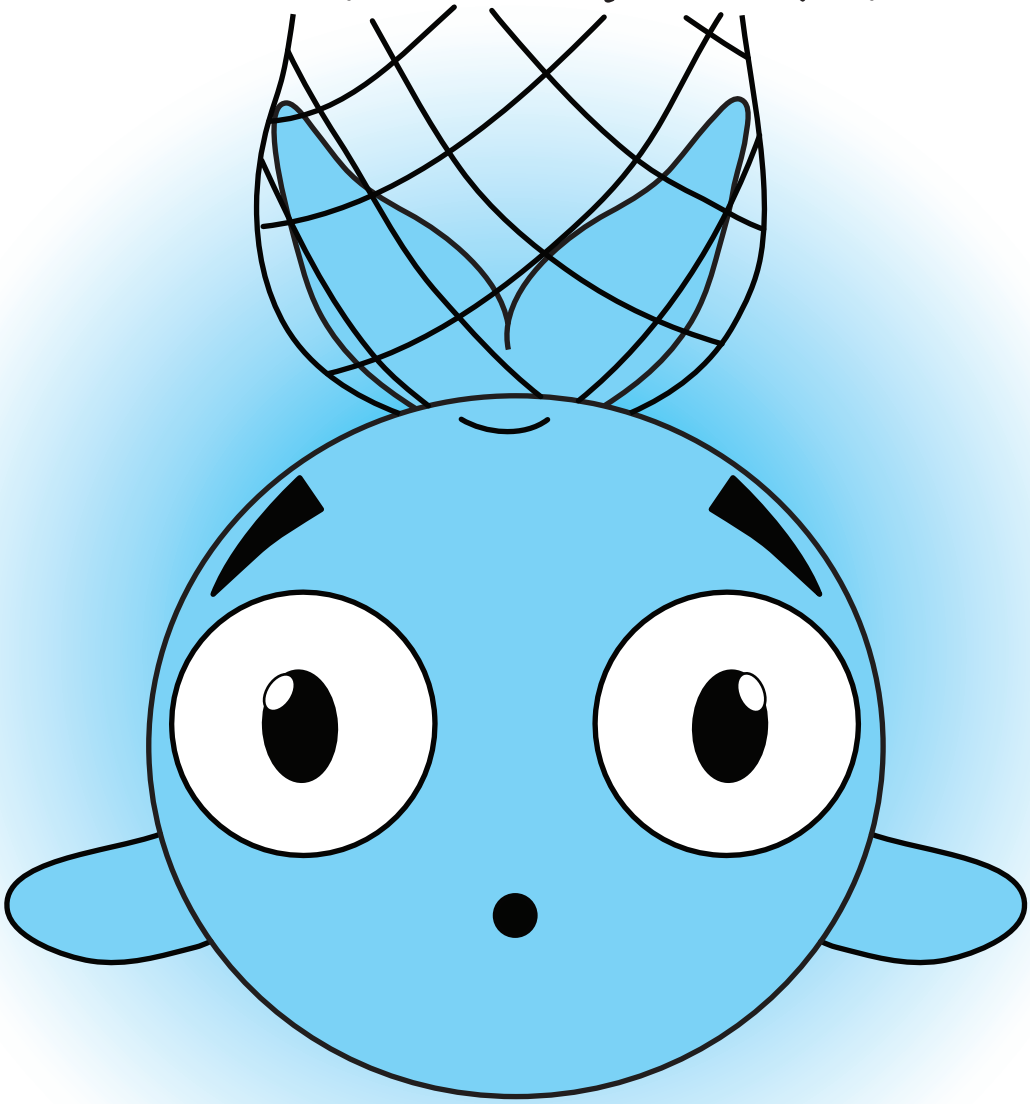
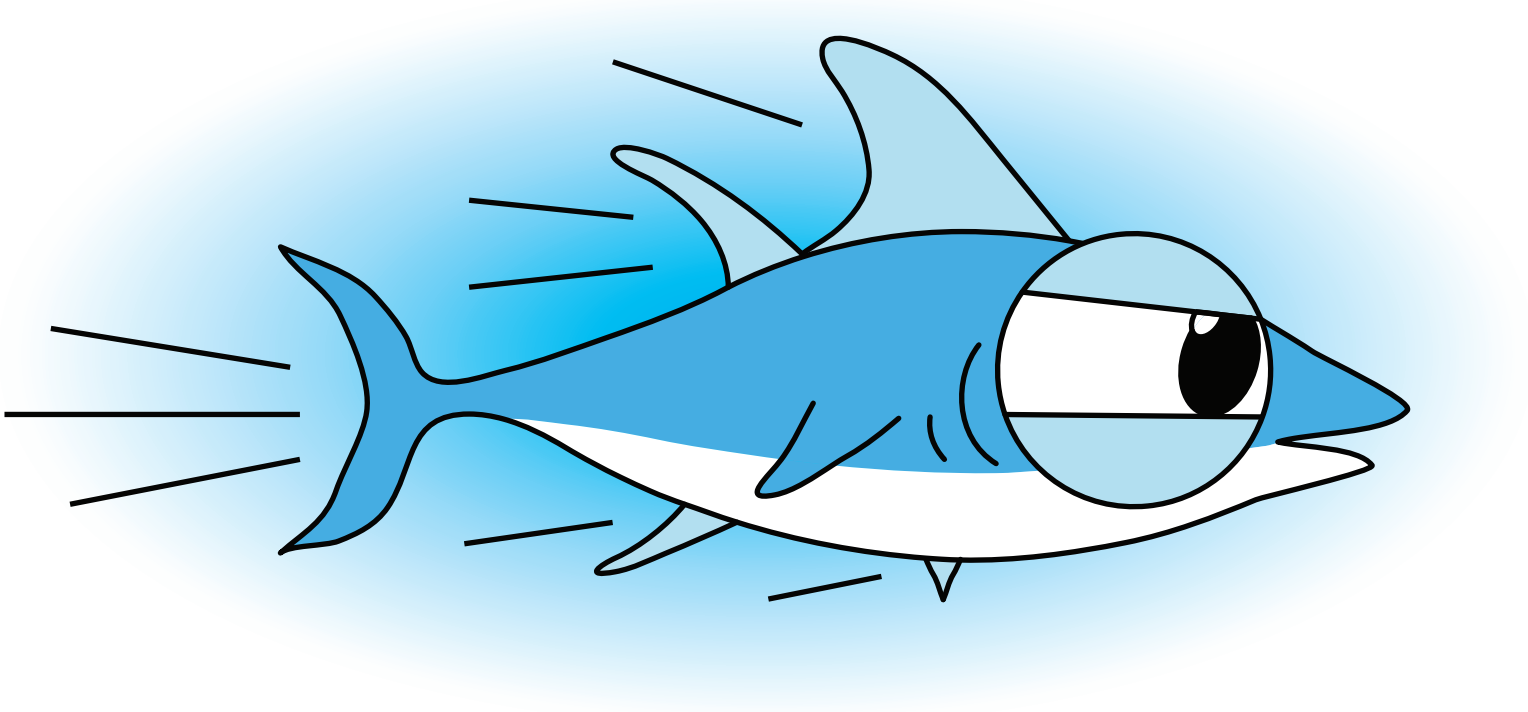
But one day it got stuck-
in a fisherman's net,



So he cried out for help,
like a small, helpless pet.

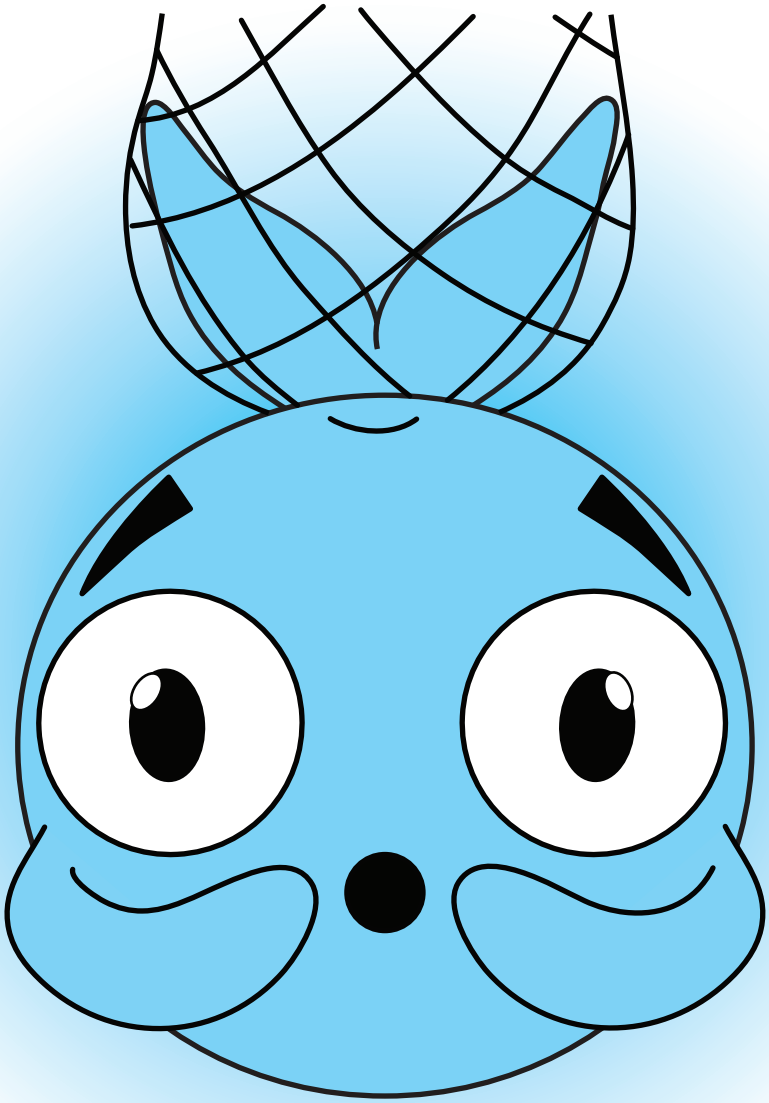
Then along came Terry Tuna,
who was a very, busy fish,



who swam through the ocean,
as if he had a death wish.

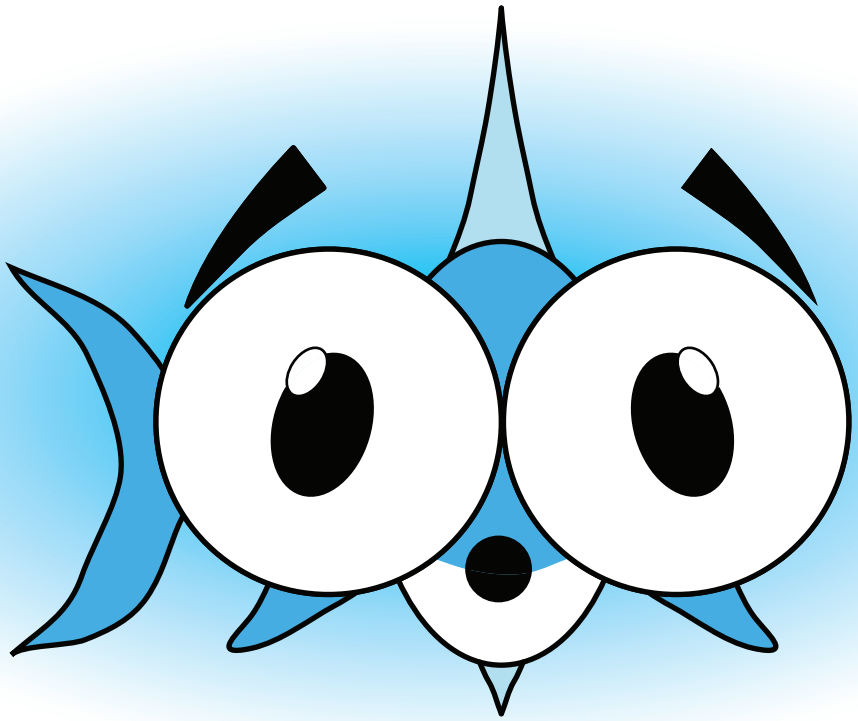
" Please help me tuna! "

Willy yelled to busy Terry,



" Please don't pass me by,
like an old, sea ferry! "

" I'm afraid I cannot help,
I'm too busy to stop,



It seems I was speeding
and I'm now being chased by a cop."

So Terry kept on swimming, with police on his tail

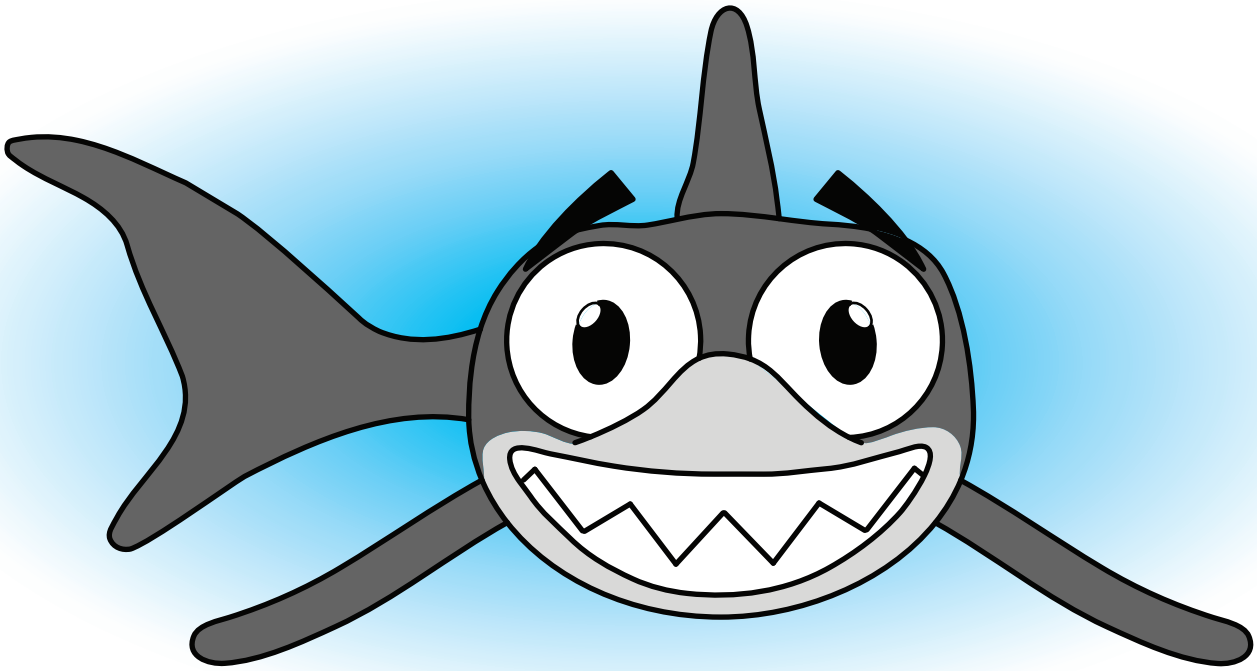
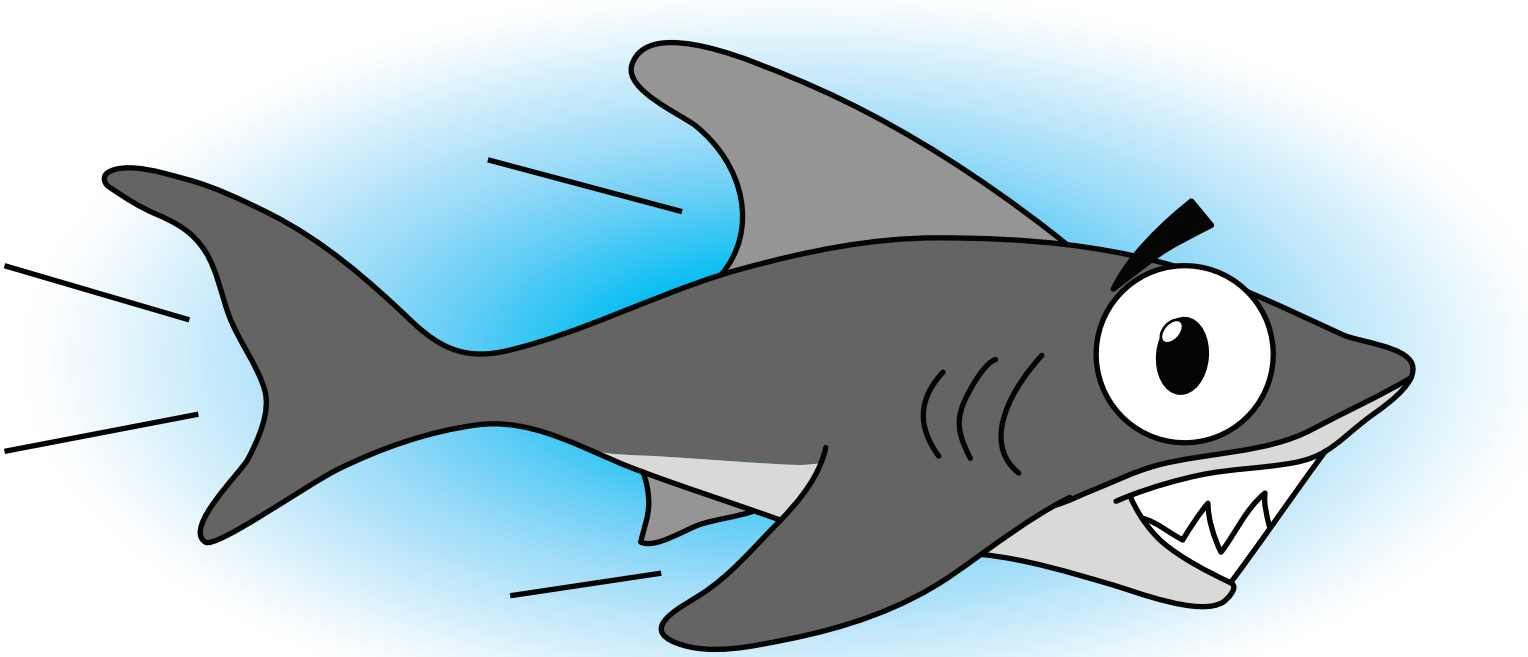
While Willy kept on yelling...
"Please help me- I'm a whale!"

Then Sammy Shark appeared,
with a toothy, white grin,



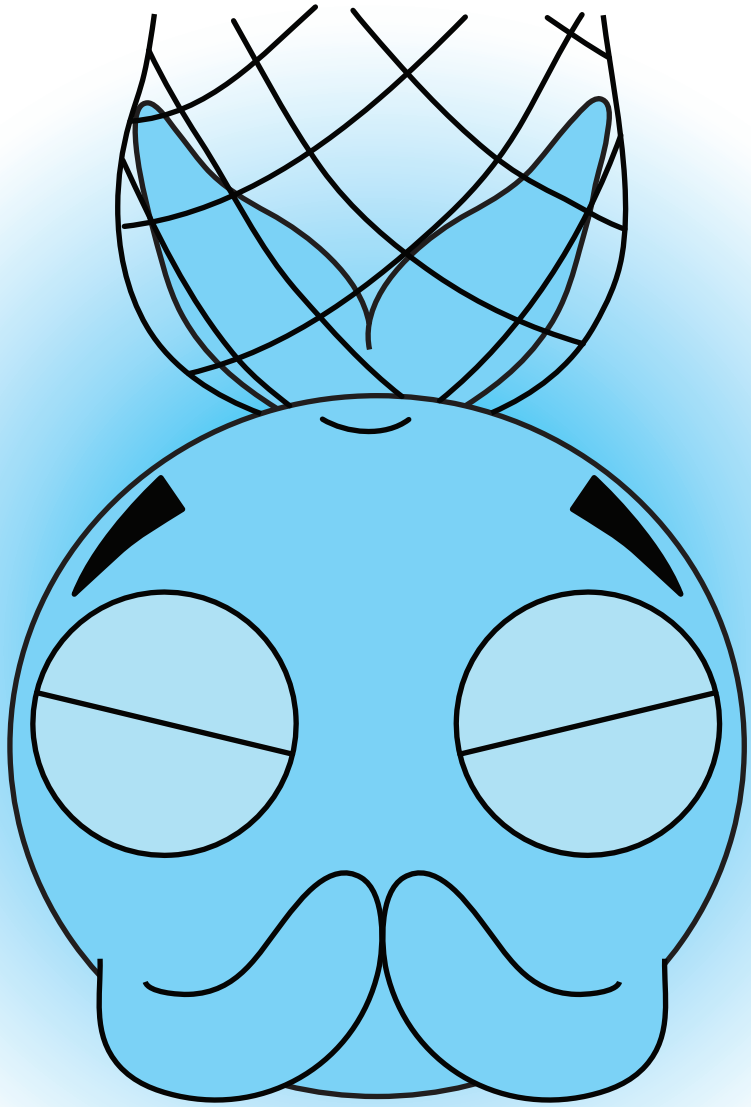
But he wouldn't touch Willy,
not even- with the tip of his fin.

" If I touch you, I might eat you,"
he said with a frown,



" And I just saw a tuna,
so I'm hunting him down."

Alone and afraid,
poor Willy began to pray,



For a friend or a saviour,
who might just- save the day.

Just then, he was pulled-straight out of the water

As he thought that his life was about to get shorter.

Just then he landed, on the boat
of a man with a beard,

Who looked at poor Willy and said,
"Oh- I'm not to be feared."

" Seems you're in a tangle, my wet ocean friend,"

" So let me see if I can help, to set that tail on the mend."
